At times the disease threaten'd to spread from my hands and overspread my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of Cuticura, for sale by our well-known druggist, Mr. Lyons, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of Cuticura, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly,

P. J. Carroll,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
88 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 26, 1878.

The Cuticura Remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC ELECTRIC PLASTERS

For Weak and Sore Lungs, Palpitation of the Heart, Painful Kidneys, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Sciatica, they are the best remedy in the world. Get the genuine.

KIDNEY-WORT

The Only Remedy

THAT ACTS AT THE SAME TIME ON

THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS.

This combined action gives it wonderful power to cure all diseases.

Why Are We Sick?

Because we allow these great organs to become clogged or torpid, and poisonous humors are therefore forced into the blood that should be expelled naturally.

KIDNEY-WORT WILL CURE

BILIOUSNESS, PILES, CONSTIPATION, KIDNEY COMPLAINTS, URINARY DISEASES, FEMALE WEAKNESSES, AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

by causing free action of these organs and restoring their power to throw off disease.

Why Suffer Bilious pains and aches?
Why tormented with Piles, Constipation?
Why frightened over disordered Kidneys?
Why endure nervous or sick headache?
Why have sleepless nights?

Use KIDNEY-WORT and rejoice in health. It is a dry, vegetable compound and One package will make six quts of Medicine. A quart can be made into twenty doses. Price, $1.00.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The circulation of this popular newspaper has more than trebled during the past year. It contains all the leading news contained in the Daily Herald, and is arranged in handy departments. The

Foreign News

embraces special dispatches from all quarters of the globe. Under the head of

American News

are given the Telegraphic Despatches of the week from all parts of the Union. This feature alone makes the most valuable chronicle in the world, as it is the cheapest. Every week is given a faithful report of embracing complete and comprehensive despatches from Washington, including full reports of the speeches of eminent politicians on the questions of the hour.

The Weekly Herald

Political News

The Farm Department

of the Weekly Herald gives the latest as well as the most practical suggestions and discoveries relating to the duties of the farmer, hints for raising Cattle, Poultry, Grains, Trees, Vegetables, &c., &c., with suggestions for keeping buildings and farming utensils in repair. This is supplemented by a well-edited department, widely copied, under the head of

The Home,

giving recipes for practical dishes, hints for making clothing and for keeping up with the latest fashions at the lowest price. Every item of cooking or economy suggested in this department is practically tested by experts before publication. Letters from our Paris and London correspondents on the very latest fashions. The Home Department of the Weekly Herald will save the housewife more than one hundred times the price of the paper. The interests of

Skilled Labor

are looked after, and everything relating to mechanics and labor-saving is carefully recorded. There is a page devoted to all the latest phases of the business markets, Crops, Merchandise, &c., &c. A valuable feature is found in the specially-reported prices and conditions of

The Produce Market.

Sporting News at home and abroad, together with a story every week, a Sermon by some eminent divine, Literary, Musical, Dramatic, Personal and Sea Notes. There is no paper in the world which contains so much matter as appears every week as the Weekly Herald, which is sent, postage free, for One Dollar. You can subscribe at any time.

The Widow in the Ell.

It had been Mrs. Butterkin's doings, letting the ell. Mr. Butterkin had objected to the proceeding, but mildly, as was becoming in the good-humored husband of a "whimmy" wife, so prone to tears that there seemed some foundation for her pet apprehension that her "blood was turning to water." Grievously tormented by nerves, she longed for her womanly sympathy, and on Mr. Ebbeson's decease, nothing would do but his widow should sell her farm and occupy the Butterkin ell; for had not Ruth and she been dear friends from girlhood? After due deliberation, Mrs. Ebbeson came, having first secured a life-lease of the building.

A busy little woman was Ruth Ebbeson, as she had need to be, her intemperate, worthless husband having left her barely enough to make both ends meet. If she would make them comfortable, it must be by her own exertions with the needle. And as she sat cheerily stitching by her invalid mother's couch, Mrs. Butterkin would often run in with beans to pick over or apples to pare, while on rainy days, obedient to his wife's suggestions, Mr. Butterkin did many a neighborly turn in way of carpentry. The two families were almost as one. Indeed, the letting of the ell seemed a providential arrangement for all parties. It was a relief to Mrs. Ebbeson to be rid of her farm; it was well that her mother should be within easy access of a physician. Especially was it of advantage to Mrs. Butterkin to enjoy cheerful companionship; and whatever was of advantage to Mrs. Butterkin necessarily affected Mr. Butterkin.

Thus years glided on, bringing mental vigor to the nerve diseased Mrs. Butterkin. She had never seemed in better health than in that fatal spring when she was prostrated by pneumonia, death-stricken from the first.

"The Lord wills it, Ruth, and I don't feel to murmur," she whispered, with dying grace; "but husband'll miss me, I know. You'll keep an eye on him, won't you, when I am gone, and make him comfortable?"

Mrs. Ebbeson sobbed a promise; but after Mr. Butterkin's bereavement she found the covenant embarrassing, for in this sublunary world of ours a widow who "keeps her eye" on a widower challenges unpleasant comment, and little Mrs. Ebbeson deprecated the speech of people. Consequently, though she conscientiously ministered to Mr. Butterkin's comfort, it was in unobtrusive ways not suspected by him, and hardly realized by the niece who kept his house. The door between the two sitting rooms no longer, as formerly, stood invitingly ajar, but was hasped upon the widow's side. She never passed through it now, save in that gentleman's absence, when she occasionally assisted the inexperienced Esther in compounding his favorite dishes, or surreptitiously possessed herself of his fine mending. With his wife's decease, the old friend-and-early life had ended. They were two distinct households, growing further and further apart as the weed upon the widower's hat exchanged rusty beneath accumulated months of mourning. It could scarcely have been otherwise. The closed door was but a symbol of the barrier which in the very nature of things, must exist between the bereaved Mr. Butterkin and the similarly bereaved Mrs. Ebbeson. When a right hand glove has lost its mate, and it left has met with a like calamity, one naturally desires to fit the remaining two together, if haply they may make a pair, and the widow shrunk sensitively at the thought of the neighbors thus mentally matching herself and Mr. Butterkin. As far as in her lay, she tried to make it apparent to them that the twins were too odd ones, which could by no possibility be mated.

But not so the gentleman in question. That people should gossip never entered his head. If in Roxanna's life-time, to please her, he had done her dear Ruth frequent neighborly favors, all the more would he do them now that Roxanna lay cold in death. And as day after day went by, and he felt more and more drawn to the pretty, cheerful, bright-eyed widow, the simple man believed this was solely for his departed wife's sake. She had been dead but a year and a day, when Mrs. Ebbeson whisked out upon the door-step one warm July morning to shake the table cloth.

"Oh, my stars!" ejaculated she, looking not into the firmament, but straight earthward at her hens, darting hither and yon for the breakfast crumbs. In the midst of the flock bristled two Brahmas, with sullen eyes and feathers on end, clucking for chickens that were not.

"Anything wrong, Mrs. Ebbeson?"

Mr. Butterkin paused on his way from the barn with the milk.

"Only these Bramahs, Mr. Butterkin. I've broken them up, and broken them up, but they will set." (Mrs. Ebbeson had been reared in a rural part of New England where hens never "sit.")

"Well, why not let 'em?"

"In July? Now, Mr. Butterkin!"

"Then supposing you tied red yarn about their feet?"

"Why, they'd peck my eyes out," laughed the widow, dexterously folding the table-cloth in the former creases.

She was sorry the moment she had said it, for Mr. Butterkin at once offered to assist in the gilding process. Why should he not? Yet, as he held the hens, first one and then the other, while she bound about the right leg of each the anti-incubating anklet, she was inwardly agitated and could not help being thankful it was early morning, and they were not likely to be seen by any passers-by.

No such feelings perturbed Mr. Butterkin. He was honestly glad to help Roxanna's friend—because she had been her friend, he would have said if he had thought about the matter at all; and in the kindness of his heart, he presently asked if the chickens' bran was not getting low. He was going to the village; should he call at the mill?

"Oh, if you have any errands, I can take you over as well as not," he added, as an afterthought, and was mildly bewildered at seeing the sudden flush on her face as she hurriedly answered that she had no errands.

Picking up the milk pail, in which the froth had perceptibly settled, he walked away with a troubled expression. He hoped Ruth hadn't any hard feeling toward him. What could have made her color up so! And then it occurred to him that though he had asked her often, he was sure she had not ridden with him for a long while—not since—why, not since Roxanna died? and his own face flushed under the dawn of a new idea. Ruth was afraid the neighbors might talk; strange he hadn't thought of it before. Dear! dear! what a timid little woman she was.

As he jogged lonesomely along in the great wagon which used to carry two, and seemed dismally empty with one, he could not banish her from his mind, and he began gradually to realize how constantly she had been in it of late. What had made her manner so distant these months past? Was it fear of village gossip, or did she really dislike him? He wished he knew; and he jerked his reins, unwittingly wounding the feelings of his faithful beast, consciously trotting her best.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1880.

Senatorial Rejoinder.

Recently some one in Rhode Island, perhaps disappointed in not obtaining an office, memorialized congress concerning the civil service rules as applied to the custom house at Providence. The minority of the committee on civil service and retrenchment, in the senate, seem to have indulged in a little wholesome back talk, as we perceive by the report signed by Senators Rollins, Teller and Baldwin. The minority, remarking upon alleged violations of law, say:

Nor would the senate be obliged to go outside of its own chamber to find illustrations of violation of section 1574 of the revised statutes. Of our own officers, a number of whom come under the designation of that section, "persons honorably discharged from the military and naval service, by reason of disability resulting from wounds or sickness incurred in the line of duty" have been discharged, and their places supplied, in repeated instances, by persons whose only military distinction has been won in the war of the rebellion, against the goverment and the Union of the States. It would be strange indeed if this body should rebuke a collector of the customs, on an unsupported charge of doing what it has itself notoriously done. The example of obedience to the laws may well come from those who enact them, and when they disregard them, their censure upon others, even when maintained by the facts, which is not the case in the instance before us, falls with feeble effect, and still feebler when they condemn others without evidence for what they have themselves done in the light of day. In the words of the memorialist on whose memorial the investigation was ordered, "when those who make the laws violate them, or fail to conform to their provisions, is there a remedy? If so, where is it to be found?"

What became of the bill which the report accompanied, we know not; but if the democratic senators possessed any degree of sound sense they doubtless discovered that they had gone as far in that direction as could be regarded expedient.

The New Bankrupt Law.

At the request of the Boston board of trade, Judge Lowell of the circuit court of the United States has prepared a bill, which if enacted by congress would be a bankrupt law, more economically administered, with more careful guards upon the rights of creditors, and in many ways avoiding the defects in the old law. Judge Lowell's ample experience in the disposition of a larger number of cases under the late bankrupt law than any other judge in the country, eminently fits him, with his long legal training, to judge what kind of an enactment can come nearest to satisfying a want expressed by the commercial interests of the country since the repeal of the former law. The common misfortune however is, that when the result of such extensive experience and signal ability are brought to bear upon a work of this kind, some parvenu in congress, unable to appreciate its excellence, is apt to destroy what he himself could not create. There would be much time saved by congress if it should adopt the bill as drawn by the judge, in substantially the same text as sent to the law makers.

Affairs in San Francisco.

The "Citizens' Protective Union" of San Francisco has issued a manifesto warning the boodlum element, led by Denis Kearney, that the laws will be strictly enforced, and adding significantly: "Whoever would begin riot, violence or conflagration, here let him first count the cost." The manifesto declares that in San Francisco there are large organized bodies of armed men, whose declared purposes are riot and possibly massacre and general conflagration, the actors to be rewarded by the liberty of unlimited pillage. Therefore the citizens have determined to interpose their power, and declare that this contemplated tragedy shall not be enacted, and that the public threats of such wicked and inhuman designs will not be longed tolerated. The union is said to represent the wealth and business interests of the city, including some men who have been prominent in times past in measures for the preservation of the city from the designs of the disorderly and criminal element.

Kearney says it is only the Chinese employers and stock gamblers who threaten to make trouble. He affects to treat the formation of the vigilance committee with contempt, and to believe that they will not dare molest him, but he has made a perfect arsenal of his residence. He has bought a Winchester repeating rifle, which he keeps in his sleeping room, and both his brothers, who live with him, are provided with revolvers and shot guns. Kearney declares his intention of keeping up the agitation, and swears that that if violence is used to stop him, speedy and terrible vengeance will be taken. As counter to the action of the vigilants, he proposes to hold all employers of Chinese labor responsible for their action, and declares his intention of making a list of two hundred names of whoever he has reason to suspect of being concerned in it, and reading it at the sand lots. Every one of those men who do not clear themselves of the suspicion that they are the prime movers will be denounced as assassins, and marked for retribution. Kearney made a brief speech at a ward meeting at Irish-American hall on the evening of the 9th inst., in which he took substantially the above grounds, and attacked bitterly the men who are supposed to be prominent in the vigilante movement. The crowd applauded his threats vociferously.

News and Notes.

The British parliament is to be dissolved this month. The news of the dissolution created great excitement in the provinces. The Post approves of dissolution, and says it is not only in England, but also in Ireland, that the result of the forthcoming election will be watched anxiously. Immediately after the announcement of the dissolution, Parnell was telegraphed to return to England from this country.

The treasury department announces the existence of counterfeit $100 bills on the Revere national bank of Boston, Pittsfield national bank of Pittsfield, Merchants' national bank of New Bedford, Second national bank of Wilkesbarre, Penn., and Pittsburg national bank of Commerce.

Rodney A. M. Johnson, a well known citizen of Worcester, Mass., entered a saloon on the 9th inst., and retiring to a private room, shot himself through the head. He discharged four barrels of his revolver, two taking effect. Death was instantaneous. Deceased was of the firm of Johnson & Basset, manufacturers of woollen machinery, but took no part in the business. He has been insane two months from irregular habits. He leaves a daughter.

Dr. Hahn was cremated at Washington, Pa., on the 9th inst. There was no religious service, the body being merely put into the furnace and reduced to ashes.

On the 6th inst., a man named Gossett went down from Johnville, Tenn., to Tiptonville, with the avowed purpose of killing Richard Johnson, who he had heard had accused him of being a horse thief. Johnson hearing of Gossett's threats procured a Winchester rifle, and when he came shot him through the right breast, killing him instantly. Johnson surrendered himself, but was acquitted. Gossett is said to have been a desperate character.

The game cocks captured by Pittsfield, Mass., officers were executed in the rear of the court house under the supervision of Sheriff Kellogg, with great formality. The clerk of the district court passed sentence on the birds with all the seriousness which the occasion demanded; a number of members of the Berkshire bar met in the district court-room, where a poem, which a lawyer read and is said to be the author of, detailed all the circumstances of the affair, and the sheriff read the death-warrant.

New Hampshire Items.

On the 1st of April the present landlord of the Phœnix hotel at Concord will retire, and J. Madison French will take charge. Mr. French has had charge of the dining room and cuisine at the Fabyan house for several years past.

On the evening of the 26th ult., while the family of Alvin H. Wentworth of Farmington were sitting around the table, a lamp chimney exploded with a noise like that of a musket. The glass flew in all directions with such force as to go through their clothing, and cut several gashes in their arms and legs. One boy received over thirty cuts in his face, arms and other parts of his body, while about all the others were more or less cut in their faces and shoulders.

It is said that the case of Henry against the Francestown Soap-Stone Co., which was decided first, in the circuit court of the United States, in favor of Henry, by the late Judge Shepley, and then, in a rehearing, in favor of the company by Judge Lowell, will be carried by the plaintiff to the supreme court of the United States. The question involved is as to the original invention and use of a patented soap-stone stove, manufactured by Henry, and subsequently made at Nashua by the company.

The dry-house of Dearborn Brothers, at Livermore Falls, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning, the 9th inst., with $500 worth of glove stock owned by Emmons & Edward, and F. H. Rollins.

Naval Gazette.

Paymaster Z. T. Brown, having been detached from the Ranger at San Francisco, is on his way home over-land.

The President has sent to the senate the following names for promotion in the navy; Master Herman F. Fickbohm, of New York, to be a lieutenant; Ensign Samuel C. Lemly, of North Carolina, to be a master; Midshipman Francis H. Sherman, of Missouri, to be an ensign.

Paymaster Theo. S. Thompson has been ordered to the New York navy yard.

The following detachments have been made: Pay Director Gilman, from duty as purchasing paymaster at New York and ordered to settle his accounts; paymaster John H. Stevenson, from duty at the New York navy yard and ordered as purchasing paymaster; Chief Engineer Fithian, from special duty at New York, and placed on waiting orders; lieutenant R. M. G. Brown, commanding the Alarm, to Washington on temporary duty; Chief Engineer B. F. Isherwood, to Washington on special duty.

The Swatara arrived at Gibaraltar on the 14th ult., twenty-four days from Boston. Two severe westerly gales were encountered on the way. The officers and crew were in good health. The commander expected to sail for Malta on February 20th.

The following is a copy of the finding and recommendation of the board of rear-admirals convened under provision of the joint resolution approved Feb. 5th, 1879, in the case of Commander Henry Erben, U. S. N.: "The board, after due consideration of the case of Commander Henry Erben, U. S. N., and examination of the records bearing thereon, are of the opinion that the services of that officer were of such a distinguished character as to have merited some recognition, and while not desiring to detract from the service of those officers (eminent as it was), who were promoted over him, we do not think their services were such to merit advancement over Commander Erben. The board are especially struck with the highly creditable and meritorious conduct of Commander Erben at Pensacola in 1861, which we think had a marked and important bearing upon the success of our arms. It also appears that this officer did good service in the face of the enemy. In the opinion of the board he was unjustly passed over by the promotion made in conformity with the act of July 25th, 1866, and we therefore recommend Commander Erben for restoration to his original position on the navy list."

Shrewdness and Ability.

Hop Bitters, so freely advertised in all the papers, secular or religious, are having a large sale, and are supplanting all other medicines. There is no denying the virtues of the Hop plant, and the proprietors of these Bitters have shown great shrewdness and ability in compounding a Bitters, whose virtues are so palable to every one's observation.—Examiner and Chronicle.

A Windsor, Mass., farmer, who got belated in Pittsfield the other night, took lodgings in the lock-up to save the expense of a hotel, though his pocket-book, which he gave to the police officer for safe keeping, contained $104.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, March 11, 1:30 A. M.

Rising followed by falling barometer, northerly veering to warmer easterly winds, clear weather followed by increasing cloudness and occasional snow.

AROUND HOME.

The lathers in Franklin buildings are obliged to work nights, to keep out of the way of the plasterers, who are rapidly closing in upon them.

The Kearsarge mills have the forty new Whitin looms put up, and with the five hundred other looms are now running at full speed to fill orders.

The St. Mary's Benevolent society have engaged Mechanics' hall for the evening of Easter Monday, when they will have a supper and literary exercises, followed by a dance.

Wm. J. Laighton, Esq., of Brooklyn, N. Y., formerly of this city, is spending a few days here, having been called to his old home by the sickness of a brother. Mr. Laighton holds a position in the New York custom house.

Inspector General Stortevant will be in town to-day, and will inspect the Cavalry in the afternoon and the City Guards in the evening. To-morrow he will inspect the Light Artillery in the afternoon, and the Heavy Artillery in the evening.

New Hampshire is furnishing a big crop of ice this winter, to Massachusetts. The Lynn Ice Co. are cutting at Milton; the Gloucester Co. at Wolfeboro; and Boston parties are cutting at Alton Bay and Madison. This ice goes over the Eastern railroad, and helps to swell the receipts of that corporation.

B. P. Shillaber has enrolled his name on the list of inventors. In the official gazette of the United States patent office, of date March 2d, page 493, Capt. Bob's brother Ben has a cut of a portfolio's stand, a simple, unique and tasty arrangement which cannot help finding its way into public notice and favor.

Hon. Frank Jones is making a business tour in Canada, and before returning will purchase 85,000 bushels of barley for use in his Portsmouth and Boston breweries. This grain is cheaper now than at any previous time for fifteen years. Mr. Jones' brewery in this city will this year turn out over 100,000 barrels of ale.

Mr. Cyrus L. Brown has contracted to furnish the firm of Charles H. North & Co., of Boston, large pork dealers, 10,000 tons of ice. It is to be cut from Milton three ponds, as the ice from that locality is of a superior quality and about the right thickness. A large gang of workmen left here Wednesday morning of this week to commence operations, and will work day and night until the supply needed is obtained. Mr. Brown is also in correspondence with other parties who wish to contract for further supplies.

THE SALARY GRAB.

Mr. Editor: I have been waiting for some days for the assessors to indignantly deny the aspersion cast on their official honor and honesty by the published statement that they made use of their official position to take from the city money to which they had no shadow of a legal claim, and put it into their own pockets. At first I felt confident—I knew—that the slandered officials would hurl the base calumny back in the teeth of the persons who made it; I could have credited the assertion that among nine officials, one or two might be found who would be guilty of such conduct as the late "salary grab," but I could not believe that among the nine not one could be found to oppose so disgraceful a proceeding, or to refuse sharing in the ill-gotten plunder. But hope deferred maketh the heart sick, and the studied silence of the assessors has at last compelled me to believe them more sinning than sinned against, and that the thrifty "circle" over which the late Wm. M. Tweed, statesman, presided, was unique only in the extent and not in the unscrupulousness of its operations. If the charge against the assessors is true, that they deliberately took from the city double the amount to which they are entitled by law, by "abating" their own taxes to that amount, what is to be prevent them from going a little further, and paying their grocery and dry-goods bills with the city's money, by abating the taxes of the grocery and dry-goods dealers to the amount of the bills they may hold against the assessors? Nothing—unless the honesty of the dealers should stand in the way, and they should refuse to be party to such a transaction. I may be laying myself open to be sneered at as an old fogy, but it appears to me that unless there are mitigating circumstances in connection with this affair not yet made public, the very "sharp" action of the assessors is not only damaging to their own good name, but a serious stain on the honor of the city also.

OLD FASHIONS.

TONY PASTOR TO-NIGHT.

Those persons who enjoy a first-class minstrel and variety entertainment can secure about three hours' pleasure by attending the performance at Music hall this evening, when Tony Pastor's Comic Boom will go through a choice programme. The entertainment will include German and Irish dialect sketches by popular specialists, songs, song-and-dance performances, reel, jig and clog dancing, etc., closing with the burlesque "Go west in an emigrant car." Popular prices; see advertisement.

FISHERY NOTES.

The schooner Mary S. Hontvet sailed on Wednesday, the 10th inst., for Georges. On her last trip she brought in 35,000 lbs. of fish.

Great bay is reported entirely free from ice, which has not happened so early in the season for a number of years past. The smelt fishermen on the bay have not done much during the season just ended; much of the time the ice was too thin for safety; then when the ice became trustworthy and the fish bit well, prices were very low; and when prices rose to a remunerative figure the fish would not bite, though they swarmed around the air-holes.

NEWCASTLE TOWN MEETING.

At the town meeting in Newcastle, on the 9th inst., the following officers were elected:

Moderator, Benj. F. Curtis;
Clerk, Charles E. Whitehouse;
Selectmen, George W. Towle, John V. White, George Vennard;
School committee, Moses R. Curtis, (superintendent,) James H. Baker, Gilbert M. Trussell, Nathaniel P. Campbell;
Auditors, Thomas B. Rand, Frederick Bell;
Assessors, Bervanus C. Rand, Charles E. Campbell;
Treasurer, Howard M. Curtis;
Surveyors of highways, Abram Amazeen, Beranus C. Rand; Collector, John Amazeen;
Overseer of the poor, Thomas B. Rand;
Constable, John V. Campbell;
Police, Moses R. Curtis;
Pound-keeper, Robert W. Yeaton.

RYE TOWN MEETING.

At the annual town meeting in this town, on Tuesday, the 9th inst., the following officers were elected and business transacted:

Moderator, Joseph W. Garland;
Clerk, Erven W. Marden;
Treasurer, David Jenness;
Selectmen and assessors, Benjamin D. Batchelder, Charles D. Garland, Olin Drake;
Auditors, Charles J. Brown, Moses Clark;
Superintending school committee, Chas. J. Brown;
Janitor of the town hall, A. H. Hodgdon.

It was voted to raise $5000 for state, county, and other necessary expenses, and $1000 for highways and bridges. Voted to appropriate for schools the amoun trequired by law.

An effort was made to raise an additional thousand dollars for reducing the town debt, but it was not successful, the majority preferring to go on paying five hundred dollars a year interest.

A vote was passed authorizing the selectmen to hire money at four per cent, and to exempt such money from taxation.

The report of the superintending committee accompanied the selectmen's report, and the following is taken from it, omitting names: "Blank attempted the —— term, and probably bears off the palm for conducting the meanest apology for a school ever tolerated in the town. Altogether the term was a lamentable failure. After such a barbarous imposition they ought to be unanimous for a wholesome administration of affairs."

From the treasurer's report it appears that the total receipts were ten thousand six hundred and sixty dollars and nine cents, while the expenditures were eight thousand eight hundred and fifteen dollars and seventy-six cents; the town debt was reduced three hundred and sixty dollars and ninety-nine cents; the whole debt is now eight thousand seven hundred and two dollars and eleven cents.

The town voted to seek relief from the expense of maintaining Newcastle bridge.

The collection of taxes and the janitorship of the town hall were auctioned off, the lowest bid for the former work being $42, and for the latter $50.

Twenty dollars was paid for sheep damaged by dogs. That's just twenty dollars more than all the dogs in town are worth.

NAT.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Mr. Issachar Wells, senior deacon of the South Congregational church, Kennebunkport, and wife, celebrated their golden wedding on the evening of the 4th inst. Their seven living children, (five deceased,) and fifteen of their grand-children, with numerous other relatives and friends, made a large company and a happy entertainment.—Biddeford Times.

The greenback result in North Berwick is accounted for in the fact that sometime since Mr. J. N. Buffum of Lynn, Mass., a native of the town, went to North Berwick and labored on the rostrum and at the fireside in behalf of greenback theories. His former townsmen then believed his plausible statements, and some of the farmers in the back part of the town have not yet learned that the country has been on a specie basis for a long time, and that greedbackism is only an offshoot of disappointed democracy.

The annual town election of Limerick, on the 8th inst., resulted unfavorably for the republicans. The Biddeford Times says: "On the ballot for moderator Ira S. Libby was declared elected. But those of the republicans who saw the votes counted say that the vote stood as follows: F. M. Higgins, rep., 157; Ira S. Libbey, greenbacker or fusionist, 155; and two scattering. Still Libby was declared elected, giving him 159. Of course after such count-outs our folks saw it was of no use voting, and the whole fusion board of officers were elected. The meeting adjourned to Monday, the 15th, to finish up town matters. F. W. Libbey, a greenbacker, a cousin of Ira S. Libbey, was the clerk of the meeting. It will be remembered that Ira S. Libbey was one of the 'counted-in' senators from this county."

At Biddeford, Monday, there was a political earthquake. The republicans elected Charles M. Moses mayor, he having 1118 majority over Strout, the fusion candidate, who was last year elected by a small majority. The republicans carried every ward at this election, and elected every officer voted for; last year the fusionists elected five aldermen out of seven. The democrats this year very generally refused to vote for Strout, and many of them voted the straight republican ticket. One year of a "fusion reform" city government was all they could stand, there being no question that the city has been worse and more expensively governed during the past year than ever before. Mayor Strout was the generous patriot who invited the Pillsbury-Garcelon-Moody legislature to Biddeford, promising that remarkable organization all the aid and comfort needed if only it would emigrate from Augusta to Biddeford.

Political.

The Gardiner, Me., Journal, which until recently has steadily maintained that Gov. Garcelon and his council supposed they were honestly doing their duty, and only applied the law with technical strictness, now gives up, and says it is evident there "was a deliberate determination, amounting almost, if not quite, to a conspiracy, to get control of the state by any means fair or foul."

The Virginia legislature adjourned sine die on the 9th inst., without having passed the appropriation bills.

At the charter election of Middletown N. Y., on the 9th inst., five women were elected on the board of education, over five male competitors. Over one hundred women voted for school officers.

The investigating committee of the Maine legislature, having on the 4th inst. notified Garcelon and the members of his late scoundrelly council that they would be heard before the committee, without effect, on the 9th inst. summoned them severally to appear to give evidence as to the attempt to steal the state, ordering them to appear before seven o'clock on the following evening.

The Worcester, Mass., Spy thus alludes to the threats of the "young republicans," as they call themselves, or the "young scratchers," as they are more generally known to newspaper readers: "Neither party leaders nor party followers like to submit to threats. Their natural impulse, like that of any man in his private affairs, is to resist such dictation. If it comes to this, they feel disposed to say, that if we, some millions of voters, must ask the permission of a few thousand superior persons before we can choose our candidate, the sooner we decide either to let these persons do our thinking for us, or to declare our independence, the better. The effect is therefore to increase the probability of the nomination of either Grant or Blaine by withdrawing from the republican party some of those opposed to both those candidates, and by stimulating their friends to greater exertions, and giving them to some extent the sympathy of others who do not desire their nomination, but resent the form of dictation which the 'Young republicans' adopt."

—Hints on starting a fire—Remain in bed and let somebody else do it.

—Rather a solid snap, remarked the fox, as he put his foot into the steel traps.

—It's a very curious thing that the nihilists haven't tried a kerosene lamp on the czar.

—A dog is one of the most useful members of a boarding-school establishment near London. He takes twenty pairs of boots and distributes them at the doors of the proper owners. When a new boy comes the dog leaves the strange boots till he has distributed all the rest, and then takes the pair to the dormitory door where there are no boots.

—A French marquis on leaving home had a lot of man-traps set in his preserves, to protect the game from poachers, and while the marquis was away the man who placed them died, and nobody knows just where the things are set, and as the peasantry obstinately refuse to avail themselves of the nobleman's permission to hunt on the grounds, the game is being well protected.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Price, $1.50 per Bottle, six for $7.00.

Sold by all Druggists.

Hair Restorer

IS PERFECTION.

A Noble Record; near Half a Century. Established 1832. Improved 1879.

The nature of the great improvement is in its wonderful 'life-properties' to faded or fading hair, and MORE QUICKLY CHANGING GRAY OR WHITE HAIR to its natural youthful COLOR and BEAUTY.

IT IS NOT A DYE.

It requires only a few applications to restore gray hair to its youthful color and lustrous beauty, and induce luxuriant growth, and its occasional use is all that is needed to preserve it in its highest perfection and beauty. DANDRUFF is quickly and permanently removed.

Sold by all Druggists, $1.25 Per Bottle.

Don't.

Don't speak angrily to a child. Don't kick a dog when he is asleep. Don't go back on the friends of your parents. Don't often visit your neighbors at meal time. Don't neglect a cough thinking it will cure itself. (Thousands die of consumption by so doing.) Don't forget Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for it cures a cough or cold in one-half the time required by any other medicine, and is the only medicine known that positively cures consumption in its earliest stages. Sold by druggists.

John H. Browner, a young married man of Brown county, Ohio, has brought suit to recover $20,000 of David Thomas, one of the oldest attorneys in the county, for the seduction of Emma Browner, the plaintiff's wife. The parties are all of high standing.

Maine News.

Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, biliousness and kidney complaints. Those who use them say they cannot be too highly recommended. Those afflicted, should give them a fair trial, and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities.—Portland Argus.

The shipment of beef from Portland, Me., to Liverpool in refrigerators proves a failure, the cargo recently sent out being all spoiled. The manufacture of refrigerators has been stopped.

KIDNEY-WORT

The Only Remedy THAT ACTS AT THE SAME TIME ON THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS.

This combined action gives it wonderful power to cure all diseases.

Why Are We Sick?

Because we allow these great organs to become clogged or torpid, and poisonous humors are therefore forced into the blood that should be expelled naturally.

KIDNEY-WORT WILL CURE

BILIOUSNESS, PILES, CONSTIPATION, KIDNEY COMPLAINTS, URINARY DISEASES, FEMALE WEAKNESSES, AND NERVOUS DISORDERS,

by causing free action of these organs and restoring their power to throw off disease.

Why Suffer Bilious pains and aches? Why tormented with Piles, Constipation? Why frightened over disease of Kidneys? Why endure nervous or sick headaches? Why have sleepless nights?

Use KIDNEY-WORT and rejoice in health. It is a dry, vegetable compound and one package will make six quart of Medicine. If not at your Druggist, he will order it for you. Price, $1.00.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, nor medicine, or doctors' skill, in the time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours, MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 16, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter months, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

New York Weekly Herald,

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The circulation of this popular newspaper has more than trebled during the past year. It contains all the leading news contained in the Daily Herald, and is arranged in handy departments. The

Foreign News

embraces special dispatches from all quarters of the globe. Under the head of

American News

are given the Telegraphic Despatches of the week from all parts of the Union. This feature alone makes

The Weekly Herald

the most valuable chronicle in the world, as it is the cheapest. Every week is given a faithful report of embracing complete and comprehensive despatches from Washington, including full reports of the speeches of eminent politicians on the questions of the hour.

Political News

The Farm Department

of the Weekly Herald gives the latest as well as the most practical suggestions and discoveries relating to the duties of the farmer, hints for raising Cattle, Poultry, Grain, Trees, Vegetables, &c., &c., with suggestions for keeping buildings and farming utensils in repair. This is supplemented by a well-edited department, widely copied, under the head of

The Home.

giving recipes for practical dishes, hints for making clothing and for keeping up with the latest fashions at the lowest price. Every item of cooking or economy suggested in this department is practically tested by experts before publication. Letters from our Paris and London correspondents on the very latest fashions. The Home Department of the Weekly Herald will save the housewife more than one hundred times the price of the paper. The interests of

Skilled Labor

are looked after, and everything relating to mechanics and labor-saving is carefully recorded. There is a page devoted to all the latest phases of the business markets, Crops, Merchandise, &c., &c. A valuable feature is found in the specially-reported prices and conditions of

The Produce Market.

Sporting News at home and abroad, together with a Story every week, a Sermon by some eminent divine, Literary, Musical, Dramatic, Personal and Sea news. (Concluded from last issue.)

The Widow in the Ell.

Turning in at his own gate, a rebellious clamor from Mrs. Ebbeson's henery greeted his ear. Alas for his vain attempt to overcome maternal instinct! Hardly had he left their sight when the clucking Brahmas sought their nest, where the little widow found them bill to bill, the scarlet ankle-ties hidden beneath the straw. Six times she dislodged them; six times they reinstated themselves; and now at noon there they sat brooding over the pile of bricks she had heaped in their nest, winking their small, round eyes at her in lazy triumph! It was too much. Was an immortal woman to be outwitted by a couple of finite hens? The little widow renewed the conflict, but not daring again to lay hands upon the belligerent bipeds, she resorted to the discreet experiment of poking at them through the open window, thus affording Mr. Butterkin, as he rounded the corner, a confused vision of agitated calico dancing about a distracted rake-handle.

"What! setting again, Mrs. Ebbeson?" The small lady, till then unconscious of the gentlemen's proximity, hastily withdrew her head from the window and looked down in some confusion from her perch on an inverted barrel.

"Yes, they're setting again; but it's just as well—just exactly as well," said she, rather incoherently, harrowed by the fear lest she were displaying her ankles.

"Now, now, we must see about this," responded Mr. Butterkin, fishing in his pocket for a ball of twine he had bought that day for stringing the tomatoes, and meanwhile glancing over his shoulder, apparently to assure himself that the orchard was where it should be. He would have liked nothing better than to lift the widow down, but his instinct told him she would prefer to descend by herself, unobserved, and he was a man capable of self-sacrifice. "We'll tie the hens to the fence," he added, presently, conscious of a thrill of delight as he pronounced the "we."

He knew himself better than in the early morning, and could not disguise the fact that he felt a personal satisfaction in entering into even the humblest partnership with Mrs. Ebbeson—a satisfaction evidently not shared by the Brahmas, who, resenting his continued interference, tore his coat mercilessly. It was a jagged rent, from pocket to hem, in his Sunday garment, too, which in Roxanna's time had never gone to the village on a week day; but who was there now to watch over Mr. Butterkin's apparel? Not Mr Butterkin, surely, to whom the distinctions of dress were but as sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal.

"What a wicked, wicked shame!" cried Mrs. Ebbeson, in distress. "But I'll darn it just as well as I can."

"No, no, thank you, it's of no consequence," replied Mr. Butterkin, with manly indifference.

"But Esther can't mend broadcloth."

"Can't? You don't say so!"

Imbued with the masculine superstition that incapacity with the needle betokens idiocy, Mr. Butterkin looked aghast.

"No; she's young, you know, and not used to sewing. Besides, I'm responsible for this rent. Let me attend to it, please."

He removed the garment without a word, his face flushing like mooseberries in autumn. Not at the thought that, since Esther was incapable, he must be indebted to the widow for past favors with the hens—indeed he would have unblushingly declared that this was the first occasion since Roxanna's decease that a garment of his had needed repair—but he felt a reluctance to being dependent upon Ruth for a menial service, when it was now the growing desire of his heart that she should lean upon him.

Seeing him color, Mrs. Ebbeson, out of sympathy, colored too, and such a vivid and lasting crimson that her modesty at dinner mildly chided her for going out without her bonnet. Busy over his coat that afternoon, Ruth naturally thought of Mr. Butterkin, while he, weeding the late turnips, recalled her blushes, and clumsily tried to analyze them. On the whole, he couldn't believe she went so far as to dislike him. And so night came, the mended coat hung in its place, and under the fence the undiscouraged Brahmas brooded above imaginary eggs. Next morning they brooded there still, and there, had they been his own, might they have continued to brood, forgotten by Mr. Butterkin, who, as his late wife often said, complainingly, never charged his mind with hens; but these especial Brahmas possessed peculiar interest as giving him audience with the charming widow. Accordingly, in the days that followed, he hovered above the luckless bipeds like a bird of prey. He bought the latest treatise on hens, and patiently tried in succession all the experiments therein suggested for subduing the will of obdurate setters, Mrs. Ebbeson assisting, as in common gratitude she must.

This without producing the less effect upon the Brahmas. It was the widow that grew restive, conscious of the absurdity of Mr. Butterkin's sudden and ostentatious regard for fowls. She knew the very moment when his heart turned toward her, but whether her's inclined similarly toward him wasn't for her to say till he asked; yet, coy little woman, she gave him no chance to put the question.

And, such is human perversity, the more she seemed not to care for him, so much the more was Mr. Butterkin resolved that she should care for him. Before July was ended he had fully made up his mind to propose, inwardly assured that his late wife would sanction the proceeding, not if she were returned to flesh, of course—in that case he would not ask it—but as a shade she would not wish to stand between him and her beloved Ruth.

Of Mr. Ebbeson's shade he scarcely thought, doubting, perhaps, whether a man on earth destitute of mortal substance could at death attain the dignity of a heavenly shadow. But there is a vast difference between purposing to propose and proposing. Mr. Butterkin learned this to his chagrin after repeated abortive attempts at giving his frequent interviews with Mrs. Ebbeson a sentimental turn. At each advance of his she sped away as shyly as a girl, and in the secure retreat by her mother's couch was unapproachable as if seated aloft in the chair of Cassiopea. In regard to a written declaration of love, Mr. Butterkin would sooner have attempted an essay on protoplasm.

August found him still waiting for an opportunity. He, usually so prompt and unhesitating—the first selectman of the town! The better he loved the widow, the more he despised himself, till one soft twilight, when the zephyrs were whispering tender thoughts to the leaves, he rose with desperate resolve, and strode boldly round to the open door of the ell. Mrs. Ebbeson sat just within the sitting-room, but he was too crafty to enter.

"If you'll kindly step this way a moment," he said, "I've another experiment we might try on those hens."

But having lured her to him, his next words were wide of the mark:

"I came to ask—that is I wanted to know—in fact, I wanted to have a serious talk with you."

She believed in freewill, he in fore-ordination; but his "serious talk" would not savor of theology, she knew. She nervously essayed to confine it to poultry.

"Really, Mr. Butterkin, you take too much trouble about those hens. They—"

"Nothing I do for you, Ruth, is a trouble."

"They're fairly rheumatic from standing in that barrel of water, and, for all that, they're not cured of setting."

"As I was saying, Ruth—"

"Don't say any more about 'em, Mr. Butterkin, I beg."

"I am not speaking about hens, Ruth." Here Mr. Butterkin wiped his brow with his handkerchief, a widower's grimy handkerchief. "I came to talk about you. Don't go. Your mother didn't call. Why won't you marry me, Ruth?"

She gave him a dozen reasons on the spot; but the fallacy of feminine logic being proverbial, Mr. Butterkin was not the man to heed them. At least this I know; before the snow came the widow Ebbeson had become Mrs. Butterkin, and frosty evenings she and her husband might have been seen carefully sheltering two large broods of chickens. For in the end the Brahmas had their way.

Portsmouth Chronicle

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1880.

Cured In.

The house committee on appropriations on the 10th inst. decided to incorporate in the special deficiency bill an item of $600,000 for the pay of United States marshals and deputies, without any proviso or restrictions, and instructed Representative McManon to report the bill at once to the House. This is a square back-down from the position maintained by the democrats in the closing session of the last congress, and at the special session of the present one.

History Repeated, With a Variation.

The following item of history—if it is history—we take from the St. John, N.B., Globe: "A curious historical fact has been unearthed in connection with the present movement in America for the relief of Ireland. It appears that over two centuries ago the position was reversed, and that when New England had been devastated by Indian warfare in 1676, and famine was impending, a vessel was sent from Dublin laden with provisions for the colonists. In Boston four hundred and two persons were relieved by the distribution, and the total number of recipients of Irish benevolence throughout New England was 2,351. The present lavish contributions are a repayment with interest of this ancient debt of gratitude."

News and Notes.

Nearly $200,000 in bullion was stolen from an express office at Sidney, Neb., on the 10th inst. All but $13,000 was recovered.

Both branches of the Connecticut legislature have voted to release from prison Charles W. Clark, who was found guilty in 1875, of murder in the second degree for killing Thomas Washington, and sentenced for life. There were many circumstances about the case which gave it the appearance of justifiable homicide, the act being in self-defense.

Information has reached Augusta, Me., of a supposed murder in a lumbering camp on Moose river, by Jack Hamilton, an Augusta man. Hamilton is now in Norridgewock jail.

Denis Kearney, the San Francisco blatherskite, was arrested on two charges of misdemeanor, Thursday morning, but gave bail and was released.

The jury in the Lewis will conspiracy case, on trial at Trenton, N. J., have rendered a verdict of guilty as to all the conspirators, with the recommendation of Bradford to the mercy of the court. As to Mrs. Lewis, who testified in behalf of the government, what the government will do in her case is not yet decided.

The Charlestown (S. C.) News, in a list which it does not pretend is complete, gives an appalling account of the crimes of the past two months in that state. During that time there were twenty-one homicides, sixteen assaults with intent to kill, and two cases of rape. The homicides and assaults were almost without exception by whites upon whites, or by negroes upon negroes.

Edward Tatro, now in prison at Windsor, Vt., sentenced to be hung the first Friday in April next, has received a letter from his counsel informing him that everything has been done to influence the authorities in his favor that could be done, without effect, and that there is no hope for him. His mother, brother and sisters are living in town, and visit him as often as the rules of the prison allow. He professes to be resigned to his fate.

Hon. Isaac W. Hayne of Charleston, S. C., for twenty years, preceding the reconstruction, attorney-general of South Carolina, and a grandson of Isaac Hayne, executed at Charleston by the British during the occupation of Charleston in the revolutionary war, died March 8th, aged seventy years.

A dam is to be built at the foot of Richardson lake, in Maine, for the Lewiston Water Power company. It is to be 500 feet long and twenty feet high, with thirteen gates. The pond which this dam will create will have an area of forty square miles.

Dr. W. H. Jewett of Norway, Me., who testified before the bribery investigating committee on Thursday afternoon, March 4th, died at the Central house in Augusta, March 9th. He was an active member of both the Odd Fellows and Masons.

The Bangor, Me., Whig says of the boiler explosion by which parties from Milo were killed and injured: It is not thought that young Gray will survive his injuries. Miss Gould was not very badly injured. Mr. Gray was engaged to be married to Miss Snow, who was killed, and when they started for the mill they were some distance ahead of the others.

There was a great fire in Moscow, Russia, on the 8th inst. Twenty-four persons were burned to death, and twenty-nine seriously injured.

Naval Gazette.

The committee on naval affairs of the United States senate on the 10th inst. decided to recommend the confirmation of Capt. James E. Jouett to be a commodore. The president on the 10th nominated Paymaster Ambrose J. Clark to be a pay inspector in the navy, and Master Joseph B. Murdock to be a lieutenant.

The joint resolution providing that a board of naval officers shall consider whether or not it is practicable to complete the double-turreted monitors Puritan, Monadnock, Amphitrite and Terror, has passed the house of representatives.

Ensign Winslow Alderdice having resigned, is detached from the Wachusett, South Atlantic squadron, and ordered him, his resignation to be accepted on his arrival in the United States.

Passed Asst. Surgeon Howard E. Ames is detached from the Washington navy yard and ordered to the training ship Saratoga, relieving Passed Asst. Surgeon A. F. Magruder, who is ordered to the Washington yard.

An Old Settler.

A diver has lately been engaged in recovering the iron ballast, about fifteen tons, lost in the schooner Fairfield, off the northern end of the Salvages, and a few days ago he discovered a large cannon which lies under the end of a huge boulder. It is estimated to weigh several tons, and will be raised at an early day. The question is, how came it there? Probably from some ship wrecked on this ledge years ago, of which the oldest inhabitant knows nothing.

New Hampshire Items.

The law term of the supreme court will be held at Concord on the 19th inst.

The first annual supper of the class of '83, of Dartmouth college, occurred at Concord on the 9th inst. Forty members were present, and the after-dinner exercises, consisting of addresses, orations, songs, poems, toasts, etc., were very interesting.

—Edwin Booth played in Boston the other night, and the Advertiser's critic says: "In the Hamlet we plainly see not only princely grace and refinement, quick wit and delicate humor, dauntless courage and lofiness of soul, but also the extreme spiritual sensitiveness which tends to superstition, the equipoise of a mind which forgets action in the persistent balancing of motives, along and that kinship with madness which great spirits often show, though without any real lapse from true interior sanity."

—A new thing in fire apparatus, says the American Journal of Industry, is the electric hose. Instead of a hose made of cotton or rubber part of the hose, continuing the connection as each section is attached, and over this passes electricity generated by one of the engine's fly-wheels. Connected with the nozzle is a little contrivance by which the engineer can be told, although squares distant from the man who is playing water on a fire, to "turn her on," "cut her off," "step" or "go ahead," or anything else that can be agreed upon, by a signal which is struck on a gong on the engine.

Shrewdness and Ability.

Hop Bitters, so freely advertised in all the papers, secular or religious, are having a large sale, and are supplanting all other medicines. There is no denying the virtues of the Hop plant, and the proprietors of these Bitters have shown great shrewdness and ability in compounding a Bitters, whose virtues are so palable to every one's observation.—Examiner and Chronicle.

—A Tennessee man accidentally shot a dog, and in trying to explain to the owner how it occured accidentally shot him. A coroner thought he ought to explain how he shot the man, but couldn't get a jury that was willing to listen to the explanation; they were kind of shy of him, as it were.

Thousands of ladies to-day cherish grateful remembrances of the help derived from the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. It positively cures all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—"That picture is very well painted," said a critic to an artist, "but why did you take such a homely model?" "It's my mother," responded the artist. "Oh, ah," stammered the critic, "I beg your pardon. I ought to have known. The resemblance to yourself is perfect!"

—The great light "wait" champion—Thomas Edison.

—An old woman of the name of Gordon, in the north of Scotland, was listening to the account given in the Scriptures of Solomon's glory, which was read to her by a little female grandchild. When the girl came to tell of the thousand camels which formed part of the Jewish sovereign's live stock, "Eh, lassie," cried the old woman, "a thousand Cambells, say ye? The Campbells are an auld clan, sure enough, but look and ye dinna see the Gordons too!"

—Mr. Bliss, a conductor on the Rock Island railroad, was only five feet in height, and Mr. Heary, a passenger, was almost seven. Hence, put his ticket in his hat-band and stood up straight when the little conductor came along. Bliss could not reach the ticket even by standing on his toes, and his comical efforts made the passengers laugh uproariously; but, without changing countenance, he brought a step-ladder, leaned it against the big man, climbed up to the ticket, and then went on as though nothing had happened.

"Don't Worry Me

is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

Tony Pastor's Comic Boom drew a fair audience to Music hall, Thursday evening, when an amusing variety show was given.

Another first-class fire insurance company, the National of Hartford, recently represented by the late Mr. A. F. Craig, has appointed Mr. C. A. Hazlett its agent for Portsmouth and vicinity.

A presidential canvass of the republican voters of the town of Stratham present at the late town meeting, made by Josiah B. Wiggin, resulted as follows: Chamberlain, one; "the nominee," one; Sherman, two; Hayes, three; Edmunds, four; Grant, six; Blaine, forty-one.

The sixth anniversary of the Portsmouth Grange was very pleasantly celebrated at Grange hall on the evening of the 10th inst., the attendance being large. There was a harvest supper, speeches, singing, dancing, etc., and the merry-making was kept up until a late hour.

Haverly's United-Mastodon minstrels will perform at Music hall on Tuesday evening next. The troupe numbers forty performers, and includes all the best men of Haverly's Original, California, New Orleans and Chicago minstrels—the pick of four large companies. Seats at Preston's, now.

Mr. Wm. H. Preston, clerk of the Portsmouth Shoe Factory Co., on the 11th inst. informed us that up to date 650 applications for work had been recorded in their office—130 girls and 520 men and boys—not twelve per cent of the whole number ever having worked at the business. It would seem from this that there is need enough of some kind of a "business boom" in our city.

Mr. Sherburne Somerby was in the city on Thursday, calling on some of his old friends. He has been residing in Exeter for the past ten years, and can hardly realize the obliteration or improvement of the old landmarks in the vicinity where he used to keep his livery stable. Mr. Somerby looks hale and hearty, and hardly shows the passing away of ten years since he was a resident of Portsmouth.

About twenty members of the Woman's Temperance League, after their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon of this week, visited Faith Home, carrying with them baskets loaded with good things. After supper a short service was held in the parlor, consisting of singing, conversation and prayer. It was largely through the influence of the league that Mr. Loyne located in this city five years ago, and its members have always manifested a deep interest in the home and the various departments of the mission work.

The Rockingham Odd Fellows Mutual Relief Association, with headquarters in this city, some weeks ago appointed a committee to consider and report upon the advisability of grading the individual rates of assessment on deaths according to age. The committee have adopted a plan similar to that of the American Legion of Honor, one of the best and most successful co-operative insurance societies extant, the risks of which are on the same general business principles as govern stock life insurance companies.

THOMAS MARTIN.

Among well known citizens who recently deceased, is Mr. Thomas Martin, a man whose quiet, straight-forward life was a model of integrity. Though tenacious in his beliefs, he was never offensive in their expression, relishing the discussion of religious questions in the light of the Second Advent doctrine to which he devoutly and enthusiastically clung, and calmly and dispassionately presenting his firmly grounded views, the result of years of honest conviction. The Bible and explanatory works were his constant reading, and many a skeptic, careless as to statements, has been brought up with a round turn by his apt quotations, which seemed stored away for convenient use. Mr. Martin had no ambition beyond living a life of well-doing, content with contant labor and unruffled by the strife for power and place in which many of his townsmen and old associates engaged. Honesty of purpose was always accorded him. No one ever doubted that he lived up to his beliefs, and no man to the day of his death could say that intentional wrong had ever been done by him. He was universally respected and esteemed, and patience and resignation were his effective aids in his last illness. He lived and died on the spot where he was born, on the estate which had been in the Martin name since 1710, full 170 years. He lived a life of usefulness, blameless, earnest, honest, and faithful.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

Bills as approved by the committee on accounts to the amount of $1,258.78 were ordered to be paid.

Joshua Stackpole asked leave to encumber High street for the purpose of making repairs. Granted.

J. Albert Walker asked leave to encumber Market street for building purposes. Granted.

Joseph W. Bell asked permission to erect a lamp post and lantern on Fleet street. Referred to committee on streets.

Charles R. Green was appointed city weigher.

Bill of Howe Call for making out warrants, etc., was referred to committee on claims.

Bills of Robert Shillaber and Dr. Grant were recommitted to committee on claims with city solicitor added.

The yearly report of the Board of Instruction was received, accepted and ordered to be printed.

Petition of Charles H. Mendum and others, for a new highway leading from South Mill street to Mechanic street, was accepted and laid on the table.

The matter of the abatement of taxes by the assessors in favor of themselves, was brought before the board by Alderman Laighton, who introduced the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the conduct of the last board of assessors calls for some action on the part of this board.

Resolved, Therefore, that the city clerk make demands upon each of said assessors to repay to the city treasurer the sum which was abated from their taxes, with interest from the date of such abatement, within six days from the passage of this resolution.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed, who shall act with the city solicitor to take such steps as in their judgment are best to recover said money, and to punish the misdoers if the demand provided for in the previous resolution is not complied with, within the time limited.

City Solicitor Foster then addressed the board in relation to the matter, and submitted the following opinion:

The assessors, if the facts are as generally understood, must have acted beyond their powers in abating their own taxes, for the statute only gives them power to abate "for good cause." Having done what they are reported to have done, they must individually be liable to prosecution for corrupt malfeasance in office, in that they used the power of their office for their own benefit for a corrupt purpose. That being so, they must be jointly liable to indictment for conspiracy to abuse their official power in a corrupt way. In the case of such members as received their abatement in the form of money paid back to them by the collector, a civil action for "money had and received" must lie, thus enabling the city to recover back the amount so paid. In other cases, if the collector's warrant shows an original assessment, and an abatement from that, then—the abatement being ultra vires and invalid—the collector can go ahead and collect it as any other unpaid tax; if the warrant does not show that, a civil remedy for the conspiracy to defraud will lie,—and in either case the city can be made whole, provided the assessors have each of them estate enough to satisfy a judgment obtained as above.

Remarks were made by several of the aldermen in relation to the subject, and the book was produced showing the time the abatement was made, which was done in October, 1879.

The resolutions were passed, and Mayor Sise appointed Aldermen Laighton, Sanborn and Shannon the committee, to act in conjunction with the city solicitor.

CAVALRY INSPECTION.

The result of the inspection of the Portsmouth Cavalry by Inspector General Sturtevant, on Thursday afternoon, was complimentary to the company considering the inactivity which has been general among the military of our city for some months past. The company has been organized four years, and has on many occasions been a principal feature in military and civic displays. They number about forty members, and are officered as follows:

Edward D. Coffin, captain; R. H. Perkins, 1st lieut.; Clarence B. Mason, 2d lieut.; Plumer D. Norton, 1st sergt.; S. H. Gates, 2d sergt.; G. A. Perkins, 3d sergt.; F. Barrl, 4th sergt.; O. M. Bragdon, 5th sergt.; C. M. Tredick, 6th sergt.; O. S. Loomis, quartermaster; J. S. Perry, 1st corporal; H. H. Haun, Jr., 2d corporal; F. H. Marden, 4th corporal.

After the inspection the new oath of enlistment was taken; the laws which were passed by the last legislature, enforcing a better discipline in military affairs, show to the boys that if they belong to a company all orders must be strictly obeyed, while each man is held accountable for his non-appearance on drill meetings and when otherwise ordered,—which is all right. If we are to have a National Guard, let it be so disciplined that it shall be a credit to the state.

The second cavalry company belongs in Peterboro', and are so far away from railroads connecting with Concord that they have been unable to take part in the usual ceremonies of the inaugural of the governor of this state.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Mr. E. H. Hayes, the superintendent of schools in Berwick, is an ex-editor, having very successfully conducted the Union and Journal of Biddeford during the year 1862.

George C. Yeaton, Esq., of South Berwick, is to visit Europe shortly. Stillman B. Allen, Esq., of Boston, is also contemplating spending the coming summer in Europe.

The deputy sheriffs in Biddeford on the 10th inst. captured a twenty-gallon keg of whiskey and one of five gallons, one barrel of ale, and three barrels of bottled lager, from an express.

The legislature of Maine has granted a charter to the Orchard Beach Wharf & Steamboat company, with a capital stock of $100,000. The corporators are Harrisson J. Libby, James B. Libby, John R. Coyle and Moses G. Palmer, of Portland; Eliphalet Clark, of Deering; Thomas Goodall, of Sanford; B. C. Jordan, of Alfred; and John M. Robbins, of Lewiston. This company will build their pier off the Googins rocks at Old Orchard, and it is entirely independent of the one talked of being built by New York parties. Starting at Union avenue it will extend out 1500 feet. At this point they expect to get out beyond the sand, and find a good bottom for the foundation of a pier. The pier is to be one hundred feet front on the water, and will be of solid masonry, thus forming something at which small boats may lay up with safety. The walk from the shore will rest on piles. Work will probably commence as soon as the city of Saco gives its consent.

The Portland Press says that at the town meeting in Limington the fusionists adopted South Carolina tactics, and stuffed the ballot-boxes with liliputian ballots as skillfully as South Carolina democrats could have done it with "Hampton's jokes." Ballots for moderator were printed on a slip of paper so small that it could readily be covered by the thumb. The operator took one of the large ballots which were openly circulated, and then concealed several of the small ballots beneath his thumb, and thus was enabled to throw several votes at a time without detection. When the ballots were taken out of the box to be counted for moderator, ten or fifteen of these ballots were found. It was then decided, after some opposition by a part of the greenbackers, to compare the number of votes with the names on the check list, and it was found the votes overran the number of voters. In voting for clerk a greenbacker was detected in double voting, the votes being caught by the slide of the box, which was shut suddenly before the votes had fallen. It is hardly necessary to add that the fusionists carried that town.

FISHERY NOTES.

George W. Dixon has been arrested in Gloucester for stealing trawls in Ipswich bay, and will be taken to Newburyport for trial.

The schooner J. G. Tarr, which arrived at Gloucester on the 8th inst. from a fishing trip, reported that about five miles southeast of Thacher's island she picked up a dory containing tubs and trawls, oars, a pair of mittens and a few fish. Possibly one of the dories lost by schooner Rover's Bride on the Friday previous, three or four miles to the southward of the Shoals.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

New Publications.

Appleton's Journal for April contains a paper giving an inside history of the Suez canal, that is likely to create no little sensation at the present moment. The figures given of the cost of the canal are in themselves startling, but the revelation of the means taken to secure the completion of the work, of the disaster it brought upon the Khedive, and the ruin upon the trade and finances of Egypt, affords a very extraordinary chapter of history, which at the present juncture should be well pondered. The other contents of the number are of varied interest. A paper on Huth's just published life of Buckle, and an examination of the tendency of new fiction, are the distinctive literary articles. A series of papers by the famous Dr. Richardson, of London, on "Health at Home," begun in this number, are full of valuable practical suggestions. The second part of the striking story, "The return of the prodigal," is given, and "The seamy side" is concluded. There is a paper on middle-class domestic life in Spain; on stage anomalies, with some good anecdotes; one on forgotten aspects of the Irish question; on the religious sect of India known as the Jainas; on a national theatre, and editorials on a number of current topics. Published monthly, at twenty-five cents per number, or $3.00 per annum. D. Appleton & Co., publishers, 1, 3 & 5, Bond street, New York.

These books are very entertaining, and are meeting with the great success they so richly deserve. Booksellers are requested to send in their orders, and all book buyers should send for Peterson's full catalogue. Address all letters to T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW-ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, Mr. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, F. F. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

THE CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle, CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. We will prove this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be cured, and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

New York Weekly Herald.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The circulation of this popular newspaper has more than trebled during the past year. It contains all the leading news contained in the Daily Herald, and is arranged in handy departments.

Foreign News

embraces special dispatches from all quarters of the globe. Under the head of

American News

are given the Telegraphic Despatches of the week from all parts of the Union. This feature alone makes

The Weekly Herald

the most valuable chronicle in the world, as it is the cheapest. Every week is given a faithful report of embracing complete and comprehensive despatches from Washington, including full reports of the speeches of eminent politicians on the questions of the hour.

Political News

The Farm Department

of the Weekly Herald gives the latest as well as the most practical suggestion and discoveries relating to the duties of the farmer, hints for raising Cattle, Poultry, Grains, Trees, Vegetables, &c., &c., with suggestions for keeping buildings and farming utensils in repair. This is supplemented by a well-edited department, widely copied, under the head of

The Home,

giving recipes for practical dishes, hints for making clothing, and for keeping up with the latest fashions at the lowest price. Every item of cooking or economy suggested in this department is practically tested by experts before publication. Letters from our Paris and London correspondents give the very latest fashions. The Home Department of the Weekly Herald will save the housewife more than one hundred times the price of the paper. The interests of

are looked after, and everything relating to mechanics and labor-saving is carefully recorded. There is space devoted to all the latest phases of the business markets, Crops, Merchandise, &c. A valuable feature is found in the specially-reported prices and conditions of

The Produce Market.

Sporting News at home and abroad, together with a Story every week, a Sermon by some eminent divine, Literary, Musical, Dramatic, Personal and Social News. There is no paper in the world which contains so much news matter every week as the Weekly Herald, which is sent, postage free, for One Dollar. You can subscribe at any time.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. ℣ FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen holding the paper before the light.

Price, $1.50 per Bottle, six for $7.

SMITH'S MEDICATED PRUNES

LAXATIVE & CATHARTIC.

Pleasant to the taste; Effective without Griping.

CURE CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS AND LIVER TROUBLES.

They take the place of the nauseating and violent cathartics used to relieve Costiveness, Piles, and inactive Liver. For delicate ones, SMITH'S PRUNES act as a mild laxative; two or three have the effect of cathartic medicines of other waters but without nausea or griping. No bad effects follow repeated use. For children a dose or a prune taken at bed-time acts like a charm. The medication is entirely vegetable and beautiful. Physicians recommend them. Druggists keep them.

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASINGTON, D. C., March 10th.

Several political points have developed within a work. The first is the appearance and healthy aspect of a Logan boom for the vice presidency. Logan has a good many friends in the west, and his name has been mentioned frequently for president. But the vice presidential boom is very extensive for him, from Ohio to Kansas. When General Logan finished his long and really able speech on the bill to restore General Porter, it was noticed that his popularity among republicans was a good deal increased. Senator Blaine congratulated him very warmly on the effort, and this, perhaps, has given rise to the report that Logan is weakening in his third-termism, and after all has not much hostility to Blaine.

But there is another strong reason for a Logan boom. It is found in the antipathy felt for Washburn. It begins to dawn upon the average mind that E. B. Washburn is trying to keep in as a presidential candidate through the Grant movement. The Washburn family are pretty well known for political intrigue, but they are also apt to talk, and it is said that some of them, who are in favor of "brother Elihu," have intimated that the third term was an impossibility. What then? Why, the Washburn family will try to step in and carry away the honors which now they pretend to be heaping up for Grant.

This strikes Logan's friends as a feast they do not wish to be invited to, and Logan himself, who has been ill-treated by Washburn in the past, has no disposition to take chestnuts out of the fire for a family which has grown old and rich on public money. Some of the Grant men are very indignant at the appearance of Washburn in this role, and announce as their ticket, in case Grant withdraws, "Blain and Logan." The Blaine men are not averse to this, I may add, and it makes a new complication which is of great interest.

On the democratic side the only real live boom at present appears to be that for General Hancock. Many are declaring for him, and there is a good deal of talk in favor of his availability. But I notice that Uncle Sammy is still in the field, and determined to have the nomination. If he sticks it looks as though he would succeed.

It begins to appear that the new rules, which went into effect in the house two days ago, will not hurry business much, as it was promised they would do. Still Mr. Randall promises to adjourn by the the middle of May, although not one of the large appropriation bills has been disposed of yet. KNOX.

Maine News.

Hop Bitters, which are advertised in our columns, are a sure cure for ague, biliousness and kidney complaints. Those who use them say they cannot be too highly recommended. Those afflicted, should give them a fair trial, and will become thereby enthusiastic in the praise of their curative qualities.—Portland Argus.

Don't.

Don't speak angrily to a child. Don't kick a dog when he is asleep. Don't go back on the friends of your parents. Don't often visit your neighbors at meal time. Don't neglect a cough thinking it will cure itself. (Thousands die of consumption by so doing.) Don't forget Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for it cures a cough or cold in one-half the time required by any other medicine, and is the only medicine known that positively cures consumption in its earliest stages. Sold by druggists.

As a Cure for Piles,

Kidney-Wort acts first by overcoming in the mildest manner all tendency to constipation; then, by its great tonic and invigorating properties, it restores to health the debilitated and weakened parts. We have hundreds of certified cures, where all else had failed. Use it and suffer no longer.

SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1880.

Fitz John Porter's Case.

The senate on the 11th inst. voted to lay the Fitz John Porter bill on the table, in order that the fortifications appropriation bill might be considered; and it is thought that it may not be again possible to secure consideration of the former subject at this session.

The New York Sun thinks Fitz John Porter has had all the vindication he is entitled to, and says: "So long as the democratic party continues to have senators and representatives in congress their opponents never need despair. It will be a strange spectacle, should all the Confederate generals in congress be found on Porter's side, and the Union generals on the other, with the democratic party thereupon gravely staking on Porter its political fortunes for the coming national struggle."

An Old Claim Considered.

In September, 1814, the private armed brig Gen. Armstrong, of New York, was destroyed by the British in the neutral port of Fayal, Azores islands, after a desperate night conflict between the privateer and the boats of a British squadron, in which the attacking party lost more than three times as many men as the brig's crew numbered. The house foreign affairs committee on the 10th inst. agreed to report favorably a bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to adjust the claims of the captain, owners, officers and crew for compensation growing out of the said destruction, and to pay to the heirs of the parties named the amounts found to be due them.

News and Notes.

A baby elephant was born in the stables at Philadelphia of Cooper & Bailey, the circus men, on the 10th inst. This is the first recorded instance of reproduction by elephants in captivity, and attracts considerable attention from scientific men.

By a boiler explosion in a flax mill at Frankfort, Ind., on the 11th inst., ten men—all there were in the building—were killed. Several of the bodies were torn to pieces. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

The following is the income per day of the principal sovereigns of Europe: Queen Victoria, $6,300; the emperor of Russia, $25,000; the emperor of Austria, $10,000; the emperor of Germany, $8,000; the sultan, $18,000; the king of Italy, $6,400; and the king of the Belgians, $1,640. The president of the French republic enjoys a salary of $500 a day. The salary of the president of the United States, though he presides over a wider expanse of territory and equal population of all except Russia, is just about $137 per day.

The store of R. A. Spaulding & Co., dry goods dealers, of Lynn, Mass., was entered Wednesday night, the 10th inst., and from $2,000 to $3,000 worth of silks stolen. There is no clue to the thieves.

The Rhode Island house of representatives on Thursday passed a bill repealing the law prohibiting intermarriages between whites and colored persons.

A sorry trick was played on a confiding New Britain, Conn., farmer living three miles out of town, by a well dressed stranger, the other day, who called at the door to tell him that a box directed to him was lying at the city express office, and that it would be necessary for both him and his wife to go down and sign the receipt before it could be delivered. And so they went, shutting up the house, but found no box. But they did find on their return that their home had been robbed of considerable property.

On February 28th Lieuts. Conline and Stark of the Fifteenth Infantry, in command of thirty men of the Ninth Cavalry, struck a band of about thirty hostile Indians in Amoms canon, in the southeast corner of the Sacramento mountains, New Mexico. Lieut. Conline with twenty men attacked the camp, and, after a brief encounter, drove out the Indians, capturing and burning their equipage, while Lieut. Stark with ten men surrounded the Indian stock, capturing the entire herd—sixteen horses and fifteen mules. The men returned with the captured stock to Fort Stanton on the 3d inst. The Indians are supposed to have been a part of Victoria's band.

Hiram B. Foster's farm house, four miles north of St. Albans, Vt., was entered early Sunday morning, the 7th inst., and robbed of $112 in money, with notes and papers of much greater value. The thief in leaving the premises disturbed Mr. Foster, who awoke to find the doors open and his pocketbook missing. A light now enabled Mr. Foster to trace the footsteps of the burglar to the village, where he aroused the sheriff, and both proceeded to a house where the tracks led, and where a young man named Fred Jordan boarded. Proceeding to his sleeping room, the sheriff found in his vest pocket the plunder that he had secured a few hours previous. The youthful burglar was taken to jail, and bound over for trial to the county court in the sum of $500. Failing to obtain bail he was committed to jail.

The English financial budget, presented on the 11th inst., shows that the revenue this year yields £2,195,000 less than estimated, leaving a deficit of £3,356,000. The chancellor of the exchequer claims that the results of six years' tenure of office by the present government, would be a reduction of the funded debt by £20,342,000.

Joseph Bolduc, the French Canadian now in the Maine state prison on a life sentence for the murder of James J. Norris of Bradley, Me., has made a full confession. He tells how he killed Norris with an axe, plundered his pockets, and with the keys which he secured rifled the safe in the sawmill of which Mr. Norris was agent. The confession shows Bolduc's crime to have been a deliberately-planned, cold-blooded murder of a man who had many times befriended the assassin.

The Hon. John A. Cuthbert of Mobile, Ala., is still practicing law in that city, although ninety-one years old. He was an officer in the war of 1812, and was elected to congress from Georgia in 1819.

John Cox, the Pennsylvania abolitionist, whose house before the war sometimes concealed as many as twenty runaway slaves in one night, and whose golden wedding was celebrated in verse by Whittier and Bayard Taylor, has just died at the age of ninety-four years.

The Dennis family at Beaucup, Ill., found bits of glass in the sausage at breakfast, and that day the children's teeth crunched powdered glass in their luncheon at school. The mother confessed that, wishing her relatives to die in the most horrible manner possible, she had planned to kill them with glass.

New Hampshire Items.

A peculiar and very dangerous accident occurred to Mrs. James Webster of Sandwich a few days since. While working in her ear with a pin it slipped and it is supposed to have been incendiary. Loss estimated at from $6,000 to $8,000; insured $5,800.

The dwelling house, barns, hay, grain, stock, farming tools and household furniture of Samuel Noyes of Landaff were totally destroyed by fire on the night of the 10th inst.; the fire took in the barn, into ear. Several doctors failed to extract it, as it has turned round in her head. Inflamation has set in, and unless she is relieved soon it will prove fatal.

Edward A. Gale, twenty-eight years old, a resident of Sanbornton, shot himself through the head on the 11th inst. His wife left him one year ago, and had made an application for a divorce. Gale called upon her on the 11th, and trying to induce her to live with him again, which she refused to do, shot himself as above stated, injuring himself fatally.

Naval Gazette.

Master W. C. Cowles is ordered to duty at the hydrographic office at Washington on the 25th inst.

Boatswain Wm. Long is detached from the New York navy yard, and placed on sick leave.

Passed Assistant Engineer C. J. McConnell is detached from the Norfolk navy yard, and granted six months' leave with permission to leave the United States.

Passed Assistant Engineer G. W. Baird is ordered to duty in charge of the machinery of the iron-clad steamer Montauk, at the Washington navy yard.

Capt. Walter W. Queen is detached from the navy yard at New York, and ordered to command the Trenton on the European station.

Imprisonment and Starvation.

A most singular case of imprisonment and slow starvation, which, in these days, in a crowded city and on a public thoroughfare, seems almost incredible, was brought to light in Charleston, S. C., a few days ago by a municipal sanitary inspector, named Poulnot, while engaged in his official rounds. It appears from his statement that he inspected a house in Wall street, belonging to a spinster lady, named Happoldt, whose mysterious retirement had caused much talk in the neighborhood. The premises, which were occupied by negroes, presented a most filthy appearance, and the inspector consequently made a more than usually rigid examination. All but one of the rooms were readily shown, but neither persuasion nor threats could induce the negroes to open a door leading into one of the back rooms. Finding words of no avail, Poulnot forced an entrance, and found himself in a badly-lighted, filthy apartment, in one corner of which he discovered the crouching figure of a white woman, whose semi-nude appearance, emaciated features and sunken eyes told a tale of unutterable misery. Her story, though exceedingly strange, seems to be sustained by facts. She said that the negroes found on the premises were her former tenants, who, about two years ago, deprived her of her clothing and locked her up in the room in which she was found. From time to time they supplied her with such scant articles of wearing apparel as would scarcely cover her nakedness, and the food daily furnished was scarcely enough to sustain life, and of the coarsest quality. A constant watch was kept over her, but otherwise she was kindly treated. The matter was promptly reported to the city authorities, and several kind-hearted ladies took charge of the unfortunate lady, whose family was quite wealthy before the war. Her troubles have somewhat affected her mind, and though only thirty-two years of age, she has the appearance of fifty. She declined to enter a complaint against her late jailers, and they were consequently merely ejected from the premises and allowed to go at large. The sole reason given for their conduct was, that they wanted to save house-rent.

The Greenback Candidate.

Stephen Decatur Dillaye, the only candidate as yet nominated for the presidency, is now a resident of Uniontown, N. J., and was a greenback nominee for state senator last fall. Under the Buchanan administration he was a custom house official in New York city, having been appointed from Syracuse, where he was a lawyer and a local hunker politician. While in New York he edited a democratic paper, which soon snuffed itself out. It is remembered that he then assailed in his paper Col. Hart, who was the surveyor of the port, and retaliated by pounding with a big hickory stick the present candidate for the presidency.

—A boy, after hearing Wendell Phillips lecture, asked his father: "Pa, why don't they give him an office—he seems to know all about everything?" "He can make more lecturing," said the father, absent-mindedly. This was the youth's first lesson in patriotism.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has been fondly devoted her time and talents as a female physician and nurse, principally among children. She has specially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactress of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 2

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, March 13, 1:30 A. M.

Falling preceeded by higher barometer, northerly veering to warmer westerly winds, clear or partly cloudy weather.

AROUND HOME.

Haverly's United-Mastodon minstrels will give an entertainment in Music hall on Tuesday evening next.

On Wednesday evening next Bartley Campbell's great play, the "Galley slave," illustrating life in the "American colony" at Paris, will be given at Music hall. See adv't.

On Friday Mr. Josiah P. Randall got a fall of fourteen feet, and a cold bath, by a ladder slipping to one side when he was going ashore—or attempting to go ashore—from the schooner Nettie Adams.

See list of new books just added to the Portsmouth circulating library, at Willis G. Myers' bookstore. All the best publications of the day are promptly added to this library, and the standard works can always be found there.

Mr. Orrin D. Green, of Hampton Falls, had his left hand so badly injured on the 6th inst. by the premature explosion of a blasting charge which he was engaged in tamping, that he had to have the thumb and two fingers amputated. His face was also damaged, and it was at first feared he would lose one eye.

The plan of reserved seats to the lecture of Gen. Chamberlain on the "Battle of Gettysburg," to be given in aid of the charity fund of Storer Encampment, G. A. R., on Friday evening next, will be displayed at Preston's drug store on Monday morning at nine o'clock. Reserved seats only thirty-five cents.

Market street was lined on Friday with teams, loaded with potatoes for Mathes & Hayes, fourteen hundred barrels of which fruit will be sent to the Philadelphia market by the parties named. Of the many thousands of barrels of apples bought by this firm last fall, they have now on hand only three hundred barrels of russets.

A question often put now is, "what influence is keeping up the stock of the Eastern railroad?" The Wall Street News, an authority on such subjects, has recently answered the query thus: "We venture to assert (regardless of the frequent contradictions of the Boston & Maine railroad officers) that the road will be morally absorbed by the Boston & Maine railroad. Don't look for any more cheap Eastern stock."

Ed. Chronicle: Some person with a keen relish for Attic wit, took the occasion of a recent absence from town, to advertise the fact; and stigmatize me with the epithet "Prof." While I should regard any friendly insertion—although unsolicited—in the light in which it is proffered, I had supposed the fact to be sufficiently on record that I do not consider myself in the class of ambitious juveniles who write themselves nesse by the assumption of cheap titles by way of of substitute for practical knowledge of the profession. That I am a musician is my misfortune; which circumstance alone, should entitle me to the sympathy which a generous public is ever ready to extend to the down-trodden and obscure.

EDWIN A. TILTON.

Wm. H. Hacket, Esq., of Portsmouth, gave an able and instructive lecture to our citizens on Wednesday evening of last week, in the First parish chapel. The house was well filled with an interested and appreciative audience. Mr. Hackett's subject was "Travel abroad," and in its discussion he gave many life-like glimpses of what he saw in Ireland, Scotland, England and the continent, during a rapid tour in the summer of 1879. Mr. Hackett is a keen observer, a ready writer and an easy speaker, and his graphic descriptions, interspersed with wit and humorous incidents, held the close attention of the hearers to the close. The proceeds of the lecture were generously given for the benefit of the First parish Sabbath school.—Dover Enquirer.

COMPANY INSPECTIONS.

It is said that the Portsmouth Guards lost reputation on their inspection Thursday evening. "All play and no work" makes dull boys, even more than all work and no play does.

The Light Artillery company was inspected by General Sturtevant at the arsenal on South street, Friday afternoon. The company turned out twenty-five officers and men, which for an afternoon inspection was doing very fairly. The inspecting officer found the uniforms, equipments and guns of the battery in fine condition, and will recommend that the arsenal be put in thorough repair in accordance with plans submitted by Capt. Sides some time since, and for carrying out which money was appropriated by the legislature at its last session.

The inspection of the Heavy Artillery took place in Congress hall, Friday evening, and the company made its usual fine appearance and displayed commendable proficiency in drill. This company will shortly be uniformed in the style adopted for the New Hampshire National Guard.

Gen. Sturtevant received much attention from our local militia officers during his stay in this city.

FISHERY NOTES.

The schooner Una, Hale master, arrived at this port Thursday evening with about 5000 lbs. of Haddock; the catch was shipped to Boston.

The catch of fish by the vessels sailing out of this port has for a week past been very light, 1500 lbs. being about the average fare of a schooner.

The case of Elisha Crowell vs. C. F. Matteage and others of New York, for infringing on his patent for curing fish, has gone for defendants by default, Crowell being cast in costs. This is a practical reversion of the verdict rendered in Boston about two months ago, and reported by us at the time, in which Crowell was sustained as against certain Cape Cod parties who had dressed fish for curing according to his patent, removing the inner skin when the curing was partially completed, thereby as Crowell claims obviating the ordinary unpleasant smell of cured fish.

George W. Dixon, master of the fishing schooner Flora Temple, of Gloucester, was before the police court in Newburyport on Friday, charged with stealing the trawls and gear of schooner Gipsy Queen, Perkins master, of Newburyport. The trawls were stolen some weeks ago from the fishing grounds just outside of Newburyport bar, and the vessel whose crew were the thieves was seen, and it is alleged was recognized as the Flora Temple. This contemptibly mean practice—a trawl stealer is about on a par with a door-mat thief—has been carried on this winter more than ever before, though such depredations of the fishermen on each other have been common for six or seven years past; and every honest fishermen, in defence of the good name of his profession as well as of his own property, should do all in his power to break up the nefarious business. Dixon was held for trial in a higher court, and it is to be hoped that if he is proved guilty he will get the full extent of the punishment which the law allows. Confound a sneak thief, anyway.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The influenza is very prevalent in the western part of York county.

Old Orchard beach is to have a folio five-column daily paper during the coming season.

Mr. Horace McIntire, the noted sportsman of York, thinks the foxes in that region must have materially increased in number this season, as he has killed but one.

The silver wedding of Rev. Mr. Freeman, the Methodist Episcopal clergyman of Kennebunkport, and wife, was celebrated Feb. 25th. An original poem, written for the occasion by H. C. Lovell of Kittery, was finely read by Rev. L. Chase.

On the second inst., at Kittery, while Fred Hutchings, son of Mr. Charles Hutchings, was playing with a pistol—probably of the "unloaded" variety—the weapon went off and shattered the forefinger of his hand. Doctor Johnson and Guptil amputated the wounded finger.

N. K. WALKER & SON.

WHIPS All kinds, cheap, at LARRABEE'S 36 Congress Street, up-stairs.

Fashionable Fancies.

Cream-color will be much worn this spring.

Persian colors are shown in lace for trimmings.

Peloucines will be worn with plain skirts of velvet or corduroy.

Polo caps to match ulsters are worn by young ladies when travelling.

Gold and silver embroidered lace will be much used in millinery.

Medium shades of wood color and gray are received for kid gloves.

Creamy white bonnets are more worn than any others for full dress.

The newest Breton lace has the design darned in with silk instead of thread.

Wide scarfs of thick, soft silk are worn, fastened Sultana fashion below the waist.

Banged hair is out of style, except for small children and weak minded girls.

Sprays and wreaths of mignonette, most natural in appearance, are among the new artificial flowers.

Pictures of jet animals are the latest headings for fancy papers; cats, especially, set for their pictures in every position of ease and grace.

A square kerchief of India muslin with a wide hem and an edging of Langnedoc lace is worn around the neck, either in the house or street.

The gossamer waterproof steadily increases in popularity, and leading merchants report their sales as having doubled during the past year.

A novelty is kid gloves for gentlemen is the Foster glove, in Vesuvius shades, i. e. flame colors, while for ladies mastic and pretty tints are preferred.

The round satin-covered fan is now surrounded with downy feathers. Very small fans are in the style, with the handles very much elongated.

Japanese fans become smaller and smaller, and are now seen no larger than the palm of one's hand, and in all sorts of grotesque shapes and designs.

Small shoulder capes will be worn again this summer. They give an attractive finish to organdie suits intended for outdoor wear, but not so pretty as the fichus after all.

Wide-trimmed Tuscan straws will occupy the place in summer millinery that the fur felt hat has done the past winter. They will be pinched into all shapes as were the felts.

Flowers are now worn on the left side of muslin and lace fichus, and the spray extends to the back of the neck when worn, while a large bunch of larger buds is placed low down in front.

A Dresden china wall-pocket is in the semblance of three fans; one partly closed and with handle pointing upward forms the back; the other two, overlapping each other, the front and sides.

Double and triple collars are not only used for confections, but for suits also. Sometimes the upper part of the waist consists of a kind of inserted puffing of faille or satin, which trims the square opening in the neck, and the double collar is placed around this opening.

The newest idea in handsome embroidery for house decoration is Utrecht velvet, with the whole stamped pattern covered with silk embroidery, or after the many styles of cretonne work, with leaves and flowers outlined and veined with silk.

Fraises are larger and fuller than any yet introduced, and are finished with a knife-pleating of lace that lies flat around below the neck, while the ribbon dog-collar is tied close about the throat. Many fichus are made with fraises also, while those that have not this finish are now fastened very low down on the corsage.

White shoes are worn with colored dresses, the stockings being embroidered to match the skirt, or having Valenciennes lace let in. The embroidery on boots and shoes is ever on the increase. But newer than all are silver anklets which some women are found hardy enough to wear. They are copied from eastern patterns.

The latest Parisian coiffure for young girls under fifteen is to crimp the whole of the hair, brush it out smoothly and then braid it in one long pleat or braid, fastened at the nape of the neck with a soft ribbon bow. Another bow is placed some distance below, around the braid, and the hair below the final bow is arranged in light curls.

Thousands of ladies to-day cherish grateful remembrances of the help derived from the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. It positively cures all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

For week ending Wednesday, March 10.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

Amount of stock at market—Cattle 2826; sheep and lambs 6600; swine 2000; number western cattle 2400; eastern cattle 121; milch cows and northern cattle 215.

Prices of beef cattle per 100 lbs live weight—Extra quality $5.50 and $6; first quality $5 and $5.37½; second quality $4.50 and $4.87½; third quality $4 and $4.37½; poorest grades of cows, oxen, bulls, &c., $3.50 and $3.87½.

Brighton Hides 7½c per lb; Brighton tallow 5 and 5½c per lb; country hides 7 and 7½c per lb; country tallow 4½ and 4½c per lb. Calf skins 11½c per lb; sheep and lamb skins $2 and $3 each.

The supply of cattle from the west was of a better grade than those in one week ago. Cattle cost higher at the west, but the trade has not improved any, and prices upon all grades remain unchanged. Quite a large number of the best beeves were bought up by parties for shipment to England at prices ranging from 5¼ and 6c per lb live weight. There were but a few lots of cattle sold to butchers at more than 5½c per lb live weight, the lower portion of sales ranging at 5 and 5½c per lb. The supply from Maine was light and consisted principally of milch cows and working oxen. We did not notice any beeves among them.

Working Oxen—Not a very active demand for them and a lighter supply in market than has been of late. We quote sales of 1 pr, girth 7 ft, live weight 3100 lbs, at $185; 1 pr, girth 7 ft 6in, live weight 3200 lbs, $150; 1 pr, coarse ones, girth 7 ft, live weight 3000 lbs, at $175; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 11 in, live weight 2600 lbs, $110 per pr; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 4 in, live weight 2300 lbs, $100; 1 pr, girth 6 ft, live weight 2000 lbs, $75; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 4 in, live weight 2200 lbs, $90.

Milch Cows—Extra $50 and $70; ordinary $35 and $45; springers $40 and $50; narrow ones $25 and $27 per head. Good cows were in a fair demand, but those of a poor grade sold low. We quote sales of 1 Durham cows and calves at $50 each; 1 Jersey cow at $45; 1 do. $55; 5 cows and calves at $45 each; 2 springers at $32.50 each; 1 new milch cow at $35; 1 Durham and Ayrshire cow at $65.

Store Cattle—Not any call for them, most of the small cattle being bought up by butchers to slaughter.

Sheep and Lambs—Those from the west were mostly owned by butchers, and cost landed at Brighton from 6½ to 7½c per lb, live weight. There were 400 head of sheep shipped per steamer Palestine for the Liverpool market.

Swine—Prices for fat hogs remain unchanged, 5½c per lb, live weight.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hairs is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

and Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the Cuticura in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which was the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threaten d to spread from my hands and cover my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, Mr. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, C. P. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

88 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 29, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

The valuable Gold bearing property of

THE MAMMOTH BLUE GRAVEL CO.,

NEVADA COUNTY, CAL.,

Capital, - - - - $2,000.000

SHARES, 40,000—PAR VALUE $50.

This large and valuable property consisting of about 12,000 acres, is surrounded by the following well-known hydraulic mines: "LITTLE NORTH," "ROSE AND PRYOR," "SARRENT & JACOBS," "REMINGTON HILL," "BLUE TENT," "NORTH BLOOMFIELD," and others, which have been worked for years, producing millions of dollars. It has been thoroughly examined by Dr. Henry De Groot, whose report will be sent to those applying for it. With abundant water supply, and in close proximity to the Central Pacific R. R., it affords every advantage for highly profitable and economical hydraulic mining.

A limited amount of the Stock will be sold at

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

HER SWEETHEART.

My sweetheart has a red-brown beard,
And bonnie eye of blue
Of no ten men is he af ar'd,
To one wee maid he's true;
For I stand lowly by his side,
A lily by a yew.

He took a bullock by the head,
And bore the bullock down;
He threw John Plumber's lump of lead
From Gallow's-hill to town;
And yet his arm around my waist
Is soft as satin gown.

You may have brighter eyes than mine,
And better colored hair,
Your hands may be mo e white and fine,
Your tightened waist more spare,
You charm all other men—i him,
I want no charm you bear.

"No Washee for Nigger."

Charles Green, a colored man, was arrested in Boston on Friday evening for assaulting a Chinaman named Ching Kee at the laundry of the latter, on Howard street. Green claims that he took some washing to the Oriental, who crossly informed him that he "no washee for nigger," whereupon the colored gentleman struck the almond-eyed citizen on the head with his cane. Evidently the Chinese must go.

The Human Figure.

The proportions of the human figure are six times the length of the feet. Whether the form is slender or plump, the rule holds good; any deviation from it is a departure from the highest beauty in proportion. The Greeks made all their statues according to this rule. The face, from the highest point of the forehead, where the hair begins, to the chin, is one-tenth of the whole stature. The hand, from the wrist to the middle finger, is the same. From the top of the chest to the highest point of the forehead, is a seventh. If the face, from the roots of the hair to the chin, is divided into three equal parts, the first division determines the place where the eyebrows meet, and the second where the nostrils. The height, from the feet to the top of the head, is the distance from the extremities of the fingers when the arms are extended.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. —Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

— "Yes, sir, I have stopped drinking for a whole year," said a young man to a companion. "I have sworn that for three hundred and sixty-five days, my friend, I shall not drink another drop." "But you see," replied the companion, "that this being leap year, has three hundred and sixty-six days." "That's a fact," mused the sworn-off man. "Guess I'd better select some other year," and they went into a saloon.

—"What's the matter, my dear?" said a kind wife to her husband, who had sat for half an hour with his face buried in his hands, and apparently in great tribulation. "O, I don't know; I've felt like a fool all day." "Well," said his wife consolingly, "you look the very picture of what you feel."

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES will not only supply the waste going on in the brain, but will enable the mind to endure a great tax than before. It will impart vigor and promote clear conceptions to the intellect. It will strengthen the nerves and give power to all involuntary as well as the voluntary muscles of the body.

—It being claimed by one of the sterner sex that man was made first and lord of creation, the question was asked by an indignant beauty how long he remained the lord of creation. "Till he got a wife," was the reply.

Speer's Sambuci Wine for Invalids.

It is invaluable in all cases where a gentle stimulant, tonic or diuretic is applicable, such as nervous weakness and general debility.

Excellent for rheumatism and kidney complaints.

MONDAY, MARCH 15, 1880.

An Honest Governor with a Rascally Council.

Alonzo Garcelon, late misgovernor of Maine, was before the legislative investigating committee last week on a summons. He testified that he neither knew nor inquired the politics of the persons to whom certificates of election were issued; the certificates were brought to him to sign, and he supposed they were made out in accordance with the returns; he had not time to examine every case. Lists of the tabulations were shown him, where William H. Thomas, republican, was erased, and Leonard H. Beale substituted; John Burnham erased, and Alfred Cushman substituted, etc. The letter "G" was placed opposite several names in pencil, supposed to stand for greenbacker. Garcelon said he had no knowledge before of what the list contained; did not know that certificates of election had been issued to seventy-eight democrats and fusionists, and sixty-one republicans, until he read it in the papers; the matter was not discussed in his presence; nothing was said about counting in a quorum of fusionists; had heard it on the streets referred to incidentally. He said he had cared but little about it; it had been his rule to decide individual cases on their merits; if he signed any certificate that was wrong, the facts were falsely put before him; no one was counted out; the returns were examined to see if they came up to the constitutional requirements of legal returns; considered that the law made the governor and council judges of the legality of returns; he had presumed that his council were honest and honorable men, and had compiled the tabulations according to law; in cases where there was any question he would look into the matter himself; he had acted honestly; certain rules had been laid down which were applied to returns regardless of party; there had not been an instance where a democrat had been allowed to correct returns.

It was then shown to Garcelon, by the returns and tabulation, that the votes for John T. Wallace democrat, in Robbinston, were counted for John T. Wallace, Jr. He said that whether that was a mistake or a design, it was not according to the rules established. They should have been counted for two separate persons. In the Deblois case, votes for John T. Wallace, were counted for John T. Wallace, Jr. He said the rule was not followed in that case.

In Kossuth, votes for John R. Talbott, were counted for James R. Talbot, the fusion candidate. Garcelon said he should have put Talbot's vote in a separate column.

In Staceyville the senatorial votes were not carried out opposite each name, but the names were inclosed in a brace, one set of figures answering for all; they were counted for all. Garcelon said he had known nothing about this; had he, it would not have been allowed.

In Lincoln plantation Charles Rankins was voted for, with the final "S" left from his name, yet the votes were counted for Charles Rankins, democrat. In Hanover, votes for Francis W. Redlond were not counted for Francis W. Redlon, republican; in Raymond, votes for Isaac F. Quimby were counted for Isaac F. Quinby, fusionist; while in Ashland votes for John Burnam, republican, were not counted because the name should have been spelled Burnham. Garcelon said that had these cases been brought to him he would have applied the same rule to all. In answer to a question as to how it happened that he knew nothing of what his counsel were up to, he said the counsel must be called upon to answer.

One rule laid down by the council, Garcelon said, was that where the returns were signed in the hand-writing of one person, they should be rejected. He was shown the returns of Somerville, and pronounced the selectmen's names as all clearly written by one person; but the tabulation showed that the returns were counted, Somerville having given a fusion majority.

New Sharon was rejected by the council because, as they said, the selectmen's names were all written by one person; the ex-governor said he was not clear about it. On this return the republican senator was counted out.

Numerous other cases were shown the governor, much of the same character, the most of which he owned were surprises to him. In some cases he acknowledged that there had plainly been erasures and interference with the tabulations.

The whole number of votes was then taken up and returns exhibited, showing that the rules had not been followed, technically defective returns being counted in or counted out, just as was needed to secure a fusion majority.

Garcelon gave his testimony very readily, and appeared very much astonished at the disclosures made as to how much honesty and fair dealing there was in the way his precious council made up the tabulations on which he based certificates of election.

News and Notes.

At Lewiston, Ill., Friday, Judge Shaps sentenced Frank Barrett to seven and a half years in the penitentiary for burglary. After being sentenced he seized a large inkstand and hurled it at the head of the judge. It missed its mark, striking the judge on the shoulder, severely bruising it. Barrett was at once secured and ironed by the sheriff. The inkstand would doubtless have fractured the judge's skull if it had struck him on the head.

The state authorities of Virginia last week sent to Lancaster county a box of muskets, and a howitzer with field ammunition, to protect the oystermen of the lower Rappahannock against the incursions of "foreign" dredgers.

Dr. Wm. Corwin, son of Thomas Corwin and last surviving male member of the Corwin family, died in Lebanon, Ohio, last week.

Sidney McFaden was hung at Washington, Ark., on Friday, for poisoning his wife; Dan Brierghty was hung at Thomasville, Ga., on the same day, for rape on a white woman last October; and John Mayfield was hung at Florence, Ala., for murder. The three men named were all colored.

Michael Dennis, a railroad section man, last week broke his leg on the railroad near Windsor, Vt., but Michael Curtin, who was in charge of the party, refused to allow him to be taken home, and he was left on the ground two and a half hours, making his case a critical one.

Grace L. Paige, wife of the disgraced Glastonbury, Conn., clergyman, has published a letter making statements which, if correct, place at least half the responsibility for his relations with Miss Gates on the woman, and show that malicious and untrue reports have been made about the clergyman. Both Paige and Miss Gates are now wrecks mentally, and both are victims largely of religious delusion.

Steamship Montana, of the Williams & Guion line, was wrecked Saturday near Liverpool, Eng. All hands saved.

Mrs. David Griffing was burned to death in the conflagration of her house at Utica, N. Y., Saturday.

Joseph Whitney of Craftsbury, Vt., recently in jail for kidnapping his own child, has been released upon bail by the supreme court. Whitney's wife obtained a divorce three years ago, and custody of the girl, and afterward died, leaving the child with a guardian. Whitney took the girl, aged ten years, by stratagem. She prefers to live with her father.

Miss Georgia Tyler has resigned her position at the Boston museum to assume the leading lady's position with the Bartley Campbell "Galley slave" combination. Miss Tyler states that her resignation was caused by the fact that she has not had opportunities to fill the roles for which she was engaged—second to those filled by Miss Clarke—but has been compelled to fill the old women's parts.

Nathan P. Pratt, the defaulting treasurer of the Reading, Mass., savings bank, was last week found guilty on twenty-nine counts. The case goes to the supreme court on exceptions, bail in $95,000 being demanded. The amount stolen by Pratt and his son, Sidney Pratt, was about $200,000. The younger thief is still at large.

George H. Hammond, a well-known theatrical man, hung himself at Lynn, Mass., on Saturday.

Samuel Avery was fatally injured, Saturday, by being caught in a belt in a mill at Compton.

Political.

Secretary Sherman has written a letter saying he has not and does not intend to withdraw from the presidential candidacy, but that he does not think it necessary for him to belittle Gen. Grant, Mr. Blaine or any other candidate, and will not use his official position to promote his personal political interests.

Further proceedings in the trial at DeKalb, Miss., of Virgil and Houston Gully for the murder of Gilmer were abandoned Friday, and the case stands continued on account of the impossibility of getting a jury in Kemper county, a large part of whose citizens were engaged in the Chisolm massacre or heartily approve of it, the others not daring to express dissent lest they too be murdered.

A Charming Selectman.

The Wilmington, Mass., correspondent of the Boston Journal tells a remarkable story of a man charming a bird:

Last Thursday Mr. Henry Sheldon, one of our selectmen, had occasion to visit the poor farm. While talking to Charles Gowan, the superintendent, he observed three partridges feeding on the ground, and remarked to him: "You see those birds; I am going to charm one of them." The superintendent jokingly replied, "If you can do so, I should call it pretty clever." Upon this, Mr. Sheldon steadfastly fixed his eyes upon one of the three birds, and advanced quietly toward it. The bird appeared to be perfectly fascinated, and, instead of flying away with its companions, remained upon the ground, steadily returning Mr. Sheldon's gaze, who advanced slowly, laid his hand upon it and lifted it up. Mr. Sheldon says that he has never before charmed a bird, but when he saw the partridges he had an idea that he could do so, having on several previous occasions charmed snakes. There can be no doubt that this is a most unusual and rare occurrence.

A New Metallic Compound.

A new metallic compound, applicable to many artistic and industrial purposes, has been recently announced in England. The substance belongs to the class known as the thiates or sulphur sulphides. Nearly a year ago Mr. J. Baijer Spence discovered that sulphides of metals combined with molten sulphur formed a liquid. This liquid on cooling became a solid homogeneous mass, possessing great tenacity, and having a peculiar dark gray, almost black color. It has a comparatively low melting point, viz., 320 degrees Fahrenheit, or rather more than 100 degrees above the temperature of boiling water. It would thus require only a small amount of fuel to reduce or to melt it. The new compound also expands on cooling—a property not shared by the majority of other metals or metallic compounds. For such purposes as joining gas or water pipes this expansion is of great importance. It is also claimed that the new compound resists favorably atmospheric or climatic influences, as compared with bronze or marble, and that its resistance to acids is much superior to that of other metals or metallic compounds. These qualities, if sustained by further experience, would certainly render the new compound very useful in many ways.

A Devoted Wife.

In my father's poultry yard was a game-cock, the most beautiful bird of the kind I ever saw. He had several wives, and it was a curious thing to see the different airs and graces of the ladies in his train. He was an inveterate fighter, if he could escape from the yard, which was surrounded by a high fence. An accident happened somehow to his foot, and he became lame. My brother, who was a medical student, advised us to poultice it. Mamma undertaking this, Ralph came every morning to have his foot dressed, and though evidently suffering very much, allowed her to attend to it. But no improvement came, and the poor bird began to droop.

One day we heard a loud noise; a famous game-cock had come into the yard when the gate was left open, attacked Ralph, and had beaten him severely. He was sorely injured, though he had defended himself well. Mamma picked him up and carried him away, but next morning he was out in the yard warming himself in the sun. I was very glad I was there to see what I then saw, or I could not have believed it.

Ralph had been beaten! He was no longer to be honored by his faithless wives. They came first one by one, and then altogether, looking with all the contempt they could display. One and another pecked at him, and at last the prettiest, and his favorite, went straight up to him and gave him a severe dab near his eye.

But there was one faithful friend among them, an awkward, bustling brown hen, with no pretensions to beauty, who flew to his rescue, stood resolutely before the prostrate bird—for he had sunk to the ground, as if heart-broken—and sheltered him with her wings. It was useless to leave him in the poultry-yard, so he and his faithful brown hen were placed in the garden, the tool-house being left open for them through the night. Some weeks passed, and Ralph grew weaker, till one morning we found him dead. A grave was dug, and his faithful wife saw him placed in it. She was taken back to the yard, but she never rallied, and a few days after we saw her lying cold and lifeless on the spot where the friend of her generous heart lay buried.—Chambers' Journal.

—"Breadstuffs" is the heading of a column in one of our commercial exchanges. Just as if every reader doesn't know that bread stuffs. The trouble is to get enough of it at times.—Boston Courier.

—When a man in a Vermont grocery store was sitting upon the edge of the counter, and his feet slipped and he raked the whole length of his back on the counter's edge and sat square down in a bushel basket of eggs, which stood right where he couldn't miss it, the grocer was horrified, and exclaimed: "Was it an accident?" and the victim replied, "By crimus, sir, if you insinuate that I skun my back, and got myself into this mess, on purpose, I'll jam your head into the remains of those eggs!"

"Don't Worry Me

with your complaints about your teeth," said an annoyed father to his "sweet sixteener," "I told you to buy the SOZODONT and use it, but you didn't and you deserve to suffer." And so she did, and all other sweet sixteeners who act like her.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has specially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is the common world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 2

—Society women in Philadelphia are accused of sharp devices by the shopkeepers. It is a common occurrence for them to order artificial flowers and false hair the morning before a ball or reception, and return them the next day with a trifling purchase, or perhaps none at all, in the meantime having worn the goods at the entertainment.

—A young architect recently created a reputation by building for a newly-married couple a house where the parlor had two fire places close together, so designed that the husband and wife could each build a fire in an individual manner without quarrelling, and then could sit down together at the same hearth, warmed by a mutual blaze. Their place is hence called "Harmony Grove."—Havard Lampoon.

While engaged in loading the schooner D. K. Ham with bricks at Dover point, last Thursday, Herbert Runnells was struck by the main boom and considerably injured about the head.

On Saturday afternoon Capt. John Stewart, in the employ of Samuel Adams & Co., fell overboard from a floating stage in the dock at Pier wharf, and was rescued from drowning by Mr. Edward Kelley.

The Dover Democrat thus exulteth: "Dover will soon be far ahead of Portsmouth in the number of its organizations, secret, social, charitable, etc. Dover is gaining also in the commercial race with Portsmouth."

Mr. George J. Fernald has this winter built four row-boats, three of them being each fourteen feet long and four feet beam, and the other sixteen feet long and five feet beam; they are all stiff, safe boats, and are to be added to his fleet of letting-boats, which now numbers eighteen several of them being sail boats.

To-morrow evening, at Music hall, Haverly's United-Mastodon minstrels will give an entertainment, and the reputation of the manager warrants the expectation that it will be a first-class one of the kind. There are forty performers in the company, many of them being specialists of extended popularity. Seats can be secured at Preston's drug store to-day.

Fred Norris, a young man employed in the machine shop at South Newmarket, while attempting to jump upon a moving train slipped and fell under it, and it seemed to the bystanders almost a miracle that he escaped without serious harm. Providentially he fell back of the forward wheels, and by great presence of mind was able to gather himself before the hind wheels reached him. He was severely sprained, so it was thought best for him to return to his home in Portsmouth.—Newmarket Advertiser.

A Stratham correspondent of the Newmarket Advertiser says: "Not long since our popular policeman was hung in effigy, and there remained suspended between the heavens and the earth for two days, after which he was cut down and buried at a stake in front of the town hall, about twenty howling savages indulging in the war dance. Such a disgraceful proceeding is a disgrace to the town and ought to be stopped."

Among the most successful social entertainments given in this city during the winter of 1878-79 were those of Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows. During the present winter, owing to the labor consequent on fitting up and moving into the new hall, the lodge has been unable to continue its social gatherings, until the present time; but on Thursday evening the members and their lady freends will again have a sociable, which will be more largely attended than any previous one, the large and elegant banquet hall affording them room enough for all. The ladies are invited to furnish cake and pastry for the collation.

HOW MUCH?

The following arithmetical question has been handed us by a subscriber, who wishes a solution: A farmer comes to market with produce, and wishes to procure a barrel of flour; the trader says he will sell his flour for $8 a barrel cash, or $10 barter; the farmer decides to take the barrel of flour, and pay one-half cash and one-half barter; how much does he pay for his flour?

RAILROAD ITEMS.

Arthur W. Johnson, a surfman at the Plum island life-saving station, has resigned that position to become a brakeman on the night Pullman train on the Eastern railroad.

The Newburyport Herald understands that the case of Mrs. Wm. B. Morss against the Eastern railroad, for injury to her hip caused in 1878 by a blow from a swinging gate at the railroad crossing in that city, has been settled on terms satisfactory to the injured lady.

Forty car-loads of ice came down over the Conway branch of the Eastern railroad on Saturday, from North Conway and Milton ponds. There were at one time three freight trains in the depot yard, numbering in all seventy-eight cars. Each ice car carries about five tons of ice, and the railroad company charges a dollar a ton for transportation.

FISHERY NOTES.

The schooners Miantonomah, George W. Brown and Lizzie Thompson will sail from Newburyport for southern mackereling about the 20th inst., which is nearly a month earlier than usual. The Miantonomah has been laid up for several weeks, her skipper having got tired of having his trawls stolen, and not being willing to do as so many others did, make himself a thief in retaliation by stealing the trawls of other parties.

Of the vessels belonging to Mr. Valentine Doane, Jr., the schooners Mayor Jones and W. H. Y. Hackett are nearly ready to start on their first trip to the banks for this season; the crews will arrive some time during the present week. The Gov. Goodwin, Velocipede and Anna M. Nash will soon start for the south, after mackerel; the Goodwin came off the railway at Kittery on Saturday, and the Anna M. Nash went on in her place.

George W. Dixon, master of the fishing schooner Flora Temple, of Gloucester, was before the police court in Newburyport on Friday, on a charge of stealing trawls belonging to Joseph Perkins, master of the schooner Gipsy Queen. He pleaded guilty, and was fined $10 and costs, and ordered to pay Capt. Perkins the value of the trawls, $40, the whole cost to Dixon of his raid amounting to over $80. The thief was lucky in getting off so easily, for had the matter gone before a United States court the penalty would probably have been much more severe.

THE GALLEY SLAVE.

On Wednesday evening Bartley Campbell's comedy-drama, the "Galley Slave," will be produced at Music hall. It is a comedy picture of "American colony" life in Europe, and has drawn remarkably well wherever it has been played. The New York Herald says it "is a successful play. In contains material and characters that should make any piece succeed, and so much fun that it would draw even were its faults far greater than they are. It is evolved with skill, the hand of the experienced dramatist being recognized in its construction. It is strong, well sustained, of an original turn, marked by many excellencies, and toned by numerous beauties of thought and much fine language." Tickets at Preston's.

COLD COMFORT.

The Boston Traveller of Saturday evening contained an item describing the ice-speculation of a farmer at Milton, who during the past winter cut and housed nearly two thousand tons of ice, for the market. The Traveller tells how the ice was disposed of, as follows:

In the meantime, a week or ten days ago, a gentleman of a speculative turn of mind residing at Portsmouth, and keeping watch of the ice market, went forth and paid the Milton farmer a visit. It was not long before the two, who had had dealings in former years, struck up a trade, whereby the ice on hand was sold to the gentleman from Portsmouth, just as it stood in the houses, for the sum of six hundred dollars. That night, chuckling over his fine bargain, the farmer slept the sleep of peace and content. But the morning brought an unhappy awakening. The first train brought half a dozen or more dealers in ice from Portsmouth, Newburyport, Salem, Lynn, Peabody, Boston, and other places, all of whom had by that time heard of the late owner's gathered ice-crop. They were prepared to offer the farmer seven, eight, nine hundred; one, and even two thousand dollars for his ice. What then were the feelings of the farmer? What could he do, however, save give vent to unavailing expressions of regret? But the final drama closed day before yesterday, when the speculative gentleman of Portsmouth sold his Milton ice-harvest to an ice company not far from Boston for the round sum of five thousand six hundred dollars, making a clean $5000 on his trade. Yesterday the Milton farmer appeared to the gentleman from Portsmouth, with dishevelled hair and sad-looking eyes, and beseught the late purchaser to pay him at least the original price asked for the commodity. This was seven hundred dollars, and our pitying readers will be glad to learn that the request was complied with. The farmer returned to his home somewhat comforted and, a trifle wiser.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Frank H. Earl, of Berwick, has recently been appointed an engineer on the Eastern railroad.

Sixty years ago the John Chadbourn house was erected in Berwick, and its builder, declaring that he should never be without a piece of cheese in his residence, placed one under a post. The house was torn down the other day by its owner, Oliver Grant, and the cheese was found in an almost perfect state of preservation, with not a particle of mould upon it. The scene of this cheese story is about one mile from South Berwick junction.—Gt. Falls Journal.

Wells and Kennebunkport, which were carried by the fusionists last fall, went republican at the last election, and Hollis, last fall fusion by a large majority, did the same. In Alfred the republican majority of ten, last fall, went up to fifty; in Sanford, where the fusionists had one hundred and twenty majority last fall, the republicans elected one selectman, and cut the fusion majority down to a small figure on the other candidates.

A correspondent writes to the Portland Press from North Berwick showing the effect of greenbackism in North Berwick for one year. He says: "Last year the appropriation for schools was $3000. This year there was appropriated for schools $2000. Last year the town had thirty weeks' school. This year it will have twenty weeks' school. Last year it had a high school; this year no high school. Last year it had a class of some twelve, fitting to be teachers; this year these persons will go abroad for better educational facilities."

Naval Gazette.

Medical Inspector Albert L. Gibon has been commissioned a medical director in the navy from Aug. 20th, 1879; and Passed Asst. Paymaster I. Goodwin Hobbs to be a paymaster in the navy from May 15th, 1879.

Assistant Naval Constructor John F. Hanscom is ordered to report at Chester, Penn., to superintend the building and repairing of iron-clads. He is to take the place of Constructor Frank L. Fernald for two months.

Commander Horace E. Mullan is ordered to report at the Norfolk navy yard; Passed Assistant Surgeon Robert Whitney, to duty on the iron-clad at Brandon, Va. Commander B. F. Day is detached from the Norfolk navy yard and placed on waiting orders; Assistant Surgeon Richard Ashbridge from duty on the iron-clad at Brandon, Va., and placed on sick leave. Paymaster Wm. C. McGowan is granted three months' leave.

Rear-Admiral Worden having reached the age of sixty-two years, a vacancy is thereby made in the list of rear-admirals, and Commodore Clitz is promoted. Captain James F. Jouett, if confirmed, will become a commodore, Commander McCrea a captain, Lieutenant-Commander Wadleigh a full commander, Lieutenant Crain a lieutenant-commander and Master Murdoch a lieutenant. Admiral Worden does not go on the retired list, having ten years longer to serve on the active list on account of having received the thanks of congress for his services in the monitor engagement.

Admiral Rogers reports from Panama that when the Pensacola was at Callao two officers, Asst. Surgeon Russell and Cadet Midshipman Glennon, who were ashore on leave, were arrested on suspicion and detained one night. The officials who made the arrest were promptly dismissed from the Chilian service.

—The difference between country and city boys was never better described than by a Boston nine-years-old youngster returning from a visit to his country cousin. Said he, "Georgie can skate but he can't tell time, and I can tell time but I can't skate."

—A curious will case arose at Sost, in Germany, where a testatrix left her money to her brother and sisters, but added:—"If brother William marries in his old age he shall have nothing." It was held that William, a robust sexagenarian, could receive nothing, as until his death it could not be known whether he married or not.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.
The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood
The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.
The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

The Telegraph Wars

In New York, on the 12th inst., the injunction obtained against the Baltimore & Ohio railroad by the Atlantic & Pacific telegraph company, restraining the road from interfering with the telegraph poles and wires along the line of the road, was vacated; and on the same day, in Cincinnati, the telegraph company obtained a temporary injunction excluding the railroad company from the use of the wires along the road's line in Ohio.

At St. Joseph, Mo., on the 12th, the Western Union telegraph company secured the restoration and control of the lines on the St. Joseph & Western railroad, seized some time ago by the American Union telegraph company. The restoration was peaceably effected under orders of the courts of Missouri and Kansas.

— Daniel Drew originated the term "watered stock." He was a drover in early life, and one day when a party desired to sell him some inflated stock said: "That stock makes me think of old farmer Brooks up in 'Put,' who used to salt and water his stock to make his cattle weigh heavy when he sold them." The broker told the story in the street, and it became an adage.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait. — Burlington Hawkeye.

—When a Colorado man enters the office of a local paper and stands his rifle up in the corner while he reads the editor his poem, the editor doesn't tell him they never use poetry, but promises the piece shall go in, and the poet tightens his pistol-belt and says he'll call around next day to get a copy of the paper.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT is very strengt ening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 16, 1878. MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threaten d to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

28 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

MALT.

A Food, a Medicine and a Stimulant. The Bone and Muscle producing element of Beer. New Method of Preparation without Fermentation.

Malt is now officially recognized by the German text-books of medicine and pharmacy, and by German medical writers is given the first place, both as a food and as a medicine. The effect of a constant use of malt liquors has been to increase the weight of the individual, to render him exempt from dyspepsia and pulmonary or wasting diseases. Practical investigation has revealed the fact that these desirable conditions are not promoted by beer, as beer, but by a peculiar principle it contains called diastase, which converts the starch of our food into glucose, a product into which all starch must be converted before it can enter the blood and become a nutritious element. Further experiment resulted in finding the proportion of diastase existing in malt largely destroyed by the process of fermentation, or conversion into beer, in consequence of which the virtues of malt are now obtained without fermentation in the form of extract. Malt is prepared by the following process: Canadian barley, screened and divested of all impurities, is germinated by moisture and heat, dried in a kiln, separated by sifting from the germs, in which condition it is called malt and is ready for use, the germination having developed the starch, sugar and gum of the barley. Malt, with or without the addition of hops, is the base of the best lager beer, ale and porter made. In the

the malt is cracked or crushed and boiled so far as to extract its properties, which in the form of a thin watery extract, called "sweet worts," is allowed to run into large vats, when brewers' yeast is added and fermentation begins and continues until perfected. The result is lager beer, ale or porter, according to the strength and process employed. But as before stated recent investigation has demonstrated that the most valued part of malt to a great extent is lost in fermentation, accordingly the extract of malt in large quantities is no longer fermented but evaporated and concentrated to a thick syrupy liquid, and in most cases largely adulterated with cane sugar, which is very difficult or impossible to be taken by sensitive people. There is no doubt, however, but that in this condition, if pure, it is of greater value than in any older form (if we waive the difficulty experienced in taking it), besides divesting it of its objectionable (to many) properties of beer. Thus prepared it is spoken of as possessing in the highest degree nutritive, restorative, sedative, tonic, diuretic and alterative properties. It is certain that no medicine of the day can equal it in restoring feeble and exhausted constitutions, to which it is adapted by reason of its richness in

BONE AND FAT PRODUCING MATERIAL.

The reason of this wonderful action is due to the presence of diastase, which possesses the power to convert two thousand times its weight of starch into glucose. The absence of this conversion of starch (which composes the greater part of our vegetable food) is probably the cause of much of the emaciation, nervousness and debility met with in every walk in life, and in all ages and both sexes. Food in sufficient quantities is taken into the stomach, but the elements that produce bone and fat are not extracted from it. Hence he "eats ravenously, but is thin as a rail," may be taken as homely illustration of the condition of thousands.

Pure malt, without fermentation, is now recommended by Nieumeyer, Oppolzer, Werber, Bock, Hoppe-Seyler, Heimerdinger, Juergensen, Schroeder and Ziemssen, in Germany; Trousseau, Gosselin, Hardy, Mauduit and Pillois, in France; Ramagalia, Testa and Tartaglia, in Italy; Aitken, Anstie, Richardson, Chambers and Thompson, in England, for difficult digestion, loss of appetite, sick headache, chronic diarrhœa, bronchitis, whooping-cough, catarrhal diseases, asthma, consumption, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weakenesses and debilitating humors of females, in the extenuation of nursing mothers, of the aged and those subjected to severe mental and physical labor, and in fact in all forms of debility requiring properties adapted to building up anew the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system.

Dr. F. Niemeyer, consulting surgeon to the King of Wuertemburg, thus speaks of malt: Intuberouiosis (consumption) and scrofulosis (scrofula.) I have found malt to improve nutrition and arrest the progress of the disease, acting in this way similar to cod-liver oil, save that its effects are seen to be more decided. Dr. Hoppe-Seyler, Professor at the University of Strasburg, says malt, as a nutritient and medical agent, is of great value. Dr. Gusman declares that it has rendered great service in diseases of the lungs, stomach and bowels, in cases of chronic catarrh and asthmatic catarrh, extending to the lungs. Dr. Lersch, inspector of mineral springs at Aix and Bentscheid, speaks of an excellent nourishing agent for the weak and emaciated sick, in which class of diseases its manifold therapeutical application has been established. Staff Surgeon Dr. Heimerdinger of Ludwigsburg recommends it in all cases characterized by emaciation and debility. Thus do the ablest extract, the only obstacle to the universal use of which lies in the difficulty experienced in taking it in the concentrated form in which it has, up to a recent period, been prepared, which is even greater than the objections to it when fermented and taken as lager beer. Much of the extractive matter accompanying the medicinal part of malt is worthless, besides being largely adulterated. To obtain it divested of inferior matter, and perfectly pure, and in a palatable and easily assimilated form has been the effort of chemists. Recently, a Boston firm has perfected a process by which the highest medical activity is reached by extracting the diastase and combining it with the bitter nerve tonic principle of hop, and preserving all without fermentation. It is known as Malt Bitters and is prepared by the Malt Bitters Company of Boston.

PHYSICIANS SPEAK OF MALT

In the new form in which malt is presented to the public by the Malt Bitters Company it must rapidly supercede all other forms of malt and malt extracts, which are hard to take, and lager beer, ale and porter, which are objectionable as leading to habits of intoxication, because it is more nutritious, more readily assimilated, more agreeable, and last, but not least, more economical, being put up in honest old German quarts of about fifty doses, each of which is equal in nourishing and strengthening properties to one bottle of the best lager beer. Malt Bitters combine a food and a medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, consumptive, over-worked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, wasting in strength, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy, as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Portsmouth Chronicle

TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1880.

An Honest Governor with a Rascally Council.

On Garcelon's second appearance before the investigating committee, Friday, the case of the town of Cherryfield was taken up, where the vote was thrown out and a fusion representative given a certificate, because somebody swore that one of the selectmen of Cherryfield was an alien. Garcelon did not believe that Eben F. Pillsbury sent out documents to aid in the counting out and the counting in.

The Fairfield returns were exhibited. From this town there came two returns, and Garcelon said they were thrown out because they were contradictory; if they had been enabled to find which was the first return, that would have been counted. The second set of returns for county officers were shown him, attached to which were slips, dated Sept. 25th, stating that they were the amended returns. From the returns for representatives, slips of the same kind had apparently been torn. Garcelon acknowledged, from their appearance, that he had no doubt slips had been torn off; had never heard of this before, and, if Fairfield was thrown out when the information contained on the slip was received, it was a gross violation of right; he was not there to justify any fraud; he took the facts from the council's reports; this was the first intimation he had that the thing had been done. Said the governor, "We have to do many things on the testimony of others; I did not have a breath of suspicion of the council; I must confess to being somewhat guilty of neglect in not looking more closely into the matter;" for the statements he had made in public and private, he had relied upon the inspection and judgment of the council. On being asked why the same rule adopted in the Farmington case was not applied to the Fairfield case, he replied: "I suppose to get representatives of the right stamp."

One of the rules laid down was that where the initials of a name were used, the votes should not be counted for the same person whose name, in other towns, was given in full. This rule was enforced where the towns gave republican majorities, but was not enforced in Lincoln and East Livermore, which gave fusion majorities. Where ditto marks were used, the rule was that the return was fatally defective; but it was shown that in Andover, which gave a fusion majority, this rule was disregarded, though it was enforced in Westbrook, which gave a republican majority. Garcelon did not approve of this.

The return of Hebron was shown him, bearing the name of Henry C. Walker, and he said it appeared plain to him that the middle initial was changed to "G," and that apparently it was a forgery. He had no knowledge of blank returns, or of instructions, being sent out to fusion towns; he never would have approved of it; up to the 29th of October, he supposed that no eye had seen the returns; on the 17th of November, a committee called upon him, saying that they feared certain parties had access to the returns; he was indignant at this, and put the question directly to his council, who stated positively that no outside party had seen the returns; the returns were kept in the safe, the key of which was in two parts, one being in the hands of the chairman of the committee, Moody of York, and the other in the hands of the secretary of state, Gove of Biddeford.

Referring to the adverse decision of the supreme court to his questions, Garcelon said the decision, when it came, did not change his mind; the executive was independent of the court, and he was not bound to follow the decision unless he chose to!

Go Slow, Brother.

The Boston Post, referring to the disclosures made before the investigating committee concerning the count-out in Maine, suggests that the alterations and forgeries in the returns have been made by the republicans since the documents came into their hands. Our contemporary had better go slow, as long as it steers on that tack; the chairman of the fusion council committee on elections, E. C. Moody of York, has voluntarily been before the investigating committee and given a good deal of testimony, which is as yet "withheld from the public." Better wait till the evidence in all in, Mr. Post, before you charge to the republicans all the outrageous scoundrelism now being exposed in Maine.

News and Notes.

The subject of Dr. Hill's discourse on Sunday forenoon at the Park street church in Portland was "the back bay at low tide." It must have been a strong sermon.

Sumner Willis, a young man about twenty-three years of age, fell out of a carriage while returning from a visit to a lady friend, Sunday night, in South Weymouth, Mass., and was dragged along the road for a long distance, through his clothing getting caught. He was horribly mangled, and was dead when found Monday morning. He and a companion were drunk at the time of the accident.

A rude affair took place at Naylor's carpet factory at Lowell, Mass., Saturday afternoon, resulting in severe injuries to three men. Joseph Daly was discharged by George Naylor some days ago. Saturday he went to the office, and, having been drinking, claimed his pay with violent language. Naylor said it was pay day, and, if he would keep quiet, he should have his money soon. Daly drew a revolver and demanded his pay instantly. Mr. Naylor wrenched the weapon from him, when Daly drew a slung-shot and struck Naylor a powerful blow on the head, quite disabling him. Then Michael Mecann, a travelling agent, came to the rescue and drew a revolver, with which he beat Daly severely about the head, covering him with wounds. Daly reciprocating with his slung-shot. Help soon came from the mill, and Daly was overpowered and taken to the police station. All three of the injured men are under a surgeon's care. Daly was half-drunk at the time.

The most popular man in Essex, Mass., appears to be John C. Choate, Esq. At the recent town meeting he was elected town clerk, overseer of the poor, surveyor of lumber, fence viewer, and clam constable, by unanimous vote.

Michael J. O'Donnell, a stone cutter, twenty-three years old and unmarried, residing at Lawrence, Mass., was arrested Saturday evening, on the charge of procuring an abortion upon Mary Devane, aged fifteen years. One of the oldest physicians of the city is supposed to be implicated with the case.

Ninety-six thousand dollars of Portland & Ogdensburg railroad bonds have recently been sold at twenty-four cents on a dollar. These are the same style of bonds as those held by the city of Portland; first mortgage from Conway to the western end of the line, and second mortgage from Conway to Portland. It will be remembered that at the great sale of these bonds in October last they brought twenty cents and a fraction.

P. F. Benson, one of the proprietors of the Grand Central hotel at Oakland, Cal., and H. Huiget, porter of the hotel, have been arrested, charged with purloining valuables of the guests during a fire at the hotel on the 9th inst. A large amount of property was stolen. It has been shown that the fire was incendiary, and plunder was part of the programme.

In the Washington, D. C., criminal court, Saturday, Judge Hagner refused to grant a new trial in the case of the negroes Babe Bedford, Edward Queevan, and Sandy Pinn, convicted of the murder of George Philip Hirth, on the evening of January 7th last, and sentenced the prisoners to be hanged April 3d.

The state tax of Maine for 1880 will amount to $1,124,261.27, which is five mills on the dollar of the present valuation. Of counties, Cumberland will pay $244,909.73; Penobscot will pay $113,649.69; York will pay $112,352.72. These three counties pay the largest taxes, Kennebec coming next. Of the cities Portland is assessed $147,274.43; Bangor $50,213.32; Lewiston and Auburn together pay about $59,000; Biddeford and Saco about $44,000; Bath $42,000; Augusta $24,422; Rockland $17,116; Calais $7,628.

Political.

A letter is published from the editor of the Boston Post to Garcelon of Maine, in which the former warns the latter of the result of the attempt to count out the men honestly elected. It affirms belief in Garcelon's integrity, but believes the rogues will surely be found out. This letter was dated as long ago as last December.

At the close of the last presidential campaign Mr. Abram S. Hewitt and Lieutenant-Governor Dorsheimer of New York presented bills to Mr. Tilden, the former for miscellaneous expenses during the electoral count, and the latter for the hotel fare of members of the St. Louis convention. The governor at that time refused to settle these claims, but recently they were paid in full, amounting to about $170,000.

The case against Dennis Kearney, charged with using obscene language and threatening citizens with violence, was before the police court at San Francisco on Saturday, judgment being suspended until Monday. It is stated that Mayor Kalloch is to be impeached and punished; also other city officials who have been guilty of inciting the mob to acts of violence and lawlessness.

Orford instructs her selectmen to buy the Orford and Fairlee, Vt., bridge, over the Connecticut, and make it free.

A Charlestown man became so angry, because the clergyman who officiated at his wedding kissed the bride, that he gave the reverend gentleman a terrible tongue-lashing.

Ebenezer F. Corbin of Charlestown, an old soldier in the First New Hampshire Artillery, arrived at Nashua on Thursday in a helpless condition from protracted intoxication. He had drawn his pension money in Concord, $36, and did not have a penny to show for it when found. He was sent to the county farm for a month.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley MALT and Fresh Hop, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up anew the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system. For feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighte n years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMORE, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

AROUND HOME.

Wild ducks are very plentiful in Great bay just now.

Haverly's Mastodon minstrels at Music hall to-night. A big company and a fine show.

The United States courts will be in session this morning; also the probate court.

Mr. Joshua M. Vaughan gathered some beautiful trailing arbutus in Newington on Sunday.

An ice-train of forty-five cars over the Eastern railroad broke in two in Salisbury woods, Saturday night, delaying the train about an hour but doing no other damage. The train passed through Newburyport about midnight.

The old barn on Peirce's island is to be taken down, it is said, and re-erected on the other side of the water, near the old foundry; it will be used by Mr. Moses R. Hall as a blacksmith shop for small jobbing, such as the making of fish-knives, etc.

The entertainment at the Methodist Episcopal vestry this evening will consist of a concert, readings, and a lecture by Rev. C. B. Pitblado—subject "Poets." All the other entertainments in the course have been superior, and this will prove no exception. Admission fifteen cents.

The Eastern railroad has laid a narrow gauge track inside the regular track on Newburyport bridge, the spare rails being about three inches inside the others. The idea of this is that in case a car or train jumps the main track the flanges of the wheels will catch the spare rails, and prevent the derailed train from capsizing into the river. All the bridges of this road are being or are to be furnished in the same way.

Mr. Alfred A. Waldron, a native of this city but a resident of Massachusetts for many years, died in Chelsea on Saturday night, of pneumonia. He went to Boston when a young man, and engaged in the crockery-ware business. In January, 1857, he was appointed to the Boston custom house by President Pierce, and given special charge of invoices of China and earthern ware. He leaves a widow and four children.

Mr. D. H. Montgomery has sold and set up at the residence of E. H. Winchester, Esq., a superb full concert grand Chickering & Sons' piano. He has also sold one of the same style to Hon. Frank Jones, to be furnished as soon as his elegant new residence at north Portsmouth shall be completed. These instruments are Chickering & Sons' new scale grands," and are the finest and most expensive ever sold in this city.

The steamer Mystic, formerly owned at Dover and employed on the river, but later of Portland, and some weeks since purchased by Capt. Horatio W. Trefethen of Kittery, arrived in this harbor at about seven o'clock Saturday evening after a run of six hours from Portland, and tied up at Trefethen's wharf at the lower foreside, Kittery. She is to be put in first-class condition for running across the river and down the harbor with passengers. She is fifty-six feet long over all, seventeen feet beam, and five and one-half feet depth of hold. She goes upon the marine railway at Kittery this week, and before she comes off will have a new bow and new house put on.

Capt. Francis H. Baker, U. S. N., a native of South Carolina who was appointed to the navy from New Hampshire, and who remained faithful to the Union during the rebellion, doing good service, died in Norfolk, Va., on the 3d inst., of consumption. Capt. Baker resided in this city for many years, and is remembered, by all who knew him, as an estimable gentleman and an officer above reproach. He was buried on the morning of the 15th inst. from St. Mary's (Catholic) church in Norfolk, with full military honors, the pall-bearers being Captains Quackenbush, Truxton and Weaver, Medical Director Gibon, Commander Yates, Pay Inspector Eldredge, and Lieut. Comdr. Wise.

The schooner Josie Johnson went into Newburyport on Sunday with 6000 lbs. of fish; she reported fish as very scarce in the bay.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, March 15; Batchelder, J.

George Rockwell, charged with having been drunk, pleaded guilty, and also pleaded for permission to leave town, which he promised to do in a hurry if allowed. He was let off.

William Hurley was before the court on a charge of assaulting Catharine Bean, the case having been continued from Saturday. Mrs. Bean did not appear, so Hurley was allowed to go.

WARNING TO WATER DRINKERS.

We were shown on Monday a live pickerel, fully one and one-quarter inches in length, which was drawn in the water from the acqueduct at the house of the Misses Tuckerman on Manning street. The little fellow frisks about in the bottle of water in which he is kept, as though it were no disgrace to be bottled up like Ben Butler. Seriously, though, it would be well for water drinkers to look carefully into the glass before quenching their thirst with water, for though a little fish in the stomach, even though alive when it arrived there, would probably do no harm, a fish in the lungs would be decidedly unplessant, though only an inch long.

GEN. CHAMBERLAIN'S LECTURE.

The lecture in Music hall next Friday evening—the first lecture delivered in that place this winter, by the way—by Gen. Joshua A. Chamberlain of Maine, on the battle of Gettysburg, will be attended by a very large audience, the plan of the house having been extensively marked up on the first day of the sale of reserved seats, many of our most prominent citizens being liberal buyers of tickets. This is as it should be, as the proceeds of the entertainment will go to the charity fund of Storer Encampment, G. A. R.,—an institution that merits well of the public. Independent of the worthy object, the entertainment will be of a superior order; the distinguished lecturer is a pleasing speaker, and held a prominent command during the desperate and decisive struggle whose story he will tell; and the Grand Army quartette, of which Mr. George F. Monroe is first tenor, will take part, and by special request Mr. Munroe will sing "Let me like a soldier fall," from the opera of "Maritana." The only thing we can see wrong about the affair is that the tickets are placed at thirty-five cents each instead of fifty, as they should have been.

CAPT. WILLIAM DAY,

Who died at his residence on Richards avenue, Monday morning, was a native of Gloucester, Mass., came to Portsmouth about fifty years ago, and was in early life captain of coasting vessels between this port and Philadelphia. Forty years ago he resided on the lower part of Court street, and near by, at Commercial wharf, was the place of arrival of the Philadelphia and Portsmouth packets, which Capt. Day owned in connection with the late Andrew W. Bell, Capt. Day being the agent of the line; one of these vessels was commanded by his brother Joseph, who died several years since. He subsequently had a coneting room on Market street. Capt. Day was twice married. By his first wife he had a daughter, Stella Octavia, who married the late Joseph A. Grace, and died several years since. He was an honest, unassuming, kind-hearted man. Of late years by reason of ill health he mixed but little with the world; he leaves a widow, but no surviving children. He never made any effort to attain any prominence in political affairs, though always firm in his political as in his religious connections.

BOW MISSION HALL MEETINGS.

At the Band of Hope meeting, Saturday afternoon, forty-five children were present. Rev. John A. Goss and Mr. Lovell, foreman of iron-platers at the navy yard, addressed the meeting in a very interesting manner. Mrs. Samuel Hooper, president of the Woman's Temperance League, has charge of this work; there are at present about eighty members, and new ones are joining every week.

There was a good audience at the gospel temperance meeting Saturday evening. The lady in charge read the fifth chapter of St. John, and made practical remarks on the case of the poor man at the pool of Bethesads, suggesting that we should go out to seek the most lowly—those who are most in need of a friend—and help them. Remarks were made by Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. Peirce, Rev. Mr. Goss, and Bros. Janvrin, Wallace and Dodge, and Mr. Glover of Kittery, engineer of the steamer Emerald. Mr. E. O. Stimson, master of the Jones grammar school, read "The vagabond" and "The negro parson," and a selection from the Parish Visitor entitled "Stones and stitches;" and at the close of the meeting a vote of thanks for the pleasure afforded by Mr. Stimson was passed.

In the absence of Mrs. Richard Harvey, who was expected to conduct the bethel service Sunday afternoon, Mr. James Janvrin presided. Remarks were made by several ladies and gentlemen of this city, and by Messrs. W. R. Ogden and Adam Eytin of the Dover reform club. Though the bethel service is intended especially for seamen and laboring people, several prominent citizens were present in the audience on Sunday, which speaks well for the mission.

At the reform club meeting in the evening the hall was crowded. After singing, reading of the scriptures, and prayer, brief speeches were made by several members of the club, followed by Mr. Eytin of Dover, whose remarks were largely on the necessity of possessing sufficient will-power to be able to say "No." Mr. Eytin was in the navy during the late war, and related several interesting incidents of his experience. Mr. W. R. Ogden also addressed the audience; he is an Englishman, and related his experience with strong drink in the old country; he is an active member of the Dover reform club, which he reported as being in a flourishing condition, and determined to push the bottle to the gate.

THE ASSESSORS.

Mr. Editor: The action of the last year's assessors, in the abatement of a portion of their taxes as part compensation for their services, has been the occasion of much unfavorable comment in the daily press and in private circles. And last week the city aldermen, with a deep sense of their responsibility as the guardians of the public treasury, joined in the cry, and condemning the unfortunate assessors without a hearing, demanded restitution under the penalty of the direst vengeance of the law. The city solicitor, too, attended the aldermen's meeting, and explained to the astonished members the heinous crimes committed by the offending assessors, to wit, "malfeasance in office" and "conspiracy to abuse their official power," and the various remedies for the offences.

The action of the assessors in making abatements for the purpose specified, perhaps is open to criticism as a matter of delicacy and modesty, but whether it is a malfeasance in office or a conspiracy to abuse their official power, is yet, to say the least, a matter of doubt, notwithstanding the city solicitor's opinion and the action of the aldermen.

Before considering the assessors' action look for a moment at the men composing that board. Every one of them is a gentleman of high standing in this community; they have all lived among us for many years; most or all them have repeatedly and worthily filled positions of trust, both public and private; in all ordinary business their word is as good as their bond. It would be difficult here or elsewhere to select nine men whose record is fairer, or whose reputation is freer from taint or stain—a reputation gained and sustained through lives of useful business activity covering periods of from twenty to fifty years. Is it possible that such men are to be charged with conspiracy to abuse their official power? Rather should not the unanimous act of nine such men suggest to us the possibility that they may be legally and morally justifiable.

What have they done? The board was elected in August, 1858. At that time (and now) the pay of assessors as fixed by the city ordinance was twenty-five dollars each. After ttheir election, laws were passed by the state legislature largely increasing their duties. The pay of assessors in other cities of the state was and is much greater than here; in some cases over $200. The board performed the duties of their office as they were defined at the time of their election, and the additional duties afterwards put upon them. For these additional duties they believed they had a good claim upon the city, and asked for an additional compensation of twenty-five dollars each. The aldermen elected in 1878 refused to allow it. The assessors afterward presented the same claim to the present board of aldermen, who also refused to pay it. The assessors, who have power to abate for cause, believed that they had good cause to abate so much of their own taxes as would be equal to the very moderate compensation charged by them, and as they believed unjustly withheld by the aldermen. This they have done, and consider the claim adjusted.

No intelligent citizen believes the sum of fifty dollars each too large for the very laborious duties of the assessors' office. No considerate citizen will believe that they corruptly conspired to abuse their power or to defraud the city. Of the integrity of these gentlemen there can be no doubt. Possibly they may not have taken a proper course to secure their pay, but no one who has lived and done business with them for a period of more than an ordinary life-time will charge them with criminal intent. The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which ionstitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Hair Restorer

IS PERFECTION.

A Noble Record: near Half a Century. Established 1832. Improved 1879.

The nature of the great improvement is in its wonderful life-properties to faded or fading hair, and MORE QUICKLY CHANGING GRAY OR WHITE HAIR to its natural youthful COLOR and BEAUTY.

IT IS NOT A DYE.

It requires only a few applications to restore gray hair to its youthful color and lustrous beauty, and induce luxuriant growth, and its occasional use is all that is needed to preserve it in its highest perfection and beauty. DANDRUFF is quickly and permanently removed.

Sold by all Druggists, $1.25 Per Bottle.

There are ninety students attending the medical school of Maine, at Brunswick.

The prizes offered last spring by Stillman B. Allen, Esq., of Boston, to the farmer boys of York county, Maine, for the largest amounts of corn raised on an eighth of an acre of land, met with such success that the experiment is to be tried in Vermont. Two of the trustees of the university of Vermont have offered $100 in prizes to the boys not over seventeen years of age who shall raise the largest amount of corn from one-eighth of an acre of land, and to those who raise the most potatoes on the same space. There are to be first, second and third prizes in each case.

The Ladies' Favorite.

Among the many thousands of ladies who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and pronounced it their favorite remedy, because so efficient in the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, are many who are well and favorably known in the world, as well as artists, musicians, and whole host of names from the brilliant ranks of wealth and fashion. It is pre-eminently the ladies' Favorite Prescription, its use, while being far more safe and efficient, exempting them from those painful, caustic operations, and the wearing of those mechanical contrivances made like Peter Pindar's razor—seller's razors—to sell, rather than to cure.

Richmond, Va., has a sensation caused by the discovery on Saturday that Dr. Luther P. Dickinson, editor and proprietor of the Planter and Farmer, and a prominent citizen, has been engaged for two years in a systematic course of forgeries, and has fled. His forgeries amount to over $28,000.

Thousands of ladies to-day cherish grateful remembrances of the help derived from the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. It positively cures all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

A farm house near Dennis, Iowa, was burned, Friday, and two young girls perished in the flames.

The Reason Why.

The tonic effect of Kidney-Wort is produced by its cleansing and purifying action on the blood. Where there is a gravelly deposit in the urine, or milky, ropy urine from disordered kidneys, it cures without fail. Constipation and piles readily yield to its cathartic and healing power.

REV. E. D. Winslow, the famous forger of Boston, is reported to be living in Buenos Ayres under the name of D. Warren Lowe, and to be publisher of a paper there, and high in the good graces of the government.

Why Are You Bilious?

Because you have allowed your bowels to become costive, and liver torpid. Use Kidney-Wort to produce a free state of the bowels, and it will stimulate the liver to proper action, cleanses the skin of its yellowness, cures bilious headache, and causes new life in the blood. Druggists have it.

Twenty-four piano manufacturers of New York city, including all the prominent ones, shut their shops on Monday, owing to a strike in Steinway & Co.'s establishment. By this action over 4000 men are thrown out of employment.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES will not only supply the waste going on in the brain, but will enable the mind to endure a great tax than before. It will impart vigor and promote clear conceptions to the intellect. It will strengthen the nerves and give power to all involuntary as well as the voluntary muscles of the body.

Speer's Sambuci Wine for Invalids.

It is invaluable in all cases where a gentle stimulant, tonic or diuretic is applicable, such as nervous weakness and general debility.

Excellent for rheumatism and kidney complaints.

Received the highest premium — a medal, awarded by the American Institute, N. Y., at their late fair, for the best medicine wine.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter feel extend their thanks to all who have spoken so good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT is a very strength ening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption on the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threaten d to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, F. P. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

26 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 35 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or dean black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often (though not always) cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

A Merchant's Career.

We clip the following extract, showing the way in which some of our merchants have risen from an humble, non-remunerative position to that of wealth and prominence:

A few years ago a large drug firm advertised for a boy. The next day the store was thronged with applicants, among them a queer-looking little fellow, accompanied by a woman, who proved to be his aunt, in lieu of faithless parents, by whom he had been abandoned. Looking at this little waif, the merchant in the store said: "Can't take him; places all full; besides, he is too small." "I know he is small," said the woman, "but he is willing and faithful." There was a twinkle in the boy's eye which made the merchant think again. A partner in the firm volunteered to remark that "he did not see that they wanted such a boy—he wasn't bigger than a pint of cider." But after consultation the boy was set to work. A few days later a call was made on the boys in the store for some one to stay all night. The prompt response of the little fellow contrasted well with the reluctance of others. In the middle of the night the merchant looked in to see if all was right in the store, and presently discovered his youthful protege busy scissoring labels. "What are you doing?" he said; "I did not tell you to work nights." "I know you did not tell me to, but I thought I might as well be doing something." In the morning the cashier got orders to "double his wages, for he is willing." Only a few weeks elapsed before a show of wild beasts passed through the streets, and very naturally all hands in the store rushed to witness the spectacle. A thief saw his opportunity and entered the rear door to seize something, but in a twinkling found himself firmly clutched by the diminutive clerk aforesaid, and, after a struggle, was captured. Not only a robbery was prevented, but valuable articles taken from other stores were recovered. When asked by the merchant why he stayed behind to watch when all others quit their work, he replied: "You told me never to leave the store when others were absent, and I thought I'd stay." Orders were immediately given once more, "Double that boy's wages; he is willing and faithful." To-day that boy is getting $2,500, and next January he will become a member of the firm.

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr. Mott, of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey. The doctor has spent years in Portugal and the wine districts of France, and knows what he is talking about.

62 Madison Avenue,
NEW YORK, April 11, 1878.

MR. ALFRED SPEER:

Dear Sir—The visit which I made last year to your vineyards, wine-presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfies me thoroughly that the wines manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.

Acting upon my favorable impression at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine; more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied with marked benefit to my patients.

There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grape, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine bearing the luxuriant fruit. Wishing you success in your praiseworthy enterprise, I remain respectfully yours,

ALEX B. MOTT, M. D.,
Prof. of Surgery, Bellevue Hospital Medical College, etc., etc.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

—While some localities boast of spring barbingers, such as robins, bluebirds and grasshoppers, a western town brags of a cowslip last week. The cow slipped off the wharf-boat into the water.

When we consider that Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites supplies the deficiency to unhealthy blood, restores the nervous element, and produces healthy action to the various organs and forces of the body necessary to sound mind, we wonder at the imbecility everywhere apparent.

—There was an incident of the Dow trial at Belton, that most unaccountably escaped the attention of the local press, and yet it is entirely too good to be lost to the public. When one of the female witnesses was asked by a prosecuting lawyer of a well-known convivial turn of mind, if she believed in the Bible, she replied empathically that she did. "Do you believe, then, that wives should be obedient to their husbands?" asked the lawyer. She snapped her eyes and replied: "Not when their husbands come home drunk, like you do." You could have heard a paper of pins fall for ten minutes afterward.—Galveston News.

Women that have been bedridden for years have been entirely cured of female weakness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—The only bad thing about a burglar-alarm is that it gives the burglar a chance to slide down the waterspout and get away before you can talk to him like a Dutch uncle.

DO NOT DELAY, but bear in mind that consumption often begins with a neglected cold or cough. Adamson's Botanic Balsam wins the day in curing coughs and colds. Price, 35 and 75 cents. Trial bottles, 10 cents.

Portsmouth Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 1880.

State Supremacy vs. National Authority.

The supreme court of the United States, by the recent decision of a case sent up from a lower court, affirmed the constitutionality of the federal election laws. The democratic politicians were greatly disturbed at this, and when the decision was first made public it was announced that the brigadiers in congress would at once pass the appropriation to pay the deputy marshals—but on Saturday it was announced that the democrats will not appropriate any money to pay deputy marshals until the election laws (which the highest tribunal in the land has decided are constitutional) are altered so as to suit the democratic party!

The present attitude of the state supremacy men is even less defensible than that which they occupied a year ago. They threatened to "starve the government" unless the executive branch surrendered all its rights and powers to the legislative branch—but they at that time insisted that the election laws were unconstitutional; now that the supreme court has declared that the laws are strictly in accord with the constitution, the democrats declare that they will nullify those laws by refusing to provide for their enforcement. That is, the "democratic congress," having failed in an attempt to usurp the functions and constitutional authority of the president, now proposes to assume judicial functions by deciding what laws shall and what ones shall not be enforced.

The Charleston (S. C.) News deplores the supreme court decision, but says that it will be folly for the democratic party to assert the state rights doctrine in opposition thereto, as it will unite the north and west against the democracy, because the people in those sections labor under the impression that the doctrine of state rights threatens the results of the war as asserted in the late amendments to the constitution. And that is just what the doctrine does threaten.

Pension Payments.

The total amount disbursed at the pension agency in Concord from the 4th to the 12th inst., when all properly executed vouchers received up to eleven A. M. of the latter date had been paid, was $147,178.52, and the number of different payments, exclusive of fees to attorneys and surgeons, was 16,301. The number of payments on the 4th was 429, amounting to $15,039.60, and on the 12th, 3,142, amounting to $81,701.53, thus dispelling the popular idea of the larger payments being made on the 4th, or pension "payday," so-called.

Quarterly payments become due on the 4th of March, June, September, and December, and a larger number of payments to pensioners in person are made on those days, but the great bulk of payments are made by mail, and the processes, after receipt of vouchers and before the checks with the accompanying papers are ready to be mailed to the pensioners, are so numerous and varied that it requires some two or three days for the complicated machinery of the office to get fairly into running order, consequently nearly as many pensioners were paid on the last day of the payment as upon the first three days.

When it is borne in mind that these rapid payments are made in the face of constantly occurring changes upon the rolls, affecting the rates and otherwise, it will be seen that great care and watchfulness is necessary to guard against overpayments and other errors.

A Sulky Sea-Serpent.

"A large whale or sea-serpent" got directly in the track of the Old Dominion steamer Isaac Bell, when on the way to New York from Norfolk, Va., on Friday, some time before Sandy Hook was sighted, and the vessel had to be stopped and put about to go around the obstruction, as the whale or sea-serpent lay motionless in the water and showed no disposition to get out of the way. About forty feet of the back of the monster was seen above the surface. The vessel was only four feet away when her headway was lost.

News and Notes.

An Indian massacre of white men near Blue mountain, Colorado, is reported, seven or eight miners engaged in prospecting having been murdered.

In West Boxford, Mass., Sunday evening, Mrs. Jennie G. Daniels was seized on the road by Clarence French and Geo. O. Staples, of Haverhill, who gagged and criminally assaulted her. Staples is twenty-four years old and French twenty-one, the first being fireman of a stationary engine and the latter a heel-cutter; both were arrested on Monday.

Probably no one preparation has received so much praise from its patrons, nor is so deserving of commendation as Hall's Hair Renewer! We but echo the voice of the millions who have used it when we pronounce it the best hair dressing in the world. It stands unrivalled. Those who are affected with diseases of the scalp accompanied with itching or irritation, and desire a renewal in the invaluable remedy. When the hair is inclined to fall off, a moderate use of the Renewer will strengthen the roots of the hair, and preserve it, and if it exhibit a tendency to turn gray it will restore the natural color.—Fulton (Missouri) Telegraph.

Political.

On Monday of this week Garcelon was again before the committee for three hours, and was closely questioned by Mr. Hale regarding the paying out of money without filing vouchers therefor, the filling of the state house at Augusta with "police" from the state prison and back slums, the unauthorized payment of money to Pillsbury and other fusion managers, etc., his answers showing that the republican statements regarding these occurrences were correct.

Kearney and Kalloch, the leaders of the San Francisco communists, have begun to feel the influence of the citizens' organization, and suddenly stopped all their bluster and brag. Both of them made mild-mannered speeches last Sunday. The court on Monday found Kearney guilty of incendiary language, but suspended sentence until next day.

Garcelon, late misgovernor of Maine, thinks the governor of a state is not bound to abide by the decisions of its supreme court, unless he chooses to. This theory, once acknowledged to be correct, would make the governorship a much more important office than it is at present.

Naval Gazette.

Commander Edward E. Potter has been ordered to the command of the Constellation. The secretary of the navy has instructed the commander of the Brooklyn navy yard to receive provisions for the relief of the sufferers in Ireland, for shipment by the Constellation.

Commodore John M. B. Clitz, Capt. S. P. Quackenbush, Lieut. Comdr. Geo. H. Wadleigh, Master Hugo Osterhaus and Ensign Samuel C. Lemley have been ordered to examination for promotion.

The following detachments have been made: Lieutenant Commander James M. Forsyth from League island, Lieutenant Wm. F. Low from the Colorado, Lieutenant Newton E. Mason from the St. Louis, all to the Constellation; Lieutenant Albron V. Wadhams from the experimental battery and ordered to the Nipsic; Lieutenant John D. J. Kelly from the Nipsic to the experimental battery; Paymaster Luther G. Billings from duty as inspector of flour at New York, and Passed Assistant Surgeon Charles W. Gravatt from the naval hospital at Norfolk, both to the Constellation; Passed Assistant Engineer A. G. Dixon from the Alarm, and placed on waiting orders; Boatswain Edward Bonsall from League island to the Constellation.

Before the house committee on naval affairs Mr. Whitthorne has presented a substitute for Mr. Morton's bill to regulate the rank of engineer officers of the naval academy. The committee directed that it should be reported to the house to be recommitted. Mr. Johnston's bill to regulate the mode of purchasing tobacco for the navy has been ordered to be reported to the house.

New Hampshire Items.

It is now suspected that Joseph Putney of West Rumney, recently found in his stable yard in a dying condition, as was at the time supposed from a kick in the head from a horse, was murdered.

Edwin F. Gill of Nashua, a clerk in R. C. Dickey's apothecary store at Hillsborough Bridge, had his eyes and face seriously injured on Monday, the 8th inst., while putting up a prescription containing cartol, which exploded.

The trial of Dodge, Spencer and Lee, who are now in jail in Cheshire county, on the charge of murdering A. C. Foster in Keene about four years ago, will commence in that city on or near the middle of April. It will be a very interesting criminal prosecution.

DANGEROUS COMPLAINTS.—Thousands are predisposed to violent attacks of cole and cholera morbus during the summer season, or to chills and cramps during the winter months, and in consequence are obliged to exercise the greatest care as to what they eat and drink. Nothing is needed but a few doses of Jayne's Carminative, which promptly relieves the worst cases, and renders a severe attack impossible if taken when the symptoms first manifest themselves. It is also an elegant addition to ice water, seidlitz powders, wine, and the stronger liquors. Be careful to call for Sanford's.

—Something to sigh about—the mouth.

—Mr. Smallsalk—"Is that a Virginia creeper behind you, Miss Violet?" Miss Violet (wildly)—"O, where? where? O, do take it off!"

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.—Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

New Publications.

A picture of "A funeral at sea," by the American artist, Henry Bacon, attracted special attention in the Paris salon of 1876. The subject proved mournfully fascinating, and the critics agreed in praising the picture. Its chief figures are portraits of young American artists and writers—the person in the act of reading the burial service being Mr. Richard Whiteing, Paris correspondent of the New York World. The picture has been engraved as a frontispiece for the April St. Nicholas.

"Eight miles in Indiana caverns" is the title of an illustrated paper, in the April Scribner, on Sibert's and Wyandotte caves, in Crawford county, Ind. The writer, Mr. H. C. Hovey, has thoroughly explored these interesting ways.

Sunday Afternoon.

After the Sunday dinner, what? Well, it all "depends." A person whose brain is wearied with intellectual work during the week, or whose nervous system is exposed to the strain of business or professional life, ought to sleep, within an hour or two after his Sunday dinner, if he can. It is surprising how much like a seven-day clock the brain will work, if the habit of a "Sunday nap" be once formed. Nature will take advantage of it as regularly and gratefully as she does of the nightly sleep, and do her best to make up for lost time. People, on the other hand, whose week of toil is chiefly physical, may well give their minds activity while their body is resting. Two sermons and three or four hours of solid reading are a real rest to some on Sunday, while to others such a course amounts to positive Sabbath breaking. Sunday is a day of rest,—not of work, religious or otherwise. It is a day for repose,—not for exhaustion. But what the dogmatists on one side and the illiberal liberals on the other are apt to overlook is the fact that all men do not rest alike, any more than they labor alike, and what will help to save one may aid in killing another.

After the Sunday dinner, then, one should seek rest, innocent recreation, helpful happiness. Sleep, or read, or go and help instruct and interest a mission school, or visit the sick and suffering, according to your needs and gifts. We Americans haven't yet fully learned the art of home-to-enjoyment, any more than the law of service to others. More men ought to relieve their wives of the sole care of young children, on Sundays, by taking them out to walk or ride, and inviting the mother to go as company, or leaving her at home to enjoy unmolested a much needed season of quiet. In suitable weather a portion of the day may be profitably spent out-of-doors. There is nothing in the example or teachings of Jesus—nothing in the nature of his religion, of God's requirements, or of man's needs,—which declares that the Sabbath can only be kept holy in doors. It is to be honored and hallowed, but its highest observance is a ministration to man's highest needs. We hope and believe that the day will never come when Sunday will be secularized or turned into a gay holiday in America, as in Europe; but the progress made towards a rational Christian enjoyment of the day, within the past fifty years, shows that the superiority of man to the institution, as proclaimed by the Saviour, is coming to be apprehended.—Golden Rule.

Ted Robinson.

The image of this man of many moods and brilliant genius that rises most distinctly to my mind is that connected with a little prayer meeting in the Minna street church, San Francisco, one Thursday. His thin, silver locks, his dark, flashing eye, his graceful pose and musical voice are before me. His words I have not forgotten; but their electric effect must forever be lost to all except the few who heard him.

"I have been taunted with the reproach that it was only after I was a broken and disappointed man in my worldly hopes and aspirations that I turned to religion. The taunt is just"—here he bowed his head and paused with deep emotion—"the taunt is just. I bow my head in shame and take the blow. My earthly hopes have fallen and faded one after another. The prizes that dazzled my imagination have eluded my eager grasp. I am a broken, gray-haired man, and I bring to my God only the remnant of a life. But, brethren, it is this very thought that fills me with joy and gratitude at this moment—the thought that when all else fails God takes me up. Just when we need him most, and most feel our need, he lifts us from the depths where we have grovelled, and presses us to his fatherly heart. This is the glory of Christianity. The world turns from us when we fail and fall. Then it is that the Lord draws nigher. Such a religion must be from God, for its principles are godlike! It does not require much skill or power to steer a ship into port when her timbers are sound, her masts all rigged, and her crew at their posts. But the pilot that can take an old hulk, rocking on the stormy waves, with its masts torn away, its rigging gone, its planks loose and leaking, and bring it safe to harbor, that is the pilot for me. Brethren, I am that hulk, and Jesus is that pilot!"—Willows Journal.

—It is said that no less than a dozen rooms are now engaged at one New York hotel for Easter bridal parties from Boston.

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, March 17, 1:30 A. M.

Cloudy weather, with light rain or snow, followed by fair weather, colder north-westerly winds, rising barometer.

AROUND HOME.

On account of the indisposition of Judge Clark no business was transacted in the United States courts in this city on Tuesday.

There will be a meeting of Storer Encampment, Post 1, G. A. R., this evening, at which a full attendance is earnestly requested, as business of importance will come up.

A twelve-horse-power hoisting engine arrived at the Concord railroad wharf on Tuesday. Its position is in a house the sills of which are fifteen feet above the wharf, so as to allow cars to pass underneath.

This evening, at Music hall, the comedy of the "Galley slave" will be presented by a powerful company. The comedy has had an extended run in the large cities, and will be played here for the first time to-night.

The Atlantic cornet band, of Seabrook, are about procuring a new uniform. They are engaged to play at the reform club rally in Newburyport on the 25th inst. The band was organized eleven years ago, and has maintained its organization ever since.

Messrs. Strong & Burt, who have a shoe factory at Dover, as well as one in Randolph, Mass., made at the Dover factory last week, thirty-two thousand pair of shoes. The concern employs twenty-five girls in Portsmouth, upon work sent here to be sewed. Some help in Newcastle also finds employment from this firm.

On Tuesday, March 9th, at Seabrook, Mary Brown, the eleven-years-old daughter of Jacob Brown, while hunting for eggs in a barn, in jumping from the high beams over the barn floor to a hay-mow tripped and fell, striking a plough which was on the floor, breaking one rib and injuring her spine. The physician regards her case as serious.

A bill has been introduced into the house of representatives to equalize and regulate the salaries of custom-house officers, and to reduce the expenses of collecting the revenue. Two representatives of the custom-house in this city are in Washington, at this time. It is said that this is only a campaign operation and will amount to nothing, and our ill-paid officials will be permitted to receive this present meagre stipend until after the 4th of March, 1881.

Jacob K. Upton of this state, nominated as assistant secretary of the treasury, was formerly chief clerk of the treasury department, and has of late been in the internal revenue department. He succeeds Hawley, nominated for governor of Ohio. New Hampshire has a representative in both the assistant secretaries of this department, Hon. H. F. French, formerly of this city, being the other assistant secretary. Mr. Upton is a brother of Hon. Samuel Upton, formerly of Manchester, now living at the west.

The heavy snow-storm of Tuesday afternoon was not heavy enough to keep Haverly's Mastodon minstrels from making a street parade, and fifty men and two dogs tramped along regardless, a drum corps and a large brass band making good music the while. In the evening, at Music hall, a big entertainment was given, and there was what would be considered a good audience for an ordinary show, though it could hardly have been a paying audience for such an immense company.

We this week attended a rehearsal of the recently organized Grand Army quartette. We expected to hear some fine singing, though they had practised but little together, as we were aware, and we did hear better music even than we anticipated. Their enunciation is beautifully distinct, and they never lower their pitch in going through the longest pieces. The Grand Army boys are fortunate in securing such excellent music for their meetings and entertainments. The quartette will appear at Music hall on Friday evening, on the occasion of Gen. Chamberlain's lecture.

If applied for soon the stock, lease of premises and good-will in business of the hat, cap and fur store of N. K. Walker & Son, No. 13 Congress street, will be sold at a reasonable rate. This offers a favorable opportunity for any person desiring to secure an established business, the cap and fur trade having been carried on at this stand for more than fifty consecutive years.

Mr. John Willey died at the Faith Home in this city, Tuesday morning. He was a pensioner of the war of 1812, having served in Capt. Reuben Hayes' company from New Durham, at one time stationed at Rye. Mr. Willey was a ship-carpenter and wheelwright, had lived in this city forty-two years, and was well-known as a peaceable citizen. For the past eighteen months he has lived at Faith Home with his wife, and attended to the chores and odd jobs about the house.

The Dover Democrat says the prospect for an early completion of the Eliot bridge, on the new Eliot and Dover highway, "is very encouraging. On the Eliot side of the river the filling has been carried out one hundred and ten feet, and sixteen piles driven, and about one hundred feet of the bridge on that side will be finished this week, excepting the planking. On the Dover side the filling has been extended two hundred and twenty-five feet. A steam pile driver will be set at work at once, and as fast as piles are driven they will be followed with the girders and stringers. So far all expenses have been kept within the estimates, and there seems to be no reason why the bridge should not be open to public travel early in June."

The Concord railroad wharf presents a scene of busy activity. Messrs. Ross & Lord, of Ipswich, Mass., the contractors for building the new coal pocket, are driving over three hundred oak piles to give additional strength to the wharf upon the spot where the coal pocket is to be placed. This pocket will hold over four thousand tons of coal, and will have a track upon which cars will stand to receive coal from a shute leading from the pocket. This will enable Mr. J. A. Walker, the builder, to supply customers in the winter season with no expense of loading the cars, and will add largely to the sales of coal in our market. The frame for a large shed for the sawing and storage of wood is now going up on the westerly side of the wharf, fronting on Market street. Some of the piles already driven are of great length, and have been brought over the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway railroad. The contractors are to have the pocket completed by the first of June.

THE ASSESSORS.

Mr. Editor: In the CHRONICLE of Tuesday morning, "A" makes a weak attempt at defence of the assessors. I wish to state briefly, that when the assessors made the abatement on their taxes, they (if reports are true which have as yet remained uncontradicted) knew they were doing that which they had no business to do, and trusted to its never being known to the public for their escape from censure. And it is even said that as the collector is not allowed to have more than $100 in his possession as collector, they agreed to call for the money in such numbers at different times as would insure the collector being in funds. The language of some of the assessors since being called upon to face the music, towards the aldermen, in expressing their opinion, is not to their credit, even if some of them are church members. If the assessors were innocent of wrong-doing, why don't they say so, and not allow such reports as are mentioned above to go the rounds without any contradiction? The case doesn't admit of whitewash, if half that is told is true. B.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

A full meeting of the directors of the Portsmouth Shoe Factory Co. was held at the Rockingham house on Monday evening of this week, the object of the meeting being the consideration of the proposition to consolidate the business of the company with that of Mr. Whitcomb, a large shoe manufacturer doing business in Mechanics Falls, Me. Mr. Whitcomb was present, and a general interchange of views took place, our capitalists being favorably impressed with the business qualifications and go-aheaditiveness of this gentleman. The Mechanics Falls factory turns out nearly forty cases per day, and employs several hundred hands; and when merged with the Portsmouth Co. will make one of the largest shoe concerns in New England. We are glad to be able to say that negotiations favorable to the establishment of this immense business here are nearly concluded, the articles on both sides being drawn up, and probably they will be signed before the close of the present week. One of the provisions in the agreement of the directors is that the company will erect a building 160 feet long by forty-two feet wide and five stories high, each story to be ten feet in the clear, and to be completed by the first of July of this year. We have not space to refer to the agreements more fully, and only allude in this instance that our readers may get an idea of the extent of the business of this line in prospect in the near future.

Mr. Jos. G. Knights, the superintendent of the Portsmouth Shoe Factory, will have charge of the local management of both branches of the business. There seems to be a feeling among our business men that Portsmouth has languished long enough, and they are determined that it shall once more take rank among the live cities of New England.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The house and barn of Arioch Getchell, at Wells, were burned on Monday morning, with their contents. Loss, $1,800; insured $1,300.

The new republican city government of Biddeford was inaugurated on Monday. The city government of Saco was also inaugurated on the same day.

Mr. Joseph Milliken was elected city clerk of Saco on Monday. Mr. Milliken was first elected town clerk of Saco in 1858, and held that position until Saco was incorporated as a city, when he was elected the first city clerk, and has held that responsible position ever since, to the entire satisfaction of the public.

The republicans of South Berwick on Monday last carried the town election for the first time since 1865, electing every one of their candidates by large majorities. As might be supposed, they were very jubilant over their victory, when night came. The counting-out scheme of Pillsbury, Moody & Co., which was so unsuspectingly carried into effect by that guileless and honest old gentleman, Garcelon of Lewiston, was the most cunningly-contrived plan for assuring republican victories ever devised in a New England state.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has specially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is be coming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Lady's Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 2

Beauregard's Defence a Success.

When the case of the interference of the Post-Office department with the Registered Letter and Postal Order mail addressed to the Louisian State Lottery Company or to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., or the same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York city, N. Y., came up, General G. T. Beauregard, one of the Commissioners on behalf of the State of Louisiana, so ably defended the pet institution of the Crescent City that the Postmaster-General has rescinded his order of interference in time for the next drawing, April 13th.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.
The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood
The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.
The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

A Summer Tour.

A Summer Jaunt Through the Old World, being a record of an excursion made through Europe by the Tourjee excursionists of 1878; by Luther L. Holden; Boston; Lee & Shepard.

This book is just what it purports to be, a recital of continued enjoyment by a person who went abroad to have a good time, and succeeded. It is written, not in a carping or critical vein but in good temper, as if the writer was blessed with good digestion and made the most of his tour. Every one in New England and out of it, who reads the Boston Journal, knows that Mr. Holden is the accomplished dramatic critic of that newspaper. Long connected with the press, his journeys abroad, nominally for rest and recuperation, are but another field for the employment of his never idle pen. As foreign correspondent he is constantly traced in his transatlantic journeys, and his cultivated tastes, with his musical and dramatic knowledge, render him not only an agreeable compagnon de voyage, but to those at home his letters are full of unflagging interest. Like Mr. Curtis Guild, he sees everything, but he is never thrown out of gear. He is inclined to enjoy it all, and never to make himself uncomfortable or unhappy at any of the unavoidable mishaps which may occasionally befall the traveller. With the author we go on board the steamer, and throughout his book we see new sights, enjoy the country through which he passes, and become informed as to how much can be seen and enjoyed in a summer's jaunt to the old world, when so much of details and annoyance is saved by the excursion system so generally in vogue in Europe.

In visiting countries in the old world, when different modes of travel are so frequently necessary, where language, currency and customs are all new and at times perplexing to the American tourist, much time is economized and much expense is saved under the care and conveyance of the leading excursion firms of London. The traveller by the old mode does not purchase at the railway stations tickets for long routes, but is constantly making outlays, frequently expending much time in looking after luggage, fleeing porters and indeed discharging manifold duties and obligations, all of which under the new system the conductor saves to him, so that his entire time can be devoted to the enjoyments, and freed from the annoyances of his trips.

Mr. Holden gives us the experience of the pleasant parts of the tour, when all the responsibilities of the journey by sea or land are avoided by means of the complete and systematic operation of personally conducted tours in Europe. To those projecting a tour abroad, the book, in its six hundred well filled pages, affords much valuable information; while to the reader who delights in foreign travel it presents a faithful portraiture of much that is seen abroad, and withal presented in an attractive and happy manner.

The Cultivation of Raspberries.

There is nothing easier of growing raspberries, and of all our small fruit it is the most wholesome and to be preferred. The blackberry may be as wholesome when it is in perfection; but the strawberry, while it is a delicious fruit and preferred by many to all others, is positively injurious to a considerable proportion of persons. It contains an acid of a very peculiar and powerful nature. It affects the blood and produces eruptions; and people subject to gout are prohibited from touching the fruit. Raspberries, on the other hand, are not merely innoxious, but they are exceedingly wholesome and can be eaten in any desired quantity. Raspberry canes should be planted three feet apart in a row, and the rows three feet and a half to four feet apart. Cut the canes to within six inches of the ground and set firmly. We prefer a rather moist spot for them, and if in the shade a portion of the day, so much the better. They can be planted under fruit trees where scarcely anything else will grow, and the berry will be larger and finer. They like a cool, moist soil, kept so by liberal mulching with leaves, light manure, or any trash, and if a foot in depth it is an advantage.—Ex.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait.—Burlington Hawkeye.

Why Are You Bilious?

Because you have allowed your bowels to become costive, and liver torpid. Use Kidney-Wort to produce a free state of the bowels, and it will stimulate the liver to proper action, cleanses the skin of its yellowness, cures bilious headache, and causes new life in the blood. Druggists have it.

"The best cough medicine in the world." The Old Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. Cutler Bros. & Co., Boston. Small reduced to 35c; large, $1. sod&wtmay

The Reason Why.

The tonic effect of Kidney-Wort is produced by its cleansing and purifying action on the blood. Where there is a gravelly deposit in the urine, or milky, ropy urine from disordered kidneys, it cures without fail. Constipation and piles readily yield to its cathartic and healing power.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so lame and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878. MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threaten d to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, F. F. CARROLL, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 23, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

No fees for making preliminary examinations. No additional fees for obtaining and conducting a re-hearing. Special attention given to interference cases before the Patent Office, Extensions before Congress, Infringement Suits in different States, and all litigation appertaining to inventions or Patents. Send stamp to GILMORE & CO. for Pamphlet of sixty pages.

Old Bounty Land Warrants.

The last Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shows 2,507,500 acres of Bounty Land Warrants outstanding. These were issued under act of 1855 and prior acts. GILMORE & CO. pay cash for them. Send by registered letter. Where Assignments are imperfect we give instructions to perfect them.

Arrears of Pay and Bounty.

Officers, Soldiers and Sailors of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government of which they have no knowledge. Write full history of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp to GILMORE & CO., and a full reply after examination, will be given gratis.

Pensions.

All Officers, Soldiers and Sailors wounded, ruptured or injured in the late war, however slightly, can obtain a pension by addressing GILMORE & COMPANY.

Cases prosecuted by GILMORE & Co. before the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims and the Southern Claims Commission.

Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under the charge of the same experienced parties employed by the old firm. Prompt attention to all business entrusted to GILMORE & CO. is thus secured. We desire to win success by deserving it. Address

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION; Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical, debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to JOS. S. FISHER, president; W. I. P. INGRAHAM, vice-president; W. PAINE, M. D.; C. S. GAUNTT, M. D.; H. J. DOUCET M. D.; E. R. HALLINE, M. D.; J. R. HOLCOMB, M. THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in loca ities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair, the VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

THE PRAYER-SEEKER.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

Along the aisle where prayer was made,
A woman sat in black arrayed,
Close-veiled, between the kneeling host,
With gliding motion of a ghost,
Passed to the desk and laid thereon
A scroll which bore these words alone—
Pray for me!

Back from the place of worshipping
She glided like a guilty thing;
The rustle of her draperies, stirred
By hurrying feet, alone was heard;
While, full of awe, the preacher read,
As out into the dark she sped—
Pray for me!

Back to the night from whence she came,
To unimagined grief or shame!
Across the threshold of that door;
None knew the burden that she bore;
Alone she left the written scroll
The legend of a troubled soul—
Pray for me!

Glide on, poor ghost of woe or sin!
Thou leav'st a common need within;
Each bears, like thee, some nameless weight,
Some misery inarticulate;
Some secret sin, some shrouded dread,
Some household sorrow all unsaid—
Pray for me!

Pass on! The type of all thou art
Sad witness to the common heart!
With face in veil and seal on lip,
In mute and strange companionship,
Like thee we wander to and fro,
Dumbly imploring as we go:
Pray for us!

Ah, who shall pray, since he who pleads
Our wants perchance hath greater needs?
Yet they who make their loss the gain
Of others shall not sink in vain,
And Heaven bends low to hear the prayer
Of love from lips of self-despair—
Pray for us!

In vain remorse and fear and hate
Beat with bruised hands against a fate,
Whose walls of iron only move
And open to the touch of love.
He only feels his burden fall
Who, taught by suffering, pities all—
Pray for us!

He prayeth best who leaves unguessed
The mystery of another's breast—
Why cheeks grow pale, why eyes o'erflow,
Or heads are white, thou need'st not know;
Enough to note, by many a sign
That every heart had needs like thine—
Pray for us!

—Twenty-seven years ago there were born unto William Marshall, of Whitewater, Wis., triplets, two boys and a girl. They were all three married, a few evenings ago, in one ceremony by one clergyman, and the three happy couples took the train for Chicago.

The Ladies' Favorite.

Among the many thousands of ladies who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and pronounced it their favorite remedy, because so efficient in the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, are many who are well and favorably known in the world, as well as artists, musicians, and whole host of names from the brilliant ranks of wealth and fashion. It is pre-eminently the ladies' Favorite Prescription, its use, while being far more safe and efficient, exempting them from those painful, caustic operations, and the wearing of those mechanical contrivances made like Peter Pindar's razor—seller's razors—to sell, rather than to cure.

KILLMORE, Ind., March 20th, 1878.

DR. R. V. PIERCE:

Dear Sir—Your Favorite Prescription has restored me to perfect health.

Yours truly, GRACE CHOATE.

422 Eutaw street, BALTIMORE, Md., June 10th, 1878.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sir—My wife was a hopeless invalid for nearly twenty years. Your Favorite Prescription has cured her.

Thankfully yours, R. T. MCCAY.

—There is some difference between "cheek" and "brass." Cheek asks for anything any time without the sign of a blush. Brass comes up and takes it without asking.

The Reason Why.

The tonic effect of Kidney-Wort is produced by its cleansing and purifying action on the blood. When there is a gravelly deposit in the urine, or milky, ropy urine from disordered kidneys, it cures without fail. Constipation and piles readily yield to its cathartic and healing power.

—The weather in Florida is delightful. There is a great rush of northern visitors to Jacksonville, Augustine and Palatka. This is the best season in the history of the state.

Emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical weakness arrested by Malt Bitters.

—And again it is rumored that Theodore and Mrs. Tilton have become reconciled, and that their house is being refitted for their joint occupancy.

When we consider that Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites supplies the deficiency to unhealthy blood, restores the nervous element, and produces healthy action to the various organs and forces of the body necessary to sound mind, we wonder at the imbecility everywhere apparent.

—The man who will let the puzzle of "fifteen" bother him for two minutes when he could put in the time at yawning, is guilty of criminal neglect of his own best interests.

Women that have been bedridden for years have been entirely cured of female weakness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—A Constantine, N. Y., man thought he had struck an oil well, because the water in his well had acquired an oleaginous flavor. Persistent pumping disclosed the cause to be two kerosene lamps which had been stolen from a neighboring church.

DO NOT DELAY, but bear in mind that consumption often begins with a neglected cold or cough. Adamson's Botanic Balsam wins the day in curing coughs and colds. Price, 35 and 75 cents. Trial bottles, 10 cents.

THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 1880.

Dinis Kearney Admonished.

On the 16th inst., at San Francisco, Dennis Kearney was sentenced to six months in the house of correction and to pay a fine of $1000, for using violent, threatening and obscene language. The noisy, blathering demagogue has used no worse language and made no worse threats in San Francisco, so far as has been reported in the papers, than he did during his tour through the eastern states some time ago; but in the east the lawless element of society is not strong enough to render such a fellow as Kearney anything more than contemptible, while in 'Frisco, as the inciter of the sand-lots hoodlums to crime, he is dangerous. Hence he was allowed to bleat at will in Massachusetts, but is brought up with a round turn in California. It is probable that Kearney will take his case to a higher court on a writ of habeas corpus.

Murder and Suicide.

William A. Baker, a tin worker of Lynn, Mass., was murderously assaulted and robbed while at his work in the rear part of L. A. May & Co.'s hardware store, at about two o'clock in the afternoon on the 16th inst. He was an industrious and steady young man, a native of Peterboro', N. H., and aged about twenty-four years. A valuable watch, given him by his father as a Christmas present, and about $40 in money, were stolen by the assassin. Suspicion fell upon a fellow workman, Augustus C. Lindsey, a native of Lincolnville, Me., and he was traced to Boston, where it was found that he had fatally shot himself in the room of one of the female inmates of the Forrest house on Portland street. The girl denied any knowledge of the stolen watch and money, but the officers on raking over the hot coals in the stove found the remains of the watch and chain. Lindsey was an excellent workman, but has been accustomed to use morphine and spirits in large quantities, and was very variable in temperament. Baker was alive at midnight after the assault, but with a very slight chance of recovery, his skull being broken.

Farmer Holt to the Front.

Mr. Editor :—In your issue of March 10th you took pains to explain that the nomination of the St. Louis convention of rag-babies for president was "none other than the well-known and estimable citizen of Epping, Stephen Holt." You did this, I suppose, in order to satisfy your readers that the "Stephen Dillage" reported as nominated from New Hampshire was a misprint, and I was really the man intended. Now I want to say to you that I am no rag-baby, but a real hard-handed, sound-headed, full-grown democratic farmer. I not only vote the straight democratic ticket every time, always did, and always shall, but I thoroughly believe in the old democratic principle of hard, ringing gold and silver money. I never believed a promise to pay was the actual payment of anything. I never believed the federal government had the least particle of right to issue promises to pay as a circulating medium, or to be used as currency by the people. It is a fraud from inception to end, unconstitutional and infamous all through and throughout. I am no greenbacker because I am no fool. Any democrat who believes in federal greens as money is a shaky fellow, not to be trusted when principles are at stake, and democratic success is desired. Don't me out, and never put me in the absurd category again, for I won't stand it anyhow. What under heaven ever made anybody think I was a greenbacker is more than I know. I never used a ticket of that kind only two ways—to kindle the fire, and wipe my razor when on a shave. Please clear up my character, for it is the worst thing anybody ever said about me.—this calling me a greenbacker. If the democratic party want a New Hampshire man for president, one who is sound all over, they needn't go out of Portsmouth to find him, and the "citizen of Epping" you refer to will back him to the end of the race every time, and 'tain't you forget it. STEPHEN HOLT.

Epping, N. H., March, 15th, 1880.

The above, clipped from the "Times," deserves some comment.

As a specimen of sang froid it has rarely been equalled and never excelled: it is rich, rare, racy. Commend "Farmer Holt" to all lovers of "cheek."

On the 8th day of September, Anno Domini 1878, the State Greenback Convention assembled in Smith's Hall, Manchester, being numerously attended from all parts of the state of New Hampshire.

Then and there appeared Stephen Holt, a well known democratic politician of Rockingham county, who has attended many democratic conventions holden in this state.

Mr. Holt seemed to be quite an active delegate, and being all "cocked and primed" for a regular speech, was invited by President Sullaway of Manchester to the stage.

He announced himself to the assemblage as a working man, and accordingly pulled off his coat, which he slated on the floor, tugged at his sleeves, and in sledge-hammer style a la Denis Kearney proceeded to a violent harangue. Mr. Holt denounced both the old parties, the bond holders and the national banks; advocated the immediate payment of all United States bonds in greenbacks; deprecated a national debt, and advocated its payment in what he denominated an irredeemable paper currency, as the best way of getting out of the difficulty; he appealed to the poor farm laborer working for low wages, etc., etc.

It was understood that Mr. Holt was an aspirant for a nomination, but so violent was he that he disgusted the convention and was passed by in silence.

Perhaps Mr. Holt may deny all this; but according to usage and agreeably to instructions the proceedings of the convention were reported by the secretaries to the greenback organs, and by the numerous reporters present to the democratic and republican newspapers of Boston and other places; which any one can peruse, if he deems it of sufficient importance to hunt up the back copies. Also some 250 or more of the delegates present—a score from Portsmouth—will testify to this; statement and new Mr. Holt is crying baby, and eating crow.

NATHANIEL K. RAYNES, Secretary of the Greenback Convention for the State of New Hampshire, Sept. 5, 1878.

Another Respectable Thief.

At Providence, R. I., on the 16th inst., William D. Hilton, for ten years master of transportation on the Providence & Worcester railroad, and for twelve years superintendent of the road, from which latter position he retired about two years ago, confessed that he has for some time been issuing forged paper, purporting to be endorsed by William S. Slater or Lyman A. Cooke, or both. The amount of this bogus paper sent out by Hilton he estimates at $80,000. He says none of the money thus obtained has been used for corrupt purposes, but that it all went in assisting others, or trying to build up his own business and clear himself of the load of debt in which aiding others beyond his means had involved him.

News and Notes.

Ten thousand piano makers were idle in New York city on the 16th inst., owing to the lock-out by the manufacturers; and 10,000 coal miners were idle in the Ohio coal region, owing to a strike of railroad men on the Cumberland & Piedmont road. In the Pittsburg district of Pennsylvania fifty-seven iron mills had shut down on account of a strike of the puddlers, and twenty or thirty more were expected to close before the end of the week.

Information has reached the treasury department at Washington that a dangerous counterfeit $20 United States treasury note has made its appearance in Chicago. The note is of the series of 1875, letter C., and is printed on imitation fibre paper. The shading under the words United States is darker than in the genuine note, but the general appearance of the bill is excellent.

Monday night, the 15th inst., near Senatobia, Miss., Calvin Roberts (colored) was shot by City Marshal Lane while placing an obstruction on the track of the Mississipoi & Tennessee railroad. Within the past three years several attempts have been made to wreck trains at that point. Roberts will recover.

At Turtle Creek, Pa., on the 16th inst., Thomas Coughlin and Joseph Huff, lads of about fourteen years, quarreled. Huff hit Coughlin on the leg with a stone, and the latter knocked Huff senseless with a coupling-pin, crushing his skull. Huff is likely to die. Coughlin was arrested.

The house of Frank Griswold at South Nyack, New York, was burned on the 16th inst., and his daughter Ruth, three years old, was burned to death. The fire was caused by a kerosene lamp.

The Chicago police have captured a dangerous gang of railway thieves, whose depredations within two months are believed to have amounted to $30,000.

David Davis, in presenting in the United States senate a memorial on the abolition of the duty on printing paper, made a speech on the subject. He said that what food is to the body, the press is to the mind, and argued for the removal of all restrictions on it. He denounced the whole tariff system as belonging to a past age, and expressed his hope that it may be revised.

Joseph Wheelock, leading man of the "Gallery slave combination," was arrested in Lawrence, Mass., on the 16th inst., charged with assaulting Miss Marie Prescott, the leading lady of the company, at the Kirtland house in Lynn on the previous evening. The assault consisted in striking his fist in Miss Prescott's face, driving her from the table in the dining room of the hotel, and in applying various opprobrious epithets to her. It is said that the only cause for the assault was the fact that, some time previous, Miss Prescott, in the course of ordinary conversation, addressed Mr. Wheelock as "Joe," the name by which he is familiarly known.

Hon. Levi P. Morton and the New York Herald offer to one-half fill the frigate Constellation with supplies for Ireland. Charitable people of the country ought not to be long in providing the other half of the cargo.

The propeller T. S. Faxon left Bay City, Michigan, for Tawas, on the 11th inst., and up to the 16th had not been heard from; as the distance is only about one day's run, she is supposed to have been cut in two by the ice, and gone down with all hands. She carried a crew of fifteen men, and had twenty-five passengers, several of them being ladies.

Homer Wellington, of Cambridge, Mass., thirty years old and hitherto of good reputation, has been arrested for forging and stealing, and is to be arraigned for attempting the murder of his wife and two children by poison. He was married five years ago to Miss Nellie Boynton of Cambridge, whose father presented the young couple with a house valued at $10,000 as a marriage portion, and took Wellington into partnership on equal terms, though the latter put no money into the business. Wellington has been paying great attention to a young married woman who lives apart from her husband. Mrs. Wellington is very ill from the effects of arsenic administered by the prisoner.

Walter J. Whitredge and Miss Carrie Shattuck, whose elopement from Lawrence, Mass., on the 7th ult., caused such a sensation there, returned Monday night, the 15th inst., a married couple. The ceremony was performed in New York, whence they journeyed to Philadelphia, returning again to New York. They separated shortly after leaving the depot on their arrival in Lawrence, the bride going to the house of her parents, and the groom returning to the home of his parents.

Senator Rollins has introduced in Congress a bill to punish tramps in the District of Columbia, based on the New Hampshire law.

A Lilliputian Marriage.

Two of the members of the Lilliputian Opera company were married at the Whitcomb house in Rochester, N. Y., recently, concerning which interesting event the Express gives the following information:

"The groom in the case was Col. Stere, a gentlemen of thirty-six inches, thirty-three years, and a snug little fortune. He does not appear upon the stage with the rest of the party, but it is his more practical duty to attend to the team of ponies that draw the carriage in which the midgets take their rides through the streets. The bride is Rebecca Ann Myers, second soprano of the company, a blonde and, in fact, a lilliputian beauty. She is twenty-seven years of age, is well educated, and a brilliant talker. Her native place is Plymouth, Marshall county, Indiana; she has been on exhibition since 1873. Her husband, Col. Stere, began public life three years earlier. The two became acquainted with each other about two years ago, through the mediation of a mutual lady friend who played the part of a match-maker very successfully, first starting a correspondence which has since ripened into love, and is now consummated in marriage. The ceremony which meant so much to the little people, and was so interesting to all, took place about noon, and was solemnized by Dr. Saxe of the Universalist church. The wedding march was played by Mr. Jackson of the troupe, and the party entered the parlor. The bride came first upon the arm of the groom, and then Miss Jennie Quigley and Admiral Dot, and Miss Sadie Belton and General Fatman,—all of whom officiated as bridesmaids and groomsmen. The ceremony was very short, and after it was over with a magnificent dinner was partaken of. The dresses of the bride and Miss Jennie Quigley were almost similar, and consisted of pale blue grosgrain silk and plaited pale satin, with tulle lace trimmings, and ornaments of diamonds, the former having under her tiny veil a profusion of orange blossoms. Both dresses were cut princess. Miss Belton's dress consisted of plum-colored silk and black velvet, with ornaments of diamonds. The groom wore an English cutaway walking-coat, and his best men were in full evening dress."

— Two men at Bostick's mills, near Peedee, N. C., went into a granary the other day and found it full of rats. The creatures, instead of running, turned on them. Unluckily, a bale of hay fell against the door and closed the door. The fight became terrible. The men were badly bitten, one lost an eye and the other lost an ear before help came to them.

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr. Mott, of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey. The doctor has spent years in Portugal and the wine districts of France, and knows what he is talking about.

62 Madison Avenue,
NEW YORK, April 11, 1878.

MR. ALFRED SPEER:

Dear Sir—The visit which I made last year to your vineyards, wine-presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfies me thoroughly that the wines manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.

Acting upon my favorable impression at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine; more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied with marked benefit to my patients.

There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grape, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine brought from the luxuriant fruit. Wishing you success in your praiseworthy enterprise, I remain respectfully yours,

ALEX B. MOTT, M. D.,
Prof. of Surgery, Bellevue Hospital Medical College, etc., etc.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, March 18, 1:30 A. M.

Clear or partly cloudy weather, south westerly winds veering to north easterly, stationary or slightly higher temperature, rising followed by falling barometer.

AROUND HOME.

The schooner Mary S. Hontvet arrived from Georges on the 16th inst., bringing in about 30,000 lbs. of fish.

A man who was made a happy husband in this city on a recent Tuesday, gave his bride a grown person's thrashing on the following Thursday. "Matches are made in h——."

Gen. Chamberlain, the eloquent orator of Friday evening, was promoted on the field of battle (June 18th, 1864,) by Gen. Grant,—the solitary instance in the history of the Union army.

Rev. A. A. Waite will lecture at Music hall this (Thursday) evening; subject, "Experience of the past year—its sunshine and shadows." Five cents admission, to defray expenses; lecture begins at 7:45; bring "Gospel hymns."

The schooner Belle View brought in about 4000 lbs. of fish on the 16th, and the Flying Cloud and Village Belle together landed about the same amount. Several other vessels of the shore fishing fleet brought in small fares.

The town of South Newmarket has voted to change its name to Newfield, and thereby obtain the legacy left by the will of the late John M. Brodhead, giving $10,000 for a public library, provided that the town would change its name to its former name.

The comedy of the "Galley slave" was presented at Music hall on Wednesday evening, the 17th inst., to a fair audience. It is an extremely amusing piece, and was finely played and well received. The company is well balanced, all the parts being creditably taken; and we were particularly pleased with the acting of the lady who personified the Italian mother, —Miss Marie Prescott, we believe.

An old adage enforces the propriety of making hay while the sun shines; and though there is no adage on the subject that we know of, it is just as evident that the proper time for the ice-man to make his harvest is when the sun does not shine, or at least before it gets to shining too warmly. Mr. C. L. Brown of this city is aware of all this, and having taken some large contracts for furnishing ice to parties in Massachusetts, he made arrangements for cutting 1000 tons a day every day this week at Milton, and had the necessary men and gear on the spot and at work. But "the best laid schemes," etc.,—and on Saturday, the 13th inst., the hoisting engine which was depended on to do an important part of the work gave out, and where to get another one at once Mr. Brown did not know, until the thought of the navy yard, where he made an application to the authorities, and on representing the facts was at once accomodated with an engine which was at Milton and at work on Monday.

SEABROOK, March 15th.

At the adjourned town meeting on Wednesday last it was voted to adopt the fish and game laws, and fish and game wardens were chosen, one for each of the six school districts of the town. Calvin Eaton, of South Seabrook, was elected constable. Mr. Eaton was on the police force the past year and proved himself a most efficient officer. The prompt and effectual quelling of incipient disturbances which rum created during the first day's meeting, demonstrated that Seabrook has a police force to be proud of. Mr. Jeremiah F. Chase was moderator, and a most efficient one. Another thing which deserves mention was the covering of the floor of the town hall to the depth of an inch or more with sawdust, which absorbed the moisture and deadened the noise of the feet, and also furnished a soft carpet for the tread of the men who were engaged in serving their country. The town report gives the number of hawks on which bounty was paid as 449,—the bounties amounting to $99.80. The venerable form of John Philbrook, Esq., was missed from the meeting, the infirmities of age (he is "among the nineties") preventing his presence; no man has been more interested and none more consulted than he, in town affairs. His son, John P. Philbrook, was re-elected town clerk, his books showing neatness and accuracy. EXE.

G. A. R. MEETING.

At the regular meeting of Storer Encampment, Post 1, G. A. R., held Wednesday evening, the 17th inst., the following comrades were appointed by Commander George E. Hodgdon to act as committees on Memorial day observances, in conjunction with such committees as the citizens may appoint:

On Invitations—Daniel J. Vaughan, J. Horace Kent, John W. Parsons and William H. Lovell.

On Flowers—Robert E. Rich, James R. May, John H. Hutchinson and George D. Baxter.

Decoration of Graves—John H. Locke, Nelson Goodrich, Samuel Taylor and John E. Johnston.

Finance—William H. Smith, John H. Locke, James A. Waterhouse and Willard Young.

Evening Exercises—Nelson Goodrich, Marcus M. Collis, D. Webster Barnabee and Samuel M. Joy.

Procession, Route and Ceremonies at the Cemetery—Adolph Nelson, James E. Ford, John P. Tibbetts and Joseph R. Curtis.

Printing—Oliver M. Knight, Alfred M. Lang, Oliver S. Loomis and John Randall.

Music—James R. Morrison, David Urch, George F. Monroe and William Critchley, Jr.

"HER SHAWL."

It would seem that the notice in rhyme which we copied some time since, about a shawl found upon one of the sea-girt isles, probably belonged to one of the belles of the kitchen at the celebrated hostelry, if we may judge from the following reply received through the mail, written in a hand more bold than elegant. Perhaps it is the wrong shawl that has been found; at any rate there should be a "check" put upon such articles. The reply shows another strong argument in favor of advertising, and is as follows:

My Shawl.

Have care, me boy; can 't be you 're looney,
To sing about me shawl in lines so spooney?
"Delicate raiment!" now don't be harsh
On me cheap cotton, bought of Jordan Marsh.
Go now, ye spalpeen, and save for better misses
Your fishing smack, 'long with your summer kisses.
Arrah, you're foolin'. Don't tell me now
There's flowers growing on the Isle in snow;
The drifts are in your eye, not on the shore
This open winter, out at Appledore.
"Fairer than dawn." I'd rather hear ye speak,
And raise me wages a dollar more a week.
Now send me "threads of gold" without more blarney;
Direct to Bridget Sikes, in care of Michael Kearney.

"TULULA" REDIVIVUS.

The Boston Traveller says "the Mexican flower-seed man has reappeared in Massachusetts, and is likely soon to turn up in this city, where he operated successfully two years ago. In Springfield, it is said that he depleted pockets to the extent of $100 or more before leaving town. His method of operation is to purchase a quantity of cardamon seeds, enclose them in paper packets containing six seeds each, and sell them to householders for $1 per package. The peddler, who wears a broad-brimmed felt hat, long hair, and has other characteristics of a Mexican, represents that the seeds when planted will grow so rapidly as to produce fragrant and beautiful flowers like a rose within one month from the time they are put into the ground, and that the shrub will continue to bloom all the year round. He exhibits a gorgeous lithograph of what purports to be a shrub in blossom, and has succeeded in gulling a great many very good people." This Mexican flower-seed merchant will be at once recognized by the many persons in this city and vicinity who purchased "Tulula" be-t-seed of him at a dollar a package several years ago, as "Comanche George" Anderson, who it seems has again gone on the war-path, using cardamons for ammunition instead of beet-seed as formerly.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Frank Hartley of Saco and Roscoe M. Moulton of Parsonfield were among those who received the degree of doctor of medicine from the New York college of physicians and surgeons a few days ago.

The supreme court of the state of Maine at the law term has affirmed the judgment of the lower court in the case of George Bowden of York, indicted for perjury, and convicted; and also in case of the same, convicted for assault. In the first case a motion for a new trial, and in the latter several exceptions taken to the rulings of the judge before whom the case was tried, were overruled; and judgment on the verdicts was ordered.

Naval Gazette.

Medical Inspector Wm. M. King died in Philadelphia on the 14th inst.

Midshipmen Wm. R. Rush, Henry M. Dombaugh, Alfred L. Hall and Nicholas J. L. T. Halpine, acting Carpenter Milton F. Roberts, and Sailmaker Truman B. White are ordered to the Constellation. Lieutenant Joseph N. Hemphill is transferred from the observatory, Lieutenant Joseph K. Cogswell and Master Samuel L. Graham from the hydrographic office, Ensign Frank A. Wilner from the nautical almanac, and Ensign Edward J. Dorn from the Colorado, and all ordered to the Constellation.

Captain Jas. H. Gillis is transferred from the command of the Franklin, at Norfolk, to that of the Lackawanna, and Captain Ralph Chandler from the command of the Lackawanna and placed on waiting orders.

Lieut. Commander Henry C. Nields has reported his return home and been placed on sick leave.

Ensign E. B. Underwood is detached from the Tennessee, and ordered to the Franklin.

The U. S. S. Constitution was off the port of Havana on the 16th inst., and sent a boat ashore for her mail; she sailed for Hampton roads the same day.

Commodore Nicholson, commanding the New York navy yard, says the Constellation can sail for Ireland next week if the provisions to load her with are sent in at once—the ship will be ready as soon as her cargo is.

The Saratoga sailed from the Washington navy yard on the 16th inst., for a week's cruise, after which she will go to Hampton roads.

William Morris Hunt.

In a brief sketch of the life of this distinguished artist, (whose sad death at the Isle of Shoals, during September last, will be remembered,) written by Sarah W. Whitman of Boston for the International Review, the closing scenes of his life are touchingly portrayed. The writer, after speaking of his art-life abroad and his return to his native country in 1855, says:

"At the urgent wish of his friends, and feeling that residence in Boston would give room for a wider living, Hunt remove thither in 1862; and from this time may be traced the ever increasing influence which his life and work combined to exert. He touched very nearly all classes of people, for he was the gayest and sweetest of democrats; finding friends at every turn in the road, giving the very street-sweeper a sense of sympathy and exhilaration as he passed on to delight assemblies of cultivated people with his wit or his philosophy. Few who have ever listened to his brilliant, piquant talk, or to the play of his enchanting humor, can forget how his words illuminated every subject that he touched; how new and fresh a meaning he gave to the principles which underlie our existence, how deep a significance to beauty, how central a place to truth. Animated by a great sincerity William Hunt regarded a sham as something detestable,—loathed its existence; and that pretentious form of falsity by virtue of which men and women in society repeat set phrases of sounding words, or profess enjoyment of what they neither love nor understood, filled him with indignation which took shape in burning words, or in an impatience which was fierce even to injustice. On the other hand he was deeply moved by every earnest endeavor, and, with the instincts of a supremely generous nature, gave of his best to all who asked of him.

By a strange order of fortune, the last thing from his brush was a portrait of himself,—a strong, serious, compelling study, fine in color and superbly modelled; as much the work of the sculptor as of the painter; while the lines of the face tell supremely the story of genius.

Very soon after this, in the spring of 1879, Hunt was attacked with a severe illness, followed by debility and a profound melancholy. Though he rallied somewhat, yet still, throughout the summer, he found himself unable to work, as well as greatly reduced in strength; while the thought that he should never be better haunted him constantly. But among his friends his sympathetic cheerfulness still disarmed all fears, and no one guessed how thin was thread of his launtless spirit. Through the month of August he had been staying at the Isles of Shoals, and on the morning of the 8th September, a day when the clouds were dark and the air was heavy, he went forth alone, never again to return to the familiar places. No one may know the manner of his departure; it is enough that on the surface of a little upland pool he was found lying peacefully freed by that throbbing impulse we call death."

Political.

The senate committee on elections has decided by a party vote to recommend that Kellogg of Louisiana be unseated, and Spofford put in his place. This was just as certain before a word of evidence was taken as it is now, and no amount of evidence would have altered it. Spofford is a democrat, and wants Kellogg's place; that's about all there is of it.

It is stated that the southern politicians are industriously moving in a scheme for running a third candidate, if Grant and Tilden are nominated by the two great parties.

John Kelly has secured a controlling voice in the management of the New York Express by getting twenty-five shares of stock which James Brooks had hypothecated with a paper-dealer, as security for a debt. The bill was not due until June, and Brooks will contest the matter in the courts.

A Rum-Selling Priest.

Deputy Collector Robinson of Westfield, Mass., has obliged Rev. A. B. Dufresne, French Catholic priest of Holyoke, to settle for selling liquor without a United States license, and Dufresne has left for Canada. He had four casks of liquor in the basement of the church, in the same room where the juvenile school was held, and several persons, ready to testify, bought liquor of him. Dufresne is the priest who told his people not to patronize Joseph Parker, a hackman, who had displeased him, and so destroyed his business, for which Parker recovered $3,400 damages in the superior court last fall.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. L. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

The Honest Governor.

Ex-Governor Garcelon is a good deal more honest as a witness than as a politician. On Monday, he testified, at Augusta, that he had drawn out of the public treasury of the state seven thousand dollars for which he could not now fully account in any way. Some of it went to pay the unnecessary guards at the capitol; some of it went to pay the democratic lawyers for democratic service; some of it went to pay Pillsbury, who is now forth of the state of Maine, for hypothetical services, and some of it is wholly unaccounted for. The upshot is, that seven thousand dollars was illegally taken, and is not likely to be returned without further scandal, and which, if not returned, is to be charged directly to Gov. Garcelon and not to his council. It is assuredly not pleasant to find Gov. Garcelon thus inevitably taking from under him, and away from him, the charitable theory of the Boston Post, that he was in all this fraud business the mere dupe of wickeder men—his council, to wit. When Gov. Garcelon drew upon the high-school fund in favor of Alonzo Garcelon, he certainly knew that that was improper in form; when he says he cannot account for the money, he knows that he has been guilty of illegal conduct. What and all he says is, that he did not use the money to pay his personal bills. This is doubtless true. It was paid and is held to pay for the work done to cheat the people of Maine out of their political rights.—Providence Journal.

Why Are You Bilious?

Because you have allowed your bowels to become costive, and liver torpid. Use Kidney-Wort to produce a free state of the bowels, and it will stimulate the liver to proper action, cleanses the skin of its yellowness, cures bilious headache, and causes new life in the blood. Druggists have it.

Cuticura REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, could rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system. Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1869, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, Mr. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly,

F. P. CARROLL,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use the hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMOOR, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 7, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, the inventor.

VERSES FOR A LETTER.

BY SARAH O. JEWETT.

Did you send out a little white moth
On an errand to-night?
For one hovered and lingered about
With a flutter so light;

A tired little moth, with his wings
Like a flower that had blown
All away on the breath of a wind
That had kissed it and flown.

Did you tell him to hurry, and fly
Through the shadows so fast,
Because I would wait all alone
Till the twilight was past?

For later the lamps would be lit,
And I should go down
To listen to laughter and talk
Of the news of the town.

But my own time is just at the hour
While the clouds fade away;
I could not help wishing for you,
And my thoughts were astray,

And the little white moth fluttered in
With the news I had sent;
My heart in that minute could tell
Just the words you had meant.

I knew we were so far apart,
I was tired and sad;
But the little moth brought me your love,
And then I was glad.

DOLLY AND I.

When I first started in business life, it was as clerk in the small establishment of Mr. Brusle, stationer. It was not a very remunerative situation, but old Mr. Brusle was a kind old man, Mrs. Brusle a nice, talkative old lady, and Dolly Brusle often came into the shop and stood behind the counter beside me.

Dear little Dolly; she had brown eyes, and a dimple on her chin, and she sang like a prima donna.

Old Mr. Brusle and my father had been friends, and I was not a servant only, but a friend as well, and all the excuse I needed for staying every night was given in the words:

"I want to hear the singing."

Well, any one might have wanted to hear it for that matter—not merely a boy who was in love. Things went on in this way for three years, when, one afternoon, Mr. Brusle, shutting the draw of his desk with a bang, said:

"It's no use, Tom; I may as well give in. I'm not making a penny, and I shall break up the business. The old woman and I can manage on what we have, with only one child, and I can rest and stop fidgeting. I suppose Dolly can teach a little, too, and she can have some finery in that way. But the old shop is a mockery, and I've known it a good while."

So that was the end of that Arcadian time. The stock and fixtures were sold out, and the shop was altered into a parlor; and I wrote to my uncle in London, who had promised to take me into business with him if I wished it, and he telegraphed to me:

"Come next week."

And then, one day, I asked Dolly to walk down into the meadows, and see if the blackberries were ripe. We took two little baskets, and the berries were hanging plump and large and purple-black; but before we picked one, I drew her to a quiet place under the great chestnut, and put my arms around her waist, and said:

"Dolly, you know just how I feel toward you, don't you? You know I love you."

She nestled up to me a little closer, and I took both her tiny hands in mine.

"Will you wait for me a little while, Dolly?" I said. "Will you think that I am doing my best all the time to bring the day nearer when I can ask your father to give you to me?"

"Yes, Tom, I'll wait."

And then we picked blackberries, and went home through the meadows.

"We'll not speak of it yet, Tom," said Dolly. "At home, I mean. They think me such a child yet. I don't want to break the charm. In time they will guess that I am a woman; and they like you, Tom."

The evening passed swiftly. I arose to go.

"God bless you, Tom!" said the old man.

I pressed my lips to Dolly's forehead. In that moment of parting the old folks thought it was only natural. And then I was gone.

My trunk had been at the station for hours. I heard the whistle of the train; I saw the red glare of the monster's eye; I heard the snort and the tramp. He was ready for me, and the city and its whirl awaited me.

For a time I was bewildered in the city; then very busy; then flushed with the prospect of being rapidly advanced, and of being able to ask Dolly to be my wife sooner than I expected.

I wrote her joyous letters. She wrote pleasant ones back to me. We did not make them open love-letters, but both understood the love at the bottom of them.

And so the year glided by. For the first six months I had no holiday. Then a grudgingly-given week was given me, and I visited my friends and had a glorious time.

Dolly was lovelier than ever. She walked over to the station with me when I left, leaning on my arm. The train had not come in yet—the one from London, but the other had set down some passengers from the city. One, a stout gentleman of thirty-five, dressed in fine style, having given his portmanteau to a porter, advanced toward Dolly.

"How do you do, Miss Brusle?" said he.

She held out her hand shyly.

"How do you do, Mr. Holly? Tom, this is Mr. Holly. Mr. Holly, Mr. Hearn."

He bowed, so did I. But the fellow had such an air with him that I hated him. How did she know him? I had never seen him before.

"Who is he?" I asked, in a whisper, as the porter called Mr. Holly back for directions.

"He has something to do with the opera, I think," said Dolly.

Then came the shriek of the whistle at the station. On thundered the train.

"All in for London!" yelled a voice.

"Good bye, Tom," said Dolly.

"Good bye," said I, but I stared at Mr. Holly.

"You will be left, Tom," said Dolly.

I hurried away. I found a seat. I thrust my head out of the window.

Dolly was walking away on Mr. Holly's arm, and his head was very close to hers—very.

I made a fool of myself next day. I wrote Dolly an indignant letter. She wrote me a spirited answer.

I demanded an explanation as to how she came to know Holly, in my next, and before any answer came to this Mrs. Brusle walked into our place with her shopping bag in her hand one morning.

"I want you to take me to some nice shop, Tom," she said, "if you can spare an hour or so. I'm going to buy a black silk for Dolly, and she told me to tell you all about it, as you seemed to be to upset."

I asked the permission necessary, and called a cab. Once within it, the old lady began.

"You see, Dolly will need to be dressed handsomely. She starts next month. It's all settled, you know, between her and Mr. Holly."

"Settled?" cried I.

"Yes," said the old lady. "I knew you'd be pleased with the good news. She was singing in the choir, and he happened to go there to church, and he asked an introduction and got it, and called next day. It's very sudden, very; but she wouldn't engage herself to him without our consent; and it's such a fine thing that we can't refuse. So we've consented. She'll feel homesick, no doubt, away from us; but we mustn't think of that. I try not to," and then the old lady put her 'kerchief to her eyes.

"She told you to tell me?" I said.

"Oh, yes," said the old lady.

My heart was on fire, my blood was boiling; but I made no sign.

News and Notes.

A large number of carriages from Amesbury, Mass., are being sent over the Eastern railroad to market.

"Sand-wiches" is the suggestive imprint upon a placard in the Eastern railroad station at Salem, Mass.

The act which passed the Rhode Island house of representatives recently, repealing the law forbidding the intermarriage of whites and blacks, was indefinitely postponed by the senate on the 16th inst. by a large majority vote. The act was not even discussed.

At Westfield, Mass., March 17th, Henry W. Hammersley, aged fifteen years, was bound over in $1,000 for attempting to burn a whip factory on two occasions. He says his only motive was desire to see a fire.

John G. Mort and Miss Addie Anderson of Fall River, Mass., recently went through the form of marriage "for fun," the ceremony being performed by a very young man, a friend of the parties, who is a justice of the peace. Miss Anderson is considerably older than Mort, and would not consent to a real marriage under any circumstances. However, somebody having told the young justice that he had been guilty of a state prison offense, he has, by the advice of friends, tried to straighten out the matter by obtaining, the day after the marriage, a certificate, and by having the item published in the local press. Steps will probably be taken to bring the matter before a court of equity, when all the circumstances of the case will be fully set forth upon a petition to have the marriage set aside.

The notorious burglar, Adolph Bender, who was arrested in Boston a few weeks since, has been disposed of by the court at Newport, R. I. Property comprising several hundred dollars worth of silverware was found on him by the officers. He pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to seven years in state prison.

The Essex woollen mills at Salisbury, Mass., were sold at auction on the 17th inst. for $300,000. It is to be hoped they will start up under new auspices. The mills have for a long time been idle.

Gov. Andrews of Connecticut says that he should regard unfavorably any proposition for him to offer a reward for information leading to the conviction of the murderer of Mary Stannard, because while such an act would be an acknowledgment of Hayden's innocence, it might act as a bid for the manufacture of evidence against him. The governor is empowered to offer a reward of $3,000. Two men have said that for $1,000 they would produce evidence sufficient to convict the guilty man, who is not Hayden. The Hayden autobiography is said to have fallen flat on the market, the sale being far below the estimate.

Johanes Debor was hanged at Pontiac, Ill., March 17th, for the murder of Elia Martin, aged seventeen years, whom he first attempted to outrage.

At Grand View, Ind., on the night of the 16th inst., Emery Phillips entered the room of Thomas J. Snyder and kicked in the head of a bass drum belonging to Snyder, who, upon inquiring the cause of the act, was shot just above the eye by Phillips with a revolver, and died instantly. Phillips had been drinking all the afternoon, and swearing that he or Snyder would die before night.

Capt. Edward Morton of Pittstown, Me., was fatally injured on the 17th inst. by his horse becoming frightened and crushing him between the load and a tree. His death ensued in a few hours.

Martin Power, of Chicago, while in a fit of insane despondency on the 17th inst. shot his wife Bridget fatally, and then fired two shots into his own head, causing instant death.

At Aurora, Ill., March 17th, Mrs. W. Baldwin was found dead in bed with her throat cut, and beside her lay her unconscious husband with several gashes in his throat, arms and abdomen. The man's wounds are not serious. Baldwin is from Vermont, and the parties were married three weeks ago. The cause of the act is unknown.

At Winchester, Ill., on the 17th inst., one hundred masked men rode up to the county jail at one o'clock in the morning, battered down the door and overpowered the jailors, opened the cell of Joseph J. Fields, a murderer, and shot him to death with revolvers.

Fritz Bruerman of Mishicott, Wis., went home drunk on the 17th inst., and threw his son to the ground with such violence as to kill him.

John Bright, the great English liberal, writes to a gentleman at Atlanta, Ga., as follows: "As for your old slave south, you will have few Englishmen settling there so long as the old temper of your people continues to exist. We hear of the ill-treatment of the negro, and of the hostile disposition of many of your white population towards families who come from the north. I know not how much of this is true, but so long as the belief in its truth exists, your southern states will make small progress in comparison with the north and west. You have soil and climate, but you will not easily or speedily shake off the old curse, and men from Europe will prefer a country where slavery has not prevailed, and where the negro is not a considerable portion of your population."

The schooner Susan, ninety-three tons, built at Amesbury in 1809, and commanded by Capt. David Rossiter, was probably the first American vessel to go into the bay of St. Lawrence or bay of Chaleur for mackerel. The trip was successful, and the vessel brought home six hundred barrels of fish. This must have been about the year 1830, and we will thank any one for information in relation to this or any other vessel that went to the bay at an earlier date.—Newburyport Herald.

New Hampshire Items.

The sensational story from West Rumney, relative to the supposed murder of Joseph E. Putney, is pronounced untrue, the people of the town having no doubt that his death was caused by a kick from a horse, which was found standing by him when he was first discovered.

For the first time for many years the democrats of Peterboro' have elected a member of the board of selectmen. They also elected the town treasurer, who, however, was voted for by the republicans.

Officers at Keene arrested ten boys, Wednesday, the 17th inst., for breaking into cars and stealing goods, which they secreted in a barn on the outskirts of the city. Six of them were sent to the reform school, and the others were released on probation.

C. Robb's tub, pail-handle and clothes-pin manufactory at South Stoddard was burned on Monday night, the 15th inst. Loss, $8,000; no insurance. It is believed to have been an incendiary fire.

New Publications.

The publishers of the Atlantic Monthly, having fairly digested the Holmes' breakfast, send the April number with an inviting variety of matter. Mr. Aldrich's new story, "The Stillwater Tragedy," begins with this number. The names are familiar, borrowed doubtless from the home of the author's childhood. Sarah O. Jewett has some verses for a letter, which we copy. The irrepressible R. Grant White has a few more left; while the reminiscences of Washington are sketched in an easy and readable style. The present number is far above the average of the magazines of the present day. The admirers of Aldrich must not fail to begin with the April Atlantic his pleasingly commenced story; about it there is a tragedy which the author will in some comfortable way be obliged to dispose of.

Our New York Fashion Letter.

COMBINATION COSTUMES.

Medium styles of trimmings are conspicuous by their absence. There are very rich rainbow beaded or jet passementeries and fringes, but these are adapted to elegant costumes worn at watering-places, and would look absurd if placed on summer silks, or any variety of the large family of light silk and wool fabrics imported for summer wear. Such facts are a decided hint not only of the continued popularity of combination costumes, but even of a necessity for them, since there is really nothing else left for us to do, than to trim a costume of plain material with a yard or more of fancy fabrics, or vice versa, to combine a plain material in shading on a rich toilet of figured goods. All proportions, indeed, are regarded as correct; oftentimes the outfit is of the two materials in equal quantity, and to give any rules would be quite as puzzling as to bring into line that last and unlucky combination of 13, 14, 15, when "15" has gotten on the wrong side. But it certainly is proper that young girls should indulge more freely in a display of light, fanciful fabrics, than where middle life has been reached or bordered upon. The Micheline is a new design for a walking skirt which gives the effect of a long overskirt open half way up the front, and moderately bouffant at the back; and with this, the Marquise basque combines prettily. The Leontine is another stylish street costume with a long casaquin and cut away fronts. The Odette is also a street dress with long, plain redingote and shirred front; and the Fantine overskirt and Perinette jacket would likewise make a pretty spring outfit. The Bianca is a new demitrain.

THE HEATHEN CHINEE.

We raise an outcry against the Heathen Chinee, but nothing will be thought more distinguished this summer, than Chinese ideas in dress. We are not quite so demented, it is true, as to array ourselves after the manner of figures on tea caddies, but everywhere, in material, there is an endeavor to copy. In cotton goods, Fleur de The (Flower of Tea) Cresse Yokohama and Cresse Yeddo are the things; while in silken materials, wool, silk and wool, and even in the gingham family can be seen the crinklings peculiar to Canton crape. The three first named are very thin, beautifully figured in Oriental or floral patterns, and in view of their nicety of texture and stylishness they will be found somewhat expensive, ranging from forty to seventy cents per yard. "Stamped" silks, satins and very thin woolens are also a leading feature in spring goods. The figure is only on one side, not woven in as formerly—and if we could only confess it, there are those among us who remember perfectly the time when these peculiar ideas were in vogue. We are reminded of the old fashioned challies and other goods of like character. But every kind of figured matrial has its component in plain, so that the combination styles written of above may be carried out.

NEW PARASOLS.

One is taken back far into the long ago, by a sight of the new Drown parasols. They are provided, each one, with a quaint ivory ring suspended from the top, which is brought down upon occasion when one wishes to close the parasol. All manner of beautiful brocades are used, and Spanish and Cashmere laces are favorite edgings; the latter appearing with especially good effect on parasols of ecru pongee. Brilliant but peculiar lights are cast by changeable silk linings placed behind the ribs, which are the more conspicuous because they are painted red. Twelve is the fashionable number, and sizes are eighteen inches. Handles are constantly furnished with birds' heads, and it does not seem as if the fancy for owls' heads had become exhausted, for they appear very frequently. Knotty handles of light wood in natural color, bugs and flies crawling over them, and mountings of white china painted, are entirely novel.

Among the harbingers of spring, not the least prominent is that well established favorite, the Fashion Quarterly of Messrs. Ehrich Bros., of Eighth avenue. The feature of this magazine is its usefulness as a "manual of shopping" or "purchaser's guide;" its illustrations and descriptions being so copious and exact, and its lists of prices so carefully compiled that its readers learn exactly what to wear and what to lay aside, and can make their selections from the stock of a country store with as clear an understanding as if in a city establishment. Fifty cents was never better invested than as a subscription to the Quarterly.

LUCY CARTER.

—J. A. Harper's collection of paintings sold in New York, last week, brought $105,670. A picture of three little girls teaching a dog to hold a cracker on his nose was purchased by a connoisseur of Rochester for $3450.

The lily is as white as snow,
The rose is a the crimson red;
But neither can surpass in glow,
The color or the brightness shed,
By the sweet lips and teeth allied
That SOZODONT has purified.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted; double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so harmful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

See a Woman!

In another column, picking grapes for SPEER'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first-class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to Burgundy or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. —Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

—The German comic newspapers have a picture of a youth astride of a horse which the father is anxious to dispose of to a customer who stands by, and the boy, who is in ignorance of the nature of the bargain, leans from the saddle and whispers to his parent, "Father, shall I ride him to buy or sell?" which is a Yankee story, antedating the revolution.

No purer, safer, more unobjectionable stimulant in medicine than Malt Bitters.

—Bernard Biglin went home from a carousal at Vernon Hill, Neb., expressly "to have some fun with the old man," his father. He began by pulling his aged parent out of bed and compelling him to dance a jig barefooted on the cold floor. Then he commanded his father to stand on his head; but the feat was beyond the old man's power, and the son had begun to whip him for failing, when his mother, a stalwart sort of woman, bounded out with a chair and knocked him senseless. Bernard's skull was broken and he came near dying.

AROUND HOME.

Gen. Chamberlain's lecture, and the Grand Army quartette, at Music hall this evening.

A subscriber makes the following appeal: "Cannot Music hall be made more comfortable than it has been during some evenings of late? Give us less heat and more fresh air." Would be happy to oblige, but we don't run the hall.

The members of Storer Encampment, Post 1, G. A. R., are requested to meet at their hall this (Friday) evening, at seven o'clock, in uniform.

The house, barn and outbuildings of Edwin C. Haines at Newmarket, together with farming tools, furniture, two horses, two hogs and a calf, were burned Wednesday night of this week. Loss $3000; insured in the Exeter mutual company for $1800.

Don't forget the excellent entertainment at Music hall this evening, in aid of the charity fund of Storer Encampment, G. A. R.

Mr. Joseph W. Bell opens his splendidly-fitted new saloon, the National Eating-house, in National block, Fleet street, this evening. It is claimed to be way ahead of anything else of the kind in the state.

Mr. Editor: Will you kindly announce the hour for admission to Music hall on Friday evening? Many persons from Kittery want to hear Gen. Chamberlain, and are not informed at what time he is to speak.

The doors of the hall will be opened at 7:00 o'clock, and the exercises will commence promptly at 8:00.

The schooner Mary S. Hontvet, Hontvet master, on her arrival at this port from her first trip to the Georges, some weeks ago, reported that during the heavy gale of Feb. 3d, when about twenty-five miles east of the shoal of Georges, she sighted a lumber-laden brig badly iced, but could see the letter "W" of her name, and that she hailed from St. John, N. B. The wind at the time was southeast, the vessel heading south-southwest, and she had up lower topsails, double-reefed-mainsail, foretopsail and main staysail, with foresail clewed up and men furling it. The vessel was having the full strength of the tide, setting her on the shoals. A week later, near the same place, the Hontvet fell in with floating lumber and picked up fifteen feet of ash oar, painted green, blade white. The above vessel is believed to be the big Wanderer, of St. John, of which vessel it was reported that no news had been received up to March 4th.

GOOD.

The consolidation of the Whitcomb Shoe Manufacturing Co., of Mechanic Falls, Me., with the Portsmouth Shoe Factory Co., is an assured fact. Mr. Whitcomb having telegraphed his acceptance of the terms on Wednesday of this week. The directors of the Portsmouth company will hold a meeting this evening, to decide upon a location for the new factory building.

DONATION VISIT.

Rev. John A. Goss, pastor of the Christian church, was on the evening of the 7th inst., called upon by over one hundred members of his society and congregation, who presented him with a beautifully bound copy of Webster's unabridged dictionary, about $30 in money, and a goodly quantity of groceries. After a brief but pleasant season spent in conversation and singing, the company retired at an early hour. The society has voted (eighty-two to nineteen) not to accept Mr. Goss' resignation, and it is to be hoped he can be induced to withdraw it.

FROM DOVER TO YORK BEACH.

A Dover correspondent of the Concord Statesman, in reference to the new Eliot bridge says:

The whole cost to the city, aside from that to the stockholders in the bridge, will perhaps amount to $2,000, which, it is expected, will be repaid by the increased travel and business which it will bring to us from a thrifty section of York county, the people of which have heretofore been accustomed to go to Portsmouth and elsewhere to do their trading. At the opening of the beach season, coaches will probably be put on, to run in connection with the cars, should the public travel in that direction call for it.

If the trade of that section of country is worth anything to Portsmouth we should be doing something to retain it; either by freeing the Portsmouth bridge or convincing our customers in York county that we can sell them goods as cheaply as can the Dover merchants. The main object of the new route, however, is to allow the Dover people to go to York beach on Sundays by a shorter route. The cost of this new road and bridge will eventually come out of the citizens of Dover, but the ride to York never can be as attractive as the river road to Portsmouth and thence to Rye or Newcastle. But it is commendable that a new avenue to the seaside should be provided for the laboring classes who are shut up in the mills at Dover and other towns in that vicinity, and the mill managers see that fresh air and rest by the sea in the end will prove a good investment in a sanitary point of view. York beach will be crowded on Sundays next season with pleasure seekers from the head of the river.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

Alfred Stavers asked for a relay of his sidewalks on Congress and Vaughan streets. Referred to committee on streets with mayor added.

Frank Jones asked for relay of sidewalk at the corner of Bow and Penhallow streets. Granted.

Joint resolution in relation to night soil was referred to committee on bills on second reading.

Matter of new floor needed in city building was referred to committee on city lands and buildings, with power.

The subject of the abatement of taxes by the assessors in favor of themselves was then considered. On enquiring, the city clerk produced the record of a meeting of the board of assessors held March 18th, at which meeting resolutions were passed that they would pay back to the city treasurer the amount abated, and would seek to recover the amount justly due them by other means. Mr. Oxford appeared personally before the board in explanation of the action of the assessors, and said he regretted what he considered the hasty action taken by the board of aldermen, and that he had learned on enquiring that in other cities in this state that the assessors were paid a much larger sum than was asked for by this board. Remarks were made by Aldermen Laighton, Sanborn, Hodgdon and Hall.

Voted that the action contemplated in the last resolution passed at the last meeting be suspended for one week.

Several bills referred to committee on claims were reported, they recommending that bill of Critchley & Whalley be paid.

Bills of Officers White, Nowell, Abbott and Moore were recommitted to committee on claims.

Howe Call had leave to withdraw his bill. Bill of Robert Shillaber, ordered paid. So much of Dr. Grant's bill as relates to salary was ordered paid.

Voted that the board of health be notified that no extra compensation will be allowed them after this date.

Committee on fire department to whom was referred the subject of connecting the city marshal's office with the breweries by telegraph wire, reported recommending it to be done, cost not to exceed $150; accepted, and further consideration postponed for two weeks.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

"Widow Perkins," eighty-six years old, residing on Washington street, Biddeford, is cutting a third set of teeth.

A freight train of over fifty cars went through South Berwick a few days ago, going north over the Conway railroad.

Chick's mill in York, near Gerry's pond, which was burned down some time ago by an incendiary fire, has been rebuilt, and is now running constantly, sawing lumber.

Charles H. Thompson of Kennebunkport on the 15th inst. launched a porgie steamer of large size, and has another in frame. He is also getting out the frame of a two hundred ton schooner.

The Langton brothers of Kittery, three in number, this winter bought of Albert Hill a wood-lot, partly in Kittery and partly in Eliot; after cutting forty-nine cords of wood they ceased operations, on account of their being no snow to enable them to haul their wood to market.

So little ice in York river as has been there during the past winter, was never known by the oldest residents of the town. Smelts have been plenty in the river all winter, but the hand-line fishermen report them as not biting the hooks at all; two persons who used seines caught more than all the line-users put together.

A farmer of York informs us that there are fewer sheep kept in that town and Kittery now than there were twenty-five years ago, though no stock pays better, when kept in small flocks and carefully looked after. This season the lambs produced are very healthy and more numerous than usual, most of the flocks being crossed with the Southdown and Cotswold breeds.

Mr. Henry A. Moulton, of York centre, has made ladders for the past twenty-five years, and is said to have done well at it. He employs four men constantly, and occasionally has six or eight engaged. He makes the ladders by machinery, driven by horse-power; five horses always, and sometimes double that number, are used. The poles used are spruce, brought from the eastward by vessel, up York river; the rounds are of hard wood, cut in York. The ladders are peddled about the neighboring country, many of them coming to Portsmouth; and all not disposed of in the local market are sent to Cambridge, Mass., where Mr. Moulton has an agent.

—Here's to lovely woman—the conundrum which we can't guess, but which we will never, never give up!

—A piece of court plaster on a pretty girl's cheek is very much out of place; but it don't improve matters any when her beau goes home at eleven o'clock with it on the end of his nose.

—Says Jones: "When I see Mrs. Jones in the clothes-yard, both arms as red as a boiled lobster, bared to the elbow and stretched high above her in their struggles with an unruly sheet, an apron over her head, her hair in her eyes, and a clothes-pin protruding from her mouth, it seems impossible that she is one and the same with the Miss Stebbins I used to feed on peppermints, and about whom I used to rave so."—Boston Courier.

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which ionstitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Rules for Leap Year Courting.

Girls know only one-quarter as much about courting as boys, because they have only one year in four in which to practice.

As a matter of course, leap year finds them poorly prepared to "step in and win," and we will give a few hints as to how it should be done.

First, fix up in style, black your boots carefully, heels and all, and if the "shine" don't come in a hurry stat the brush across the floor into the corner, quoting what scripture you happen to know.

'Twill be a big job to put on your collar and necktie, and the chances are that there will be more looking in the glass than in the case of a fellow coming to see you.

On the way to "his" house, speak to all the fellows you know; this is a good point, and the only way to pay him back for flirting with the girls for three years.

As you near the house, cross the street and pass by it. This will give you a chance to see if the parlor is lighted and to surmise if any other girl is calling.

If, when you step up and pull the door bell, your heart is not in your mouth, then you've struck the wrong house.

Inquire if the young gentleman are in, and—don't forget and wear your hat, hang it up on the piano or the floor, or some other place.

Chew cloves assiduously during the call, otherwise he may think you're been drinking.

If he is a little, timid, blushing thing, talk about the weather, his ma, his pa, and other distant subjects.

If he plays and sings, stand up like a little man and turn the music—we don't refer to an organette.

He'll probably yawn and cover up an immense gape with his jeweled hand; but don't take the hint.

Playfully turn the gas down; he'll probably say "O, you shouldn't," but recollect how he "doused the glim" last year.

You don't need to say much at this point. Conversation is apt to be a nuisance at critical conjunctures.

Previous experience will doubtless suggest the course of events for the rest of the evening.

When the old lady calls out "It's ten o'clock," don't mind it, wait till she calls eleven and twelve; in fact, stay till you hear the milkman rattling his cans.

Ask for a match to light your cigar, linger at the door a half hour longer, make him think that he is your own, and only—and go and see another fellow next evening.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop-Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait. —Burlington Hawkeye.

—When a Texas judge asks the opposing lawyers if they can't compromise a disputed point, the clerks know that it means they'd better get outside the bar, and carry off any ink stand or paper weight they don't want thrown. There's some fun in being a judge in Texas.

Do not Delay, but bear in mind that consumption often begins with a neglected cold or cough. Adamson's Botanic Balsam wins the day in curing coughs and colds. Price, 35 and 75 cents. Trial bottles, 10 cents.

—A pet money in New York tackled an endless rope, which ran, like a belt, over a pulley-wheel above, through holes in the floor and over a pulley-wheel below, and it was two hours before he came to the conclusion that he couldn't climb the thing, and then he was fearfully fatigued and mighty mad.

The Ladies' Favorite.

Among the many thousands of ladies who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and pronounced it their favorite remedy, because so efficient in the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, are many who are well and favorably known in the world, as well as artists, musicians, and whose host of names from the brilliant ranks of wealth and fashion. It is pre-eminently the ladies' Favorite Prescription, its use, while being far more safe and efficient, exempting them from those painful, caustic operations, and the wearing of those mechanical contrivances made like Peter Pindar's razor—seller's razors—to sell, rather than to cure.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during that time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflamation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threaten d to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 28, 1878.

American and Foreign PATENTS.

[ESTABLISHED 1865.]

GILMORE & CO., Successors to CHIPMAN, HOSMER & CO., Solicitors. Patents procured in all countries. No fees in advance. No charge unless the patent is granted. No fees for making preliminary examinations. No additional fee for obtaining and conducting a re-hearing. Special attention given to Interference Cases before the Patent Office. Extensions before Congress, Infringement Suits in different States, and all litigation appertaining to inventions or Patents. Send stamp to GILMORE & CO. for Pamphlet of sixty pages.

Old Bounty Land Warrants.

The last Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shows 2,897,550 acres of Bounty Land Warrants outstanding. These were issued under act of 1855 and prior acts. GILMORE & CO. pay cash for them. Send by registered letter. Where Assignments are imperfect we give instructions to perfect them.

Arrears of Pay and Bounty.

Officers, Soldiers and Sailors of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government of which they have no knowledge. Write full history of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp to GILMORE & Co., and a full reply after examination, will be given gratis.

Pensions.

All Officers, Soldiers and Sailors wounded, ruptured or injured in the late war, however slightly, can obtain a pension by addressing GILMORE & COMPANY.

Cases prosecuted by GILMORE & CO. before the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims and the Southern Claims Commission.

Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under the charge of the same experienced parties employed by the old firm. Prompt attention to all business entrusted to GILMORE & CO. is thus secured. We desire to win success by deserving it. Address

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or any impediment to the enjoyment of business or close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to JOS. S. FISHER, president; W. H. F. INGRAHAM, vice-president; W. PAINE, M. D.; C. S. GAUNIT, M. D.; H. J. DOUCET M. D.; E. H. KLINE, M. D.; J. R. HOLCOMB, M. THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use, hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley, MALT and French Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up and nourish the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system. For feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet offered, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, feeble in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

Collins' Voltaic Plasters relieve in 5 minutes.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMOOR, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

NICHOLAS A. BRIGGS, JOSEPH WOODS, Trustees.

DOLLY AND I.

(Concluded from last issue.)

"You stay in the city all night, don't you?" I asked.

She said she would, and gave me the number of the stopping place. After the shopping was over I went home and took from my trunk a little parcel of letters, a lock of hair, a ribbon—heaven knows what trashy bits of love treasure—put them in a large business envelope, and walked over to the old lady's with them.

"Tell Dolly that I sent her that, and wish her all the happiness that she deserves," said I.

The old lady heard no sarcasm in my voice.

"I will, Tom," she said. "And do come to see us soon. We'll be lonely without Dolly."

So it was over; and the thing that was most terrible to dream of had fallen on me. And Dolly wrote no letter and made no sign.

It was as though she were dead, and she was dead to me. Of course I made no confidants, and I worked as hard as ever. The work of a wholesale woollen house does not slacken because a clerk is crossed in love or jilted. Bales and boxes and bundles went out and came in all the same; and what did it matter if I looked pale and lost my appetite, so that I did my figuring and writing and all the rest of it correctly? But one day as I looked up from a box I had been marking, I saw a sight that made me sick with rage.

Holly, and no one else, with his light side whiskers and glossy hat and marvelously square shoulders. He was talking to my uncle, and appeared to be on intimate terms with him. I stood still and stared at him. In a few moments he saw me, and putting up his eye-glass, bowed. I made no bow in return. Then he came across the room.

"I don't think it's a mistake," said he. "I met you at the station with Miss Brusle."

"I remember," I said.

"She's very well, and in a little flutter of course," said he. "I suppose you've had letters?"

"Excuse me. I'm needed elsewhere," I said, and dashed away.

An hour afterward, my uncle coming across me, said: "So you know Holly, Tom? He's not a bad fellow, though a bit of a puppy. He's made a good deal of money in the theatrical line—manager and all that, you know. Married a sort of cousin of my wife's two years ago, so we're a little sociable."

"Is he a married man?" I asked.

"Yes; why not?" said my uncle.

"Uncle Harold," said I, "you must let me run up to Hamilton to-night. It is a life and death matter. I must go."

"What is the matter, Tom?" said my uncle.

"I can't tell you," said I, "but I must go."

"Then you must," said my uncle. "Don't be gone any longer than you can help."

If he had but known how long every moment seemed to me, he might have spared the warning. I travelled in the night train, and reached the dear little brown cottage when its windows were golden in the sunrise.

"Why, Tom," cried the old lady; "so you thought you'd come and see our girl off, after all? You know she starts to-morrow?"

Dolly did not look at me, but I saw her face flushed crimson.

"I'm sorry to say that I have come to bring bad news," said I.

"Bad news?" said Mr. Brusle. "I'm sorry for that, my boy. What is it?"

"It affects you, sir," said I, "not me. Yes, Dolly, it is true; and ill as you have used me, my heart bleeds for you. I come only because I know worse would happen if I were silent, and I beg you to believe that I am actuated by no revenge. You may not credit me, but I wish that any other man had this to do. Mr. Holly is, and has been for two full years, a married man."

I turned my face away from Dolly as I spoke, and dropped it upon the hand that rested on the vine trellis, I expected to hear her scream, or to see her faint. But my news did not seem to produce as great an effect as I expected. I looked up again. All eyes were fixed upon me.

"Ah!" said the old man.

"Well," said the old lady.

"Go on, Tom," said Dolly.

"His wife is a cousin of the lady my uncle married," said I. "If you don't believe me, I can offer proof of the fact. He is married!"

"Of course; I knew that," said Dolly. "His wife is quite a celebrated contralto."

"Knew that he was a married man?" said I. "I don't understand you. What can this mean?"

"And it's a great deal nicer for Dolly," said Mrs. Brusle. "Mrs. Holly and she will travel together."

I stared from one to the other.

"Mrs. Brusle," said I, "what did you tell me when you came to London? I understood you that Dolly was engaged to Mr. Holly, and that you were buying the wedding dresses."

"Gracious me!" cried the old lady. "Nothing of the sort."

"Did you think that, Tom?" cried Dolly.

I asked her to explain.

"Why, Tom, I have engaged to travel with him as one of a quartette company that he has just formed. A foreign gentleman and one tenor at church, Mr. Motley, and Mrs. Holly and I; and I shall make a great deal of money, and—oh, Tom; that was why you sent back my letters!"

I opened my arms and Dolly ran into them, without thinking of the old folks.

"What a miserable wretch I have been for the last five weeks," said I.

And Dolly began to cry upon my shoulder.

"You see how it is, sir," I said to Mr. Brusle. "I'm not rich, but I love Dolly very dearly, and if she'll take me as I am, I shall be the happiest man under the sun. And for heaven's sake, Dolly, don't mind breaking your engagement. Stay at home and sing to us. I don't want you running about the country, no matter how much money you make by it."

So the engagement was broken; and, though my uncle said it was imprudent, Dolly and I were married that winter.

The Fusion Infamy.

The committee appointed by the Maine legislature to investigate the counting-out infamy of Garcelon & Co., reported on the 18th inst. They find that there was a premeditated conspiracy to overthrow the result of the election by counting out men who were elected, and counting in men who notoriously were not elected, so as to secure a fusion legislature. After going over the evidence of erasures, substitutions and interlineations, and asserting their belief that "the erasures and forgeries were made in the chamber of the governor and council at Augusta," the committee say:

First—That the returns were kept from candidates, contrary to usage.

Second—That during such time alterations, erasures and forgeries were made upon them for the purpose of counting out republicans.

Third—That during this time defects in fusion returns were surreptitiously corrected and affidavits secured to throw out republican towns.

Fourth—In all such cases the results invariably counted out republican candidates and counted in fusion candidates.

Fifth—The result was reached by refusing to allow republican errors to be corrected.

Sixth—The rules laid down were strictly applied to reject republican returns, and not applied to count fusion returns.

Seventh—Many of these rules were evidently invoked to secure a fusion legislature.

Eighth—These illegal and fraudulent acts were a part of a premeditated plan to secure a fusion governor and legislature, and the governor and council must have been participes to it.

Ninth—The different appropriations by the legislature have been diverted from their legitimate purposes, and in many cases have been exhausted. The public funds have been withdrawn from the treasury by Gov. Garcelon and his council without warrant of law, and have been applied to unauthorized purposes and for unlawful ends. A large sum of money belonging to the state remains in the hands of Gov. Garcelon and other officials of last year, which should be recovered back into the treasury.

The recklessness of management disclosed in the transactions of last year tend to destroy public confidence, undermine the public credit, and to introduce practices, which, if unrebuked, will prove fatal to the future prosperity and progress of the state.

The "bribery investigating committee" of the Maine legislature also reported on the same day, deciding unanimously that in the case of Bartholomew Wentworth, member of the house from South Berwick, who, it had been alleged, was offered $500 in gold and $10 per day for forty days by Charles E. Ricker of North Berwick, to be paid on condition that said Wentworth would absent himself from the fifty-ninth legislature, the allegations were not sustained by the evidence. In the case of Thomas B. Swan of Minot and Moses Harriman of Kennebunkport, who swore that they were bribed by Wallace B. White, two reports were made, the majority finding the charges not sustained by the evidence, and the minority taking the opposite view.

News and Notes.

Spencer Walker, seventeen years old, a student in the high school at Newton, Mass., shot himself through the heart Friday morning, through fear that he would be put back into the grammar school.

John Pennick shot James Casey in Philadelphia last Thursday morning, while the latter was breaking in the door of a house which was kept by the wife of Casey, from whom he had been separated. Pennick was a boarder, and gave himself up to the police.

A child was born in Auburn, Me., a few days ago, that weighed only two pounds and two ounces. The child was perfectly formed, and at last accounts was doing nicely.

Mrs. Kate Lawless, a widow of Amesbury, Mass., was found dead in her bed Thursday morning. Everything indicated that she had been on a drunken spree. She leaves three children, the youngest two years of age.

Simon Mayou of Pittsfield, Mass., the Boston & Albany railroad west division bridge-builder for many years, has disappeared, and foul play is suspected by his friends. He went to New York some weeks since, to return in a few days.

William Shuttleworth, of Memphis, on the night of the 17th inst., chased a burglar from his room, firing several shots at him. The police next day found Jon[illegible] bullet hole clear through [illegible] have been the burglar, and who ran six blocks, not knowing he was shot. He will probably die.

Bucholz, the suspected Bridgeport, Conn., murderer, has been a second time tried, the jury again failing to agree. He will be tried again April 15th.

A strike on the Cumberland railroad, Thursday, threw over 3000 miners and laborers out of work, and puts a stop to the coal trade in that region.

Gen. Grant sailed from Vera Cruz for Tuxpan, Tampico and Galveston, on the 18th inst.

Conrad Hiemans, of St. Louis, Mo., while in the rum horrors on the night of the 17th inst., fatally stabbed his wife and an infant in her arms, badly wounded his brother, who attempted to seize him, and chased a young son of the latter with murderous intent. The murderer was captured.

New Hampshire Items.

The democratic state committee met in Concord on the 18th inst., there being a very full attendance. Wednesday, May 5th, at Manchester, were the time and place appointed for holding the convention for choice of delegates to the Cincinnati convention.

The hearing before the governor and council upon charges against the management of the state prison, was commenced at Concord on the 18th inst. Many lawyers were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howe of Andover celebrated their golden wedding on the 11th inst. A poem was read by one of the guests, and the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Tracy. The couple were presented with a purse of $50 in gold, and many other valuable articles.

Commander Allan D. Brown is detached from the naval academy, and placed on waiting orders.

Political.

The republican state convention of Rhode Island on the 18th inst. nominated Alfred H. Littlefield for governor, and Henry W. Fay for lieutenant-governor. The delegates to the national convention were appointed, and are understood to be unanimous for James G. Blaine for president.

A San Francisco special says that several leaders of the Kearney-Kalloch agitators, including Kalloch, have assured the council of the citizens' committee that they will do anything to settle affairs peaceably.

—A preacher took passage in one of the Lake Erie boats on a Sunday. He had not been long on board before he applied for permission to hold a religious meeting. "No," said the captain, to whom the application was made; "any minister who would travel on a Sunday isn't fit to preach on board my boat."

—No New York newspaper office is now complete without a puzzle editor. And no has to have his brain half-addled once a day. With fair treatment and prompt attention to repairs a good puzzle editor will last a week.

The Reason Why.

The tonic effect of Kidney-Wort is produced by its cleansing and purifying action on the blood. Where there is a gravelly deposit in the urine, or milky, ropy urine from disordered kidneys, it cures without fail. Constipation and piles readily yield to its cathartic and healing power.

—Your parson will talk of the beauty of resignation, year after year, and never thinks of resigning himself—that is, not unless he gets a "call."

No purer, safer, more unobjectionable stimulant in medicine than Malt Bitters.

—A western paper announces that it is easier for it to solve the gem puzzle than it is for a rival editor to go home sober.

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr. Mott, of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey. The doctor has spent years in Portugal and the wine districts of France, and knows what he is talking about.

62 Madison Avenue,
NEW YORK, April 11, 1878.

MR. ALFRED SPEER:

Dear Sir—The visit which I made last year to your vineyards, wine-presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfies me thoroughly that the wines manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.

Acting upon my favorable impression at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine; more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied with marked benefit to my patients.

There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grape, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine bearing the luxuriant fruit. Wishing you success in your praiseworthy enterprise, I remain respectfully yours,

ALEX B. MOTT, M. D.,

Prof. of Surgery, Bellevue Hospital Medical College, etc., etc.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

—"Sir, the apple of discord has been thrown into our midst, and if it be not at once nipped in the bud, twill burst into a conflagration that may deluge the whole world!"

The lily is as white as snow,
The rose is a the crimson red;
But neither can surpass in glow,
The color or the brightness shed,
By the sweet the and tea h allied
That SOZODONT has purified.

Thirty Years' Experience of an Old Nurse.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best Female Physicians and Nurses in the United States, and has been used for thirty years with never failing safety and success by millions of mothers and children, from the feeble infant of one week old to the adult. It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, and gives rest, health and comfort to mother and child. We believe it the Best and Surest Remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or from any other causes. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of Curtis & Perkins is on the outside wrapper. Sold by all Medicine Dealers. 25 cents a bottle. 3

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, March 20, 1:30 A. M.

Light snow, followed by clearing weather, cold north westerly winds, higher barometer.

AROUND HOME.

Tenney has painted a fine portrait of Harry B. Kent, son of Sheriff Kent.

Mr. Wm. Sladden has rented the store No. 88 Islington street, formerly occupied by Thomas Wardwell & Sons, and will occupy the same as a grocery store and saloon.

Rev. Wm. H. Alden, D. D., left this city last Thursday on a southern tour in search of health. Dr. Alden was accompanied by Mrs. Geo. W. Plumer and daughter, bound on the same mission.

Messrs. Butler & Laighton are to remove their stock of goods, temporarily, to the store formerly occupied by Mr. John Sise as an insurance office, during the contemplated repairs and alterations on their store.

Mr. Charles E. Shedd, formerly of this city, was stricken with paralysis on Wednesday morning, the 17th inst., at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y., while in bed; he remained unconscious on the 18th, and his death was hourly expected.

The heavy weight of the democracy returning from the meeting of the state committee at Concord, Friday morning, was too much for the train over the Concord & Portsmouth railroad, and passengers for Dover and points east of Newmarket junction were left by the Boston & Maine road, and reached their homes via this city.

On Sunday morning, the 14th inst., Capt. James Morrow, brother-in-law of Postmaster Pierce of this city, who has been chief of the folding room in the treasury department at Washington, D. C., for some time, died in that city of gastric fever after a brief illness. Capt. Morrow's home was at Bangor, Me., whither his body was conveyed. He was highly esteemed, a genial companion, and will be greatly missed by his former associates. He leaves a widow and children.

In another place will be found a notice of the death of Mr. Edward J. Laighton. Mr. Laighton was a printer, and for many years employed in the Journal office. In his earlier life he was a teacher at the south school for sixteen years. He at one time was in the dry goods business with his brother, who outlives him, the firm name being W. J. & E. J. Laighton. He was also at one time an officer in the custom house, and for several years was a member of the common council. He has been an invalid for a long time.

The steamer Mystic is to be thoroughly repaired and almost wholly remodelled before coming off of Neil's railway at Kittery, and will not be recognized as the same boat when next she commences running on the river. She is to have a new bow and stern, new guards and deck-house—in fact, is to be pretty much made over; and the work will be well done, as Mr. Warren Keen is to superintend it. Capt. Horatio W. Trefethen, her owner, and a thoroughly competent pilot and seaman, will take charge of her, and she will probably be a favorite boat with excursion parties during the season now at hand.

Parties in want of anything usually kept in a first-class hardware and paint store will not do amiss in calling upon Pryor & Matthews, No. 16 Market street, the old stand of the late John H. Bailey, whose business they have succeeded to. Mr. Pryor is well known to all who patronized Mr. Bailey within several years past, as a courteous and attentive clerk and salesman; and he and Mr. Matthews propose to retain and increase the liberal patronage heretofore extended to the occupants of their place of business, if fair dealing and prompt attention to their customers will enable them to do it. They especially invite the attention of gentlemen who own boats to the fact that they keep on hand Tarr & Monson's copper paint, the best article yet invented to keep boats' bottoms from fouling.

A valuable cow belonging to Mr. Andrew P. Sherburne, at the Plains, collided shortly after noon on Friday with a train on the Eastern railroad, with disastrous results to herself. The train was uninjured.

Capt. John C. Bush and family are about to remove from this city to Brooklyn, N. Y.

George S. Leach, residing on Gates street, was stricken with paralysis on Thursday evening last.

Elder A. A. Waite will address the Bond of Hope at the mission hall this afternoon at three o'clock, and will give a "chalk talk" at Music hall this evening at 7:45.

About six hundred people assembled in Music hall, Thursday evening last, to hear Rev. A. A. Waite relate his past year's experience. Quite an interesting occasion was had.

"All the rage" will be produced at Music hall on Wednesday evening, April 7th. It is said to be one of the most comical productions now on the stage, and has had a most successful run in Boston.

Osgood Lodge, I. O. O. F., gave a social entertainment—their first one in the new hall, last Thursday evening. Speaking, singing and other exercises were enjoyed, and about three hundred persons partook of an excellent banquet.

Schooner Daniel C. Baker, Shields master, came in on Thursday evening with about 1500 lbs. of fish. Small fares are the rule now, the exceptions being no fares at all.

Schooner Mary S. Hontvet, Hontvet master, sailed for Georges on Friday.

Mr. Samuel Dodge, for a number of years past reporter for the Times, and to a considerable extent the local editor of that paper, has taken up the insurance business of the late A. F. Craig, his connection with the Times having terminated. Mr. Wm. B. Page, formerly of Manchester, is now reporter for the Times. Mr. Dodge continues as representative of the Associated Press.

Edward B. Dearborn, oldest son of Mr. Frank E. Dearborn, hat dealer, of this city, left Portsmouth on Thursday morning last for New York to join the barque Adolph Engler, now and for several years past under command of Capt. Benj. F. Williams of this city, who was mate of the vessel for several years before assuming command. The Adolph Engler is bound for Leghorn, Italy, and was expected to sail on the 20th inst.

HOLY WEEK.

To-morrow is Palm Sunday, so called in commemoration of our Savior's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, when the multitude which attended him strewed palm branches in his way, and will be observed with proper religious services at the Episcopal and Catholic churches.

Next week being Holy Week, services at St. John's church will be as follows:

On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday, (Easter even.,) morning prayer and holy communion at ten o'clock A. M.; evening prayer at five P. M.

Thursday, morning prayer at ten, evening prayer at eight o'clock.

Good Friday, morning prayer at nine o'clock A. M.,—Jesus crucified; litany and ante-communion service at twelve M., —Jesus on the cross; meditation three P. M.,—Jesus dead; evening service, eight P. M.,—Jesus buried.

GEN. CHAMBERLAIN'S LECTURE.

Gen. Chamberlain's lecture on the battle of Gettysburg, at Music hall Friday evening, was attended by a good audience. The distinguished lecturer was received at the depot by a delegation of Storer Encampment, G. A. R., who also escorted him from the hotel to the hall after supper; and many members of the encampment occupied seats on the stage.

The lecture it need hardly be said was listened to with the closest attention to the close, and those who heard it now know much more about the great battle than all the reading of a month could give them, even had they the books and documents to wade through. There is much of vivid description, and many pathetic touches, in this lecture.

The singing by the Grand Army quartette was fine, and Mr. Monroe was heartily encored. The entertainment as a whole was excellent, and was highly appreciated by the audience.

A NICE LITTLE GAME.

Charles Wesley Seaward, hailing from this city, has been running a fine rig in Boston. Representing himself to be worth $30,000 or so, he hired a house on Beacon street and furnished it in a costly manner. Brabrook & Co. let him have a lot of choice furniture, Dobson Brothers sold him carpets to the amount of $300, Moses Pond & Co. furnished him with fire grates to the amount of $85, and Hovey & Co. and other dry goods dealers were victimized to considerable amounts. In addition, Pazolt & Co., fur dealers, are out $200 on account of a fur sack which Mrs. Seaward bought on credit. Altogether the pair are said to have secured some $2500 worth of goods, and when the irate dealers went to the Beacon street mansion they found it stripped of everything.

Seaward belongs in Boston, but has lived in this city, and his wife was here a month or six weeks ago; she was an adopted daughter of the late A. K. Warren. Several years ago Seaward got possession of a bank book, drew what money he could get on it, and the pair cleared out to Boston; but they were pursued by Sheriff Kent, who recovered nearly or quite all the stolen money, though we believe the culprits were never brought to trial. Boston is entirely welcome to claim the pair; Portsmouth don't particularly want them for anything.

SUPREME COURT--LAW TERM.

The adjourned law term of the supreme court was held in Concord on Friday. Upon the Rockingham docket, No. 1, Gould vs. town of Raymond, motion for rehearing by plaintiff, denied. Frink for plff.; Hatch for Raymond.

Ayer vs. Messer, case discharged; opinion by Doe, C. J. Bartlett for plff.; Hatch and C. U. Bell for deft.

Freeman E. Drake vs. North Hampton; motion as in No. 1, denied. Frink for Drake; Hatch for town.

Benj. F. Weare vs. John E. Weare; judgment on the verdict for deft.; opinion by Smith, J. Wiggin for plff.; Marston and Eastman for deft.

Griffin vs. town of Auburn; opinion by Foster, J.; judgment on the verdict as rendered at the October term last. Stevens, Cross and Frink for plff.; Marston, Hatch and Fellows for the town.

Savings Bank for Strafford county vs. Jno. W. Getchell; judgment on the verdict for the defendant; opinon by Doe, C. J. Wiggin for bank; Marston for deft.

Horace Berry vs. town of Windham; case discharged; opinion by Stanley, J. G. C. & G. K. Bartlett for plff.; Hatch for deft.

Mary F. Kaulbach vs. Wm. Alvah Churchill; judgment for deft. on report; opinion by Clark, J. Mellows for plff.; Marston and Eastman for deft.

George W. Ruland vs. South Newmarket; judgment on the verdict for plff.; opinion by Smith, J. Frink and Page for plff.; Marston and Eastman for deft.

George W. Tilton vs. Charles W. Scribner; case discharged; opinion by Allen, J. Bartlett for plff.; Lord for deft.

There was a full attendance of the bar. Fifteen students applied for examination to be admitted as attorneys, and fourteen presented themselves for examination; of these, eleven passed satisfactorily, and upon the coming in of the court were sworn in as attorneys; three were advised to pursue their legal studies further.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Price, $1.50 per Bottle, six for $7.50.

Poor Garcelon.

The cautious and conservative Advertiser, of Portland, Me., referring to the testimony given by Ex-Gov. Garcelon before the legislative investigating committee, says:

Nor was there ever any testimony taken which has been read more widely and with greater scrutiny. The universal feeling at it is a sort of pitiable contempt, and the universal judgment is that the ex-governor has played the part of the artful dodger. He has in every case where proof of tampering with returns was brought to his notice, admitted that it was wrong but pleaded entire ignorance, shirking the responsibility and throwing it upon the shoulders of the council, who evidently do not love him the better for it. Then his methods of handling the state's money, considered in the most charitable light, were irregular, careless and unbusiness-like. What merchant would think of paying out bills amounting to $1300 without taking a receipt? Nobody thinks Dr. Garcelon a thief, but his taking away with him that $956 from the treasury on retiring from office, was rather free and easy.

Fogg, the noisiest and most deafening member of Garcelon's council, impeaches one point in Dr. Garcelon's testimony. Garcelon stated that the votes for the republican candidate for county commissioner in the East Livermore return were incorrectly tabulated by the council's clerk for Hiram Briggs instead of Hiram W. Briggs, and though the name was correct in the return, the certificate was given to the democratic candidate, Mr. Piper; Garcelon's idea was to give it to Mr. Briggs, but he was overruled by the council. Mr. Fogg states that "the certificate was issued to Mr. Piper with Garcelon's full knowledge, consent and approval."

A Proper Law.

In the national house, the committee on revision of the laws have instructed Mr. Townshend of Illinois to report to the house Mr. Singleton's bill relative to telegraph communications, and ask for a suspension of the rules to put the bill upon its immediate passage. The bill declares telegraph messages the private papers of the senders and receivers, and provides for their protection from unreasonable search and seizure, and from production as evidence in judicial and legislative proceedings, to the same extent as communications sent by mail. The bill should be passed without a question or an opposing vote.

— The story goes that Collette, the fifteen-years-old daughter whom Alexander Dumas has proudly introduced in society, and her sister Jeannine, aged twelve, recently expressed themselves to a lady questioner as follows: "Whom do you wish to marry?" asked the lady of the elder of the girls. "I wish to marry an idiot," she replied; "and the trouble is I am sure some day or other to meet a greater idiot than he, and perceive that I have been too hasty in my choice." "Don't be alarmed, sister," rejoined Jeannine; "you will never meet a greater imbecile than the man who will marry you."

The Ladies' Favorite.

Among the many thousands of ladies who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and pronounced it their favorite remedy, because so efficient in the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, are many who are well and favorably known in the world, as well as artists, musicians, and whole host of names from the brilliant ranks of wealth and fashion. It is pre-eminently the ladies' Favorite Prescription, its use, while being far more safe and efficient, exempting them from those painful, caustic operations, and the wearing of those mechanical contrivances made like Peter Pindar's razor—seller's razors—to sell, rather than to cure.

Why Are You Bilious?

Because you have allowed your bowels to become costive, and liver torpid. Use Kidney-Wort to produce a free state of the bowels, and it will stimulate the liver to proper action, cleanse the skin of its yellowness, cures bilious headache, and causes new life in the blood. Druggists have it.

When we consider that Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites supplies the deficiency to unhealthy blood, restores the nervous element, and produces healthy action to the various organs and forces of the body necessary to sound mind, we wonder at the imbecility everywhere apparent.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what must be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

and limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during that time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight upon it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,
MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for as a by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

88 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

Has been in constant use by the public for over twenty years, and is the best preparation ever invented for RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS YOUTHFUL COLOR AND LIFE.

It supplies the natural food and color to the hair glands without staining the skin. It will increase and thicken the growth of the hair, prevent its blanching and falling off, and thus AVERT BALDNESS.

It cures Itching, Eruptions and Dandruff. As a HAIR DRESSING it is very desirable, giving the hair a silken softness which all admire. It keeps the head clean, sweet and healthy.

The State Assayer and Chemist of Mass. and leading Physicians endorse and recommend it as a great triumph in medicine.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodine of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMOOR, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

THE OLD MILL.

Here from the brow of the hill I look,
Through a lattice of boughs and leaves,
On the old gray mill with its gambrel roof,
And the moss on its rotting eaves.
I hear the clatter that jars its walls,
And the rushing water's sound,
I see the black floats rise and fall
As the wheel goes slowly round.

I rode there often when I was young,
With my grist on the horse before,
And talked with Nelly, the miller's girl,
As I waited my turn at the door.
And while the toasted her ringlets brown,
And flirted and chatted so free,
The wheel might stop, or the wheel might go,
It was all the same to me.

'Tis twenty years since last I stood
On the spot where I stand to-day,
And Nelly is wed, and the miller is dead,
And the mill and I are gray.
But both, till we fall into ruin and wreck,
To our fortune of toil are bound;
And the same good and the stream flows,
And the wheel moves slowly round.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.

—Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

—While a toboggan party was in progress at Rideau Hall, Ottawa, Ont., recently, the Princess Louise was standing at the top of the slide just as a young lady was about to take a toboggan down. The young lady turned to the princess and asked pleasantly: "Will you go down with me?" and was promptly met with a refusal. A few minutes later an attendant informed her that the princess was not accustomed to be addressed so familiarly.

Nutritious, restorative, quieting, strengthening and purifying are Malt Bitters.

—A company of scapegraces meeting a pious old man named Samson, one of them exclaimed: "Ah, now we're safe. The collector of internal revenue for Maine says he has granted eighty licenses to persons to sell liquor in the city of Biddeford. The Times says the number of saloons in the city is one hundred and fifty. The Journal says there are more than one hundred. Another authority puts the number at two hundred and fifty exclusive of "pocket saloons." And Gen. Neal Dow, we presume, says there are no places where liquor can be bought.

—Boston Post.

The Reason Why.

The tonic effect of Kidney-Wort is produced by its cleansing and purifying action on the blood. Where there is a gravelly deposit in the urine, or milky, ropy urine from disordered kidneys, it cures without fail. Constipation and piles readily yield to its cathartic and healing power.

—There is probably nothing in this transitory world that yields larger and quicker returns on the amount invested than poking a wasp with your finger to see if he feels well.

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr. Mott, of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey. The doctor has spent years in Portugal and the wine districts of France, and knows what he is talking about.

62 Madison Avenue,
NEW YORK, April 11, 1878.

MR. ALFRED SPEER:

Dear Sir—The visit which I made last year to your vineyards, wine-presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfies me thoroughly that the wines manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.

Acting upon my favorable impression at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine; more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied with marked benefit to my patients.

There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grape, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine bearing the luxuriant fruit. Wishing you success in your praiseworthy enterprise, I remain respectfully yours,

ALEX B. MOTT, M. D.,

Prof. of Surgery, Bellevue Hospital Medical College, etc., etc.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

—To succeed, a young man must work. Unless he succeeds to an estate.

An Important Decision.

In the case of the State vs. Henry H. Hayes of Sunapee, who was last September convicted of manslaughter in the Richard C. Angell action, and sentenced to twenty years in prison, the supreme court on Friday afternoon rendered a decision setting the verdict aside and ordering a new trial. The ground of the decision is on account of an error in the instruction given to the jury by the court, when Hayes was tried, on the question of Angell's right to control the house where the tragedy occurred and where Angell died. The court instructed the jury that Angell had a right to the premises, and also the right to order Hayes to leave the house. The full bench maintains that Mrs. Angell was the owner of the house, and that she had the right to request Hayes to remain. As will be remembered Angell was jealous of Hayes and ordered him to leave the house, but the latter not complying, Angell attacked him, and the result was that a fracas followed, in which Angell was so badly injured that he died in a few hours. This decision, as regarding the rights of a woman in a home where the title of the property rests in her name, is one of the most important in the criminal records of the state.

A Chance to Bestow Well-Deserved Charity.

The widow and two daughters of William M. Cooper are in destitution in Philadelphia. Mr. Cooper carried on the Cooper refreshment saloon during the war, in Philadelphia, where all New England regiments were fed and comforted while en route to the front. William M. Singerly, proprietor of the Philadelphia Record, will receive any contributions for the benefit of Mr. Cooper's suffering family from New England soldiers, many of whom have already sent on subscriptions.

Clergymen in Trouble.

The Philadelphia Methodist Conference has expelled Rev. T. B. Miller from the ministry and church, and suspended Rev. Wm. J. Major from the ministry for one year. Miller was dean and Major secretary of a medical college, where a reporter of the Philadelphia Record registered himself as a student in medicine, and by the payment of $25 received from the dean a certificate entitling the reported to practice medicine. The reporter also received eight tickets, showing that during the winter he had attended a full course of lectures. In addition to this he received a certificate of scholarship signed by Major and Miller, entitling him to a two years, course of lectures. An appeal will be taken in both cases.

News and Notes.

Bartholemew O'Leary and William O'Leary are under arrest in Boston for burglarizing the house of Caspar Crowninshield, on Commonwealth avenue, and stealing a large quantity of silver-ware. A very large amount of stolen valuables was found at the lodgings of the thieves.

Mrs. Sarah H. Miller, of Fairport, N. Y, having sued a life insurance company to recover an insurance of $4000 on her deceased husband's life, is met with a charge of murder, the company asserting that she poisoned her husband with arsenic.

Naval Gazette.

Master John Downes is ordered to the Wabash; Midshipman S. E. Woodworth is ordered to the Jamestown, and Ensign Edward M. Katz is detached from the Jamestown and placed on waiting orders.

The Tallapoosa arrived at Portsmouth, Va., on Friday.

The Constellation was put into commission at New York on the 18th inst.

A Washington despatch of Saturday says that Lieut. Comdr. George H. Wadleigh passed a successful and highly creditable examination for the rank of commander on that day.

Political.

In the lower house of Congress, Friday, in committee of the whole, an amendment to the deficiency bill, offered by Gen. Garfield, was adopted, providing that deputy marshals appointed under the federal election laws shall be taken in equal numbers from each of the great parties, and appointed by the judges of United States courts. The bill as amended was passed, all the republicans and four democrats voting against it.

Gov. Davis of Maine has appointed Hon. Wm. Wirt Virgin as associate justice of the supreme judicial court of that state.

The Maine legislature adjourned sine die at about eleven o'clock in the evening on the 19th inst., after a session of seventy-two days, during which one hundred and ninety-one acts and seventy-one resolutions were passed.

Fashionable Fancies.

Beaded trimmings are in great vogue. Some of the new suits are flounced to the waist.

Everything odd, everything quaint is considered stylish.

The fashionable hat of the summer will be a broad brimmed Tuscan straw.

Mercutio plumes and Prince of Wales tips will be the feathers worn this season.

The newest-head dress for evening consists of three Greek bandeaux of flowers.

New breakfast caps are of Persian silk twisted into turbans and trimmed with lace.

Soft Persian ribbons edged with Languedoc lace are shown for sashes and ties.

Jet fringes, passementerie and the new "blackberry buttons" of fine jet are used on rich black dresses.

For full dress bodices a new cut is coming in, viz., high on the shoulders and en cœur back and front. It is not becoming.

A profusion of flowers appear on ball dresses. One very large bunch of huge blooms is often placed on the left knee.

Polonaises are too useful to be set aside and are being resuscitated in Paris as "over-dresses," often made with paniers.

Dark blue linen and navy blue Scotch ginghams are made into short dresses with striped claret colored borders, or else the gayest.

Black linen collars and cuffs are shown among other things, but these are to be worn only with morning dresses, and are unwholesome at best.

Turkey red calico with palm-leaf figures is used for the cuffs, collars, pockets, borders and for a full gumpe, which is finished at the top with a frill.

Black polka-dotted grenadines are made up over black satin, and there are very fine black cashmeres embroidered with polka dots to be made up with plain black cashmere.

Long scarfs of black twilled silk to be worn in mourning are made double edged with black fading and are shirred a short distance from the ends to give the effect of tassels.

Embroidery is invading all domains, and only awaits the spring to blossom with all splendor,—embroidery in silk or chenille, mixed with beads, embroidery entirely of beads, in various colors, or of one color only.

A dress recently made in Paris for the Spanish Infanta was of pink faille, veiled with pink crepe lisse, studded with sprays of white lilac and rosebuds, pink faille train, embroidered all over with the same flowers, and a very pretty motif in the work was, that at the end of the train there was a large bouquet of the flowers embroidered, the stalks being twisted, and tied with a good sized pink and satin bow.

A very elegant French novelty consists of tiny birds of Paradise (real ones), of dimensions rather smaller than those of our larger flies, the plumage of which rivals, in coloring, precious stones. They are fastened, with wings out-stretched, on black velvet ribbons to form necklets and bracelets; they are suspended from the ears by a tiny gold ring which they hold in their dainty beak, and they are scattered all over white dresses. Brunettes choose those, the tints of which recall those of the topaz, the ruby and the amethyst; blondes, those the colors of which rival those of the emerald and the sapphire.

—It is not the custom in Chinese good society to have the servants sleeping in rooms above the master and mistress of the house; thus the family of the Chinese professor at Cambridge occupy the attic of their house and let the servants enjoy down-stairs.

—A Hartford gentleman, who has been in the habit of paying $50 for a pew in church, was unable to attend the auction the other evening, and consequently requested a friend to see to it that he should have his old seat as heretofore. He subsequently met another friend and made the same request, forgetting that he had already appointed an agent. At the auction one brother started the new at $50; the other $51; and bid followed bid until $88 was reached. The two agents had been bidding against each other, as the principal subsequently learned to his cost.

—A young vestryman connected with a church at Pittsburg, the other Sunday by mistake sent the following letter to the rector to read among the announcements, supposing it to be the notice of a temperance meeting: "Dear John: I am sorry I can't let you come to see me as frequently as usual, but papa and mamma think I should not receive even my very dear friends during the Lenten season. It's awfully disagreeable, if not positively cruel, but then you know we Episcopalians can't go back on Lent. I shall see you oftener than usual, I hope, when the holy season is gone. Yours, with friendship, —."

The lily is as white as snow,
The rose is a the crimson red,
But neither can surpass in glow,
The color or the brightness shed,
By the sweet lips and teeth allied
That SOZODONT has purified.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle. 4

See a Woman!

In another column, picking grapes for SPEER'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to European or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City. DAWJ.ow1

E. G. FERGUE, JR., P. M.

AROUND HOME.

Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty troupe will appear at Music hall on Monday evening, March 29th.

Mr. William J. Moat has resigned his position as brewer in Carney & Lynch's brewery, at Manchester.

The fishing schooners brought in about 10,000 lbs. of fish, Saturday evening; the largest fare was about 5000 lbs.

At the Unitarian church on Sunday the annual contribution towards the fund of the American Unitarian association was made.

Schooner Velentia arrived at Adams & Co.'s wharf on Saturday afternoon, and discharged four hundred barrels of plaster. The remainder of her cargo (six hundred barrels of plaster,) goes to Boston.

The hearing of the case between the Portsmouth & Dover and Eastern railroads will commence before the board of reference this forenoon at ten o'clock, at the court house in this city.

Nine ice trains passed through this city on Sunday, five of them being from Milton for Boston, loaded, and four from Boston to Milton to get loads. One of the "empties" consisted of fifty-eight cars and two engines.

Captain John Stewart, who was reported as meeting with the mishap of getting a cold bath in the river a few days ago, has been presented by some friends with a life preserver; and Mr. Kelley, who was his rescuer, has received a medal for his services.

The governor and council, to whom numerously signed petitions for the pardon of the liquor spotter, Drake, were a few days ago presented, last week decided to lay the petitions on the table, and have so notified the county solicitor.

The schooner Fred Gray, Sweetser master, sailed for Philadelphia on Saturday, with 1400 barrels of potatoes. The schooners Ellen Morrison, Douglas Haines and W. H. Jordon, coal laden, arrived at Concord railroad wharf on the same day.

The third schooner of the Dover Navigation company's fleet, now building at Bath, Me., and nearly completed, will be named the "B. F. Nealley," Mr. Nealley being a stockholder in the company. The other schooners owned by the company are the "John Bracewell" and the "Charles H. Trickey."

At Newmarket, Friday afternoon, the high school class of '80 graduated with appropriate exercises. The class numbers four, three young ladies and one young man. In the evening a reception was given by the graduating class in the vestry of the Methodist church, and was well attended. Remewald & Taylor's orchestra, of Dover, furnished music for promenading.

Mr. Charles E. Shedd died at his home in Brooklyn on Friday, never having revived after being prostrated by paralysis on the morning of the 17th inst. Mr. Shedd was in business in this city for some years, and was the operator and local manager of the Franklin telegraph company until that concern was swallowed by the Western Union, shortly after which he removed to New York, where he has since resided. His wife was the oldest daughter of Wm. J. Laighton, of this city.

There was a meeting of the State Temperance League at Concord on Thursday of last week, with sessions afternoon and evening. From the Monitor's report of the proceedings of the meeting we take the following: "Mrs. Hooper, of Portsmouth, described the work of the Women's Temperance Gospel League in that city, which began with 30, but now has 90 members. She thought if the men who had spoken at this convention voted as they talked, something would be accomplished. Republicans and democrats held caucuses. Why not temperance men? She closed with sharp criticism on the tobacco habit, and an allusion to Frank Miller, which brought that gentleman to his feet, and he made a characteristic talk, condemning the use of tobacco in all its forms, also the drinking of tea and coffee, which he declared led to the desire for 'something stronger.' He believed in the reform club movement thoroughly, and hoped much from it. If he could have his way, he would shoot or hang every rumseller in the country."

Rev. Dr. Spaulding of Dover exchanged pulpit services with Rev. Mr. McGinley of this city on Sunday. Each of the ministers occupied his own desk at the evening service.

THE ODD FELLOWS' SOCIABLE.

The members of Osgood Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., and their guests, enjoyed one of their unique "sociables" on Thursday evening last in their elegant halls in National block. The five tables (seating about three hundred) which filled the spacious banquet hall were loaded with the choicest food, in great profusion; the cups, saucers, plates and dishes, were of fine white granite ware, and with the silver plated knives, forks and spoons (eighteen dozen of each) were used for the first time on this occasion, and made a fine display. After the wants of the inner man had been fully supplied, sufficient food remained to have bountifully fed another party.

Before the banquet was served the committee selected a tempting plate of nice cake, which together with a beautiful bouquet, and the best wishes of the company, was sent to Mrs. William Kennedy, who has always been and energetic and valued worker on such occasions, but who now is prostrated by sickness; the prayer of all is that she may soon recover.

A very interesting feature of the entertainment was the reading of Miss Emma F. Johnson, who gave in fine style "Mary Maloney on the Chinese question." Mr. E. C. Stimpson rendered in a most artistic manner selections from Mark Twain's "Gilded Age," also a chapter from Longfellow's beautiful poem, Hiawatha. Both Miss Johnson and Mr. Stimpson were deservedly encored.

The music the feature of the whole entertainment was the remarkable performance on the violin of a young daughter of Mr. Joseph S. Hoyt, of Newington. Miss Fanny is between ten and eleven years of age; she is a very intelligent-looking child, has large eyes, long curly hair, slight form, graceful as a fairy, and is perfectly self-possessed; her playing will be thought more wonderful when it is known that she has never taken a lesson in her life; she has really taught herself all she knows beyond the talent with which she is endowed by nature. A critic who witnessed the great skill displayed by Miss Fanny in "bowing" and "fingering," and noted her perfect tune and melody, remarked that "everything considered it was the best playing he ever heard, and that if she could have the benefit of a first-class education on the violin, she would in ten years be second to none in America as a violinist." She played several pieces, and received a perfect ovation of applause, after which an elegant frosted cake (made and donated by Miss Lou Brown of Rye, to whom a similar cake was voted by this lodge last year,) was unanimously voted to Miss Fanny Hoyt. When Hon. E. B. Philbrick, of Rye, in behalf of the company, presented the beautiful cake to Miss Fanny in a neat and complimentary speech, the young artiste bowed her thanks, and all felt that the cake was worthily bestowed.

After short addresses by various gentlemen, "seeing the elephant," and several laughable farces on the stage—at twelve o'clock the company, having enjoyed a most pleasant occasion, reluctantly departed, hoping soon to be called together again, and that the next time may prove as pleasant as the last one did; and that "we" may be there to greet the same three hundred happy friends at the next sociable, is the earnest wish of

ONE WHO ENJOYED HIMSELF.

BETTER DAYS.

As an evidence that better days are dawning upon our goodly city, one needs but notice the hearty co-operation of our business men and capitalists in recent enterprises started here, the most notable being the consolidation of the interests of the Portsmouth Shoe Factory company with those of the Whitcomb Shoe company of Mechanics Falls, Me., whereby the latter concern, employing 500 hands and turning out forty cases of boots and shoes per day, will soon be brought to this city, giving new life, business and prosperity to the community in general, and to our traders especially.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Portsmouth company, held in the State street factory on Friday evening, the proposition of the directors to consolidate with Mr. Whitcomb was endorsed and voted for with remarkable unanimity, (and this, too, by the largest meeting of the company which has been held,) when the prevailing sentiment of these gentlemen was that the dividends under the new regime would be far fewer and smaller than under the former, as Mr. Whitcomb had to be guaranteed the lion's share to induce him to transfer his business to our city.

After the foregoing vote, Frank Jones, in one of his characteristic public spirited speeches, said that he would be one of four to build the factory (we published the dimensions a few days since) required for a business of such magnitude; E. H. Winchester took the second quarter, and Dr. Potter the third; and Messrs. Ward, Mendum and Clark came promptly in for the fourth and last quarter, the whole amount, about $20,000, being raised in about five minutes. Messrs. Jones and Mendum were then appointed a committee to purchase a lot and proceed to the erection of the factory, and engine house, the six gentlemen named also agreeing to put in a boiler and engine of the most approved pattern at their own expense.

We understand that Messrs. Jones and Mendum are negotiating with the Eastern railroad company, through President Phillips, for the lot of land formerly occupied by Cames' carriage factory, and are reasonably sure of success.

The new factory will be ready for occupancy on the first of July; in the meantime, both factories from this date will be under the management of the Portsmouth Shoe Factory Co. Mr. Whitcomb managing the Boston end, and Mr. Jos. G. Knight the Maine and New Hampshire branches.

The new company starts in with a $100,000 capital—and an unlimited reserve fund; and if energy, industry, skill and money count for anything, then this year of 1880 will not go out until the smell of leather permeates our dwellings, and the clatter of hammers and the buzzing of multiplied machinery awakens our Rip Van Winkles, to find a city of 12,000 inhabitants teaming with industrious and contented mechanics, and prospering through the business thrift of its far-seeing and open-handed capitalists. So mote it be.

THE EASTERN AND THE GRAND TRUNK RAILROADS.

It is stated that the Grand Trunk railway of Canada is to remove its principal office from Portland to Boston. It has, of course, before occurred to many persons that, if the Eastern and Grand Trunk were substantially owned by English bond holders, they would be likely to become united to this extent, that the outlet of the Grand Trunk would be at East Boston, and the Eastern would be likely to carry the freight from the Grand Trunk, as the sea-board line was seven miles shorter in reaching Portland than the upper route.

There is no doubt of the fact that ere long the western freights by the Grand Trunk will be carried over the Eastern line to Boston, instead of being unladen and shipped at Portland. Steamers required to carry freight to Europe, will obtain better return cargoes to Boston than to Portland, and the Boston people begin to believe that their port is to become a place of large grain exportation. The Eastern line will have to be laid with an additional track between Ipswich and Greenland, to meet the requirements even of its present traffic, and if it becomes absorbed by the Grand Trunk, or the roads are operated by a common management, we shall see over its iron a business never anticipated by its most sanguine projector.

MAINE CENTRAL RAILROAD.

Superintendent Tucker sends us the eighteenth annual report of the Maine Central railroad, to be presented at the meeting Wednesday.

It gives the operations for the year ending Dec. 31, 1879, showing an increase in the gross earnings over those of 1878 of $73,689.29, and a net increase of $44,414.62.

The most interesting paper with the report is an historical account of the Maine Central, with a synopsis of its bonded indebtedness as existing at the close of last year. The loans of the road are being consolidated in one large sum due in 1912. The loan sells well in the market. It is issued under authority of an act of the Maine legislature. The entire indebtedness of the corporation is between eight and nine millions of dollars.

The net earnings of the road were $648,557.23; interest paid, and rents of leased roads, $626,905.23; surplus credited profit and loss account, $21,652.00.

The report is very thorough, giving full details of all the operations, recent improvements and financial condition of this leading railway in our neighboring state.

PLANS OF A WOODEN CRUISER.

Naval Constructor Wilson having already complied with the navy department's order to submit plans and specifications for an un-armored iron cruiser and an armored ram, has recently completed the design for a wooden vessel, designed to attain a speed of not less than fifteen knots per hour. She is to be full ship rigged, spreading in her ten principal sails 22,783 square feet of canvas. She will have a pair of three-cylinder compound engines of 5000 indicated horse power, driving a four-bladed screw twenty-one feet in diameter and thirty feet pitch. The intention is to have a live oak frame, and the clamps, ceiling, outside plank, etc., all to be of the best Georgia yellow pine. The whole of the materials (of wood) used in the construction of the vessel to be first subjected to the Thilmany process* of preserving, by which, it is believed, the inherent source of decay will be arrested, and the necessity of repairing or removing the rotten materials from our naval ships every four or five years avoided. The following are the dimensions of the vessel:

Length between perpendiculars, 280 feet; length over all, 305 feet 6 inches; extreme breadth, 44 feet; draught of water—forward, 21 feet 6 inches, aft 23 feet; depth of keel below rabbet—forward, two feet, aft, 2 feet 6 inches; displacement at load draught, 3884 tons. Coal carried in bunkers, 600 tons.

The armament proposed consists of fourteen five-ton breech-loading rifles in broadside on the gun-deck; on the spar-deck two twelve-ton breech-loading rifled pivots firing directly ahead and astern, and four two-and-a-half-ton breech-loading rifles.

*A large quantity of materials for ship-building purposes is now being preserved by this process at the works erected by the company in the Boston navy yard, and materials preserved in this manner are being used in the "Lancaster," as on nearly every vessel repaired during the past year or eighteen months, at our navy yards.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

J. W. Littlefield has sold his store at Kennebunkport to George Bonsor of North Berwick.

The city debt of Biddeford, under the fusion "reform" administration of 1879, was increased $10,114.47.

The farmers of Ogunquit complain greatly of hen thieves, some of them having had their roosts stripped of every fowl.

Titcomb & Ward, of Kennebunkport, are building a yacht to be named the Nettie; she is all planked up, and will be launched in a few weeks. David Clark is raising the frame of a yacht of two hundred tons, which will have an iron keel weighing fifteen tons.

Rev. H. A. Philbrook, late pastor of the church of the Redeemer at Halifax, has left to accept the pastorate of the First Universalist society of Biddeford, over which Rev. H. A. Wales was pastor until he got into politics as a fusionist, when he was cordially invited out.

The Biddeford Times reports a rumor that Hon. E. H. Gove of that city, late secretary of state of Maine, and also late editor of the late People's Defender, a paper started in Biddeford during the recent campaign, to defend the Pillsbury-Garcelon-Moody-Gove infamy, has handed in his resignation as deacon of the Second Congregational church. Good thing for the church, if the rumor is true.

Fogg, a member of Ex-Gov. Garcelon's late astonishing council, in answer to a reporter's question if he knew what statements were made by E. C. Moody, of York, before the committee appointed to investigate the fusion frauds in Maine, replied: "I know Moody too well. He'd better not open his batteries, or I can spoil him." Unlucky Ed.; when he was first nominated for the council, by the Biddeford correspondent of a Boston paper, he remarked to us: "Hang the council; that's where they put 'em when they're done with 'em — when they're played out and they don't want 'em any more; I won't go there." But he did go, and we should judge that going did play him out—that he may be considered "done with" politically. He will not easily find another political cave of Adullam to dive into as a leader.

—Seven dollars a week with solitude will pan out further than ten dollars with twins.

—A curious belief among the natives of Burmah is that fire-flies are employed as lamps by the weaver birds, the insects being caught by the birds and glued to their nests by pieces of soft mud.

—A little Brooklyn girl, being reproved the other day by her elder sister for using a slang expression, sharply retorted, "Well, if you want into society more, you would hear more slang."

—It is claimed that a man never loses anything by politeness, but this has proved to be a mistake. As an old Philadelphian lifted his hat to a young lady the wind carried away his wig.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. I. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Water in Aquaria.

In many public aquaria, says the Journal of Science, unchanged sea-water is employed, and such water has been found by experience to be fit for an almost indefinite period for maintaining marine animals in health. The principle adopted is to keep the bulk of the water in underground reservoirs, and to constantly pump from them a fresh supply into the show-tanks, the delivery of the water being made through a series of fine jets. The great object of a constant supply delivered in such a manner as to force air along with fresh, cool water into the tanks containing the animals. By that means the water is maintained at an almost constant temperature, and even if temporarily rendered cloudy by the presence of decaying fragments of food, etc., the rapid oxidation resulting from the air forced in along with the fresh water from the jets soon renders the water quite clear. Some water which had been used for eight years in a large aquarium appeared to be quite suitable for the requirements of the animals, and was bright and clear.

A Handicap Race.

A distressing occurrence, which should be a warning to all unmarried men, occurred the other evening on the west side, the victim being a youth of the most exemplary habits, and almost the sole support of a poker game into which he had been roped early in the season. For some time past he has been paying attention to a beautiful but experienced girl of twenty, his natural timidity, however, serving as a shield to ward off the dangers which always attend enterprises of the kind in which he was engaged. Seeing that he was not to be captured by ordinary means, the cold-blooded siren conceived a plot which she immediately proceeded to put into execution. The next time her victim called he was ushered into the lair commonly known as the parlor, and induced to deposit himself in a large arm-chair, while the assassin of his happiness occupied an adjacent sofa. Knowing that he was an admirer of fast horseflesh, the striped-stockinged demon artfully directed the conversation in that direction, and finally asked what a handicap was. "Why," said the young man, "it is a race in which the horses carry different weights; for instance, one that carries one hundred and twenty pounds, while all the rest are in at one hundred or so, is said to be handicapped." "Then," said the sorceress, while a cold light seemed to be emitted from her eyes, "if I were to sit on your knee, you would be handicapped at one hundred and forty-five pounds, wouldn't you?" It is hardly necessary to say that the unfortunate man made no resistance, that in a moment she was seated there, and that the old man opened the door at precisely the right time.—Chicago Tribune.

—"But me no butts," as the man observed to the belligerent goat.

—When a man, going home to dinner, sees a carpet on the line in the back yard, he regards it as an ominous "cautionary signal," and sneaks down town and buys a soda-cracker at the corner grocery.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait.—Burlington Hawkeye.

Richer in bone and fat producing materials than all others are Malt Bitters.

—Sometimes a man is absorbed in his business, at another time it is only his money that is absorbed.

When we consider that Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites supplies the deficiency to unhealthy blood, restores the nervous element, and produces healthy action to the various organs and Forces of the body necessary to sound mind, we wonder at the imbecility everywhere apparent.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

For week ending Wednesday, March 17.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

Amount of stock at market—Cattle 3,79; sheep and lambs 6193; swine 10,000; number western cattle 3673; eastern cattle 317; milch cows and northern cattle 203.

Prices of beef cattle per 100 lbs live weight—Extra quality $5.62½ and $6; first quality $5 and $5.50; second quality $4.62½ and $5; third quality $4.12½ and $4.50; poorest grades of coarse oxen, bulls, &c., $3.75 and $4.

The cattle from the west this week were mostly of a good grade, and a large portion of the best lots were taken by shippers for the English market. Prices upon all grades were strong to per ton higher than the same qualities sold for one week ago. Cattle coal higher at the West, and the trade has been fairly active. There were but a few beef cattle brought in from Maine, the supply from that section consisting mostly of milch cows and working oxen. There were a few very good beef cattle brought in from the western part of the state.

Working Oxen—The supply was not large, but enough for the demand. We quote sales of 1 pr, girth 7 ft 6 in, live weight 3700 lbs, $175; 1 pr, girth 7 ft 4 in, live weight 3420 lbs, at $171; 1 pr, girth 7 ft 4 in, live weight 3400 lbs, $160; 4 prs, girth 6 ft 9 in, live weight 2700 lbs, at $125 per pr; 5 prs, girth 6 ft 6 in, live weight 2500 lbs, at $237 50 the lot; 1 ox, girth 6 ft 8 in, live weight 2600 lbs, at $137 50; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 7 in, live weight 2400 lbs, $130; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 3 in, live weight 2000 lbs, $115; 1 pr, girth 6 ft 2 in, live weight 2800 lbs, $125.

Milch Cows—Extra $50 and $70; ordinary $30 and $40; springers $18 and $50; farrow cows $13 and $27 per head. The supply of cows in market was light and the trade for them very quiet. We quote sales of 3 milch cows at $30 the lot; 1 springer at $37; 1 cow and calf at $40; 1 do. and calves at $60; 1 cow and calf at $47 50; 1 do. at $45; 3 springers at $37 50 each; 2 do. at $34 each; 1 Jersey cow at $46; 1 Durham at $36.

Store Cattle—Not any call for them. Most of the small cattle and many of the cows that are in a fair condition are bought up by butchers to slaughter.

Sheep and Lambs—Those from the West were all owned by butchers, with the exception of a few, which were bought for shipment to England. Western sheep and lambs cost landed at Brighton from 6 to 7½c per lb, live weight.

Swine—Fat hogs 8½c per lb, live weight, all owned by butchers, and taken direct to the slaughter houses from the cars. None offered in the market for sale.

Important.

Cuticura REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases whenever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during that time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It commenced healing the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which are the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 19, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the wet time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly,

F. P. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 23, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of SOAP, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle, CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

Old Bounty Land Warrants.

The last Report of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shows 2,987,500 acres of Bounty Land Warrants outstanding. These were issued under act of 1855 and prior acts. GILMORE & CO. pay cash for them. Send by registered letter. Where Assignments are imperfect we give instructions to perfect them.

Arrears of Pay and Bounty.

Officers, Soldiers and Sailors of the late war, or their heirs, are in many cases entitled to money from the Government of which they have no knowledge. Write full history of service, and state amount of pay and bounty received. Enclose stamp to GILMORE & CO., and a full reply after examination, will be given you free.

Pensions.

☞ All Officers, Soldiers and Sailors wounded, ruptured or injured in the late war, however slightly, can obtain a pension by addressing GILMORE & COMPANY.

Cases prosecuted by GILMORE & CO. before the supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims and the Southern Claims Commission.

Each department of our business is conducted in a separate bureau, under the charge of the same experienced parties employed by the old firm. Prompt attention to all business entrusted to GILMORE & CO. is thus secured. We desire to win success by deserving it. Address

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION! Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundred edition, revised and enlarged. Just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions in all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to JOS. S. FISHER, president; W. I. P. INGRAHAM, vice-president; W. PAINE, M. D.; C. S. GAUNTT, M. D.; H. J. DOUCET M. D.; R. B. KLINE, M. D.; J. R. HOLCOMB, M. D.; N. R. LYNCH, M. D.; and M. R. O'CONNELL, M. D., faculty of the Philadelphia University of Medicine and surgery; also the faculty of the American University of Philadelphia; also Hon. P. A. HISELL, M.D., president of the National Medical Association.

Address Dr. W. H. PARKER, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston, Mass. The author may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience. d&tuSu&tuow80

THE New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and in just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

—THE—

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

—OF—

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a weekly invitation to customers, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.
PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley, Malt and French Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat-Producing Material, than any other form of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."
MALT BITTERS build up new the nervous, nervous (bone) and muscular system. For dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache, nausea, nervous exhaustion and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of lungs and urinary organs, emaciation, clergymen and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.
MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, dyspeptic, bilious, dizzy, fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful medicine in the world.
Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS'
SARSAPARILLA
Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.
It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.
Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eight years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,
S. M. DINSMORE, M. D.
FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.
The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first, second and third stages of diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.
Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.
Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

A Colorado Glacier.

A gentleman who has during the last two years traversed the mountains around Leadville and penetrated almost every one of the secret recesses, informs a Herald reporter that there is within twenty-five miles of this city one of the most interesting curiosities of nature—a veritable glacier, presenting all the characteristics of the glaciers of Switzerland, both in magnitude and motion, its progress being gradually down the gulch. The scene of this curiosity is located in the Mosquito range, about fifteen miles north of the pass. Our informant says that he first discovered it about three years ago, while out on a prospecting tour. It was then about a mile in length, and at the bottom of the gulch presented a sheer precipice of ice not less than 150 feet in height. Later in the season the place was visited again, and it was found that the great mass of ice had melted until at its face it was not more than 100 feet high, the loss from the surface reducing its length to about half a mile. Again, early the following year, the place was visited, and the glacier was found to have regained its bulk, showing that the accumulation of ice and snow during the winter was about one-third its gross bulk. The rocks on the side of this immense mass of ice show the marks of attrition, proving, beyond all controversy, that the glacier is in motion. Indeed, the earth at the foot of the glacier, heaved up in great masses, shows that it is gradually moving down into the valley. During the summer a large stream of water flows from the face of the icy cliff. Our informant is of the opinion that the glacier, as it progresses out of the deep gorge in which it was formed, will slowly melt away, and that it will not last many years. It is out of the way of ordinary travel, and the route to the scene is exceedingly difficult, so that it is not likely to be visited except by prospectors and hunters.—Leadville (Col.) Herald.

Those New Boots.

I saw, says a New York correspondent, a tall, stately and elegant lady on her way down Broadway. She was dressed faultlessly, judging by the standard of present fashions, and was an object of interest and scrutiny as she moved through the feminine crowd. She looked as unconscious as anybody whose heart was bounding with the knowledge that her clothes were being admired. Her gait was easy, even and graceful, until, all of a sudden, she stopped, and in a flash grew two inches shorter. This shortening of her stature startled me. She rocked for a few seconds like a ship in a short sea, and then righted herself, rose to her former height and passed on. What could it mean? I had not been deceived as to the lessening of her length, for her dress, now as before, cleared the sidewalk on which it rested during her brief dwarfage. Determined to solve this mystery, I followed her until precisely the same thing happened again; and that time I saw the simple cause of the astonishing effect. Fashionable shoes are now made with higher heels than ever, and the heels of the shoes are placed so far forward that the heels of the wearer project rearward. In fact, these French heels, as they are called, are now put as near the middle of the foot as possible and not destroy the centre of gravity. To walk on them is difficult, and without practice is as dangerous as skating for a novice, but the ladies learn after a while to manage them very well. In the case of this particular lady, however, the heels were so near the counterpoising spot that she was about evenly balanced on them, and no exercise of skill could save her from occasionally tipping backward on them. They did not overturn her, but it let her own real heels down on the ground, while her toes pointed skyward, and her stature was shortened by just the height of the French heels.

Dr. Mott's Endorsement of Speer's Port Grape Wine.

The following, from the celebrated Dr. Mott, of New York, speaks wonders for Mr. Speer's efforts to raise the Oporto Grape in New Jersey. The doctor has spent years in Portugal and the wine districts of France, and knows what he is talking about.

62 Madison Avenue,
NEW YORK, April 11, 1878.
MR. ALFRED SPEER:
Dear Sir—The visit which I made last year to your vineyards, wine-presses and vaults at Passaic, N. J., satisfies me thoroughly that the wines manufactured by you are pure and unadulterated, and the very best that can be offered to the public for medicinal uses.
Acting upon my favorable impression at the time, I have since recommended the Port Wine more particularly in my practice, and am satisfied with marked benefit to my patients.
There can be no better proof to the doubting mind, as to the Wine being made of the finest Oporto Grape, than a visit to the acres of land covered with the vine bearing the luxuriant fruit. Wishing you success in your praiseworthy enterprise, I remain respectfully yours,
ALEX B. MOTT, M. D.,
Prof. of Surgery, Bellevue Hospital Medical College, etc., etc.
This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

News and Notes.

The Boston Journal office and building were badly damaged by fire and water, Sunday evening, the loss amounting probably to $45,000, there being on the property a total insurance of $70,000. F. A. Searle's job printing office, in the same building, was damaged about $15,000; insured. Through the courtesy of the Herald proprietors in placing their office and presses at the service of the Journal, the latter was able to issue on Monday morning as usual.

A New York merchant who was worth a quarter of a million, and six weeks ago married a girl of aristocratic family, committed suicide on Saturday.

About fifty Chinamen arrived in New York, Saturday, from San Francisco. Most of them go to towns in the interior of the state.

The Providence Journal gives full credence to the reports that the strikes in the New England factories are brought about by paid agents of English manufacturers. Facts are known that give credence to these stories.

The number of vessels belonging to, or bound to or from ports in the United States, reported totally lost and missing during the past month, fifty-two, being twenty-six wrecked, thirteen abandoned, one burned, one sunk by collision, four foundered and seven are missing. The list comprises three steamers, nine ships, eleven barks, seven brigs, and twenty-two schooners, and their total value, exclusive of cargoes, is estimated at $1,240,000.

At San Francisco, Saturday, another of the sand-lot communists, one of Kearney's lieutenants named Gannon, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $1,000. A motion for a new trial was denied by the judge, and, in default of $8,000, pending an appeal, Gannon was sent to the house of correction, but subsequently secured bail.

A story comes from Iowa that a man has confessed that he was hired by the members of one family to kill all the members of another family, and that he was to receive $100 for each one killed.

A Tucson (Arizona) despatch says that Hon. John J. Gasper, secretary of the territory, and his partner, Amos M. Smith, have been arrested for violation of the revenue law, in selling tobacco without a license.

The floor of a public hall at Lincoln, Pa., gave way Saturday evening, letting about 150 persons fall to the floor below, about twelve feet. Thirty persons were hurt, some of them seriously.

John Quinn, aged fifty-three years, hung himself in a cell in the police station at Buffalo, N. Y., on Sunday. He was one of the leaders of the Fenian invasion of Canada in 1866, when he was captured and sentenced to be hung, but sentence was commuted to imprisonment for twenty years. He served six years in Kingston prison.

In the case of Frank Brogden, colored, on trial at Baltimore for the murder of Susan Lawrence, colored, by shooting her with a musket, in August last, the jury, after being locked up since Thursday afternoon, rendered a verdict, Saturday, of guilty of murder in the first degree.

Edward C. Palmer, president of the Louisiana savings bank at New Orleans, was convicted of embezzlement of the funds of the bank, Saturday, and sentenced to three years' hard labor in the penitentiary. A suspensive appeal was taken before the supreme court.

The Buffalo (N. Y.) Commercial reports Capt. Hilton of the Wentworth as being in Buffalo, with his plans, diagrams and views of the new establishment at Newcastle, for the purpose of allowing the summer tourists at Buffalo the opportunity to select their rooms for the coming season. Mr. Hilton has since visited Detroit, Mich., and goes thence to Chicago and St. Louis. Thence he will return via Cincinnati, Washington, Baltimore, etc., reaching Portsmouth about the 25th of April.

An old brick building, at Worcester, Mass., while being demolished by workmen fell inward with a crash, Saturday afternoon, burying in the ruins five men, who were, however, rescued from their perilous position badly bruised and shaken, they having fallen some thirty feet into the cellar. Their escape from death is considered almost miraculous.

At Rockland, Me., in the slander case of Meservey against Denton, the latter having charged the former with the murder of Sarah B. Meservey, at Tenant's Harbor, December 22d, 1877, for which Nathan F. Hart has been convicted and is now in prison, the jury returned a verdict for $1,668. Another case between the same parties for libel is on the docket.

Hannah Thousdike, convicted of murder in the first degree at the December term of 1878, for killing Honora Sullivan, was brought up for sentence, at Rockland, Me., Saturday, the law court having overruled the exceptions. The county attorney nol. pros'd the indictment as to the first degree, leaving a verdict of second degree, and Judge Libbey sentenced her to imprisonment for life in the state prison, the statute making no difference in the penalty between murder in the first and second degrees.

Two little sons of Thomas R. Babb, of Amesbury, Mass., aged respectively five and eight years, were drowned on Saturday by breaking through the ice on a pond.

New Hampshire Items.

The Great Falls Journal is for sale in consequence of the ill health of Editor Fernald's wife. Mr. Fernald has managed the paper successfully for twelve years past. He will settle in Minneapolis, Minn.

Wells B. Brown, the man who was found in bed with his wife at Aurora, Ill., last week, both having their throats cut and the woman being dead, belongs in Lebanon, N. H., which place he left Feb. 9th, leaving behind a wife and two children. The woman he murdered was Mrs. Josephine L. Stevens, a divorced woman, whom he married after leaving Lebanon, and the murder and attempt at suicide are supposed to have been committed on account of Brown's relatives having sworn out a warrant against him for bigamy.

Naval Gazette.

Orders have been received at Norfolk, Va., to have the Nipsic ready for sea by the 1st of April.

The Pensacola was at Panama on the 11th inst., and would arrive at San Francisco about the middle of April. The Tuscarora is expected at San Francisco soon, from the Mexican coast.

Political.

The republicans of Illinois are reported as about equally divided between Grant and Blaine, and in Ohio between Sherman and Blaine.

How the people of Maine do "endorse" Garcelon! Nearly one hundred towns that went fusion one year ago have gone republican this spring. The estimated republican majority in the State, based on the recent election, is about 15,000.

The democrats are laboring to show that the republican party and the supreme court of the United States are in accord; and logically that the democratic party and that court are not in accord. All of which is agreeable to the republicans, as that party has ever been loyal to the constitution and in favor of law and order everywhere. We accept that issue. Press it upon the people.—Washington Republican.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted to double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toth che and all aches.

The great reliever of pain "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although perfectly safe in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be about 'ely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty-five cents a box. (19&F

There were four hay-rack loads of skets on the Parade, Monday forenoon, m York.

St. George Council, No. 21, A. L. of , meets this evening to exemplify its w secret work and to vote upon the option of the same.

Capt. John G. Moses, of this city, reived a letter from Capt. H. H. Freese the barque Furness Abbey on Monday, ting that the vessel left Batavia for w York, on the 10th of February.

Rev. John A. Goss, the worthy and loved pastor of the Christian church, Sunday withdrew his recent letter of signation, in compliance with the alost unanimous vote of his parish.

Four of those ornamental cars belong g to the Eldredges Brewing Co. made emselves somewhat conspicuous, Monay, as they stood on the track of the astern railroad in near proximity to the re sober-colored freight cars of ordinaruse.

The cricket club of this city are going to business in earnest, this season. hey will be visited by the Longwood, oston, Lowell, Lawrence, Needham, awtucket, Concord, St. John and other uts. Their expenses last year were early four hundred dollars.

The ship Frolic, which for a number of ears past has been commanded by Capt. ohn C. Bush of this city, has been sold o go under the German flag, at about 30,000. She registers 1368 tons, and as built at Mystic, Conn., in 1869, and metalled a little over two years ago.

The schooners G. W. Ratt and Hattie ewis, which have been laid up inside of obie's island bridge during the past inter, had their sails bent on Monday reparatory to a start in the spring business. They usually run in the brick rade between the brick-yards at Dover oint and Eliot, and the Boston market.

Michael Leyden, one of the parties implicated in the breaking and entering of eight cars on the Eastern railroad some ears since, and who was sent to state rison for two years, came home last week, but will return to Concord on Friday next and appear before the committee on the prison examination. He thinks he can give evidence that will make it warm for the prison officials.

By reference to the advertisement it will be seen that some important changes have been made in the time-table of the steamer James Sampson, the number of round trips daily having been increased by two, and the boat now making evening trips all through the week. A passengers' waiting room has been opened in Kittery, near the steamboat landing, where tickets can be procured, and where also parcels for forwarding may be left in security. The boat is now in charge of Daniel Lydston, conductor, Richard Philbrick, pilot, and Fred Duncan, engineer. She is shortly to be repainted, inside and out, and newly furnished; and nothing will be omitted that can add to the convenience of the patrons of the boat.

The Dover Democrat of Saturday says: "Navigation has fairly commenced on the Cocheco river. Yesterday the tug Ann arrived at the Cocheco Manf'g Co.'s pier after wintering in Portland harbor. She returned to Portsmouth early this morning and towed up from Portsmouth lower harbor the schooner Helen, Capt. White, of New Bedford, loaded with coal from Philadelphia, consigned to the Cocheco Manufacturing Co. of this city. Immediately after, the same tug proceeded down the river to tow up the schooner Laura Robinson, loaded with 227 tons of coal consigned to C. H. Trickey & Co. This is earlier than was expected, as in former years the first week in April was looked upon as about the earliest time when schooners would come up the river."

There will be a grand floral display at St. John's church on Easter day.

Rev. A. A. Waite is to preach at the Methodist church every evening during the present week.

Mr. Wm. J. Moat, who for the past year has had charge of the brewery of Messrs. Carney, Lynch & Co., Manchester, has returned to his former place at Jones' brewery in this city.

The schooner Cocheco, of this port, Seaward master, which arrived at New York on the 19th inst., in thirteen days from Jacksonville, Fla., with a cargo of lumber, will discharge at Rockaway, L. I.

Rev. Henry F. Lane of Boston preached at the Middle street Baptist church on Sunday. Mr. Lane was formerly minister of this church, having been located here from 1863 to 1867, since which time he has been settled over a church at Malone, N. Y., for several years.

It will doubtless give great pleasure to the amusement, loving community of this region to learn that the unique entertainment brought to this country by Miss Kate Field, may soon be offered in this city. Many persons who have read with interest of the triumphant success of this "Monologue" in London, Boston and New York have urged Miss Field to give us an opportunity of enjoying it, and her agent is to be immediately sent here to decide upon the probability of a full house.

SOUTH SEABROOK, March 19th.

Samuel D. Goodall, Esq., of Boston, has been at Seabrook beach for the past week surveying the land owned by him, and staking it out into house lots.

Mary Brown, the girl who fell from a hay-mow, and was injured by striking on a plow, is recovering.

Alonzo Barton, who lives on the Rocks road in Seabrook, has been for some time running a shoe express to Haverhill. On Thursday, while driving on Rocks road, his horse stepped into a frost-hole in the highway and broke his leg, necessitating the killing of the animal. The loss is a heavy one for Mr. Barton, who is highway surveyor of the district where the accident happened, and had previously ordered the road to be mended, which order however had not been obeyed.

Robert Collins was elected prudential committee of school district No. 4, at the school meeting Tuesday evening. EXE.

THE RAILROAD DISPUTE.

The hearing of the question in dispute between the Portsmouth & Dover railroad and the Eastern road commenced at the court house in this city at eleven o'clock Monday forenoon, before Judges Bingham, Smith and Clark as a board of referees. Ex-Senator Wadleigh and S. C. Eastman of Concord appeared as counsel for the Eastern railroad; Messrs. Frink and Hatch, and City Solicitor Foster, appeared in behalf of this city as the principal stockholder in the Portsmouth & Dover road; and the interests of Dover were looked after by Ex-Judge Smith and Hon. Samuel M. Wheeler of that place.

The case was opened by Mr. Frink, who made a review of the proceedings from the time the preliminary survey of the road was made up to the present time, explaining the reason for the increase in the cost of construction of the road over the estimates, the connection the officers and directors of the Eastern railroad had with the building and construction of the road, and other matters connected with the case now in suit. A more concise and clear statement could hardly be made. Mr. Frink stated that the original estimate for the building of the road was $599,000, and the actual cost was $752,326.06; the extra expense was caused by the building of a long truss at the Dover point bridge, $20,000; ballasting the piles at the same bridge, $32,000; interest account during construction, $21,074.80; real estate in Dover, $30,000; discount on bonds, $49,791.31. Total extra expenses, $152,872.11. Total of estimates and extra expenses, $751,872.11; difference unaccounted for $453,995. Capital stock $757,800.

Hon. Frank Jones in his testimony stated that he was at the beginning of the building of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad; he was its president, and was also a director of the Eastern road during the construction of the Dover road; he consulted with the president and some of the directors of the Eastern railroad as to the building, purchasing material, and in fact in almost everything appertaining to the building of the road; that they were cognizant of the extra expenses incurred in the building of the road; that Williams, one of the directors of the Eastern, visited this city and Dover during the building of the road many times, and that he (Mr. Jones) went with him when he visited the premises; that on several occasions he was in consultation with Mr. Hatch, general manager of the Eastern road, and that Mr. Johnson, who was the engineer during the building of the road, was engaged with the knowledge of the directors of the Eastern; and that the directors knew of the discount on the bonds of the cities of Portsmouth and Dover. Several other material points appeared in Mr. Jones' testimony, which we may again refer to.

The case was adjourned at about five o'clock P. M., until this forenoon.

BOW MISSION SERVICES.

At the Band of Hope meeting, Saturday afternoon, one hundred and twenty children were in attendance. Rev. A. A. Waite and Mrs. Hooper made addresses.

The Saturday evening gospel temperance meeting was held in Music hall, where Mr. Waite gave a "chalk talk" to about 650 people, and a select choir sang several pieces.

Rev. H. L. Hastings was present at the nine o'clock meeting at the mission hall, Sunday forenoon, and took part in the exercises.

The bethel service Sunday afternoon was held in Music hall, and was attended by about 1300 people. Mr. Stephen W. Clarke presided, and Mr. Waite gave a "chalk talk," and preached a sermon on "The sure anchor."

The weekly service of the reform club was held in Music hall Sunday evening. President French presided, and Mr. Waite gave an address full of practical points and suggestions. Announcement was made that services will be held in the Methodist church every evening this week, except Saturday evening. L.

A POPULAR PASTOR.

At the quarterly conference of the Methodist society, held in their chapel on Saturday evening last, it was unanimously resolved by a rising vote that the bishop presiding over the New Hampshire Methodist Annual Conference be requested to assign Rev. Charles B. Pitblado to the Methodist church in this city for another year. Mr. Pitblado has been in this city two years and has built up a prosperous society, is exceedingly popular, and has hosts of friends outside of his own parish.

THE WOOD-PRESERVING PROCESS.

The preparations at the works upon Noble's island, for the process of preserving ties to be used upon the Eastern railway and branches, are nearly completed. This outlay will doubtless prove an economical expenditure for the road. The cost of ties is variously stated by different railway managers, depending somewhat of course upon the localities to which they are transported. Those made from oak generally last six or seven years, while those from pine or other soft woods require to be renewed in some climates every two or three years. Ties which are prepared by this proposed process, it is claimed will last over fifteen years.

Wood in its chemical combination consists of fibrous substance, and a liquid filling up the interstices, called sap. Chemistry shows us that wood is composed of 52.4 parts carbon, 41.9 parts oxygen, and 5.7 parts hydrogen; in all the different varieties this proportion holds. The sap of every kind of wood contains many different substances. In pine, resin predominates; while the oak is prized for its excellent tanning properties. Some kinds contain glutinous and saccharine substances, while from others are extracted coloring pigments, salts, mineral substances, etc., all soluble in water. Chemistry also shows that it is nearly impossible to destroy the clean wood fibre, and that this can only be accomplished by the strongest acids or alkalies. Wood free from sap will not decay for a very long time, even when placed in the ground or exposed to rain and dampness. The cause of its decay when thus exposed is found in the different substances of which the sap is composed. Its albumen parts act as yeast for all the other constituents, and excite fermentation, which causes the decay and destruction of the entire substance. It is this sap which invites the ship-worm so familiar to mariners—the teredo navalis. These enemies of navigation bore into the wood, not to eat the dry fibre, which in itself contains no nutritive properties, but solely for the sap. Removing this property then from the wood we see that the process of decay on land and destruction at sea are to a great extent avoided. The empty pores of the wood must be filled with some antiseptic or preserving substance which will keep dampness away from the fibre of the wood. This process attained, and we have wood of long preservation.

The plan is generally to load the ties upon a truck or car, which is run into a large cylinder generally of great length—from seventy to one hundred feet; a pipe leads from the bottom of the boiler or cylinder to a steam boiler, which pipe is pierced with small holes to allow the escape of the steam. The steam is then let on, and soon thoroughly saturates the ties, pressing out the sap, which runs off with the condensed water. The ties are then treated with a chemical preparation applied under a heavy pressure, which saturates them with the preparation and renders them almost impervious to decay; and after drying, they are ready for use. At the Noble's island works there are two of these cylinders, one sixty-five and the other eighty-five feet in length, each seven feet in diameter. The tracks inside of these cylinders will be filled with cars loaded with the ties, and also at times with piling to be used upon the bridges and wharves of the company. There are over twenty-two thousand ties piled on the island, awaiting this process of preservation. The old locomotive "Magnolia," which has done service on the rails for many years, has been partially dismantled and will be used as a stationary engine.

This process has for some time been in use upon some of the western and southern roads, and has also been tested by the navy department of the United States. Portsmouth is found to be the most convenient and economical point for the reception and distribution of ties used upon the 385 miles of road operated by the Eastern railway. As a road of 100 miles in length requires 316,000 ties, the economy in the saving of frequent renewals by a process of preservation is obvious. It costs the Eastern railroad twenty-five thousand dollars each year to lay new ties upon its lines. The Maine Central railroad laid last year 98,511 new ties upon its tracks, at a cost, for iron spikes and sleepers, of $74,611.09. The Boston & Maine road expended for ties in the year ending Sept. 30, 1878, $29,791 05. The time expended, and the risks of accident upon tracks frequently used, added to the cost of ties, shows how great a saving may be made by the use of a process which will more than double the life of the ties. This process is in constant use on the Old Colony railroad, and last week twenty car-loads of ties destined for that road passed through this city, and will, ere being laid, be subjected to the process. These ties came by rail from points on the European & North American railway.

FISHERY NOTES.

The schooner Daniel Marcy, one of the fishing vessels owned by Mr. Valentine Doane, came off the marine railway at Kittery, and the Velocipede, another vessel owned by the same gentleman, went on, Monday.

The fishing schooner Paul Revere, John Beatty master, of Gloucester, Mass., went ashore near that port Sunday morning, during a thick snow-storm. The crew got ashore, but returned later and stripped the vessel.

The conviction of Geo. W. Dixon, of this city, before the police court at Newburyport, for trawl stealing, and fining him $10 and costs, besides paying for the trawls, and of Sanford J. Parker, who was fined $75 and costs before our police court, for the same offence, will be likely to put a stop to this nefarious business. It's about as mean stealing as we know of; after fishermen depending for their daily bread on the products of their toil, have set their trawls in hopes to secure a free of fish, to have other fishermen deliberately steal them from the water and disappoint and break up the business of those with whom they have a common interest. We hope that there will be no more of it; but if still persisted in, the fishermen must band together, making common cause, and bring the offenders before the courts. Trawls are of such a nature that the stealing of them is a high crime, and had they gone to trial in the superior court, which sentences men-stealers to seven years in the state prison, they would not have had the chance to steal more for seven years at least.—Gloucester Advertiser.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Onions.

From our own experience, and the observation of others, we can fully indorse the testimony of the St. Louis Miller, on the healthful properties of the above esculent. Lung and liver complaints are certainly benefited, often cured, by a free consumption of onions; either cooked or raw. Colds yield to them like magic. Don't be afraid of them. Taken at night all offenses will be wanting by morning, and the good effects will amply compensate for the trifling annoyance. Taken regularly they promote the health of the lungs and the digestive organs. An extract made by boiling down the juice of onions to a sirup, and taken as a medicine, answers the purpose very well, but fried, roasted, or boiled, onions are better. Onions are very cheap medicine, within everybody's reach, and they are not by any means as "bad to take" as the costly nostrums a neglect of their use may necessitate.—Scientific American.

A Triple Anniversary.

The anniversary of the 21st birthday of the triplets Bloch, at Cincinnati, which was supposed to be unprecedented in this or any other country, is in fact surpassed by a record of three young men who were born in Boston. Twenty-four years ago in the month of July, 1856, the wife of Wilson Murray, a carpenter living in Ohio place, at the south end, gave birth to three boys, who were named respectively Benjamin Franklin, Henry Wilson and Charles Sumner Murray. They are all now living, never had any serious illness, are above the average in mental and physical vigor, and are all attending the State Agricultural college at Orono, Me., Mr. Murray, their father, enlisted in the war of the rebellion, and died at New Orleans.

The Ladies' Favorite.

Among the many thousands of ladies who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and pronounced it their favorite remedy, because so efficient in the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, are many who are well and favorably known in the world, as well as artists, musicians, and whose host of names from the brilliant ranks of wealth and fashion. It is pre-eminently the ladies' Favorite Prescription, its use, while being far more safe and efficient, exempting them from the so painful, caustic operations, and the wearing of those mechanical contrivances made like Peter Pindar's razor—seller's razors—to sell, rather than to cure.

DR. R. V. PIERCE:

Dear Sir—Your Favorite Prescription has restored me to perfect health.

Yours truly, GRACE CHOATE.

422 Eutaw street, BALTIMORE, Md., June 19th, 1878.
DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sir—My wife was a hopeless invalid for nearly twenty years. Your Favorite Prescription has cured her.

Thankfully yours, R. T. McCAY.

—"Unless you give me aid," said a beggar to a benevolent lady, "I am afraid I shall have to resort to something which I greatly dislike to do." The lady handed him a dollar, and compassionately asked: "What is it, poor man, that I have saved you from?" "Work," was the mournful answer.

Why Are You Bilious?

Because you have allowed your bowels to become costive, and liver torpid. Use Kidney-Wort to produce a free state of the bowels, and it will stimulate the liver to proper action, cleanse the skin of its yellowness, cures bilious headache, and causes new life in the blood. Druggists have it.

—Elderly gentleman to a freshman on the train: "You don't have any ticket?" "No, I travel on my good looks." "Then," after looking him over, "probably you don't goin' very far."

"The best cough medicine in the world." The Old Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. Cutler Bros. & Co., Boston. Small reduced to 25c; large, $1. eod&wtmay

—"Your late husband, madam," began her lawyer—"Yes, I know he was always out late o'nights, but now that he's dead don't let us upbraid him," said his charitable widow.

A nourishing agent for the weak, emaciated and dropsical,—Malt Bitters.

—The learned Haller, on his death-bed, noted the beats of his pulse with perfect coolness. "The artery has ceased to beat," he said to his friend Dr. Rosselet, and immediately expired.

—The world is full of compensations. The more prices go up the more we have to come down for everything.

Women that have been bedridden for years have been entirely cured of female weakness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—Astronomers are excited just now about a spot they have discovered on the planet Jupiter. It is supposed to be about twenty thousand miles broad!

DO NOT DELAY, but bear in mind that consumption often begins with a neglected cold or cough. Adamson's Botanic Balsam wins the day in curing coughs and colds. Price, 35 and 75 cents. Trial bottles, 10 cents.

—They pretend to have a process whereby they can liquefy ivory and cast it into desired forms in Paris, and then let it cool, when it becomes hard as ever.

The Reason Why.

The tonic effect of Kidney-Wort is produced by its cleansing and purifying action on the blood. Where there is a gravelly deposit in the urine, or milky, ropy urine from disordered kidneys, it cures without fail. Constipation and piles readily yield to its cathartic and healing power.

—An insignificant shop in Cambridge street, Boston, has the honor of naming a new chewing gum the Mary Anderson.

When we consider that Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites supplies the deficiency to unhealthy blood, restores the nervous element, and produces healthy action to the various organs and forces of the body necessary to sound mind, we wonder at the imbecility everywhere apparent.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

The Bitters invariably remedy yellowness of the complexion and whites of the eyes, pains in the right side and under the right shoulder blade, furred tongue, high-colored urine, nausea, vertigo, dyspepsia, constipation, heaviness of the head, nervousness, despondency, and every other manifestation or accompaniment of a disordered condition of the liver. The stomach, bowels and kidneys also experience their regulating and tonic influence.

KIDNEY-WORT

PERMANENTLY CURES KIDNEY DISEASES, LIVER COMPLAINTS, Constipation and Piles.

DR. E. H. CLARK, South Hero, Vt., says, "In cases of KIDNEY TROUBLES it has acted like a charm. It has cured many very bad cases of PILES, and has never failed to act efficiently."

NELSON FAIRCHILD, of St. Albans, Vt., says, "It is of priceless value. After sixteen years of great suffering from Piles and Constipation it completely cured me."

C. S. HOGADON, of Berkshire, says, "one package has done wonders for me in completely curing a severe Liver and Kidney Complaint."

IT HAS WONDERFUL POWER. WHY?

BECAUSE IT ACTS ON THE LIVER, THE BOWELS AND KIDNEYS AT THE SAME TIME.

Because it cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develope in Kidney and Urinary diseases, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation, Piles, or in Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Female disorders.

KIDNEY-WORT is a dry vegetable compound and can be sent by mail prepaid.

Cuticura REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment and cure of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases whenever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,
MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, Mr. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
33 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

Has been in constant use by the public for over twenty years, and is the best preparation ever invented for RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS YOUTHFUL COLOR AND LIFE.

It supplies the natural food and color to the hair glands without staining the skin. It will increase and thicken the growth of the hair, prevent its blanching and falling off, and thus AVERT BALDNESS.

It cures Itching, Eruptions and Dandruff. As a HAIR DRESSING it is very desirable, giving the hair a silken softness which all admire. It keeps the head clean, sweet and healthy.

The State Assayer and Chemist of Mass. and leading Physicians endorse and recommend it as a great triumph in medicine.

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE FOR THE WHISKERS

will change the beard to a BROWN or BLACK at discretion. Being in one preparation it is easily applied, and produces a permanent color that will not wash off.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury Shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united in the fluid extract form made by the Society.

It was the first as well as is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMOOR, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 7, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of all impure and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

The Best Fire Apparatus.

Norwich, Conn., is supplied with water from an artificial pond three and a half miles from the city. It is brought to the city in pipes by gravity pressure. The city is provided with two way hydrants located not more than 600 feet apart. A water pressure is obtained at the hydrants equal to eighty-five pounds to the square inch, which will throw an effective fire stream over any building in the place. Chief Carter relies entirely upon the hydrant pressure. He uses four-wheel hose carriages, 600 feet of hose on each reel, and twenty men to each company. He has four steamers, but they only respond to second alarms, and have not been called out in a year and a half. The department controls all fires by means of the hydrant streams. This is the cheapest and best fire service to be obtained—fire streams direct from hydrants. Cities putting in waterworks should keep this point in view.—Scientific American.

Eight Children at a Birth.

On the 21st of August Mrs. Timothy Bradlee, of Trumbull county, Ohio, gave birth to eight children—three boys and five girls. They are all living and healthy, but quite small. Mrs. Bradlee was married six years ago to Ennier Mowery, who weighed two hundred and seventy-three pounds on the day of his marriage. She had given birth to two pair of twins, and now eight more, making twelve children in five years. Mrs. Bradlee was a triplet, her mother and father both being twins, and her grandmother the mother of five pair of twins. —Cincinnati Lancet and Observer.

—Jokes invariably repeat themselves in various forms, and it is hard work to find anything new. An illustration of this is afforded by a London story of a man who was trying to return home one night during a heavy, black fog, and hit upon the expedient of offering himself to the policeman on duty in Trafalgar square as the man who had committed the last murder. But the wily guardian of the peace replied: "Won't do, sir. You're the fifteenth to-night."—The Hour.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait. —Burlington Hawkeye.

—A familiar instance of color-blindness is that of a man taking a brown silk umbrella and leaving a green gingham in its place.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. —Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

—The persons whose clothes are extremely fine I am too apt to consider as not being possessed of any superiority of fortune, but resembling those Indians who are found to wear all the gold they have in a bob at the end of the nose.—Oliver Goldsmith.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES will speedily and certainly arrest the depressing influences of diseases upon the nerves and muscles. It restores the appetite and induces a disposition to take on healthy flesh. It causes the formation of living blood, strengthening the action of both heart and lungs. It sustains the system under trying circumstances, and causes the healthy development of all the organs necessary to our existence.

—That matrimonial joys are often of an unstable nature is shown by the experience of an octogenarian married couple in Meriweather county, Ga., who, after living happily together for more than half a century and rearing a family of children, have now quarrelled and separated.

Women that have been pronounced incurable by best physicians in the country, have been completely cured of female weakness by the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—A young New Yorker was introduced to a Boston girl, and before they were acquainted thirty minutes, she got so spoony that she had called him an asterolepis, a Silurian placoid and a cartilaginous vertebrate. He returned to New York by the midnight train.—Andrews' Bazar.

The purest invigorant and stimulant (not an intoxicant) is Malt Bitters.

—The difference between a looking-glass and a wine-glass is, that while the former reveals defects only to ourselves, the latter reveals them to the world at large.

Portsmouth Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 1880.

A Brush Along the Line.

Several captains of our gallant navy are much exercised at the promotion (under a law of congress, now sought to be repealed, which allows the advancement of any officer not exceeding thirty numbers in rank, for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle or extraordinary heroism,) of Capt. James E. Jouett, whose advancement has been recommended to the senate by Secretary Thompson, and awaits the action of that body before it can be consummated. In the meantime, fifteen or so captains who do not fancy this set-back oppose the action of the secretary, respectfully perhaps but firmly, and cards of captains lie thick upon the tables of senators, in Washington, and caps are lifted a trifle higher, as the anxious patriots whose heroism has not yet been officially promulgated approach the grave and potent senators. In short, the line had their laugh at the staff in the case of Surgeon General Wales, a short time ago, and now some of them seem to realize how it is themselves. Sec'y Thompson believes he is right, and that Jouett is entitled justly and legally to the benefits of the law, and that if such a law exists, it was intended to be observed. This is well enough, every officer thinks, save when it affects his own rank, and gives him a pull back; and just now the influence of the over-slaughed is largely brought to bear in having letters and telegraph dispatches sent to senators, urging their votes against the confirmation of the future commodore, while the chorus of lamenting voices is heard all over Washington regarding the secretary's action, sighing:

"However could he do it?
Some day, no doubt, he'll rue it,
I remain: Captain Jouett
Will make a jolly row!"

Kellogg Must Go.

The committee appointed by the national senate to make a report that Senator Kellogg of Louisiana is not entitled to the seat to which he was elected, and that Spofford, who was not elected, is entitled to the seat, fulfilled that duty on Monday. The minority of the committee reported that Spofford is not entitled to Kellogg's seat—which everybody knew before. But Spofford is a democrat and wants a seat in the senate, so of course Kellogg must go.

Concerning the evidence introduced by the democrats to justify their reckless partisanship in the unseating of Kellogg, the republican members say: "Such evidence can be found in abundance in the scum of great cities. It is not fit to be used in cases affecting the smallest amount of property, much less the honor of an eminent citizen or a title to an object of so much desire as a seat in the senate. This evidence is not only unworthy of respect or credit, but is in many instances wholly irreconcilable with undisputed facts, and Kellogg has met and overthrown it at every point."

The Hoodlum Law Unconstitutional.

On the 22d inst., at San Francisco, in the case involving the validity of the law recently enacted, forbidding the employment of Chinese by corporations, the United States circuit court decided the law unconstitutional. The sand-lot communist leaders are still defiant, and trouble is feared, though the citizens' committee are believed to be strong enough to take care of all the rabble the communists can raise.

New Hampshire Items.

There are 274 continued actions, twenty-five equity cases and eleven state cases on the docket of the supreme court, which sits at Haverhill this month.

The supreme court for Belknap county opened at Laconia on Tuesday, Judge Allen presiding. There are no criminal cases for trial, and a short term is expected.

Naval Gazette.

Boatswain Edward Kenney is ordered to the Minnesota; Boatswain Robert Anderson from the Minnesota to the League island navy yard; Boatswain John A. Briseo to the New York navy yard.

Carpenter Henry Rigby is detached from the Nipsic and placed on waiting orders.

Passed Asst. Engr. J. L. D. Borthwick is detached from the Trenton, and ordered to return home; Passed Asst. Engr. B. W. Wood is detached from the New York navy yard, and ordered to the Trenton.

Mr. Phelps of Connecticut introduced in congress on Monday a bill authorizing the commander of the relief ship Constellation to bring on her return voyage to the United States as many emigrants from the famine-stricken districts of Ireland as the ship would accommodate. It appropriates $25,000 to properly furnish, fit up and provision the Constellation for the purpose named.

News and Notes.

In two French families, which arrived at Worcester, Mass., one day last week, there were thirty-six persons; and in another family thirty-two, including parents, children and grandchildren.

Washington was considerably excited, Monday afternoon, over a report that the steamer City of Mexico, on which Gen. Grant took passage from Vera Cruz for Galveston, was lost. There seems to be no ground for alarm.

A real live lord, George Essex Montifex, Lord Drummond, grandson and heir of the Earl of Perth, of Scotland, has been for several years living at Brook Haven, Long Island, with his wife, who was once his grandmother's serving maid, and whom he ran away with and married, when he was but fifteen years old. My Lord supported himself and his wife by fishing, and was as fond of a glass of rum as the average fisherman; neither of the pair was educated, or of anything more than very ordinary intelligence. They have gone back to Scotland.

The Portland & Ogdensburg railroad has done double the amount of freight business this winter that it has had in the same length of time since the road was built. It will put down steel rails through the Notch this spring.

Damariscotta, Me., elected all republican officers at the late election, by forty to a hundred majority. Last year fusion officers were chosen, excepting clerk and treasurer.

Dr. H. M. Leach and John G. Nichols, both of the Charlestown district of Boston, are under arrest, charged with procuring an abortion upon Miss Mattie Foster, who died from the effects of the operation Sunday night.

It is stated that the state department is considering the proposition to have a new treaty with China negotiated by a commissioner, or a board of commissioners.

Bishop McNamara of New York, having met with great encouragement at his former visit in Lowell, Mass., returned Monday night and addressed a large audience in Huntington hall. He will speak again next Monday night, after which he contemplates forming a branch of his Independent Catholic church in Lowell.

It is said that Mrs. Marcoux, wife of a miner recently killed in the Hoosac tunnel, is the daughter of Chief Engineer Dunn of the Grand Trunk railroad, and that she married against her father's wishes. Though respectably connected, she has for ten years lived a sad life of toil and poverty, and now finds herself in a pitiable state of destitution, with five little children looking to her for support.

The annual university boat race on the Thames river, between the Oxford and Cambridge crews, was rowed on Monday, and was won by the Oxfords. This was the thirty-sixth contest of the kind in the history of the great English universities. Of these races Oxford has won eighteen, and Cambridge seventeen, the race of 1877 being a dead heat.

Mrs. Belle Sage of New Albany, Ind., has brought suit against Albert Sage, her brother-in-law, for stealing and carrying away her husband. The husband is ill with consumption, and having $2,000 insurance on his life, there is a quarrel between the wife and his family over its possession.

James Brown, a negro, brutally murdered a three-year-old boy of Mr. Hilliard, white, near Newmarket, Va., on Friday. The citizens captured the negro and hung him to a tree.

The California legislature has passed and the governor has signed the revenue and taxation bill providing for the taxation of savings bank deposits, mortgages and capital stock of corporations.

Steamer City of Mexico arrived at Galveston, Texas, on Tuesday, with Gen. Grant on board.

—An Owego citizen, whose wife had presented him with triplets, remarked as he reckoned up his running expenses that children were a comfort in life, but he preferred to receive them on the installment plan.

—From 75 cents' worth of iron ore may be developed $5.50 worth of bar iron, $10 worth of horse-shoes, $180 worth of table-knives, $6800 worth of fine needles, $29,480 worth of shirt-buttons, $200,000 of watch-springs, $400,000 worth of hair-springs, or $2,500,000 worth of pallet arbors (used in watches).

"Old Reliable."

There are many reputed remedies for that very prevalent disease, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, but none which have given general satisfaction and become acknowledged standard preparations, except Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It continues to enjoy an unprecedented popularity. This reputation has been earned through the permanent cures which it has wrought, having proved itself a specific in the worst forms of disease. In fact so reliable is it that its former proprietor offered through all the newspapers of the land a reward of $500 for a case of catarrh that it would not cure. Sold by druggists.

—Indiana girls are right smart. An exchange tells of a girl in that state who wanted to see if her lover really loved her, so she hired a boy to yell "Mad dog!" as they were walking out. The lover flew over the fences and left her to be chewed up, and she went right away and married a store clerk.

An Admirable Medicinal Wine.

The most certain way to get the finest wine for medical use is to purchase Speer's Sambucus Wine, which is beyond doubt the purest and most admirable we have ever tasted. It is rich, nourishing and superior for general debility, female weakness, dysentery and consumption, and at the same time entirely free from any sort of spirit.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

—The touching sentiment "Our first in Heaven," was added to an obituary notice in a Philadelphia paper the other day by the clerk, and the father of the child came into the office hopping mad. It was the third death in the family, and he desired to know of the clerk where he supposed the other two had gone.

Why Wear Plasters?

They may relieve, but they can't cure that lame back, for the kidneys are the trouble and you want a remedy to act directly on their secretions, to purify and restore their healthy condition. Kidney-Wort has that specific action—and at the same time it regulates the bowels perfectly. Don't wait to get sick, but get a package to-day, and cure yourself.

—They went fishing. She looked languidly at him and said: "I wish the fish would bite at your hook; if I was a fish I would."

Physicians use Kidney-Wort in regular practice and pronounce its action perfect.

—Postage stamps must not be used more than once. To go through the mails a letter must bear the stamp of originality.

Isaac Watts was a Little Man.

He said jocosely to six tall, quizzing friends who asked how he felt among so many men, "that he was a sixpence among six pennies, worth them all." SOZODONT is just so; there may be many preparations for the teeth, but it is worth them all.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle.

See a Woman!

In another column, picking grapes for SPEER'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first-class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to European or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

A State's Right Maintained.

The cause of Clarity as represented in the world famed Charity Hospital, of New Orleans, was so ably defended by General G. T. Beauregard before the Congressional Committee on Post-Office affairs that the constitutional right of the State of Louisiana to create and authorize The Louisiana State Lottery Company to have its monthly drawings without any interference was fully allowed, and the Postmaster General has directed all Postmasters to forward the letters registered or otherwise, and postal orders to M. A. Dauphin, at New Orleans, La., or same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York City, N. Y., and the next drawing will take place April 13th, when some one will get $30,000 for $2.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City. D&W1ast1

AROUND HOME.

Rockingham Lodge of Good Templars are to give their second entertainment this evening at their hall, for the benefit of the order. Admission ten cents.

The Sons of Temperance are considering the subject of removing from their present hall, on the corner of Market and Ladd streets, to Grange hall, which has been offered them at a low figure.

"A friend to dumb beasts" calls earnestly for the city authorities to "put the pump in Court street in running order, where there is a never failing supply of the best of water," that thirsty animals may there find a drink in the hot weather of next summer.

John King, of Gloucester, Mass., under bonds for his appearance before the Massachusetts court in May for having one wife in Beverly and another in this city, has been surrendered by his bondsmen and taken to Salem jail. The bondsmen were afraid he would clear out.

In the cases in the circuit court brought against Alonzo Nute and other persons in Farmington for alleged infringement of a patent for driven wells, Judge Clark has granted the request of the defendants for further time in which to file their answer, and the time is extended to May 10th.

At a meeting on Saturday the town of Newmarket voted to purchase a library, and the Newmarket Manufacturing company will contribute $200 toward the same. It was voted to raise $1,700 to repair the town hall; also to fund the town debt at a rate of interest not to exceed five per cent.

By the giving away of a staging, Tuesday forenoon, three men engaged on the new building at the Eastern depot were thrown to the ground, a distance of ten or twelve feet. Charles H. Brewer, the foreman, had a leg broken, and Benjamin Downing had an ankle sprained; R. B. Copp was but little hurt.

The remains of the late Charles E. Shedd arrived in this city Tuesday forenoon, and were received at the depot by a delegation from De Witt Clinton Commandery of Knights Templar, who escorted the body to the Universalist church, where the funeral services were held. The services were conducted by Rev. Benton Smith of South Newmarket, and the body was laid in the south cemetery.

A wretched old crow-bait of a horse which was standing at a hitching-post on Pleasant street, on Monday at about noon, attracted considerable attention from passers-by, partly on account of his miserable appearance, and partly from the evident absurdity of hitching such a woebegone creature, the post being much more likely to run away and smash things than the horse was. Among those who saw the animal was Mayor Sise, who promptly ordered his removal to a stable and prescribed a dose of oats and hay for his immediate relief, and also caused the agent of the anti-cruelty society to be notified. The poor brute, though not in a condition to even carry himself to the horse grave-yard, it is said had been driven from Exeter. The owner of the horse was allowed to drive off with him by the agent of the society, the man promising to kill the animal on arriving home.

THE SALARY GRAB.

Mr. Editor: As one of the persons who spoke against the irregular method adopted by the assessors to obtain an increase of salary, allow me now to speak briefly in favor of their being paid a fair sum for their services. That they had any legal right to take their pay in the way they did, I do not believe; that in equity they are entitled to more pay than the ordinance allows them, I have no doubt whatever. They are now required to do, and have done, a great deal more work than was contemplated when the rate of compensation was fixed, the law having been altered since that time; and it is simply just that their pay should be correspondingly increased. The improperly-taken "abatements" having been refunded to the city, the council should now enquire if there is anything justly due the assessors, and if there is, then pay it.

MANWHOSETAXWASNOTABATED.

THE RAILROAD DISPUTE.

The hearing on the question in dispute between the Eastern and Portsmouth & Dover railroads was continued on Tuesday, as per adjournment.

George L. Treadwell, treasurer of the Portsmouth & Dover road, was under examination during the day in relation to the cost of construction, and the matter of the bonds issued by the two cities, and the discount on the same.

A request of the counsel of the Eastern road to be allowed to take the engineer's books to the hotel, for the purpose of looking over them in company with an expert, caused quite a discussion, which ended in an agreement to let the counsel have the books, Mr. A. F. Johnson, the engineer, to be present when they were being inspected.

Court adjourned to nine o'clock this morning.

SCHOOL MEETINGS.

At the meeting of the voters in school district No 3, of Greenland, held in the brick schoolhouse on Saturday evening, Crosby R. Edmonds was chosen moderator, and Lorenzo D. Dunklee, clerk. Nathaniel Wiggin was elected prudential committee. Quite a number of ladies were present, and participated in the proceedings, with an apparent appreciation of their newly acquired rights in this respect.

At the school meeting in district No. 5, of Seabrook, (which includes the greater part of South Seabrook,) ninety-four votes were cast, and Rev. Wm. A. Rand was elected prudential committee.

AN EFFECTIVE AIR-PORT.

In the report of the surgeon general of the navy for 1879, which has lately been printed, it is stated "that the U. S. S. Richmond is a complete success so far as ventilation goes, and this belief is strengthened by the present testimony of the officers, who live below decks and have judged of the purity of the air from the character of their sensations while the hatches were closed in tempestuous weather. * * It would, therefore, be a measure of the highest wisdom to introduce these important reforms into new ships, and all the old ones when undergoing repairs. * * While the indispensible necessity for pure air is so urgent on shipboard, it is no less a matter of great concern to secure an abundant supply of sunlight. The plan hitherto pursued of piercing the sides of a ship with small, round air ports, does not answer the important object. The department wisely decided in the case of the U. S. S. Richmond to subtitute large ports, fitted with hinged doors, which at the same time they improved the illumination, supplied, when opened, admirable fresh air adits. The influence of a stream of sunlight upon the physical and mental welfare of the occupants of the hitherto small, damp and dark rooms of our naval ships, will be manifested in the maintainance of a higher health-standard among officers and men, as well as more cheerful manners and evenness of temper—qualities so essential to the happiness and thorough efficiency of all ships' companies. The adoption of the Wilson air-port in all our vessels while in process of repair is, therefore, recommended as an important sanitary measure."

The air-ports referred to by the surgeon general were invented and patented by Naval Constructor T. D. Wilson, attached to this naval station, and are now being manufactured at this yard under his supervision, for the Brooklyn, Hartford and Lancaster, and will in all probability be used hereafter for all vessels of the navy, large and small. Two sizes of these air-ports are made; one of nine, the other of twelve inches in diameter, having an area of opening of 63 6174 and 113.098 square inches respectively. The Brooklyn, Hartford and Lancaster were last fitted with what is known in the navy as the "plunger air-port," six inches in diameter, having an area of 28.2744 square inches. The Richmond had rectangular air-ports amidships, and forward and aft as far as the shape of the vessel's side would allow of their being put in; they were 8x12 inches in the opening, giving an area of 96 square inches; forward and aft, where the shape of the vessel would not permit of using the rectangular ports, seven-inches round ports of a later type than the plunger port were used, giving an area of opening of 38.4846 square inches.

The air-ports now being manufactured at this navy yard, and known as the Wilson patent, are circular in shape, provided with two rubber packings to afford additional security against leakage, as in case one ring becomes damaged, the second ring can be depended upon. On each side of the air-port frame are secured the ears, to which are loosely pivoted catch pins, provided with nuts for screwing up and securing the shutter when desired. The catch pins are not allowed to fall below a horizontal position when at rest, and are raised by cam latches on each side of the shutter when the shutter is raised for closing. After the latches pass the screw nuts the catch pins drop into the notches in the latches, and the port is closed. If desired, the nuts are then screwed up on the catch pins with a socket wrench, and the shutter is firmly secured in position. When the port is screwed up the shutter has the same bearing at all points on the packing rings. The port shutter is closed by means of a small lanyard made fast to an eye on the top of the shutter, and rove through or over a pully secured to the inside of the port frame and belayed on a small cleat on the side of the port opening. By this means any desired opening of the port can be had; and if it is desirable to close the port quickly, it can be done by simply pulling on the lanyard, and the catches will automatically raise and catch the shutter, when it may be screwed up with the wrench. When the port shutter is open it rests on a rubber bumper, and should the shutter accidentally fall at any time in the act of opening, no damage can result, as the bumper would catch the shutter and break the force of the fall. From the manner of dropping these ports down instead of swinging fore and aft, the vessel's frames are not cut away as much.

Too much importance cannot be attached to this effectual means of affording light and air to men below the spar-decks of our naval vessels, as well as to steerage passengers, for example in our ocean steamers. Its effect upon the health and comfort of all on board must be acknowledged, and we trust that its universal adoption for all sea-going vessels of any considerable size will speedily follow.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Seventy-nine tramps were furnished lodgings, and one hundred and fifty-eight meals provided for them, at the Kittery alms-house during the past year.

On Sunday night, at Biddeford, a fire broke out near the chimney in the ell of the dwelling of George Herron, burning the ell and stable, and the interior of the main house. Loss about $2,500; insured.

The troubles about land damages have been overcome, and the railroad from Old Orchard beach to Ellis grove, at the mouth of the Saco river, will be built as soon as possible. The directors of the Boston & Maine road have been at Old Orchard to look over the proposed route. The road will be of the same gauge as the Boston & Maine, and open cars, like those of the Ogdensburg road, will be used for passenger traffic in summer.

Some very extensive henneries are being built on the Burnham farm at Gerrish's island, and it now looks as though the members of the Humbug Fishing Association, and the proprietors and visitors at Seaside lodge, will be able to get all the hen fruit they require without the customary visits to Newcastle as heretofore. One noticeable feature of these henneries is the beautiful stained glass windows to soften and mellow the rays of sunlight, for fowls prospective to bask in. It is said that a Congregational church in the city of Boston has in its renovations discarded its ancient and handsome windows for more modern ones, and that a rich deacon of prodigal ideas bought them for a song, and adapted them to the use before mentioned.

The collector of internal revenue for Maine says he has granted eighty licenses to persons to sell liquor in the city of Biddeford. The Times says the number of saloons in the city is one hundred and fifty. The Journal says there are more than one hundred. Another authority puts the number at two hundred and fifty exclusive of "pocket saloons." And Gen. Neal Dow, we presume, says there are no places where liquor can be bought. — Boston Post.

There is no doubt that Biddeford has been a genuine free-rum city for a year past; but the Post should not forget that during that period the York county officers were fusionists, and that the late city government of Biddeford was more ardently devoted to the democrat-and-back cause than any other municipal body in the state of Maine. The police officers of Biddeford were all fusionists; and as the time of any of them who happened on any day to be sober, was about all taken up in arresting those of the force who happened at the same time to be drunk, of course they had no great amount of time to spare for the purpose of legally putting down rum. Besides, one of the important elements of fusion success in York county in 1878 was the impression which the fusion leaders spread, or allowed to be spread abroad, that in case of a fusion victory there was to be no more "persecution of liquor dealers"—in other words, no further enforcement of the anti-liquor law; and the saloon keepers of Biddeford were liberally assessed for funds to aid the fusionists in their late disastrous campaign. Let the Post wait till next year at this time, and then count the Biddeford bar-rooms.

The auditors of Kittery, in their report for the year ending March 6th, 1880, put the total indebtedness of the town at $11,792.81; and add: "The increased indebtedness of the town since last year, is due in part to insufficient appropriations to meet the necessary expenses, but chiefly owing to abatements allowed which largely exceeded the overlay on the assessment. The auditors would again urge the necessity of the prompt collection of assessments to avoid if possible the large annual abatements which lessen the 'available means' and thereby increase the indebtedness of the town from year to year. On pages seventeen and eighteen of last year's report, interest and abatements for which insufficient provision was made since 1870, are shown to account largely for the present indebtedness of the town, and as delay in collection of assessments necessitates increased abatements, it is plain that the prompt collection of taxes on the part of the collectors will remedy at least a part of the evil of our present system by which our debt is each year increased. It seems unnecessary for us to add that more liberal appropriations are also necessary to stop the increase of our debt."

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Musical Taste in Animals.

A remarkable instance of a toad's enjoyment of music came under my notice some years since. I was on a visit with my husband and one of my daughters to my father, who lived in the south of England. He had a very pretty garden and lawn; and it was his delight to sit at his drawing-room window while I played on the piano and sang to him. One evening he said to me: "My dear, here is a toad under the window. I believe it is listening to your singing."

When I ceased playing, the toad slowly crept away; but every evening when I sang, the creature came, took its place under the window, and there remained. One evening, at my father's request, I suddenly stopped the music, and in a few minutes it went away. We watched it until it reached the patch; when I commenced another song, it stopped, listened, and then slowly returned to its place under the window. When I left and went home, there was no more music. The toad was never again seen.

Some years previous to my marriage, my father lived in an old hall in the neighborhood of one of our large towns. The grounds were extensive. It was his delight to have a sort of a model farm, which gave me many opportunities of studying the different characters of the various animals upon it. Then I saw the influence of music upon many of them. There was a beautiful horse, the pride and delight of us all; and like many others, he had an unconquerable dislike to be caught. My father had so trained him to obedience that he gave very little trouble; a whistle and a wave of the hand, and Robert would come quietly to be saddled. But if left to our old gardener, Willy, he would lead him a chase, generally ending in defeat. One very hot summer day I was sitting at work in the garden, when Willy appeared streaming with perspiration.

"What is the matter, Willy?"

"Matter enough, Miss. There's that Robert, the uncanny beast; he won't be caught at I can do or say. I have given him corn, and one of the best pears off the tree; but he is too deep for me—he snatched the pear, kicked up his heels and is off, laughing at me at the bottom of the meadow."

I was very sorry for the old man, but I did not clearly see how to catch the delinquent. I could well believe he was laughing at our old friend, for he was a curious animal.

"Well, Willy, what can I do? He won't let me catch him, you know."

"Ah, but Miss, if you will only just go in and begin a tune on the piannu, cook says he will come up to the fence and harken to you, for he is always a-doing that, and maybe I can slip behind and cotch him."

I went at once, not expecting my stratagem to succeed. But in a few minutes the saucy creature was standing quietly listening while I played "Scots wha ha'e wi' Wallace bled." The halter was soon around his neck; and he went away to be harnessed quite happy and contented.

There was a great peculiarity about his taste for music. He never would stay to listen to a plaintive song. I soon observed this. If I played "Scots wha ha'e," he would listen well pleased. If I changed the measure and expression, playing the same air plaintively, as for instance in the "Land o' the Leal," he would toss his head and walk away as if to say: "That is not my sort of music." Changing to something martial, he would return, and listen to me.

In this respect he entirely differed from a beautiful cow we had. She had an awful temper. Old Willy used to say: "She is the most contrariest beast under the sun." If she were in one of her ill-humors, it was with the greatest difficulty that she could be milked. She never would go with the other cows at milking time. Nancy be milked with them—that! Was a thing not to be thought of. She liked the cook; and when not too busy, cook would manage Miss Nancy. But if she was not very careful, up would go Nancy's foot, and over would go the milk-pail and its precious contents. When the cook milked her, it was always close to the fence, near the drawing room. If I were playing, she would stand perfectly still, yielding her milk without any trouble, and would remain until I ceased. As long as I played plaintive music—"The Land o' the Leal," "Home, Sweet Home," "Robin Adair," any sweet, tender air—she seemed entranced. I have tried her and changed to martial music, whereupon she invariably walked away.

I could give many instances of a love for music in animals. I will give another. I was sitting in the drawing room one evening, singing to mamma. It was a double room, with folding doors. She was in one where there was a lamp. In my room, which was unlighted, the window was open, and close to the window was a stand for music. When I ceased playing I heard a peculiar sound, and was conscious there was something in the room. I called for a light. There sitting on the stand was a large white owl. He looked far less surprised than we did. In a minute or two he stepped quietly out of the window and flew away. After this we did not leave the lower sash of the window open; but the owl still came, and sat upon the stone outside, listening.

WHOLESOME MEDICINE. Medicines for the relief of ailments peculiar to children should not only be efficacious and palatable, but absolutely safe also. Hence the proprietors of Sanford's Jamaica Ginger cannot too publicly urge upon parents the necessity for care in the purchase of this reliable and delicious panacea, lest some worthless and dangerous compound be given them.

—A Baltimore parrot has fallen into the habit of repeating every endearing expression it hears, and hence it is fun to see the young lady of the house hustle it into the garrets every time she holds an extra session with her lover.

I would say to my friends, and all who chance to read this, that I have used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam in my family for a long time, and consider it a very valuable medicine. It cures when all other remedies fail, and I would cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with cough, colds, asthma, etc.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA-SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases whenever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs so Bloated to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and soon realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strong cooling and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so overheating to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 16, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

88 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 35 cents per cake, by mail, 50 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley, MALT and Fresh Hop, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up new the nervous, nervous (bone) and muscular system. Cure feeble digestion, sick headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, alterative weakness of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in Green quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Gargel, Indian Hemp, and other herbs of a similar nature, combined with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been approved as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighte n years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMO R, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system, weaknesses and irregularities, removes and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

SMITH'S MEDICATED PRUNES.

LAXATIVE & CATHARTIC FOR CONSTIPATION & BILIOUSNESS

THIS Fruit preparation is as pleasant to the taste as prunes prepared for the table, and embraces the best medicinal agents known for the relief and cure of Constipation, Piles, and such Bilious disorders as affect those who are costive. They cause effective action of the bowels without nausea or griping, and are perfectly safe to use without the reactionary effects produced by cathartic pills, mineral waters, salts, senna, rhubarb and other drastic purgatives. The medication is entirely vegetable and sensibly ju.

An Excellent Publication.

A gentleman of this city, having written to a friend in Washington, requesting the latter to send on a copy of the national serial relating to naval affairs, received the following in answer:

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21st.

Friend "Dick": Yours received. I will attend to the matter; for I know how necessary to a sick man's comfort must be the possession of a Navy Register. I know by experience what a charm there is in such literature to soothe the "World-weary brain." It reads like a romance. Aside from last year's almanac, and the Agricultural Report, I know of no publication equal to a Navy Register. I am convinced that all our national troubles spring from a refusal to peruse its fascinating contents. If there was a law compelling people to read it we should hear no more of "bulldozing," "intimidation," special-deputy marshals, and "decisions of the supreme court." I repeat it, "Dick," it would put an end to all our national woes—for any man after once wading through the Navy Register, would be forever afterward disqualified for

"Treason, stratagems and spoils."

I have no earthly idea what you can possibly want of such an infernal publication, but I'll send it to you all the same in the hope it may do you good, if such a thing is possible.

Yours truly, G. H. J.

How Ships May be Lost.

A sea captain has been placed on trial in New Brunswick for losing his vessel without any assistance from storms, rocks or other legitimate causes of marine disaster. According to the boatswain of the bark the captain united that on the coast of Cuba—from which the vessel was to sail for the United States—there were plenty of rocks on which the "Brother's Pride" could be run, and plenty of coast guard boats to save the crew. It is even alleged that the captain, by the aid of a chart, showed the boatswain the locations of rocks that would attend strictly to business if any ship attempted to be familiar with them. The reefs were missed, however, and the boatswain tells of a large auger being procured, and how, by the captain's order, he bored numerous holes in the vessel's bottom. Then the crew were ordered to the pumps; they pumped until they said they could work no longer, so the boats were lowered in water which was perfectly smooth, as it naturally would be under the circumstances reported, but as the bark did not sink promptly men went back to bore a few more holes, pour kerosene freely about and light it. This simple story has prejudiced several insurance companies against paying the risks they had taken on the ship, and it also explains how easily a ship owner can turn a poor craft into cash if insurance officers happen to be at all careless.

—An Iowa clergyman preached against the sin of shaving on Sunday, and next Sabbath the sexton refused to split kindlings to start a fire, and the congregation dispersed.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES will speedily and certainly arrest the depressing influences of diseases upon the nerves and muscles. It restores the appetite and induces a disposition to take on healthy flesh. It causes the formation of living blood, strengthening the action of both heart and lungs. It sustains the system under trying circumstances, and causes the healthy development of all the organs necessary to our existence.

Women that have been pronouced incurable by best physicians in the country, have been completely cured of female weakness by the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

Why Wear Plasters?

They may relieve, but they can't cure that lame back, for the kidneys are the trouble and you want a remedy to act directly on their secretions, to purify and restore their healthy condition. Kidney-Wort has that specific action—and at the same time it regulates the bowels perfectly. Don't wait to get sick, but get a package to-day, and cure yourself.

Physicians use Kidney-Wort in regular practice and pronounce its action perfect.

I would say to my friends, and all who chance to read this, that I have used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam in my family for a long time, and consider it a very valuable medicine. It cures when all other remedies fail, and I would cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with cough, colds, asthma, etc.

Portsmouth Chronicle

THURSDAY, MARCH 25, 1880.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22d.

General Hawley, who has just resigned his position as assistant secretary of the treasury, has gone home to Illinois. He feels very confident of his nomination for governor of that state by the republicans, and I find that the opinion is quite general that he is far ahead of all competitors. The general is a very popular man personally, and it is supposed can secure a vote larger than belongs strictly to the republicans of his state.

Don Cameron is said to have received another astonisher in the result of the Rhode Island republican convention, which selected a solid Blaine delegation to Chicago. He has loudly declared that Blaine would not have the entire delegation from any state except Maine, and this rather upsets his calculations. The news from other New England states is equally discouraging to him. It has been noticed lately, by the way, that he has been going to Senator Blaine a good deal, and it is naturally surmised that he is making ready to abandon the third term boom for whatever shall promise success. Blaine's friends are highly elated at these things.

The clause in the appropriation bill relating to federal election officers does not appear to satisfy either party, and a strong effort will be made to defeat it in the senate. The republicans ridicule Garfield a good deal for having, as they say, stepped into the trap prepared for him by the democrats, and endorsing the clause. He finally retreated, but not in time to save himself from much annoying criticism.

General Grant's friends are more and more nervous at the attitude of Washburn in this presidential fight. Washburn has declared himself for Grant, and not for himself. But, say the Grant men, "everybody knows that Washburn never was for anybody but himself; what he is up to is to cut Grant's throat, and gobble up the spoils, and we don't want any of Washburn." The result is likely to be a bitter quarrel between the Grant and Washburn factions.

The "star route" lobbyists are not happy yet by a long way. They expected to capture congress and get all they asked, but they are destined to bitter disappointment. Before this affair is through with they will be exposed in a very unenviable light. The post-office officials are not over and above happy at the manner of their treatment by the members, and they feel that they have been snubbed severely by congress.

KNOX.

News and Notes.

Francis Bedoe, a Worcester, Mass., lad, thirteen years old, has been arrested for throwing stones in the streets, one of which struck a little girl, Emma Huot, in the back, so that she fell helpless, and had to be picked up and sent home. She was ill for several days, when brain fever set in, and she died.

Thomas Currier, of Amesbury, Mass., has for seventy-three years resided in the house in which he was born, and has slept out of it but one night during that time.

The result of a trial in the Maine supreme court which was reached on Saturday, March 20th, will serve as a warning to the so-called experts in handwriting, who are very numerous just now. The suit referred to was brought by Capt. A. K. Moserrey against Prof. Dunton, for libel, in saying that he was the murderer of Sarah E. Moserrey, who was found dead in her house at Tennant's Harbor, December 22d, 1877. The jury gave plaintiff a verdict of $1,668. Nathan E. Hart was convicted of the murder, and sent to state prison for life. Dunton, who testified for the defense at that trial, afterwards alleged in the newspapers that the handwriting of the letters which inculpated Hart was really the handwriting of Moserrey, and that therefore the latter was the probable murderer.

Two boys, named Halleck and Coppinise and ten years old respectively ran away from Eastport, Me., having stolen $29 from their parents, and were arrested at Portland on Tuesday, the 23d inst., on arrival of the steamer Brunswick, and returned to their homes.

Charles H. Chellis, a lawyer of Chelsea, Mass., sues Maj. George S. Merrill, proprietor of the Lawrence American, for defamation of character. He has attached property to the amount of $20,000. The American recently published an article charging Chellis with dishonesty.

At Lowell, Mass., March 23d, the jury brought in a sealed verdict in the case of Mary Emerson against Mason W. Presby, a police officer of Lowell. Presby was accused of striking the girl upon the head with a cane. The suit was brought for $5,000 damages. The jury awarded $550.

The barque Oriect, at Liverpool from San Francisco, reports that Dec. 25th, off Cape Horn, she was struck by a whale on the port bow. The blow was so heavy that two of the 'tween deck beams were broken, and the deck and forecastle bulkhead started. The vessel made about sixty buckets of water a day thereafter, in the forward compartment.

New Hampshire Items.

Col. Phinehas Adams of Manchester, who has in his possession one of the most valuable collections of coins owned by a single individual in the United States, recently sold from it a single dollar of each year from the date of the first coining, for $1,500. Included in the lot was a dollar bearing the date of 1804, for which he paid $500, and of which there are only five more in existence.

One day recently a farmer from a neighboring town went to the seminary at West Lebanon, with two little girls, and inquired for the measles. He said he wanted his children to "catch them" now, before the busy time of the year came on, when they could not so well be taken care of. He was told that they had no measles on hand at the seminary, and he went away disappointed.

By the will of Mary E. Elliott, widow of the late Dr. Elliott of Manchester, it appears that she leaves to the First Congregational church and society, of that city, a house and land on Beech street, for a parsonage; to the same church $2,000, the income of which is to be expended for the poor of the society; to the city of Manchester $2,000, to be invested, the annual income of which is to be expended for medical books and publications to be kept in the city library for the special use of resident physicians and surgeons. After some other bequests to friends and relatives, the will leaves all the remainder of the estate of every description for the establishment and maintenance of a hospital, to be known as the Elliott hospital. This last bequest is said to be a very large one. By a codicil to the will, she leaves to the Hanover street society $2,000, to be paid as soon as the debt of said society shall be reduced to the above amount.

There was a heavy snow-storm in the northern part of this state, on Wednesday.

New Electric Lamp.

According to our English cotemporaries, Mr. J. W. Swan, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, patentee for the carbon process of photography, has taken out a patent for improvements in electric lamps. It is stated that Mr. Swan has succeeded in making a lamp which gives a perfectly steady light, and is indefinitely durable. The light is produced by the incandescence of carbon, and ranges in power from one to ten gas burners. It is described as a moderate and pleasant light. It is claimed, on behalf of Mr. Swan, that many years ago he used carbonized cardboard, the feature in the Edison light. We hope it may prove true that a lamp has been invented which will render the electric light a steady one, and we have no objection to Mr. Shaw being the fortunate discoverer of it. But this flickering difficulty has been so often overcome, according to the newspapers both at home and abroad, that we have some doubts if the anti-flickering lamp has been found yet.—Scientific American.

The Sunlight of Devotion.

While I was lecturing at Washington I saw a lady with an intelligent face and bright, eloquent eyes that were rarely lifted towards the speaker and then only for a flash of time. They were bent upon her husband's hands almost constantly. Brilliant and accomplished a few years ago, she had gone down into the world of voiceless silence, and now all the music and all the speech that comes into her life comes through the tender devotion of her husband, and as I talked I watched him talking off the lecture on his nimble fingers, while her eager eyes glanced from them to his sympathetic face. It was a pretty picture of devotion. They were so young to have this cloud shadow the morning skies of their lives, but as I glanced from the voiceless wife to her husband I thought how beautiful the sunlight of his devotion was breaking through these clouds and falling even their afflictions with a tender radiance. This discipline of standing upon suffering is a good thing for a man. It rounds out his life; it developes his manlier, nobler qualities; it makes his heart brave and tender and strong as a woman's.—Burdette, in Burlington Hawkeye.

England and the Panama Canal.

The London Times in an article on the Panama ship canal, says: "The Monroe doctrine, even in its most restricted shape, has never been admitted into the law of nations. Certainly no such extreme interpretation has yet been attempted to be fastened upon it by Americans as it is made to bear in President Hayes' message to Congress, and the resolution of the select committee of the house of representatives. According to these two statements, had the Colombian confederation itself taken charge of the project, the United States would have been justified in prohibiting the works. That the United States by furnishing the money, should obtain a special right to watch over the safety and the peaceable use of the new channel is what Europe, and particularly Great Britain, would meet of all desire; but the world is entitled to ask the United States to make up their mind either to let M. de Lesseps do the thing himself by the resources at his command, or to charge themselves with the task."

—A little learning is a dangerous thing. This applies to violin playing.

—An eminent divine from New England, traveling in Texas for his health, impaired by arduous clerical duties, upon arriving at one of the towns, went in search of the barber's shop for repairs and improvements. On entering an establishment of this kind he observed a big double barrel gun leaning against the wall. Having a constitutional awe of firearms, he hastily asked the barber if the gun was loaded. A half-shaved native, who occupied the chair, turned round his lather-beaten face and exclaimed: "Stranger! if you're in an all-fired hurry, you'll find a six shooter what is loaded in my coat-tail pocket."

—A pair of honeymoon travelers arrived at Cambridge, Ohio, and attracted the admiring attention of the people at the hotel by their loving demeanor toward each other. The bride was a gentle young creature, and obviously devoted to her husband, while he looked after her with the tenderest solicitude. One morning at the breakfast table the other guests were astonished and indignant at seeing a stalwart woman stride into the room, seize the delicate bride by her golden hair, yank her off the chair, and scratch her face; but they were less sympathetic on learning that the chastiser was the man's wife, and that he had eloped with the chastised.

—The young idea has been shooting down the baluster rail of the main railway in the high school, at Madison, Wis. The boys have mounted the rails as they would a pony, and have gone to the bottom without injuring the varnish. The girls have made the descent in species of side saddle, and the buttons of their gowns have scratched the woodwork. The superintendent of schools is anxious to protect the property of the city, so he has issued two new rules, as follows: "First—No girl can be permitted to slide down the balustrades, except she wrap herself in a buttoned ulster; this much against future scratches. Second—The girls who scratched the railing in the past are hereby fined thirty-five cents each, to pay for repairs.

—An amusing instance of forgetfulness of mind happened recently. Not a great way from Hingham, on the road to the beach, is situated a smithy. A young but benevolent reformed clergyman drove his horse to it the other day and inquired how long it would take to shoe the beast. Mr. Dannon replied, "an hour." "All right," replied the reverend gentleman, "I'll bring him in." So he unharnessed and led the horse into the shop. Then a look of blankness, as if it were the shadow of an impending nuptial, came over his face. He said, "I will call for him in an hour," went out, climbed into the carriage, took the reins and sat there until a shout from the blacksmith brought him to himself. The story was too good to keep, and, in spite of the entreaties of the victim, it was noised abroad.—Boston Transcript.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th,&f

AROUND HOME.

This city is to be divided into six districts for the purpose of taking the census.

While the schooner Ev Nichols was working up the river, Wednesday afternoon of this week, Pumpkin island got right in her way, and she hit it.

The crews of the schooners Gov. Goodwin, Velocipede, Daniel Marcy, Frank Jones and W. H. Y. Hackett, have arrived, and the vessels will sail in a few days, fishing.

There were residing in this city in 1874, one hundred and ten males who were over seventy years of age, and out of that number forty-five are still living, sixty-five having died within six years.

One of the most disagreeable snow-squalls of the season commenced at about half-past three o'clock in the afternoon on the 24th inst., and kept it up until evening. The fall of snow was not heavy, but it was whirled about by the wind so as to make an uncommon show. A brisk northwest breeze was blowing all the time.

A butcher team, belonging to an Eliot farmer, made a sensation at the south end about noon on Wednesday, the 24th inst., by the horse getting frightened at a passing wheelbarrow, and making a dive at the lamp-post on the corner of Water and South Mill streets, breaking one of the shafts of the cart. The owner fortunately had hold of the horses' head, which prevented any further injury.

THE RAILROAD SUIT.

The hearing of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad case was continued on the 24th inst. Mr. Jones was again questioned in relation to several matters. He stated that Ex-Gov. Goodwin and the late Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett were both in favor of the building of the road, and of the cities of Portsmouth and Dover aiding in the work; also that Mr. Reid, of Boston, similarly approved of the road being constructed.

The court adjourned at twelve o'clock to allow the counsel time to visit the residence of Ex-Gov. Goodwin, and take his testimony; on the coming in of the court in the afternoon this testimony was read.

Mr. Eastman opened the case for the Eastern railroad, and the testimony of Mr. Thompson, one of the directors of the Eastern road, was taken; counsel then submitted a bill of $13,023.72, as paid by the Eastern toward the construction of the Portsmouth & Dover road. Mr. Eastman then made a motion that counsel for the Eastern road be allowed to go into the question of the cost of the Portsmouth & Dover road, for the purpose of showing that the cost was excessive. After consultation, the judges decided to allow testimony on this point to be offered, to be considered by them so far as they may hereafter find it competent.

Counsel of the Eastern road then called Charles C. Lunn, of Concord, a civil engineer who made a survey of the Portsmouth & Dover road during the month of February of this year, and who said he was requested by the managers of the Eastern road to make the survey; that he found that 270,032 yards of earth had been removed, 2103.75 yards of culvert masonry work done, and 8066 yards of rock removed, as near as he could estimate; and that the profile as made by him does not correspond with the specifications of the contract in many respects. He also stated that in one or two places, by changing the line of the road, it might have been advantageous. In his testimony he did not make any statement reflecting unfavorably on surveys previously made.

Mr. Hatch, of counsel for the Dover road, commenced the cross-examination of Mr. Lunn, which was not ended at adjournment.

The case will be continued at nine o'clock this morning.

PRESENTATION.

A very pleasant entertainment was given on Wednesday evening of this week, at the engine house of Col. Sise's S. F. E., No. 2, by the members of the company, in honor of the gentleman whose name the steamer bears.

The first part of the programme was to take care of a nice oyster supper, which was properly looked after; and this was followed by a presentation.

A request made by Col. Sise, some time ago, for the photographs of the members of this company, was responded to in a most complimentary style. The collection was made, and set to a maroon colored velvet ground, in a frame. The heavy and handsome gilded frame encloses twenty-five photographic portraits, nineteen of them being arranged in an oval, around a picture of the engine as it appears when "hitched up" ready for a start. Outside of the oval, in the corners of the frame, are photographs of Foreman John D. Randall, Chief Engineer Stephen L. Marston, of the fire department, Asst. Engineer Willard Sears, and Asst. Foreman Daniel N. Cox. The other officers who have conspicuous places are Clerk Herman Manson, Engineer A. J. McIntire, Fireman H. M. Gregg, Steward F. H. Hersey; the other seventeen pictures included in the oval are members of the company. Beneath the centre-piece is inscribed, "Presented to Col. Sise by the members of S. F. E. Co. No. 2." The whole affair is finely gotten up, and will make a handsome and no doubt highly-prized ornament in Mayor Sise's library or parlor.

The presentation was very neatly made by Foreman John D. Randall, in sentiments appropriate to the character of the gift, and was briefly responded to by Col. Sise, who said that he could not by words express his feelings for the manner in which they had shown their appreciation of his acts and the interest he had evinced toward them, and that in the core of his heart he should ever cherish the memory of this company. Brief speeches by Col. D. J. Vaughan, Dr. Hall and others followed, and those who were invited to participate in this pleasant event will remember with pleasure the evening so socially passed among the firemen.

TONY DENIER'S SHOW.

Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty troupe is recognized as being superior to any company of the kind now traveling. George H. Adams is probably the best of his sort, and his performance on stilts is truly remarkable. The Scranton, Pa., Republican says of this show:

Tony Denier's Pantomime at Music hall, Friday evening, was well patronized. The performance was exceptionally good, the clown, Geo. H. Adams (Grimaldi,) doing his part inimitably, and the various other characters being well taken. Grimaldi, on his stilts, was a feature that secured the hearty applause of the audience, and the ensemble gave the utmost pleasure throughout.

This troupe gave an excellent entertainment at Music hall some months ago, and will appear at the same place again on Monday evening next.

ORDINATION AT SEABROOK.

The ordination of Mr. George Ober to the gospel ministry took place in the Baptist church at Seabrook on Tuesday, March 23d. The council met at ten o'clock A. M.; Rev. C. W. Reding, pastor of the Second Baptist church of Beverly, Mass., was chosen moderator, and Richard L. Gove, of the Seabrook Baptist church, clerk. Mr. Ober gave an account of his Christain experience and call to the ministry, and was examined as to his doctrinal views and church polity; the council voted all satisfactory. Delegates were present from the Salisbury and Hampton Falls Baptist churches.

At two o'clock P. M., the ordination services were held, and consisted of reading of scriptures by Rev. Wm. A. Rand, pastor of the Congregational church of South Seabrook; sermon by Rev. C. W. Reding, text 1st Timothy, 1st chapter and 11th verse; ordaining prayer, by Rev. Benj. Knight of Salem, Mass., who also gave the charge to the pastor—among other things charging him to keep a good mind in a healthy body, to financial matters to live within his income and "owe no man anything," with other excellent precepts, which came with added force from one who has grown old in his service of fifty-three years; right hand of fellowship, by Rev. Mr. Burgess, of the Baptist church of Hampton Falls; welcome to the field, by Rev. Frank Haley, of the Seabrook and Hampton Falls Congregational church; charge to the people, by Rev. D. P. Morgan, of the 1st Baptist church of Beverly, Mass. Rev. Mr. Ober made the closing prayer and gave the benediction.

Mr. Ober was born in Beverly, Mass., and studied for the ministry, but on account of ill health was obliged to give up the work. He has been in the dry goods business in Beverly, and later was in the employ of the Eastern railroad, as ticket agent at Portsmouth and station agent at Seabrook. He has preached as opportunity offered, but now enters a life he has long desired. His work at Seabrook has been blessed, and the Baptist church has been greatly strengthened by his labors.

Mr. Ober is the second station agent of Seabrook to enter the ministry, the other being Mr. George E. Morrill, now stationed at Bangor.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE.

The new opera which is now creating such a furor in Boston will be given here on April 3d. The piece has already eclipsed in popularity the noted "Pinafore." The Boston Journal says of it:

The first performance here of Messrs. Gilbert and Sullivan's new opera, "The Pirates of Penzance, or the Slave of Duty," filled the Globe to overflowing, and the assemblage was distinguished as much for quality as numbers. It was certainly as brilliant an audience as grand opera could have drawn in the Lenten season. The opera had a most enthusiastic reception, and seemed a most pronounced success from the very start. It is not often that a playwright or composer so quickly hits the mark of popular favor a second time as the compounders of "The Pirates" seem to have done. If the new production is not exactly another "Pinafore," it has abundant elements of popularity, and it cannot fail to have a long and prosperous career. Its music, in a very considerable part is more pretentious than "Pinafore," and where Mr. Sullivan attempts to soar higher, he is sure to do so gracefully. While the broadly comic element is not lacking in the music, and there are several numbers quite as amusing as anything to be found in "Pinafore," there is yet a higher grade of composition pervading the work as a whole. Mr. Gilbert's text is as preposterously funny as anything he has written, the situations are ludicrous in the extreme, and the main idea—the blind adherence to "duty," although that "duty" binds an otherwise exemplary young man to ally himself to a band of pirates—is carried out in a vein of exquisite satire. In the first act one incident follows another with rapidity, and there is a long succession of amusing events, accompanied, as a matter of course, by fitting songs and choruses. In the second act the action is slower. Nevertheless, the music is very beautiful, and the same act contains also some of the most ludicrous scenes in the whole opera.

The same company, with scenes, orchestra, chorus, and all details, will appear here. The sale of tickets begins Saturday next.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The Maine Annual Conference of the Methodist churches meets in Saco on the 14th of April, and holds over Sunday, the 18th. The Congregational society of that city has voted to tender the use of their church to the conference for Sunday, the 18th.

The first vessel to go up the river to Saco this season was the schooner Petrel, with 285 tons of coal for the York Manu. Co., which was towed up on Sunday, March 21st. Next day the Maud Malloch and A. W. Ellis arrived with coal for the Laconia Co.

He Liked It.

A party went up to Moosehead lake to camp out. The agreement was that one man should do the cooking till some one complained, and then the man who grumbled should try his hand at it. The cooking was frightful, but not one of the party—with the penalty hanging in terrorem over their heads—dared say a word. Finally things came to such a pass that each man tried to inveigle his neighbor into freeing his mind. One day one of the party saw his friend writhing in silent agony over a piece of alleged pie.

"What do you think of that pie, anyhow?" he asked.

"It is the most infernal pie I ever wrestled with in my life, but"—catching the gleam in the other fellow's eye,—"I like it—eh, yes, I like it."

A Model Carpet Establishment.

The carpet-house of Joel Goldthwait & Co., Nos. 163, 165, 167 and 169 Washington street, Boston, has long been known as one of the finest and most complete establishments devoted to the carpet trade in this country. Its interior is especially arranged to afford ample light on every floor. Owing to the large increase in their business, Messrs. Goldthwait & Co. have been compelled to secure additional room, and this they have done by leasing the adjoining building, Nos. 163 and 165, and connecting the same with their own building. By this means they have secured an area of flooring of 76,500 feet, or nearly two acres, and even with this addition they will be cramped for room as soon as their full stock of foreign importations is received. Their trade, which is very extensive in the wholesale as well as retail, can now be supplied with every grade of carpet, from the hempen at twenty cents per yard to the finest Turkish at $6 per yard. This house has long had the reputation for supplying the needs of every class of trade, and with the new addition, the increased facilities for cutting and sewing carpets, they will be enabled to fill all orders without delay. The buildings, which are five stories in height, are fitted with every possible convenience, and with three elevators in constant use, the patrons can visit any part of this establishment without fatigue. Messrs. Goldthwait & Co. are daily in receipt of foreign importations of Axminsters, Wiltons and Brussels carpets, as well as complete invoices of domestic goods. We would suggest the advisability of purchasers in New England, who intend purchasing carpets this spring, to visit this model establishment.—Boston Journal.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.
The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

The Maine Judas.

Ex-Governor Garcelon has explained to a reporter of the Lewiston (Me.) Journal what he meant by a "Judas," in his council. "I mean by a Judas," he said, "a man who is a traitor,—a man who was a traitor, not so much to my party as a traitor in the matter of the returns, provided they were tampered with." He admitted that it looks as if some of the returns were tampered with, said that he recognized the present legislature as legal, and continued: "When I can get the council together I mean to have a raking of this whole matter. I think it will be found that this tampering with returns was done by one individual—but I don't care now to name who I think that individual is. Some of the republican allegations may be doubtful, but that case in York I can't get over. The time will come when the public will have full developments on these matters. I might say more, but the time has not yet come. I want to get before my council again and have this whole subject thoroughly canvassed. I think some time I shall make a more particular statement than I can do now."

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

The Bitters invariably remedy yellowness of the complexion and whites of the eyes, pains in the right side and under the right shoulder blade, furred tongue, high-colored urine, nausea, vertigo, dyspepsia, constipation, heaviness of the head, mental despondency, and every other manifestation or accompaniment of a disordered condition of the liver. The stomach, bowels and kidneys also experience their regulating and tonic influence.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers generally.

KIDNEY-WORT

PERMANENTLY CURES KIDNEY DISEASES, LIVER COMPLAINTS, Constipation and Piles.

DR. R. H. CLARK, of South Hero, Vt., says, "In cases of KIDNEY TROUBLES it has acted like a charm. It has cured many very bad cases of PILES, and has never failed to act efficiently."

NELSON FAIRCHILD, of St. Albans, Vt., says, "It is of priceless value. After sixteen years of great suffering from Piles and Costiveness it completely cured me."

C. S. HOGABOM, of Berkshire, says, "One package has done wonders for me in completely curing a severe Liver and Kidney Complaint."

IT HAS WONDERFUL POWER. WHY? BECAUSE IT ACTS ON THE LIVER, THE BOWELS AND KIDNEYS AT THE SAME TIME.

Because it cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develope in Kidney and Urinary diseases, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation, Piles, or in Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Female disorders.

KIDNEY-WORT is a dry vegetable compound and can be sent by mail prepaid.

One package will make six qts of medicine.

Cuticura REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours, MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARRIGLI.

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 23, 1876.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

THE PILGRIMS' LEGACY.

The Mayflower, on New England's coast, has furl'd her tattered sail;
And through her chafed and mourning shrouds December's breezes wail.
Yet on that icy deck, behold! a meek but dauntless band,
Who, for the right to worship God, have left their native land;
And to this dreary wilderness this glorious boon they bring,
"A Church without a Bishop—a State without a King!"
Those daring men, those gentle wives—say, wherefore do they come?
Why rend they all the tender ties of kindred and of home?
'Tis Heaven assigns their noble work, man's spirit to unbind;—
They come not for themselves alone—they come for all mankind;
And to the empire of the west this glorious boon they bring,
"A Church without a Bishop—a State without a King!"
Then, prince and prelate, hope no more to bend them to your sway,
Devotion's fire infuses their breasts, and freedom points their way,
And, in their brave hearts' estimate, 'twere better not to be,
Than quail beneath the despot, where the soul cannot be free;
And therefore o'er the watery wave, those exiles come to bring
"A Church without a Bishop—a State without a King!"
And still their spirit in their souls, with freedom walks abroad,
The BIBLE is our only creed—our only monarch, GOD!
The banner is raised—the word is spoke—the solemn pledge is given,
And boldly on to union, it floats in the free air of heaven
The mantle of our sainted sires, and lond we make it ring—
"A Church without a Bishop—a State without a King!"

A Liberal Offer for Bill Wells' Hog.

A story is told of a wealthy Wethersfield man who invariably carries a well-stuffed pocket-book around with him, and is blessed with the happy facility of holding on to what he has got. He never heads a subscription list, though what he might do in this direction will never be known until some man with the requisite pluck can be found to ask him. One day his plethoric calf-skin was missing, and with it $1,300 in bank notes. If an electric bath ry had poured a broadside down the doctor's spinal column he could scarcely have felt a greater shock. His hands flew from pocket to pocket, and his face lengthened and took on a lugubrious and sorrowful air. Finally he bethought himself of a visit he had made that morning to Bill Wells, on Wolcott hill, where he went to look at a sow of large size.

The doctor reasoned that his lost pocket-book was in the sleep out of his pocket with his body thrown forward in the manner he remembered it had been. It was think and go with him. He clambered into his old lumber-box wagon and headed his untamed Bucephalus towards Bill Wells'.

On reaching his destination he rushed to the pen expecting to see the wreck of his pocketbook scattered around the pen. But he was disappointed. Not a sign was there. "Great guns," the doctor exclaimed, "the old sow must have swallowed it whole."

Then Mr. Wells appeared on the scene, and in a moment the excited doctor cried out: "What'll you take for that sow?"

"Oh, I don't know," moderately responded the other.

"I don't want any 'do't knows' about it," roared the doctor. "What'll you take for that sow, I say?"

"I don't know as I want to sell it," replied Mr. Wells, who evidently didn't understand the situation.

"You must sell it. Set your own price, but I must have that sow," pleadingly urged the old farmer.

"Well then, say $75," and Wells' eyes twinkled merrily as he named it, supposing the price would cool the doctor's ardor. And he was astonished at the reply:

"I'll take it. Now kill that hog."

Mr. Wells now knew he was crazy, and again tried to curb his excitement. But this only added fuel to the flames.

"Kill that hog, I say," again thundered the doctor. "She'll digest it if you don't."

"Oh, come, get into your wagon and ride home with me," soothingly suggested Wells.

"Bill Wells, do you think I am crazy? I tell you that sow has swallowed my pocket-book, with $1,300 in it, and if you don't hurry up and have her killed she'll digest it and I'll lose every dollar."

Mr. Wells still looked on in silent astonishment.

"My friend, will you kill that hog?" and he rammed his hands down in his overcoat pockets with such a force that he discovered a hole in one of his pockets, and as he dove deeper down his excitement gave place to a feeling of satisfaction. Between the lining and the cloth of his coat he found the lost pocket-book, with its contents undisturbed. Not a dollar had been digested by the innocent old sow. He offered his neighbor Wells a ten-dollar bill not to say anything about it, but the offer was declined with thanks.

—A well known temperance man of the sternest Orthodox type slipped on the ice the other morning, and got a bad fall. He said the shock was bad enough, but what hurt him most was the remark of one of his neighbors, who as he assisted him to his feet said with a woe-begone expression of countenance,—"I'm sorry—wish there wasn't a drop of rum in the world!"

—When it is thought best to give a surprise party to a Cincinnati girl, the announcement is inserted in the papers two days beforehand, and by way of adding insult to injury the proposed victim is called the surprise.

—You can't dig clams without moving a mussel.

Food is digested and assimilated by Malt Bitters. Hence increased flesh.

A Fusion Slander Confessed.

During the fusion attempt to steal the state of Maine, charges of bribery and attempts at bribery were made in reckless profusion by the fusion papers against republicans. One of these charges was that William H. Bigelow had attempted to bribe James W. Clark of Nobleboro', a member of the legislature "by certificate," and another member named Cushman, the charges being published in the Portland Argus. Mr. Bigelow on Tuesday evening, March 23d, entered suit against John M. Adams, editor of the Argus, and attached the paper for $10,000; next morning the Argus retracted the slander, but whether this tardy and enforced act of justice will be regarded by Mr. Bigelow as sufficient reparation remains to be seen.

The Brooklyn Obstruction to Navigation.

Mr. Blaine on March 24th presented in the senate a memorial from a number of ship-owners in Maine, asking congress to inquire into the legality of the construction of the Brooklyn bridge. Mr. Blaine explained that the act of congress granting the privilege of erecting the bridge contained a provision that it should not in any way interfere with, obstruct or modify navigation. They now have some wires stretched across the river, which prevent any vessel with masts over 120 feet in height from passing without lowering them. This would preclude all ships, barques, and large schooners from passing. The people of New England who are engaged in any way in shipping are very much interested in this matter, and demand that congress enforce the provisions of the charter before it is too late.

New Hampshire Items.

There was a disastrous fire in Keene on Wednesday night of this week, the loss aggregating about $42,000, with $16,000 insurance.

James M. Heath of Gorham had the lower ends of both bones in one of his legs broken, on the 17th of March, by logs rolling from a sled.

Gale, who attempted suicide at Meredith Centre two weeks since, is yet alive, but his recovery is doubtful. The ball is still in his [illegible] and the optic nerve has rendered him blind.

The house and stable on Franklin street, Concord, owned by Geo. Sleeper, were burned March 24th. Insurance, $1000 on the house, which does not cover the loss.

At Nashua, March 24th, the house and barn of Edward L. Clark were burned; loss about $2,500; insured $1050.

Naval Gazette.

Civil Engineers Sanger and Prindle, Naval Constructors Mintonye and Hichborn, and Chief Engineer Stewart, have been ordered to Baltimore on special duty in connection with the dry dock.

Passed Asst. Engr. A. F. Dixon is ordered to the Minnesota.

Asst. Engr. E. R. Freeman is detached from the Minnesota and ordered to the Tuscarora.

The secretary of the navy has received from the Life Saving Benevolent association of New York a handsome gold medal awarded to Ensign Lovell K. Reynolds for his recent heroic conduct in rescuing the crew of the Austro-Hungarian barque Olive. A letter very complimentary to Ensign Reynolds accompanies the medal.

News and Notes.

After a hearing on the estate of Rev. W. H. H. Murray, of Guilford, Conn., March 20th, considerable discussion was indulged in the matter of the ownership of some of the stock. The hearing was adjourned to May 15th.

On the night of February 15th a man was seen to fall from the lin bridge over Mill river at New Haven, Conn., since which time Owen McGrail has been missing. March 22d the body of McGrail was found floating upright in the water, and was recovered.

Mr. Jerome Case of New Fairfield, Conn., died March 23d, of hydrophobia, after the most extreme suffering. Last October Mr. Case's dog was taken sick, and, in putting it into the barn, it bit him in the little finger of the right hand. Hydrophobic symptoms appeared March 20th.

It is reported that a man employed in the foundry of the pump works at Warren, Mass., recently made thirty-nine days' work in a month, the result being a funeral; and that a machinist who worked from Sunday night till Thursday noon, with little or no rest, finished up with an attack of vertigo.

At Northampton, Mass., March 24th, Margaret T. Chamberlain, alias Maggie Cummins, was arrested as principal, and Joseph Kane as accessory, for attempting to murder Maggie's fifteen months' old girl baby, by leaving it on a by street in that town at nine o'clock in the evening of March 15th, where it laid scantily clad all night, and was found by a milk peddler next morning nearly frozen, several inches of snow having fallen during the night. The child was cared for by the city authorities, and has recovered. Maggie is about twenty years old, a native of Pittsfield, Mass., and married Clifford T. Chamberlain when she was sixteen years old. He left her when the child was four months old, and has since sued for a divorce. Kane is an Englishman, about thirty years of age. Maggie has admitted leaving the child, but denies any criminal intent, only wanting to get rid of the child and marry Kane. After leaving the child they both went to a neighboring village, and remained all night as man and wife. They were held in the sum of $5,000 each.

Luther I. Pratt of Salem, Mass., hung himself March 22d, through grief at the loss of his infant son.

An order has been issued by the postmaster general prohibiting the payment of money orders, etc., to F. H. Parsons of Westboro', Mass., alleged to be engaged in a fradulent scheme.

The steamer Iona, at Liverpool March 24th from Boston, received considerable damage to her stern and bows by a collision with an iceberg, on the passage.

The long litigation over the celebrated Maxwell grant in New Mexico has terminated by a foreclosure sale, which finally settles the title to nearly 2,000,000 acres of the most valuable mineral and grazing land in New Mexico, valued at millions of dollars.

Schooner Mary A. Rich, bound to Newburyport with coal, was boarded by a heavy sea off Thacher's Island, March 24th, and had both masts carried away, with everything attached. She then came to an anchor, and was towed into Gloucester the same day by the revenue cutter Dallas.

The latest sensation in Washington is the announcement that a recent important decision of the supreme court was given out in advance by some one to the stock gamblers of Wall street. An effort is being made to hush up the scandal.

In 1856 only about 146,000 tons of ice were stored in the United States, and folks kept a good deal cooler than they do now. This year it is probable that 3,000,000 [illegible] will be stored in the state of Maine [illegible] Capt. Rich of [illegible] to have sold a lot w[illegible] that netted him $100[illegible]

The b[illegible] Samana, San Domingo, was destroyed by fire March 9th; loss $150,000.

Victor H. Lovely, who shot through the head a man named Morehouse, and attempted to shoot three other persons at Underhill, Vt., a week or more ago, has been captured, and bailed in $300 by Mary Ann Woodruff, with whom rumor credits Lovely with living on infamous terms; and the would-be murderer is now at large. In the meantime Morehouse's condition is reported as critical, he having got cold in his wound.

Postmaster General Key has received a telegram from New Mexico stating that the Indians attacked the mail stage on the Santa Fe route, killing the driver and scattering the mail and driving off the stock. The matter was informally referred to Gen. Sherman, who said that Gen. Hatch was now in the vicinity of the attack, and will render all necessary aid.

A barkentine of 600 tons, about completed at Bath, Me., has been named for Payson Tucker, the popular superintendent of the Maine Central railroad. The cabin is furnished in the most luxuriant manner, all the woods being of Maine growth, except the walnut. A large portrait of Mr. Tucker has been hung in the cabin.

The Mayflower.

A few days ago we had the pleasure of making an examination of this truly wonderful property. It is an old discovery, but until lately received but very little development. The present owners, the Mayflower Consolidated G. & S. M. Co., are pushing the work forward at a rapid rate, and their tunnels are being richly rewarded, by large quantities of rich ore. It is situated on the south side of Clear creek, about one mile from the charming town of Idaho Springs. Under the guidance of the efficient foreman, Mr. John A. McCuse, we were shown through the different workings of the mine. The Brighton, which is the main tunnel, is 5x6 1-2 feet in the clear. It is about 250 feet in length and is run on a continuous body of ore. The vein runs north-east and south-west. The first-class ore taken from here mills 600 ozs. silver per ton and carries some gold and copper. Eighty feet from the mouth, winze A has been sunk from the tunnel level a distance of one hundred feet, showing a 4 1-2 foot vein of good ore for the whole distance. A drift has been started from the bottom of the winze north-east, in order to connect the lower and upper workings, and will be used for transporting the ore through. It will also be the means of giving good ventilation to the mine. About forty feet down winze A a drift had been run north-east some 25 feet, the mineral taken out averaging $30 per ton, and there is a large body of it. As goes better as depth is gained. Proceeding on in, we come to the discovery shaft, which is sunk to the tunnel level, and is what is called a compartment shaft, having a ladder compartment and ore chute. Here, above the tunnel, the company are extracting large quantities of rich mineral. This is sent down the chute into cars which carry it out to daylight. We next visited the Berry shaft; it is situated down the hill from the tunnel some 80 feet, and is 125 feet deep. At present a drift is being run to connect with the ore from the winze. When this is completed, the company intend to sink the Berry shaft down to the third level, and run other drifts. The outcroppings can be traced 900 feet.

This immense fissure vein crosses Clear creek, and extends up the opposite mountain for a long distance. Besides those spoken of, there are four other shafts sunk from the surface, all showing mineral.

Adjoining the Mayflower lies the Lafayette mine, which also belongs to the company. There is a shaft 75 feet deep, which shows an 8 foot crevice carrying good ore. It runs parallel with the Mayflower, and is to be worked through the Berry shaft by means of a crosscut. The shaft is so situated as to be able to work both mines to great advantage.

Over the Berry shaft, a 22x45 feet building has been erected, and is used for hoisting purposes. It is very substantial and solid, and is fitted out with all the latest improved hoisting machinery. Adjoining is the engine room, 25x30 feet. The engine, "Reliable," works by friction. The boiler is a thirty-five horse power. The company intend very shortly to build a large ore house near the hoisting works. There is a two story frame building at the mouth of the Brighton tunnel, the lower floor being used as a blacksmith shop, while the upper is divided into an assay office, the company's general office, and the foreman's private room.

They are at present only working 35 men. They have expended a large amount of money in improvements, but have the ore secreted in their tremendous vault in place of it. The office of the company is No. 116 Broadway, N. Y. The main office, however, is at the mine. The directors of the company are Grinnell Burt, President; Robert J. S. White, Secretary; W. H. Ashton, Gen'l Manager; and George Berry, Superintendent.

To the latter gentleman the reporter is indebted for courtesies extended. We are glad to be able to commend his work upon this excellent mine, and we trust the company's faith and monied expenditures may be rewarded by thousands of tons of rich ore.—Colorad Miner.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait. — Burlington Hawkeye.

—"What I want," said a pompous orator, aiming at his antagonist, "is good common sense." "Exactly!" was the whispered reply; "that's just what you need."

Teachers, authors and others of sedentary habits highly prize Malt Bitters.

—Almost every man has some accom- [illegible] mayor of an Illinois city can't speak Latin, lead a German or drive a Tally-ho coach, but he can put a drunken man to bed in better style than any other two men north of Arkansas.

—When a Boston girl wants to tell her fellow what a "nerve" he has, to ask her for a kiss, she purses up her ruby lips and sweetly remarks: "George, the ramifications of your nervous system are exceedingly complex and decidedly extensive."

Isaac Watts was a Little Man.

He said jocosely to six tall, quizzing friends who asked how he felt among so many men, "that he was a sixpence among six pennies, worth them all." SOZODONT is just so; there may be many preparations for the teeth, but it is worth them all.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. The valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. 4,th&f

Garcelon's Double.

The official business of the governor of Maine, even when he has no crusade against gum chewing to attend to, is so enormous that he cannot be expected to know who is elected, when he signs certificates, except on the word of some of his council. "We have to do many things on the testimony of others," was the bland remark of this delightful old simpleton. Curiously enough, somebody was, at this very time, engaged in writing letters to the New York papers, and signing the governor's name to the same, in which the course of the governor and council in regard to the special cases in dispute was defended. If the alleged Garcelon, who wrote those letters justifying the course of the governor and council, was not the Garcelon who now says he did not know what was going on, there must be two Garcelons, and both claim to be he who was the sometime governor of Maine. The governor who wrote the letters to the Sun and Herald, signing himself "Alonzo Garcelon," and explaining that everything that he was then doing was according to the constitution and the law, could hardly be the same governor who was "pleasantly surprised" when he learned that his party had a majority in the legislature big enough to re-elect him. Evidently Garcelon has a double. Tilden has a double, as we all know. Why should not Dr. Garcelon have one? Does Mr. Tilden have a "corner" on doubles? To the candid mind it is apparent that Dr. Garcelon is trying to have the responsibility of the Maine conspiracy divided up among a squad of democratic nobodies. Who knows or cares who were the men of the governor's council? Garcelon was only an accident, to be sure, but he was conspicuous in his position, while the conspirators engaged with him, as members of his council, have disappeared into the obscurity from which they temporarily emerged. Garcelon cannot shift upon the shoulders of these nameless men the responsibility for the crime in which he was principal. Garcelon signed the fraudulent certificates which gave the legislature to the democrats; and he knew what he was about when he did it.—New York Times.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. —Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

—Talk about the sincerity of poets! Tennyson thinks there's nothing so good as American navy plug tobacco, and yet he writes his poems about modest violets and blushing roses. When has he ever hauled out an ode to navy plug?—Boston Post.

An Admirable Medicinal Wine.

The most certain way to get the finest wine for medical use is to purchase Speer's Sambuci Wine, which is beyond doubt the purest and most admirable wine have ever tasted. —"Before I give you an answer," said Aramantha to her lover, who had just proposed for her hand, "I have a secret to impart." "What is it, dearest?" he asked, pressing his arm around her yielding waist. She blushed and stammered, "My teeth are false" "No matter," he cried heroically, "I'll marry you in spite of your teeth!"

—George Augusta Sala went through Augusta, Ga., like a rocket. He gave a three column article to the London Telegraph about the city, but was unfortunate in copying a description of Augusta, Maine, for half of it, from Appleton's Guide. Never mind; they did not know the difference in England.

Why Wear Plasters?

They may relieve, but they can't cure that lame back, for the kidneys are the trouble and you want a remedy to act directly on their secretions, to purify and restore their healthy condition. Kidney-Wort has that specific action—and at the same time it regulates the bowels perfectly. Don't wait to get sick, but get a package to-day, and cure yourself.

—A despatch from Jacksonville, Fla., says that travel this season has been fifty per cent greater than ever before. The hotels are literally full. There are some fifteen steamers running daily on the river.

Physicians use Kidney-Wort in regular practice and pronounce its action perfect.

—The lady who has been elected school director in Middletown, N. Y., is described as being six feet in height, and big in proportion, with strong masculine features, elastic step, quick in physical action, and commanding attention by her bloomer costume, if on no other account.

I would say to my friends, and all who chance to read this, that I have used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam in my family for a long time, and consider it a very valuable medicine. It cures when all other remedies fail, and I would cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with cough, colds, asthma, etc.

KIDNEY-WORT

PERMANENTLY CURES KIDNEY DISEASES, LIVER COMPLAINTS, Constipation and Piles.

DR. R. H. CLARK, South Hero, Vt., says, "In cases of KIDNEY TROUBLES it has acted like a charm. It has cured many very bad cases of PILES, and has never failed to act efficiently."

NELSON FAIRCHILD, of St. Albans, Vt., says, "It is of priceless value. After sixteen years of great suffering from Piles and Costiveness it completely cured me."

C. S. HOGABON, of Berkshire, says, "one package has done wonders for me in completely curing a severe Liver and Kidney Complaint."

IT HAS WONDERFUL POWER. WHY?

BECAUSE IT ACTS ON THE LIVER, THE BOWELS AND KIDNEYS AT THE SAME TIME.

Because it cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develope in Kidney and Urinary diseases, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation, Piles, or in Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Female disorders.

KIDNEY-WORT is a dry vegetable compound and can be sent by mail prepaid.

One package will make six qts of medicine.

Cuticura REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for sale by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 35 cents per cake, by mail, 50 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. They who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION! Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth, or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to JOS. S. FISHER, president; W. I. P. INGRAHAM, vice-president; W. PAINE, M. D.; C. S. GANNETT, M. D.; H. J. DOUCET, M. D.; R. H. KLINE, M. D.; J. R. HOLCOMB, M. THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items: carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

WASHINGTON, March 26, 1:30 A. M.

AROUND HOME.

People who are intending to have painting done this spring, will find at Fred. P. Wilson's a large stock of Salem white lead, one of the best brands of lead in the market, which he is selling at a low figure.

The examination of the several schools in District 3 will commence on Monday, March 29th, at 9 A. M., in the Manning school. The grammar schools will be examined on Wednesday morning. Everybody invited.

Mr. Albert E. Wood, for ten years past connected with the office of this paper in various capacities, is now located at Mountain Lake, Giles county, Virginia, where he proposes to go into the raising of goats on a large scale.

Just after dark on Wednesday evening of this week, the schooner Ida Emma, on entering the dock, ran into the schooner Nettie Adams and broke her main boom off. The Adams was lying at the wharf at the time, yet it is one of those mistakes which no one seems held accountable for.

The stable connected with the Kimball house at Dover was burned on Wednesday afternoon, March 24th. Loss $1200; insured. A heavy gale was blowing at the time. A boy recently employed at the Kimball house is strongly suspected of having set the fire, and Mayor Guppey on Thursday directed his arrest.

Mr. Joseph Amazeen, well known from his connection with the Western Union telegraph office in this city for a number of years past, and a very capable and worthy young man, left this city on Thursday last for Norwich, Conn., where he has secured a situation and somebody has secured a trusty employe.

The store occupied by Wm. P. Walker was formerly used as a banking room by the Portsmouth bank, and the large safe, built of heavy stone, has always remained there, but is now being removed under the direction of A. Brackett Trefethen, to afford more room for Mr. Walker in his tailoring and gentlemen's furnishing goods business. Mr. Walker has occupied the store since March 13th, 1849—a period of over thirty-one years.

The fine picture, or rather collection of pictures, presented to Col. Wm. H. Sise by the company of steam fire engine Col. Sise, No. 2, is on exhibition in the window of D. H. Montgomery's music and art store, where it was framed. Not only is the mayor's present beautifully gotten up, but the photographs show the engine company to be as fine-looking a body of men as are likely to be seen together at one time; there is not an inferior-looking man in the whole crowd.

The only tame Arctic owl that we ever heard of is kept at Pearson's greenhouses on Broad street, where he has had a nice time all winter; how this waif from the cold latitudes will stand our New England July weather we cannot say, but we expect he will have to be lodged in a refrigerator, if he is kept alive at all. At the place designated there is quite a menagerie, consisting (besides the owl) of a highly educated and moral crow, a chipmunk, four cats, and a rabbit which bosses all the other creatures except the crow; the latter pays not the slightest attention to either owl, cat or rabbit, and none of them offer to mole-it him.

THE RAILROAD SUIT.

The cross-examination of Mr. Lund was continued on Thursday morning.

Hon. Frank Jones was again called to the stand, and said in relation to the payment of land damages that he thought they were paid in stock, but could not tell the amount without referring to the treasurer's books. There was some talk about extending the line to Great Falls, and building a line to the Weirs to connect with the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroad, and charters were secured for both these schemes; the building of about three miles of the Great Falls extension from Dover was contracted for, but owing to "the panic" the project was abandoned.

A. F. Johnson, the civil engineer who was employed to make the original survey and estimates of the Dover road, stated that he had supervision of the road from August, 1872, to April, 1874. After making surveys, estimates and plans, they were approved; he was then notified he was to be the engineer. Before work was begun the officers of the Eastern railroad came down and examined the country, and took the two routes into consideration—the one on which the road was built, and another a short distance to the west of it. His estimates of the cost of the present bridge was $110,000; of a stone one, $225,000. Was subsequently employed by the Eastern railroad as engineer to grade Noble's island, build wharf, etc. Built the Portsmouth & Dover road with a view to make it a main line to Portland if any accident happened to Portsmouth bridge. Was acquainted with Mr. Williams, one of the directors of the Eastern railroad, at the time the Portsmouth & Dover road was building, and he was here frequently, superintending and investigating, in that capacity. The directors of the Eastern railroad were at Dover to see about extra real estate at that place, and it was purchased with their advice. The earth excavation exceeded the estimates 31,274 yards, which he said was not a large excess. The estimates for culvert masonry were 785 yards below the actual amount, because culverts were built in a number of places where only cattle passes had been estimated for. The difference between his and Mr. Lund's estimates of earthworth was 600 yards. No unnecessary work was done. He said he had endeavored to build a good road, and gave an extended explanation in relation to the work on and around the bridges.

Mr. Lund was called on the stand in the afternoon, in relation to his manner of making survey of the road.

The court adjourned until evening, to hear the testimony of Ex-Gov. Weston.

The arguments in the case will be heard this forenoon; Mr. Wadleigh for the Eastern road, Mr. Hatch for the Portsmouth & Dover road.

A BATTLE ROYAL.

Mr. Charles Pinder, who lives on the Little Harbor road, close to the water, on Sunday afternoon, the 21st inst., heard a great outcry among the fowls which were prospecting among the weeds and mud along the beach, and on looking to see what occasioned the disturbance saw one of his hens in the talons of a large hawk. Before Mr. Pinder could reach the place a diminutive bantam rooster furiously attacked the hawk in defence of his lady friend, and so belabored the hawk with beak and spurs and wings that the surprised marauder was compelled to release the hen and turn his attention to his plucky little enemy. The hen ran away, "squawking" loudly, but the bantam stood his ground gallantly, though he was no match for the big hawk; and he would probably have been overpowered and carried away before Mr. Pinder arrived, had not his feet become entangled in some rockweed which prevented the hawk from lifting him from the ground. Mr. Pinder gave the hawk a kick which "sent him flying" in more senses than one, and the bantam turned his head sidewise to look at his retreating foe, and then crowed a bold defiance to all the world. The little rooster displayed a number of feathers sticking out the wrong way, and had some blood on his breast, and mud all over him; but otherwise he appeared none the worse for his rough handling by the big bird.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

A York county correspondent asserts that the recent attempt of Congressman Reed to have Civil Engineer Chandler returned to the Kittery navy yard, and Engineer Endicott sent back to New London, appears not to have succeeded. He sees no especial reason for insisting that Mr. Chandler, after so many years spent in perfecting the facilities of the navy yard, should be kept here, simply because he is a Maine man, and a friend of Congressman Reed's. The latter it is stated told the secretary of the navy that Chandler would die of dry rot if continued at New London; but Mr. Reed should know that at that point are to be great naval expenditures—if they are ever appropriated. Our correspondent adds that the republicans of York county will insist upon naming Mr. Reed's successor in congress; the office having been held in Cumberland for four years, by the custom of the district conventions now comes back to York.

We think our correspondent may have been somewhat at fault in his information as to the reasons which Mr. Reed had in asking for a change in the civil engineers. According to uncontradicted rumor, it appears that a question of authority or duty on the part of the engineer in the direction of his department caused a little friction across the river, and the line officers sought the aid of Mr. Reed to remove an officer who sought to properly discharge his required duties. If Mr. Reed lent himself to this employment (and we can hardly believe he would be so impolitic) we are glad he has not accomplished the result sought for.

It is high time that naval officers ceased their bitterness against each other. These attempts to "break out" a fellow-officer, and have him ousted, for personal, selfish reasons, are unworthy of men in the service of their country. It tends to annoy the head of the navy department, while the time of congressmen, which ought to be employed in legislating upon great questions of political, financial and economical importance, is wasted in doing errands at the secretary's office. Fancy the Geneva award bill, for example, in which the people all up and down the coast of the great state of Maine are largely interested, delayed in its consideration because Senator Hamlin is busy in coaxing the administration (from which he has insisted he has never sought a favor) to displace a man from the Kittery yard, to gratify the spleen of some officer who laughs at the way he can be influenced.

No; if we are to have a navy, if appropriations are to be granted, ships built, yards kept in repair, and any advance made towards improving our national reputation in this respect, let the officers cease petty quarrels, bury private animosities, and co-operate for the advancement of the service, instead of wasting their time in its belittlement.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

Levi B. Howe's house at Biddeford was damaged to the amount of $1200 by fire on the night of the 24th inst. Insured.

Rev. Thomas Spooner, Jr., a graduate of Bates college, is about removing from North Berwick to accept a pastoral charge at Whitefield, N. H. Mr. Spooner will enter on his duties the first Sabbath in April.

A lady in Kittery who has just had a long and severe illness, and has not yet recovered her usual health and strength, recently in two days knitted one pair of large-sized men's hose, besides attending to her ordinary household duties and doing her week's ironing and baking.

The fusion "reform" city government of Biddeford increased the city debt last year even more than was first reported. At a late meeting of the city councils the mayor said: "I find that there was a mistake made in the statement of liabilities and resources of the city at the close of the fiscal year ending Jan. 31st, 1880, the resources being at that time $33,500.44 instead of $37,993.89, making the net debt of the city $150,374.38 instead of $145,880.03 as given, which shows an increase of $14,607.92 instead of $10,114.47 as stated."

—A Cheyenne man will bet on anything. Two of 'em put up five dollars apiece on a wager that one could hold a wasp in his hand longer than the other could, and the fellow who rubbed chloroform on his hand expected to win, but the other fellow happened to know that male wasps don't sting, and got one of that sex; and they grabbed their wasps and sat and smiled at each other while the crowd wondered, until the chloroform had evaporated, and then the fellow who used it suddenly let go of his wasp and let the audience into the secret.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.

For week ending Wednesday, March 24.

[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

Amount of stock at market—Cattle 3877; sheep and lambs 6001; swine 4000; western cattle 3328; eastern cattle 294; milch cows and northern cattle 265.

Prices of beef cattle per 100 lbs live weight—Extra quality $5 50 and $5 87½; first quality $5 07 and $5 37½; second quality $4 50 and $4 87½; third quality $4 00 and $4 37½; poorest grades of coarse oxen, bulls, &c., $3 12½ and $3 87½.

Brighton Hides, 7½ and 8c; Brighton Tallow, 5 and 5½c; country hides, 7 and 7½c; country tallow, 4½ and 4½c; calf skins, 12½c per lb; sheep and lamb skins, $2 and $2 50 each.

The trade for beef cattle is not been so active as that of one week ago. Cattle from the west did not cost so high as those brought in last week, and the quality was not of so good a grade. The demand for all ping cattle has been more quiet than it has been for several weeks past, the shipments during the past week to Europe having been light. There were but a few lots of cattle sold at our highest quotations, prices ranging for the larger portion of beef cattle from 5 to 5½c per lb. live weight. The supply from Maine consisted mostly of working oxen and milch cows, for which the trade has improved somewhat over that of one week ago. Prices upon all grades of beef cattle have fallen off fully one-eighth of a cent per pound from last quotations.

Working Oxen—There were some very nice pairs of working oxen in market, which sold quick. We quote sales of 1 pr, girth 7 ft. 6 in, live weight 3750 lbs, at $170; 1 pr, girth 7 ft, 4 in, live weight 3400 lbs, at $160; 1 pr, girth 7 ft, 4 in, live weight 3100 lbs, $145; 1 pr, girth 7 ft, live weight 3000 lbs, at $135 per pr; 1 pr, girth 7 ft 5 in, live weight 3300 lbs, at $157; 1 pr, girth 7 ft, 6 in, live weight 3700 lbs, at $170; 1 pr, girth 6 ft, 10 in, live weight 2600 lbs, at $130; 1 pr, girth 6 ft, 6 in, live weight 2400 lbs, at $105; 1 pr, girth 6 ft, 8 in, live weight 2600 lbs, at $125; 1 pr, girth 6 ft, 8 in, live weight 2800 lbs, at $135.

Milch Cows—Extra $50 and $65; ordinary $20 and $35; springers $18 and $30; farrow cows $13 and $[illegible] per head. We quote sales of 2 springers, $35 each; 1 do. $40; 1 do. $45; 1 do. $35; 4 cows and heifers at $40 each; 1 nice jersey cow and calf, $55; 4 springers at $35 each; 2 springers, $37 50 each; 1 cow and calf, $47; 15 milch cows at $30 to $40 per head.

Store Cattle—Not any in market; most of the small cattle being bought up to slaughter.

Sheep and Lambs—Western sheep and lambs cost landed at Brighton from 6 and 8c per lb live weight, all owned by butchers. The trade for northern sheep and lambs has been active at last week's prices.

Swine—Fat hogs 5½c per lb, live weight, all owned by butchers. Store Pigs—A few in market for which dealers were asking from 6 and 7c per lb, live weight.

—Miss Emma Abbott, having been told of some criticism upon the warmth of her acting in love scenes, responded: "I detest the conventional, stagey, stupid love-making scenes, so often depicted by women who never were in love and know nothing of the passion. I have been in love, and know what I am acting."

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER

Has been in constant use by the public for over twenty years, and is the best preparation ever invented for RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS YOUTHFUL COLOR AND LIFE.

It supplies the natural food and color to the hair glands without staining the skin. It will increase and thicken the growth of the hair, prevent its blanching and falling off, and thus AVERT BALDNESS.

It cures Itching, Eruptions and Dandruff. As a HAIR DRESSING it is very desirable, giving the hair a silken softness which all admire. It keeps the head clean, sweet and healthy.

The State Assayer and Chemist of Mass. and leading Physicians endorse and recommend it as a great triumph in medicine.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Nervous and General Debility, Consumption and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley, Malt and Fresh Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat Producing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters" and "stimulants."

MALT BITTERS build up new the nervous, osseous (bone) and muscular system. For dyspepsia, dyspepsia, sick headache, constipation, inactive stomach and liver, bronchitis and deep-seated coughs, consumption, weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dropsy, mental and physical debility, ulcerative weaknesses of females, exhaustion of nursing mothers and the aged, and every form of debility they are truly marvellous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet devised, and commend themselves to the weak, convalescent, overworked, debilitated, nervous, dyspeptic, bilious, sickly in appetite, irresolute in mind and subject to melancholy as the purest, safest and most powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury Shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eighteen years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its efficacy. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMOOR, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Theo. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

In behalf of the Society,

Portsmouth Chronicle

[Entered at the Post-Office at Portsmouth, N.H., as second-class matter.]

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1880.

News and Notes.

A pupil in one of the public schools at Newburyport, Mass., is engaged to marry his teacher.

One of the handsomest women of Newport, R. I., is thirty-five years old, and has recently given birth to her tenth child.

In the superior court at Lawrence, Mass., last Thursday forenoon, in the case of John Moran vs. Goodwin Bros., an action to recover under the civil damage law in consequence of defendants selling liquor to plaintiff's wife after being forbidden, the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff of $275.

John H. Mosely was shot dead by Andrew Cassidy on Monday night, March 22d, in Charlotte county, Virginia, Cassidy mistaking Mosely for a negro with whom he had trouble.

Rasmus Larker, of Wakesha county, Wisconsin, was tarred and feathered on the night of March 24th by a mob, for improper intimacy with Mrs. Albert Stielow, whose lover he had been before her marriage.

Hon. George Brown, editor of the Toronto Globe and a senator in the Dominion parliament, was on Thursday last shot at and wounded by a man named Bennett, formerly an engineer in the Globe office. The assailant was locked up.

Naval Gazette.

The nomination of Capt. James E. Jouett to be a commodore in the navy was rejected by the senate, March 25th.

Ensign Alfred Reynolds is ordered to ordnance duty at New York.

Ensign W. F. Halsey is ordered to examination for promotion.

A bill has been favorably reported to the senate for the restoration to the active list of the navy of Capt. Sommerville Nicholson, who was retired for drunkenness.

New Hampshire Items.

Judge Henry M. Spofford, of Louisiana, to whom the democrats in the United States senate propose to present the seat to which Senator Kellogg was elected, is a native of Jaffrey, in this state, and a son of Rev. Luke A. Jaffrey.

Kimball Merrill of Salisbury Plain planted peas three weeks ago, because of the "early spring;" digging down to them a few days ago, he found them all decayed.

The house and barn of S. W. Foss, at Strafford Centre, were burned March 24th; loss $2,000; insured.

A memorial service was held at Laconia in the Unitarian church March 25th, in memory of Jacob P. Boody, Esq., deceased, register of deeds of Belknap county for the past twelve years. The supreme court adjourned, and attended in a body. The services were very impressive, and the attendance large.

REAL ESTATE CONVEYANCES.

"Old Reliable."

There are many reputed remedies for that very prevalent disease, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, but none which have given general satisfaction and become acknowledged standard preparations, except Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It continues to enjoy an unprecedented popularity. This reputation has been earned through the permanent cures which it has wrought, having proved itself a specific in the worst forms of disease. In fact so reliable is it that its former proprietor offered through all the newspapers of the land a reward of $500 for a case of catarrh that it would not cure. Sold by druggists.

Henry Hallowell a few days ago killed Elbert Mack at Princeton, Ky., the provocation being that Mack killed Hallowell's dog.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES will speedily and certainly arrest the depressing influences of diseases upon the nerves and muscles. It restores the appetite and induces a disposition to take on healthy flesh. It causes the formation of living blood, strengthening the action of both heart and lungs. It invigorates the system under trying circumstances, and causes the healthy development of all the organs necessary to our existence.

Dr. Warrington was shot dead at Winnesboro', Texas, on Monday night, March 22d, by an unknown assassin.

Physicians use Kidney-Wort in regular practice and pronounce its action perfect.

J. Edmands shot Newton Eaton dead, Thursday, at Para, Ill., in a dispute about fifty cents.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. —Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

A marauding party of Indians recently attacked a party of six men near Santa Barbara, New Mexico, and killed them all. They afterward attacked the village of San Jose, but were driven off.

"The best cough medicine in the world." The Old Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. Cutler Bros. & Co., Boston. Small reduced to 50c; large, $1. 1 cod&wtuany

Charles E. Davis, now in jail at Chicago on a charge of bigamy, has seven wives, with a number of states yet to hear from. Three wives have given testimony against him.

Food is digested and assimilated by Malt Bitters. Hence increased flesh.

An Admirable Medicinal Wine.

The most certain way to get the finest wine for medical use is to purchase Speer's Sambuci Wine, which is beyond doubt the purest and most admirable we have ever tasted. It is rich, nourishing and superior for general debility, female weakness, dysentery and consumption, and at the same time entirely free from any sort of spirit.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait. —Burlington Hawkeye.

—Experiments are being made in rice culture on high ground in Florida, without flooding the field, and very superior rice has been produced, sixty bushels to the acre. The land was prepared without using fertilizers.

—Love laughs at locksmiths.—Mistress: "Cook, it is very strange, but I always fancy I can hear subdued conversation in the kitchen on Susan's night out." Cook: "Oh, dear me, mem, beggin' your pardon, mem; which it's me a-reading the 'Pilgrim's Progress' to myself aloud, mem."

—Agnes Herndon's kiss isn't to be compared with Emma Abbott's kiss. It hasn't the genuine ring about it. It lacks the divine afflatus. Abbott's kiss reminds one of the gurgle of maple sap out of the nozzle of a five-gallon demijohn. Herndon's kiss sounds like the explosion of a paper peanut bag.—Kansas City Times.

Isaac Watts was a Little Man.

He said joocosely to six tall, quizzing friends who asked how he felt among so many men, "that he was a sixpence among six pennies, worth them all." SOZODONT is just so; there may be many preparations for the teeth, but it is worth them all.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle. 4

See a Woman!

In another column, picking grapes for SPEER'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first-class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to European or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

Hair Restorer

IS PERFECTION.

A Noble Record: near Half a Century. Established 1832. Improved 1879.

The nature of the great improvement is in its wonderful life-properties to faded or fading hair, and MORE QUICKLY CHANGING GRAY OR WHITE HAIR to its natural youthful COLOR and BEAUTY.

IT IS NOT A DYE.

It requires only a few applications to restore gray hair to its youthful color and lustrous beauty, and induce luxuriant growth, and its occasional use is all that is needed to preserve it in its highest perfection and beauty. DANDRUFF is quickly and permanently removed.

Sold by all Druggists, $1.25 Per Bottle.

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, March 27, 1:30 A. M.

Warmer clear weather, followed by increasing cloudiness, possibly by rain, north westerly winds veering to south easterly, followed by falling barometer.

AROUND HOME.

Mr. C. A. Hazlett has done 1600 miles on his bicycle since last April.

The attention of the ladies is invited to the advertisement of Morris C. Foye, in another column.

It is announced that the lighthouse board has ordered the removal of the old tower at Whalesback.

Rev. Mr. Pitblado lectured in Lewiston, Me., Wednesday evening, and in Auburn on Thursday evening, of this week; subject, "Great Guns."

At Seabrook, Friday, a young man named McQuillan had his hand badly injured by the accidental discharge of a revolver which he was manipulating.

The Stoddard brothers displayed on the street, Friday, a "tride span" (three pairs) of fine looking colts, attached to a light buggy, driven by the young horseman Edgar Stoddard.

President Phillips of the Eastern railroad was in town on Friday, and with Messrs. Jones and Mendum visited the Sagamore mill lot, which the latter gentlemen are trying to purchase for the Shoe Factory Co.

Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty troupe will have a large audience on Monday evening at Music hall. The last time this company played here the house was filled, and the excellent entertainment then given is not yet forgotten.

The brick-carrying schooners have commenced business for the season, between the Dover point and Eliot brickyards, and Boston. The Hattie Lewis and D. K. Ham sailed on Friday, this being the second trip for the latter.

Sixty-nine feet of the lower end of the store-building on Pray's wharf has been taken off and placed fronting Market street. The remaining fifty feet will be turned around and moved to the rear, to be used as a storage house for Brooks & Co.

Schooner Margie was in the lower harbor last Thursday, bound for the east, for a cargo of ice. It is said that she has been chartered by Boston parties, for the season, to take ice from Kennebec to that city, at one dollar and twenty-five cents a ton.

Orders from Washington have been received at the navy yard, assigning Mr. Chas. A. Shannon to duty as foreman painter in the engineering department at this station. Mr. Jos. H. Gardiner succeeds Mr. Shannon in the construction department.

The piles for the foundation of the coal pocket on the Concord railroad wharf are driven down to a depth of ninety-three feet, sometimes striking a boulder or ledge, it not being easy to tell which of the two. The hammer used in driving the piles weighs 1800 pounds.

We are informed on good authority that Rev. Mr. Waite will assume a new role next week,—the expose of spiritualism,—and has provided himself with cabinets, iron chests, and all the paraphernalia of a first-class medium. He will open to the Dover public on Monday next.

The cantata of "Esther" was this week presented in Amesbury, Mass., for two evenings, and drew a large audience each evening. The entertainment was given in aid of the Methodist church of Amesbury, of which Rev. Mr. Noyes, formerly of this city, is pastor. Col. Jerome C. Butler, of this city, took the part of the king in the cantata.

The annual meeting of Winnicut Lodge, No. 92, A. F. and A. M., of Greenland, was held last Thursday evening, and the following officers were chosen for the year ensuing: Dr. W. O. Junkins, W. M.; Nathaniel P. Ordway, S. W.; James Drew, J. W.; Wm. H. L. Brackett, Treasurer; John H. Brackett, Secretary; Lorenzo D. Dunily, S. D.; Robert Herne, J. D.; Nathaniel Gookin, Tyler; Charles E. Hodgdon, Marshal; Frank Whidden, S. S.; Woodbury Frisbee, J. S.

The restaurant and telegraph office at the Eastern railroad depot show some signs of completion. The ceiling and walls are lined with a two-inch wide sheathing, and present a neat appearance.

A "dumb supper" will be given by Strawberry Bank Lodge, I. O. G. T., at Grange hall on Wednesday evening next. Hon. Marcellus Bufford has kindly consented to act as judge on this occasion.

Mr. Clarence W. Amazeen, formerly employed in the Times office and now of Florida, has recently been appointed to a responsible position on the steamer commanded by Capt. Fitzgerald, also of this city, which runs up the Pulaska river. Mr. Amazeen has ten men under his charge.—Journal.

Messrs. Smith & Williams, occupying Mason's mill, have by recent additions greatly increased their facilities for doing business; and beside their usual work, (wood finishing, etc.,) will add that of carpentering. On Thursday last they made a contract with Mr. Hartley W. Mason of this city, to build two houses in York, and will immediately proceed to work on them.

SOUTH SEABROOK, March 26th.

Samuel H. Goodall, Esq., last week laid out some fifty lots on the beach at Seabrook, making two sides of a street running back to the marsh. The lots are each fifty feet on the front, and each one projects into the street seven feet beyond the one next to it on the side toward the sea, so that the occupants of each will have an obstructed view of the ocean. A plan has been made, and is open for the inspection of lovers of the sea.

South Hampton voted to grant Piper & Sawyer, of Newburyport, a right of way for a railroad on the beach, and the question arises, "What right has South Hampton got to a beach that has been decided by two juries and a referee to belong to Richard Fowler of Seabrook?"

EXE.

Minnie Palmer's "Boarding school" will hold a session at Music hall on Thursday evening, April 1st. An exchange in noticing a performance of this play says "its comical situations and light nonsense were thoroughly enjoyed by those present. It is a clever take-off on the discipline of the school room, the pedantry of pompous pedagogues, and the absurd whims and fancies of young minds undergoing a system of 'cultivation.' Miss Palmer is a dashing little soubrette, well fitted to play the part of a young girl just in her teens and brimfull of a spirit of mischief, which role she interprets very prettily. William J. Scanlan is one of the best Irish comedians on the stage, and is always a favorite with our audiences. Mr. Davenport deserves more than a word of praise for his careful characterizations, and the rest of the company were acceptable." Tickets at Preston's.

BOW MISSION SERVICES.

Children's temperance meeting at Bow mission hall this afternoon at three o'clock. Service in charge of Mrs. Hooper, president of Woman's League.

Gospel temperance meeting this evening at 7:30; all are welcome.

Prayer and conference meeting at nine o'clock Sunday morning.

The bethel service usually held at Bow mission hall, Sunday afternoon at 4:15, will be held in Music hall at the same hour to-morrow, when and where Rev. A. A. Waite will give a "chalk talk," followed by a lecture entitled "The Good Samaritan." The lecture will be illustrated by three oil paintings, each ten feet by fifteen, and a select choir will sing. An admission of ten cents will be charged; all proceeds above expenses will go to the Bow mission and bethel.

Reform club meeting at 7:30 Sunday evening, at the mission hall.

THE RAILROAD SUIT.

On Friday the arguments in the case were made, Mr. Wadleigh speaking in favor of the Eastern railroad, and Mr. Hatch for the Portsmouth & Dover. The arguments were of moderate length, and the hearing was ended in the forenoon.

Decision in the case will be rendered at the April term of the supreme court.

FISHERY NOTES.

Newburyport sends the only American vessels now engaged in cod fishing on the Labrador coast. The Labrador fisheries commenced at Newburyport in 1779, and have been kept up to the present time.

Schooner Velocipede came off the railway at Kittery, Friday, and was towed down to Doane's wharf by tug Clara Batemen; she looked like a yacht when she came off the ways. Another of Mr. Doane's schooners went on the railway as soon as the Velocipede left.

The only fishing arrival on Friday was the schooner Iris, which brought in one hundred pounds of fish, for which she realized the sum of seventy-five cents, to be divided among four men—this noble income being offset by an expenditure of ten dollars, and the loss of several trawls! "Fisherman's luck," and no mistake.

RAILROAD ITEMS.

A civil engineer from Boston several days ago commenced a survey of the route of the proposed Old Orchard & Ferry Beach railroad.

A special train over the Portsmouth & Dover railroad will bring a party of excursionists from Dover to this city on the 7th of April, to attend the performance of "All the rage" at Music hall on the evening of that day.

The Eastern railroad earned in February, 1880, $175,345.06; in February, 1879, $153,370.68; increase, $21,974.38. The company has contracted with the Portland Locomotive Works for rolling stock amounting to over $70,000.

A fast express train is to be put on the Eastern railroad between Newburyport and Boston, to make the distance in sixty-eight minutes. The engines on the Eastern road are hereafter to run through from Boston to Portland and vice versa, commencing on the 1st of April, doubling their daily running distance; it is also reported that several classes of the employes are to have their wages increased on the same date—both these changes being consequent on the immensely increased business of the road.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The annual town meeting of Kittery will be held on Monday.

Dr. M. F. Wentworth of Kittery has been appointed assistant surgeon of the marine hospital service, for this port.

The Good Templar Record is the name of a paper at Berwick, the publication of which has been commenced by D. M. Frye. As its name indicates, it is devoted to the temperance cause.

Rev. D. M. Leavitt, of Haverhill, Mass., will preach at the Advent church on Sunday.

Rev. E. E. Cummings, D. D., of Concord, will preach at the Middle street church.

At the South Parish there will be three services to-morrow (Easter Sunday.) Besides the regular morning vesper worship, there will be at three o'clock a meeting of the Sunday School at the church. At this meeting a beautiful Easter festival service, with responses and hymns by the children, will be used, and there will also be a sermon by the pastor. All are welcome.

Contributions of flowers are requested to be sent to the church on Saturday evening.

A RAILWAY ANNOYANCE.

While the evil likely to result from color blindness among railroad engineers has caused accurate tests to be made in order to determine if these defects exist among this class of employes, there seems to remain unattended-to another serious difficulty, arising from a want of knowledge of ventilation upon the part of the brakemen who have charge of the heating of cars. Take for example, the morning trains from this city to Boston. We enter the cars, which even on mild mornings have two stoves well filled with burning wood, with every ventilator closed tight, and the temperature of the car ranging at about ninety degrees. After a complaint of the heat, the brakeman opens every ventilator and lets the fire go down. Soon the temperature descends about forty degrees. The passengers complain again, and all the ventilators are closed till the heating becomes renewed. A few simple suggestions to the brakemen from the master of transportation would save the annoyance, and a far less number of persons would be found who could attribute their colds to the changing temperature of the cars of the Eastern railroad. Let the fires be looked after, and ventilation be one of the duties in which every brakeman shall be properly instructed, and better results to travellers will follow.

Spots on the Sun.

A large spot, which a very keen eye might be able to distinguish without other assistance than a screen of smoked glass, is now visible near the eastern edge of the sun's disk. Any good spy-glass will show it well, but care should be taken to protect the eye with a deeply colored glass held firmly against the eye-piece. A smoked-glass screen gives a pleasant view, but is dangerous because the soot deposited is not so easily rubbed off. The combination of a green glass with a red one is best, as it allows little heat to reach the eye, and shows the sun's disk free from annoying discoloration. An astronomical telescope shows, in addition to the great spot, a scattered, double cluster of small spots between it and the edge. The disk is marked, in the neighborhood of the spots, with the bright ridges called faculæ, which look like crinkled veins of light on the surface of the sun. The great spot is a very perfect specimen of its class, the vast, cavernous hole in the centre, large enough probably for the earth to drop through, and with broken and jagged edges, looking almost black with a slight tinge of purple. Near one end a vein of light projects partly across the gulf, and beyond that the black centre breaks through the whitish border. The penumbra surrounding the black portion is broad and well marked, of a greyish color, and bordered with lighter streaks.

Uses of Paper.

A complete list of articles made of paper would be a very curious one, and almost every day it becomes more so. Among other things exhibited last year at the Berlin exhibition were paper dockets, "bronzes," tiles, asphalt roofing, waterproof carpets, shirts, whole suits of clothes, jewelry, materials for gardens walks, window curtains, lace-trees and pocket handkerchiefs. The most striking of the many objects exhibited in this material was, perhaps, a fire-stove with a bright fire burning in it. We have from time to time noted the announcement of newly invented railway carriage wheels, chimney pots, flour barrels, cottage walls, roofing tiles and bricks, and dishes, containing all made of paper. A material capable of so many uses, so very diversified in character, is obviously destined to play a very important part in our manufacturing future. Articles of this kind, which have just now perhaps the greatest interest, and which are among the latest novelties in this way, are paper "blankets." Attention has frequently been called to the value of ordinary sheets of paper as a substitute for bedclothes. The idea seems to have suggested the fabrication of blankets from this cheap material, and if all that is said of them is true, they ought to be extensively used. For the extremely indigent they should be a great boon, and it is in their favor, perhaps, that they cannot of course be so durable as ordinary woolen or cotton goods. The bedding of many of the poor cannot but be productive of much sickness, and a very cheap material that will last only a comparatively short time must be better than durable articles that are rarely or never washed.—London Globe.

—The "Jersey" has reached New York. Perhaps you don't know what the "Jersey" is? Allow me to enlighten you. The "Jersey" is a garment introduced into London by Mrs. Langtry, and at once made fashionable. To speak plainly, it is little more than a flannel undershirt. It comes in every color, and is made to fit tight to the figure, and reaches below the hips. It is very much worn in Nincompoopiana.—Brunswick's New York letter.

—"It was years ago, my children," said a silver-haired old man to his grandsons, some time along in 1963, "when as Indian south Colorado met the United States army, and in the pitiless pride of his own superior strength, reached out and scalped both of them." And then the old man went on to explain how for nearly seven years preceding that sad occurrence, congress had been supporting the army at a total expense of $1.75 a year for the soldiers, and $965,000 a week for the contractors.—Burlington Hawkeye.

—A traveller in the forests of Brazil saw a hairy spider with a body two inches long, and eight legs, measuring seven inches each. It was on a tree beneath a deep crevice, across which was stretched a dense white web. The lower part of the web was broken, and two small finches were entangled in the pieces. One was still alive, but died soon after its rescue. The hairs of these crab-spiders come off when touched, and cause a maddening irritation. He says that he saw the children of an Indian family with ones of these monsters secured by a cord, and leading it about the house like a dog.

Why Wear Plasters?

They may relieve, but they can't cure that lame back, for the kidneys are the trouble and you want a remedy to act directly on their secretions, to purify and restore their healthy condition. Kidney-Wort has that specific action—and at the same time it regulates the bowels perfectly. Don't wait to get sick, but get a package to-day, and cure yourself.

—"I shall go out of my wits," said an angry man. "You will not have far to go" was the rejoinder.

Women that have been pronounced incurable by best physicians in the country, have been completely cured of female weakness by the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—No matter how low down a man gets in the world, there are two things he can always get, somehow or other; good advice and bad whiskey.

Teachers, authors and others of sedentary habits highly prize Malt Bitters.

—A gentleman who saw a copy of Voltaire lying on Colonel Robert Ingersoll's table, inquired: "How much did this book cost you?" and the colonel answered: "The governorship of Illinois."

I would say to my friends, and all who chance to read this, that I have used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam in my family for a long time, and consider it a very valuable medicine. It cures when all other remedies fail, and I would cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with cough, colds, asthma, etc.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called self-evident cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter have exceed their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful case.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor from the surface and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 18, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The period at phase of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threaten d to spread from my hands a d envelop my whole body. Doctors have be n consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that it would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, (or as it by our well-known druggist, MR. LYONS, and received to try it. I purchased a fifty-cent box, and (ive it was half used the disease had completely disappear d, and I feel co tain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. F. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 28, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. KIDNEY-WORT

PERMANENTLY CURES KIDNEY DISEASES, LIVER COMPLAINTS, Constipation and Piles.

DR. E. R. CLARK, South Hero, Vt., says, "In cases of KIDNEY TROUBLES it has acted like a charm. It has cured many very bad cases of PILES, and has never failed to act efficiently."

NELSON FAIRCHILD, of St. Albans, Vt., says, "It is of priceless value. After sixteen years of great suffering from Piles and Costiveness it completely cured me."

C. S. HOGADON, of Rockshire, says, "one package has done wonders for me in completely curing a severe Liver and Kidney Complaint."

IT HAS WONDERFUL POWER. WHY?

BECAUSE IT ACTS ON THE LIVER, THE BOWELS AND KIDNEYS AT THE SAME TIME.

Because it cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that generate in Kidney and Urinary diseases, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation, Piles, or in Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Female disorders.

KIDNEY-WORT is a dry vegetable compound and can be sent by mail prepaid.

THE BEST REMEDY

FOR

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. Ayer's CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

SHAKERS' SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It was the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been approved by the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eight or more years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMO R, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 3, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, provides the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary disease in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

Another Claimant for "Her Shawl."

Be aisy now, darlint, wid your bothersome chatter,
A claimin' me shawl,—faith, that's what's the matter,
Bridget Sykes—and that spalceen, your cousin Mike Kearney,
Wid eyes on me robe, and lips on "the blarney."
'Twas meself dropped that shawl, whilst paradin' the isles,
And sure, didn't the thing there trate me to smiles?
Sweet smiles, not too strong—and as he doffed that straw hat,
Whisper'd so softly—but no matter for that.
It was he found me garmint, and its "beautiful dyes"
Were reflections, intirely, from out his swate eyes;
And the "fine threads of gold," aint the centre and fringe,
Were color'd, all over, with Appledore tinge.
"Chape cotton," indade! you ought to blush scarlet, you jade.
Of the "rays o the dawn" me garmint was made,—
Wid the trimmin's I bought at a fashionable store,
Where the like may be found, with many things more.
Now, by the pipers, Miss Sykes, I will never give over
'Till me shawl, which is mine, is again with Kate Clover.
I'm invited next season, to old Appledore isle;
I'll be looking there for you—mind that, awhile.

The American Hip Pocket.

Glass bottles are obviously unsuited to the hip-pocket, and some of the best citizens of the western states have been severely cut and have lost great quantities of whiskey by disregarding this fact.

Mr. Withers is not a western man, and is wholly unacquainted with whiskey; but his recent experience of the incompatibility of hip-pocket and glass bottles was very painful and embarrassing. He had returned to his Orange county home from a brief visit to New York, and had brought with him as a present for Miss Wilson—to whom he was betrothed—a bottle of that remarkable cement which is sold by sidewalk merchants, and which is by them represented as being much stronger than wrought iron. It had occurred to him that this cement would be a very nice thing to have in his future house, since with it all sorts of broken china and glass could be mended, and every one knows that children will break a great deal of china. On the evening of his arrival home, he put the cement bottle in his hip-pocket and called on Miss Wilson, intending to offer it to her as soon as he entered the house.

Mr. Withers was ardently attached to the young lady, and when he saw her before him he not unnaturally forgot all about such merely earthly matters as cement. The old people welcomed him politely, and, after a few moments of conversation, withdrew with a direction which it is to be wished that all old people would emulate. Being of a frugal mind, and knowing that the merciful young man should be merciful to his intended father-in-law in point of kerosene bills, Mr. Withers promptly turned down the lamp and proceeded to make himself at home.

This bottle was a stout one, and would, perhaps, have withstood any ordinary pressure, but as Miss Wilson weighed fully a hundred and forty pounds, and as the back of the small rocking-chair was of hard wood, it is not strange that the bottle yielded. Mr. Withers was so much interested in the weather and other subjects such as usually absorb the attention of young men in his position, that he did not notice the breaking of the glass, and it was not until an hour later that a false alarm of father in the front hall induced Miss Wilson to flee to the sofa, and suggested to Mr. Withers the advisability of turning up the lamp.

The cement had done its work, and Mr. Withers did not get up to attend to the light, but requested the young lady to discharge this duty for him. She did so, and then noticed his pained and preoccupied expression. To her anxious inquiries he replied that he felt a little faint, and would like a glass of water. Miss Wilson hurriedly went for the water, reproaching herself for being so heavy, and accusing herself of selfishness and want of consideration. In her absence the young man made superhuman efforts to wrench himself loose, but the cement refused to yield. When Miss Wilson returned with the glass of water, he looked so much worse that she was really frightened, and he was compelled to tell her the real state of the case.

She was a practical person, and she promptly proposed to get a tea-kettle of hot water and dissolve the cement, but desisted when he explained to her that his system would not bear the application of water at the boiling point. She then timidly suggested that if she were to call "Pa, perhaps Pa might lend you a pair;" but Mr. Withers said no; he could not bear the mortification of being found in such a situation by any father. It was finally agreed that he should wait until a late hour, and should then take the chair home with him. This was accordingly done, and had not the unfortunate youth been arrested by a local constable, who only discharged him when a severe test proved that his possession of the chair was purely involuntary, his misfortune might never have become generally known. When disasters such as this are liable to happen to the wearers of hip-pockets, it becomes doubtful whether they are not altogether too hazardous for general use. In fact, good authorities maintain that the hip-pocket is positively detrimental, and that an earnest and united effort should be made to procure its extirpation.—N. Y. Times.

—It is announced that the czar plays on a melodeon, and the Norristown Herald thinks it is a marvel, therefore, that the attempts to blow him up are not more frequent.

Promotion on the Jump.

The United States senate has refused to confirm the nomination of Capt. James E. Jouett to be a commodore in the navy, and thereby "jump" him ahead seventeen numbers on the navy register, over the heads of seventeen other captains.

In our opinion, the action of the senate in this case was eminently proper; not that we doubt that Capt. Jouett did his duty gallantly during the rebellion, and is a meritorious officer; but we regard the law allowing naval promotions to be made "on the jump" as wholly wrong in principle, and calculated to lower the morale of the service.

This law authorizes the advancement of any officer thirty numbers "for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle, or extraordinary heroism"—in other words, it promises to every officer of the navy that if he will but do his duty, he shall be specially rewarded for such unusual conduct! We do not think our idea of what is implied by this law is either distorted or exaggerated; the nation has a right to expect and demand the best services of every officer in whatever position he may be placed; no man can do any better than his best; and the man who is not ready to do his best under all circumstances, even to the imperilling or yielding up of his life if required, has no business to wear the uniform of a naval officer, and should be dismissed the service in disgrace, rather than petted with promises of sugar plums if he will only be a good boy and do his duty.

Are cool nerve and honor so seldom found among the officers in the American navy, that when one of them does do his duty bravely and honorably it must be regarded as a rare and especially wonderful phenomenon, and specially rewarded accordingly? We think not; we believe the cowards and traitors are in a small percentage, and the brave and honorable men are in numerous majority in the navy; and that the law which rewards one officer for doing what the people believe a right thing, and that every other officer should be ready and willing to do under similar circumstances, is as unjust as it is insulting to the officers of the service.

Congress should either at once repeal the law which implies that cowardice and unofficer-like conduct are expected of naval officers, or else label it "An act to promote the deterioration of the navy."

Memoir of Channing.

The centennial celebration of the birth of William Ellery Channing, a man in whose writings a steadily increasing interest has been witnessed, in this county and abroad, since his death, seems a fitting season for the appearance of the Life of Channing, by Charles T. Brooks, just published by Messrs. Roberts Brothers of Boston, and which is sold at the price of $1.50 at the bookstore of W. G. Myers.

Mr. Channing's writings are read not only by those of the denomination of which he was a preacher, but by Christians of nearly every phase of religious belief who possess a catholic spirit of enquiry as to the faith which others may find satisfying and sustaining. This little book assays to be a handy-volume life of Channing,—not an elaborate biography, but a contribution towards the requirements of a popular sketch of bulger and good man. The book has a likeness of Dr. Channing, and of his mother, with the place of his birth, and the old Federal street church.

The book will be read extensively, because, among readers of all denominations, there is in the character of Channing so much to admire by believers in different theories, when viewed from different points of training, yet with a common object, the seeking after the truth. The services this week commemorative of Channing will doubtless awake a renewed interest in the writings of the clergymen in Federal street, Boston, forty years ago; and for those who have not been familiar with the preacher's life, a good opportunity is presented of becoming acquainted therewith through the writings of Mr. Brooks in this centennial memoir, which is a work in its style and design peculiar to itself.

News and Notes.

Ex-Collector George D. Whittle of Lynn, Mass., who left that city suddenly many months ago, and was supposed at the time to be a defaulter, turns out to be a creditor of the city to the amount of several hundred dollars.

Homer Wellington, of Cambridge, Mass., who was arrested some days ago for forgery, has confessed that he attempted to poison his wife with arsenic. He denies having poisoned his son, but the body has been exhumed and arsenic found in the stomach.

James Morgan, colored, has been arrested in Columbus, Ga., on a charge of poisoning his wife and daughter by strychnine, mixed in wine. His wife died, but his daughter has recovered.

Jacob Frey, sixty-nine years old, cut his wife's throat at their home in St. Louis, Friday, and then severed his own wind-pipe. Neither were dead at last accounts, but both will probably die. The affair grew out of a quarrel about money.

The thirty day's notice of the condemnation of Chinatown, in San Francisco, expired Friday, but the board of health has taken no action with regard to the order to vacate the precinct, and it is not probable that anything will be done.

The Bristol and Providence steamers, of the Fall River line, commence running this week.

About a hundred liquor dealers were before the police court at Pawtucket, R. I., Thursday last, under the new liquor law. They all pleaded not guilty, and gave bail.

Charles Bradley, of New Haven, Conn., committed suicide March 25th by swallowing sulphate of copper.

Mrs. Susan Bailey of Woolwich, Me., who recently died, aged over eighty-eight years, worked up to within two days of her death, and about two hours before she died her heart stopped beating for about twenty minutes, and when her consciousness came to her again, she said she had seen Jesus with all the glorified throng, and the vision she saw was wonderful.

Mr. Jesse Billings is to be tried at Saranac, N. Y., on the 13th of April, for the murder of his wife. He has hired the town hall, and on the evening of the 12th of April Rev. Herbert H. Hayden will deliver his lecture on "Circumstantial Evidence."

The people of Dublin village, ten miles north of Columbus, O., are opposed to drinking saloons. Recently a new saloon was opened in a frame building, and at four o'clock in the morning a few days later a keg of powder was exploded in the cellar in such a manner as to wreck the entire building. No one was in it at the time. The work of destruction is charged upon the temperance party in the town, but is denied by the members.

Stephen D. Dillaye has declined the nomination for president by the greenback convention at St. Louis. He recommends all greenbackers to unite upon the nominee of the greenback convention which will be held in Chicago, June 9th.

New Hampshire Items.

A murderous assault was made at Candia, early Saturday morning, upon Jefferson Healy, a man seventy-five years of age, by an unknown man whom Mr Healy detected in his room. The assassin fired a revolver at Mr. Healy, putting him near the right temple, and then fled, enjoying the stove on his way to the door, and running against a pump outside, breaking off the handle. Mr. Healey's wound is not thought to be dangerous.

Lowell, Mass., has a New Hampshire Veteran Association numbering one hundred and fifty men, and representing various military organizations during the rebellion. The association will give a ball at Huntington hall, Lowell, on Wednesday evening, April 14th. Gov. Head and his staff, and many prominent military men from New Hampshire, are to be present. This association has secured an eligible site for a summer house at the Weirs, on land belonging to the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroad company, and will commence work on it as soon as the weather will permit. It is to be 40x25 feet on the ground, two stories in height, with a wide piazza running the full length of the front.

Fashionable Fancies.

The new laces have a dark mud-tint.

Oriental designs are the reigning crazes this season.

Mantles of black satin de Lyon are among the new spring wraps.

Flower bonnets are to be more than ever popular for receptions and for wear to theatre and opera.

Chinese hats of red, embroidered in chenille or in gay crewels, will be popular as shade hats for the seaside.

The new ribbons show Oriental, Persian and Japanese designs and colors.

The new jet beads are hollow, else their weight would be insupportable.

Gray and purple are much used together in brocades and in the different materials of a costume.

Two bouquets to match are sold for dinner toilets—are to be worn in the hair, the other in the corsage.

Hand-painted decoration for sun umbrellas takes the form of flowers covering one gore with the tendrils of a fine vine branching from one side of it and bordering the other gores.

The favorite fabric for summer coats for small children is white corduroy, i. e., fancifully figured corduroy.

The crowns of many bonnets are a mass of Roman pearl, jet or cashmere, in which gold and gay colors are intermingled.

Languedoc is a half red lace, similar to Breton, but with designs resembling more old English or Devonshire laces.

A favorite and very becoming fashion is a floy bouquet fastened under the brim of poke bonnets or Gainsborough hats.

The new Languedoc lace seems to belong exclusively to blondes, as few brunettes have complexions so clear as to be able to defy the yellow tinge of this lace. But to blondes it is exceedingly becoming.

Habits of velvet or satin overdresses of tulle or of silk covered with lace will be worn. These habits are cut almost precisely like the masculine frock coat but have no sleeves whatever, only a row of narrow white lace gathered around the arm hole.

China crape scarfs large enough for mauties are shown covered with embroidery. The palest rose, cream and blue are shown in these mauties, and the embroidery is in gay colors representing natural flowers and foliage done in long stitch of India needle work.

"Old Reliable."

There are many reputed remedies for that very prevalent disease, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, but none which have given general satisfaction and become acknowledged standard preparations, except Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It continues to enjoy an unprecedented popularity. This reputation has been carried through the permanent cures which it has wrought, having proved itself a specific in the worst forms of disease. In fact so reliable is it that its former proprietor offered through all the newspapers of the land a reward of $500 for a case of catarrh that it would not cure. Sold by druggists.

—"Lie? well, I guess he does lie," said his neighbor. "Why, he's so fond of lying that he won't let a clock strike right in his house."

Physicians use Kidney-Wort in regular practice and pronounce its action perfect.

—The mysterious box of jewelry, which has been in the vault of the government treasury at Washington for over thirty years, has just had its annual dusting and examination. Nobody knows how it came there, though Secretary McCulloch expressed the opinion, in a report to congress, that it was part of the proceeds of a robbery at the patent office. The contents include several hundred small pearls and diamonds, and two lumps of gold, all worth about $3,000.

"The best cough medicine in the world." The Old Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. Cutler Bros. & Co., Boston. Small reduced to 35c; large, $1. eod&wtuaw

—Albany girls stand no fooling. One of them was to have been married a day or two since, and the girl was all ready, the minister on hand, and the feast spread, but still no bridegroom. "I'll wait for him just ten minutes," said the girl, "and then I'm open to proposals." Ten minutes flew like wind, and a little red-haired fellow, with a paper collar, and his trowsers all frilled at the bottom, stepped up, proposed, was accepted, married and scooped in the banquet.

Isaac Watts was a Little Man.

He said jocosely to six lads, quizzing friends who asked how he felt among so many men, "that he was a sixpence among six pennies, worth them all." SOZODONT is just so; there may be many preparations for the teeth, but it is worth them all.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

REV. SYLVANUS COBB jun. writes to the Boston Ch ist n Pioneer:—We can honestly recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be a humbug—particularly for infants. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and to parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as bright as a button. And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard it said that they would not be without it, from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any considerations whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 5

See a Woman!

In another column, photograph groups for SPERRY'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to European or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City. D&W3m51

AROUND HOME.

Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty troupe at Music hall to-night.

The flag was flying over the city building, Saturday, in honor of the city's victory in the railroad war.

A large flock of wild geese passed over this city Saturday afternoon, several hours before the storm commenced, going south.

A grand masquerade assembly, under the management of Union Rebekah Degree Lodge, comes off in Odd Fellows' hall to-morrow evening. See advertisement.

Ship Paul Jones, of this port, Gerrish master, sailed from Boston for New York on Friday in tow of steam tug C. M. Winch, and passed out by Cape Cod light at 1:40 o'clock P. M.

There was a special session of the board of mayor and aldermen, Saturday evening, but the matter which they were called to consider having been adjusted, no business was done.

We have received from G. Harrison Jenness, Esq., of Rye, assistant engrossing clerk of the national house of representatives, a copy of the new standing rules of the house, adopted March 2d.

The Kearsarge mills of this city turned off last week 104,959 1-4 yards of sateens, twenty-eight inches wide, and 9,620 1-2 yards of sebisia, thirty-nine inches wide, making a total of 114,579 3-4 yards.

The Dover Democrat says that one day last week "a young lady who operates a riveting machine in Strong & Burt's shoe factory riveted four hundred and twenty pairs of shoes in fifty-seven minutes,"—a little over four seconds to a shoe.

The schooner Gov. Goodwin, Capt. Doane, and the Daniel Marcy, Capt. Nickerson, of Mr. Valentine Doane's fishing fleet, were all ready to start on a southern mackereling trip, Saturday afternoon, and would have sailed but for the storm.

George H. Hall, the young man arrested on suspicion of having set the fire in the Kimball house stable at Dover on Wednesday of last week, was before the police court on Friday, and acquitted, there being no evidence offered tending to show that he was guilty of any offence.

The statement made that Mr. Charles A. Shannon has been made foreman painter in the engineering department at the navy yard, is not strictly correct, Mr. Shannon having merely been temporarily transferred from the department of construction and repair to the equipment department.

Sir Knight Joseph Hilbreth, Grand Eminent Commander of Knights Templar of the state of New Hampshire, will make an official visit to De Witt Clinton commandery of this city, this evening, accompanied by the officers of the Grand Commandery and other distinguished Templars.

Unique lodge, I. O. of S., of Newcastle, held their annual election of officers on Friday evening last, and made choice of the following: Grand chief, Benjamin F. Curtis; vice grand chief, Jesse O. White; treasurer, Charles W. Neal; permanent secretary, Charles W. Cole; recording secretary, J. Q. A. Marvin. The officers will be installed Friday evening.

The horse of Mr. Alfred T. Joy, living on Packer's Falls road in Newmarket, was stolen from the stable on Monday night of last week. Deputy Sheriff Smart obtained a clue to the thief, and followed him so closely that he was forced to leave the horse near the Northwood poor farm, where he was recovered. The supposed thief is a fellow who has been hanging around Newmarket all winter, going under the names of Young, Armstrong, Davis, etc.

William Foster, father of Mattie Foster, the young girl who recently died in Chelsea, Mass., as is alleged from an illegal surgical operation, has been at work in this city, and went up to Chelsea on Wednesday of last week to attend the unfortunate girl's funeral. John G. Nichols, a young man to whom Miss Foster was engaged to be married, and Dr. H. L. Leach, both of Chelsea, are under arrest for committing the crime, Nichols being held in $5000, and the "doctor" in $10,000. Both are in jail, in default of bail.

The dust blew along the streets in clouds, Saturday forenoon; Sunday forenoon the sleighs were out.

The alarm of fire Sunday evening was caused by the burning of a barn at Freeman's point, owned by Edward Bean.

There were special Easter services at several of the churches on Sunday, the Episcopal and Catholic taking the lead, of course; and the floral displays were more elaborate and extensive than for some years.

George H. Greeley's grocery store, in Newmarket, was broken into a few nights ago, but the thieves stole only a hatchet, so far as the proprietor of the store has discovered. The money drawer and safe were bursted open, but there was no money in either, Mr. Greeley having learned wisdom from experience, his store having been broken into before.

We are informed that B. F. Webster, Esq., proposes to reach his new house on "Rundlett's mountain"—one of the largest, handsomest and best-built structures in the city, and in the most sightly location—by a flight of marble steps, and that he has contracted with Mr. John S. Trent, the well-known stone and marble worker, to furnish the steps and buttresses. Owing to the elevated position of the house the flight of seventeen steps required to reach the front door will make a very handsome show, and add much to the finished appearance of the building. We have often wondered why the owners of some of the attractive and costly residences in this city have not added to their beauty by the adoption of marble steps, which with a very little care always look clean, neat and new; and that Mr. Webster has done so is evidence of his good taste and judgment. His new house, when finished, will be an ornament to the city.

The ladies of the Universalist society will have an oyster supper in their vestry, Wednesday evening, March 31st, from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. An interesting stage entertainment, consisting of the drama "Once on a Time," and vocal and instrumental music, will be given immediately after the supper. Tickets of admission, 15 cents. Supper tickets, 25 cents.

THE RESULT.

The award of the referees in the litigation between the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, upon the one side, and the Eastern railroad company upon the other, is as was expected by every one cognizant with the history of the case, or who listened to the able opening of Mr. Frink, one of the counsel for the Dover road. Indeed, it would seem that the payment of other rentals under protest, and the resistance of this payment until suit was brought for its recovery, were simply acts on the part of the managers of the Eastern to obtain a judicial decision which might ever protect them in the payment required.

With this submission, and the judgment thereon, it would seem that all questions as to the validity of the lease, the amount of rental,—indeed, as to the certainty of the future dividends of the Portsmouth & Dover road,—were now fully determined; and as the loss to the Eastern by any default of payment would be almost incalculable, and the business of the Portsmouth & Dover road is of great and constantly increasing value, the liability of the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire and the fact that this rent must be paid before the Eastern pays its bondholders their interest, would seem to assure the shareholders of the Portsmouth & Dover that there is no possible hazard of future dividends being promptly paid.

We are glad the controversy is over, and the disposal of the question is worth all its litigation has cost, when we consider its healthful results. The referees "find that the amount of capital stock of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad upon which its stockholders are entitled to receive as rent a semi-annual dividend of three per cent up to January 1, 1880, is seven hundred and fifty-seven thousand, eight hundred dollars, ($757,800,) and we have accordingly reported in the suit at law now pending that the Portsmouth & Dover railroad is entitled to recover of the Eastern R. R., in N. H. as rent for the six months ending June 30, 1879, the sum of $22,734.00, and interest from July 1, 1879."

They also find that "this amount of capital stock includes the sum of $752,326.06 actually expended in the construction of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad, and the sum of $5,473.94 now in the hands of the treasurer reserved to be expended and applied in payment of an undisputed claim of George W. Benn for land damages; and upon improvements in depot buildings upon the line of the road as hereto fore agreed by the parties; and we find this sum should be regarded as part of the construction account."

The referees further find that upon the claim of the Eastern Railroad Co. for labor and materials furnished by them in the construction of said Portsmouth & Dover railroad, amounting to $13,231.72 not heretofore adjusted by said parties, submitted to them by the supplementary agreement dated March 25th, 1880, there is due the sum of $11,200; which being added to the sum previously determined by the parties, makes the total cost of construction of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad at the present time to be $769,000, and they "award that the stockholders of said Portsmouth & Dover railroad are entitled to receive three per cent semi-annually upon the sum of $769,000 as rent of their railroad from and after January 1st, 1880." They "further award that the said Eastern Railroad Co. recover of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad the sum of $11,200 upon their aforesaid claim of $13,231.72."

The referees' fees are taxed at $300, to be paid by the Eastern Railroad Co.

POLICE COURT.

There was one sinner before the police court on Saturday,—the first and only one for the whole week. His name is James Palmer, and he was taken in on two complaints, the first charge being that he did surround more liquor than he could properly take care of, and the other that he assaulted some one. He was adjudged guilty on both charges, fines and costs amounting to $15.44, which he paid and departed.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

It is reported that Mr. Frank Marr of Kittery has purchased the steam launch Little May, and will put her in the passenger carrying business between this city and Kittery.

Miss Dora Rogers, of Kittery, has accepted an appointment in the normal school of the District of Columbia. Miss Rogers has been teaching in Cape Neddick, Me., for the past two or three years, with marked success.

An Admirable Medicinal Wine.

The most certain way to get the finest wine for medical use is to procure Speer's Sambucus Wine, which is beyond doubt the purest and most admirable we have ever tasted. It is rich, nourishing and superior for general debility, female weakness, dysentery and consumption, and at the same time entirely free from any sort of spirit.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggist and H. F. Gerrish grocer.

—There is a pretty girl who serves as cashier at a New York millinery establishment, who is more depictured than any other woman in the country. The concern furnishes the millinery pictures to a number of leading fashion papers, and they are made by photographing the various styles on the head of this young woman. She has a negative face, with small, regular features, pretty, commonplace and expressionless, just the thing to go with any possible combination of coiffures.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait. —Burlington Hawkeye.

—A young woman from Springfield, who is teaching the Indians at Hampton, Virginia, was recently drilling a company of girls on the hymn, "Yield not to temptation," and trying to explain to them the meaning of the words. Some time after the class was dismissed a pupil came to her and said, "Me victory," meaning that she had gained a victory. Being asked to explain, she said, "Indian girl, she big temptation to me; I meet her; I fight her." More intelligent Christians often have equally convenient ways of interpreting truth.

Why Wear Plasters?

They may relieve, but they can't cure that lame back, for the kidneys are the trouble and you want a remedy to act directly on their functions, to purify and restore their healthy condition. Kidney Wort has that specific action—and at the same time it regulates the bowels perfectly. Don't wait to get sick, but get a package to-day, and cure yourself.

—A woman disappeared from Reading, Penn., leaving the following note behind her: "My Dear Husband: I left in peace and joy. My body will be found by some one. Show this to mother, and give my love and a kiss to all. The lost shall be found, and the dead rise. I will meet you all again. I had to do this, but dear Lew, I had no ill feeling against you." Dear Lew was greatly grieved until he found out that his dear wife was alive and well with another man in Philadelphia.

Women that have been pronounced incurable by best physicians in the country, have been completely cured of female weakness by the use of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—The bangs on a lady's brow are better than a barometer. In wet weather they straighten down; in dry weather they frizzle up.

The use of Malt Bitters increases the flesh and prevents pulmonary or wasting diseases —Never cry over spilt milk. Ten to one there's water enough in it already.

I would say to my friends, and all who chance to read this, that I have used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam in my family for a long time, and consider it a very valuable medicine. It cures when all other remedies fail, and I would cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with cough, colds, asthma, etc.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. A. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

Price, $1.50 per Bottle, six for $8.00.

Feeling the Cat.

Window glass is a terrible perplexity to the animal creation. The murmurs of natural-born cussedness emits whenever it goes head-first against a pane of it is familiar to all. But perhaps the most tormented creature is a friendly cat on one side of the glass with a hand pretending to stroke Tabby's back on the other side. The cat's back will arch in the customary attitude of such occasions and a faint purr suddenly interrupted by surprise at the absence of sensation along the fur, is heard. She turns and tries it the other way, but in vain. Her philosophy is not equal to the occasion, and she goes off in despair. What can a sensible going animal think of men's "new-fangled notions?"

—A Stillwater, N.Y., justice has been detected swearing in witnesses on an abridged dictionary, and adds insult to injury by expressing his belief that witnesses tell the truth just as well as they every did.

—John M. Hamilton owned a promising mine at Leadville, and J. D. Patton had a handsome wife. They lived in the same boarding-house. Patton wanted Hamilton's mine, but could not pay the price demanded. At length Hamilton said, "I'll give the mine for your wife." The offer was discussed in fun at first, and then seriously. Patton talked the matter over with his wife. They had been married for several years, and had lived peaceably together, but were not especially congenial. Mrs. Patton confessed, too, that she had a high regard for Hamilton, and would not object to the trade, which was thereupon perfected. The ownership of the mine was formally transferred to Patton, and the woman to Hamilton, who, as soon as a divorce can be procured, is to marry her.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear invalids of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.—Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

Gipsies hats will be worn far back on the head, the front projecting poke shape, and the sides turned down.

Because composed of malt and hops, without fermentation, Malt Bitters are popular.

KIDNEY-WORT

PERMANENTLY CURES KIDNEY DISEASES, LIVER COMPLAINTS, Constipation and Piles.

DR. E. R. CLARK, South Hero, Vt., says: "In cases of KIDNEY TROUBLES it has acted like a charm. It has cured many very bad cases of PILES, and has never failed in any instance."

NELSON FAIRCHILD, of St. Albans, Vt., says: "It is of priceless value. After suffering years of great suffering from Piles and Costiveness it completely cured me."

G. S. HOGABON, of Pittsburg, says: "One package has done wonders for me in completely curing a severe Liver and Kidney Complaint."

IT HAS WONDERFUL POWER. WHY? BECAUSE IT ACTS ON THE LIVER, THE BOWELS AND KIDNEYS AT THE SAME TIME.

Because it cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develope in Kidney and Urinary diseases, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation, Piles, or in Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Female disorders.

KIDNEY-WORT is a dry vegetable compound and can be sent by mail prepaid.

One package will make six qts of medicine.

Cuticura REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgments of what might be called mir culous cures. Messrs. Weeks & Potter exceed their thanks to all who have spoken a good word for CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and will the kindly receive reports of new cases whenever they may occur.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, I gladly acknowledge the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I voluntarily make the following statement:—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My legs were as black and shapeless as Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it with all the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large gums would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving the perfectly cured. I used the CUTICURA five months and took the RESOLVENT most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the RESOLVENT a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system.

Very gratefully yours,

MRS. ASA R. BROWN.

MALDEN, MASS., Oct. 15, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well-known Attorney.

EDITOR NEW ORLEANS PICAYUNE: Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin, which the doctors call by various names, but which is generally known by the name of eczema, or Salt Rheum. The period at place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

Attempts the disease threaten d to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington, and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of CUTICURA, for eczema, or well-known druggist, MR. TORK, and resolved to try it. I purchased a dollar-and-a-half box, and since it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure.

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of CUTICURA, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity. Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

38 Camp St., New Orleans, Dec. 25, 1878.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake, by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes 75 cents.

KNOW THYSELF.

The untold miseries that result from indiscretions in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth, or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail postpaid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

THE BEST REMEDY

FOR

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to rely with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. "Whooping-cough and Consumption, there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

News and Notes.

One report published Monday morning from South America says the Chilians have made an important advance and occupied an important town without opposition. Another report says the Chilians were defeated at the same point with a loss of 1,300 men.

A San Andreas, Texas, despatch says two Mexicans, Noriega and Urbano, were found shot to death near the town Saturday. Noriega was a well known desperado of the county, having killed four men. There is no clue to the murderer.

Schooner West Wind, of Philadelphia, went ashore on Nantucket Sunday. Her papers were found on board, but nothing was known as to the fate of the crew.

The contract for the new mill to be built by the Ocean mill proprietors at Newburyport, Mass., was on Saturday awarded to Hon. Albert Currier of that city. The work will be pushed through as rapidly as circumstances will allow. Mr. Currier has built some of the most costly and substantial buildings in the state.

Connecticut has two murderers awaiting execution. Hamlin, who with Allen murdered a prison watchman, and Edwin Hoyt, who murdered his father. Hamlin, who is to be hanged at Hartford on the 28th of May, keeps up his courage well, and writes bad poetry. Hoyt is to be hanged May 13th.

Edward Tatro, who murdered Mrs. Butler of Highgate, Vt., in 1876, is to be hanged in Windsor prison on Friday. He is only twenty-two years old, is much broken down and shows very little courage. He has made a statement which will be published after the hanging.

At Milton, Vt., Saturday morning, Phillip Pippin, who had been at a party and was overcome by drink, laid down on the railway track on his way home, and was run over by a freight train. Both legs were cut off, his arms broken, and his face crushed in. He was twenty-seven years old, and unmarried.

Joseph Mason, of Milton, Vt., was abandoned by his wife, who went to live at a neighbor's. On Friday last Mason unsuccessfully attempted to persuade her to return. Upon leaving the house, he shot himself in the left temple. He walked half a mile to a neighbor's, and became unconscious, and died Saturday morning. He was twenty-seven years old.

New Hampshire Items.

A horse belonging to Homer Woodman ran away down a hill in Northwood, Sunday, and collided with other teams. Joseph Woodman was fatally hurt, and several other persons were badly injured.

Lucian P. Flanders of Webster was held in the police court at Concord, Saturday, upon a charge of felonious assault upon a little girl nine years of age, daughter of John C. Morrison. The scoundrel fled to the woods when detected, but was subsequently arrested and fully identified by the child. The greatest excitement prevailed, and threats of lynching were freely uttered. He will be tried at the April term of court.

A London despatch, dated March 27th, says the Enterprise has arrived at Gibraltar.

The Nipsic dropped down to the naval anchorage from Portsmouth, Va., on Thursday last, for the purpose of taking in her powder.

The Mayflower Mine.

The following letter from the superintendent of the Mayflower Consolidated Gold & Silver Mining Co. to the president of the company, explains itself:

IDAHO SPRINGS, Colorado, Mar. 13, '80.

Grinnell Burt, Esq., President, 161 Broadway, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Since my arrival here I have made a careful examination of our company's property. The supposed new ledge has proved so far to be the Mayflower. The vein is fully twenty-two feet wide of quartz matter, with stringers of mineral all through it, which indicates a near approach to a large body of ore. We have suspended the sinking of the Berry's shaft temporarily on account of the difficulty of running, at the same time, the level toward the winze, which is very important to do as fast as possible. The whole face of the level has miners dispersed all through the rock. As soon as the connection is made between Berry's shaft and the winze there will be an outlet for all the ore that is now practically opened, and it will facilitate the working of the mine with advantage and economy. It will take about ninety days to make this connection, working both ways, from the shaft and winze. There are large bodies of ore exposed through all the working of the winze. The ore cannot be mined and hoisted out of the winze advantageously on account of its great depth, until the connection is made with the main shaft. Besides this there must be arrehouses put up with jiggers, and with hot and cold water in order properly to wash and sort the dirty ores. On account of the extreme cold weather it is a matter of impossibility to sort our ores without so arrangement of this kind, or even to make a shipment of ore. The Hurlbut Co., alongside of us, have gone to great expense in putting up sorting houses with hot and cold water, so that they might properly wash and sort their ores. The expenses of February month were $2680.-65. The mine is now in splendid condition, and from its present outlook it promises to be one of the leading mines of this state. Yours Respectfully,

GEO. BERRY, Supt.

THE BIDDEFORD RUM-TRAFFIC.

The Boston Post, in answer to an item of ours concerning the superabundance of liquor saloons in Biddeford for a year past, says:

The Portsmouth CHRONICLE charges the existence of so many rum shops in Biddeford to the Judonist party. The fact is that nearly all the dealers vote the republican ticket in order to secure protection. The high sheriff is a republican, and so are quite a number of his deputies. Some of the new republican policemen in Biddeford are rum sellers.

Possibly the Post may be correct in these statements; but we don't believe it is. At the meeting of the city councils of Biddeford, March 22d, the following was passed in concurrence:

Ordered, that the city marshal and all police officers under his direction are hereby instructed to use the utmost diligence to detect and cause to be brought to trial all dealers and persons trafficking in intoxicating liquors, whether malt or distilled; also to enforce the law relating to the ownership or occupying of buildings used or occupied for the sale of intoxicants.

And the next day the following notice "To whom it may concern," signed "Geo. R. Andrews, city marshal," was published in the Biddeford daily paper:

All persons engaged in the sale of intoxicating liquors, wines, ales, porter, strong beer, lager beer, etc., are hereby notified that from and after this date I shall, together with the officers under me, enforce the laws as enacted by the state. You are hereby notified to give up such business. Take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly, as this is the only notice you will receive from me.

We suspect that the Post gets its information about the liquor traffic in Biddeford from the same veracious authority who sent us dispatches from that city to the Boston Globe during the late counting-out campaign in Maine.

The Biddeford Times of a recent date thus lamenteth: "The city is awful quiet since the new police came in. Only one arrest. We don't get half so much news as we did from the other force, because they would give us some news even if they had to do something themselves for us to write about." We judge from this that none of the new force have yet been arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain, "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. 4 other

"Old Reliable."

There are many reputed remedies for that very prevalent disease, Chronic Nasal Catarrh, but none which have given general satisfaction and become acknowledged standard preparations, except Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It continues to enjoy an unprecedented popularity. This reputation has been earned through the permanent cures which it has wrought, having proved itself a specific in the worst forms of disease. In fact so reliable is it that its former proprietor offered through all the newspapers of the land a reward of $500 for a case of catarrh that it would not cure. Sold by druggists.

—A western news paragraph: "The matrimonial boom is immense in the suburbs. One east-side dealer has sold a cook-stove a day for the last two weeks, in each instance to a newly married couple from the country."

An Admirable Medicinal Wine.

The most certain way to get the finest wine for medical use is to purchase Speer's Sambuci Wine, which is beyond doubt the purest and most admirable we have ever tasted. It is rich, nourishing and superior for general debility, female weakness, dysentery and consumption, and at the same time entirely free from any sort of spirit.

—A Boston joker says: "There is nothing contagious about a horse-car. They are generally hard to catch."

I would say to my friends, and all who chance to read this, that I have used Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam in my family for a long time, and consider it a very valuable medicine. It cures when all other remedies fail, and I would cheerfully recommend it to those afflicted with cough, colds, asthma, etc.

E. S. GETCHELL, Augusta, Maine.

—A contemporary says: "Ice will be ice this summer." Persons who labored under the impression that ice would be soft soap, or lumber or codfish, will be gratified to learn that it will be ice and nothing else.—Brooklyn Union-Argus.

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day,

WASHINGTON, March 30, 1:30 A. M.

Clear or partly cloudy weather, north east to north west winds, stationary or higher temperature and barometer.

AROUND HOME.

The Swampscott Machine Co. have declared a dividend of two per cent, payable April 1st.

Mr. James B. Rand, for many years station agent of the Eastern railroad at Greenlaad, died in that town on Sunday.

Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows, and their ladies, are to have a basket picnic party at Odd Fellows hall on Thursday evening.

Sunday had the highest tide of the season. Water got into the basement of the city mills, Elm street, to the height of about ten inches.

Grand masquerade assembly at Odd Fellows hall this evening, under the management of Union Rebekah Degree Lodge. See advertisement.

The secretary of state gives notice that there will be a hearing before the governor and council, on Friday, April 9th, on the petition for the pardon of Thomas E. Drake, the liquor spotter.

By the fire at Freeman's point, Sunday evening, Mr. Edward C. Bean lost one ox, a lot of farming tools, and a considerable quantity of hay. The other stock in the barn was rescued. The origin of the fire is unknown. Insurance $200.

Mr. John Albee commences this Tuesday evening a course of five lectures at the chapel of the Church of the Messiah in New York. His subjects are Hawthorne, with a review of H. James, Jr.'s biographical essay, Chaucer, Milton, and domestic life.

Gen. Clarke, of the internal revenue office, has lately submitted reports in regard to the condition of the offices of collectors of internal revenue in New England, reporting them all in excellent order except those at Dover, N. H., and North Adams, Mass.

The Lynn Item, in a report of the wedding anniversary of Mr. John E. Graham of Salem, says that "Arthur N. Goodrich, of Lynn, on the part of Mrs. Graham, presented her husband with an elegant amethyst ring, set with three diamonds." Mr. Goodrich is a native of this city.

The ladies of the Universalist society will have an oyster supper in their vestry, Wednesday evening, March 31st., from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. An interesting stage entertainment, consisting of the drama "Once on a Time," and vocal and instrumental music, will be given immediately after the supper. Tickets of admission, 15 cents. Supper tickets, 25 cents.

Capt. G. Frank Towle, 19th Infantry, U. S. A., has recently made a journey on public business from Baxter Springs, Kansas, to Fort Scott, Parsons, Chanute and Coffeyville, and return. First Lieut. Fred L. Dodge, 23d Infantry, was detailed for general court martial duty at the military prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, by an order dated March 27th.

The "dumb supper" literary and musical entertainment to be given at Grange hall Wednesday evening, March 31st, by Strawberry Encampment, I. O. G. T., is to be the attraction to all who would enjoy themselves on that evening. Hon. M. Bufford, judge, and S. W. Clarke and C. T. Wiggin, referees, are to sit in judgment at the supper table. Tickets, including supper, fifteen cents.

The Boston Herald of Sunday gives a hard character to Charles Wesley Seaward, the man who recently deluded so many sharp Boston merchants into trusting him with valuable articles of furniture, which he has not paid for, but has spirited away. The Herald says he was born in this city, and learned the trade of a paper-hanger, and goes on to make him out a wholesale burglar, incendiary, "putter-up of jobs" of stealing and swindling for other men to do, confidence man, and scamp generally. The Herald writer credits Seaward with possessing a magnificent stock of cool "cheek," which indeed he must possess to have escaped all punishment for his misdeeds, assuming that he has been guilty of only a quarter of those charged to his account by the Herald.

THE CLOSE OF THE ROCKINGHAM COURSE.

After we have observed the governor's fast we shall have abundant opportunity for recreation in "seeing Warren," who appears at Music hall on Friday evening, 9th of April, in conjunction with the stock company of the Boston museum, which includes Mr. Chas. Barron, Miss Annie Clark, Miss May Davenport, and others not strangers to our readers. A new comedietta, entitled the Spark, is to be given.

Mr. Warren needs no words of commendation from our pen. Known to the audience which will delight to welcome his appearance at Music hall, it is but a re-enjoyment of pleasure with which many of us have been familiar upon frequent former occasions. Mr. Warren is uniformly excellent. With his customary make-up, his entrance, with his seriocomic visage, is not a signal for spasmodic, intermittent applause, but for deep, hearty, continuous, mirthful enjoyment. How admirably Mr. Warren looks and acts his part! We never admit that he has even done better than on the last occasion we witness his acting. How much he has done for the enjoyment of all New England during his long connection with the museum!

Mr. Barron is one of those accomplished actors who always seems to be perfectly natural in each part he assumes. It is a pleasure to witness his acting, because it comes so near the real life.

The ladies who appear upon this occasion, will be sure of a hearty welcome; and indeed the entire company, however frequently seen, are always enjoyed with undiminished zest.

This entertainment concludes the list upon the programme, of the Rockingham Course for this season. The best, reserved for the last, has been postponed until this late day, by reason of the other imperative engagements of the company. Let us hope that the efforts of Capt. Hill ton to give us an evening of so much enjoyment will be met with deserved encouragement.

POSSIBLE STEAMBOAT LINES.

The Newburyport Herald says that the establishment of a steamer line between the Merrimac river and Boston is only a question of time. It is also a question of money. Freighters will urge this opposition to the railroads, and let the steamboat company stand the loss.

It is also said that we are to have the attempt made to establish a line of steamers between Portsmouth and Boston, touching at the Shoals, and to carry freight and connect with a line to Dover. The Dover passenger business principally goes over the Boston & Maine railroad, and always will until the Eastern has a decent station in that city and runs trains through with close connections. If a steamer is put on, it will do a good business in the summer; but business travel will go by rail, from whatever point, and the experiment of running freight boats at points less than a hundred miles from Boston has not been crowned with success.

ANOTHER RAILROAD LAW-SUIT.

Messrs. G. S. Locke & Co., of Concord, coal dealers, have brought suit against the Concord railroad corporation to recover money alleged to have been paid by them for freight of coal from Portsmouth to Concord in excess of the legal charge for such service. The plaintiffs allege that the act of the legislature of 1861, by which some changes in the route of the road were authorized, provided that there should be no advance in the published freight and passenger tariffs as then established; that the charge for freight of coal was then $1.50 a ton from Portsmouth to Concord, and that no higher charge was made even on small quantities. The plaintiffs began business as partners in the coal line in 1871, ten years subsequent to the passage of the act, and they claim to have paid the defendant corporation $2 and sometimes $3 a ton freight on the coal shipped to them from Portsmouth at different times, being in all an excess of $5,213.13, with interest thereon, amounting to about $6,000 over and above the sum to which it is claimed the defendants are legally entitled at $1.50 per ton, to recover which, alleged excess suit is brought.

The defendant road claims that Locke & Co. misapprehend the facts as to the freight tariff—that the line of the road has since 1861 been extended to the wharf in Portsmouth, and that the place of business of Locke & Co. is on the Northern railroad and above the terminus of the Concord road—and that additional charges may be made for those terminal facilities, and that the rates were not excessive nor illegal.

A hearing of the case began at Concord last Saturday forenoon before Judge J. G. Bellows, as auditor of the court to hear and report the facts. It was shown that in a few instances coal has been transported from Portsmouth to Concord at $1.50 a ton, but in those cases there were charges for wharfage, etc., and the officers of the corporation assert that no such law table of rates as is referred to by plaintiffs has been proved. Several witnesses have been called, and the hearing postponed to the 8th of April.

It is understood that if the plaintiffs can recover there are others who will make similar claims on the corporation.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH MEETING.

At the annual parish meeting of St. John's church, held on Easter Monday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Wardens, John Hatch, David B. Macomb; vestrymen, Albert R. Hatch, Lyman D. Spalding, Christopher C. Jackson, John Christie, Washington Freeman, Daniel L. Stover, John H. Slater, Alfred O. Larkin, A. E. Watson; parish clerk, Wm. C. Robinson; treasurer, Robert C. Peirce; auditors, Wm. R. Martin, John R. Reding; delegates to diocesan convention, John Christie, Lyman D. Spalding, John Hatch, Christopher C. Jackson.

MASONIC VISIT.

De Witt Clinton Commandry of Knights Templar, of this city, was on Monday evening officially visited by Right Eminent Grand Commander Hildreth, and other grand officers of the state. After the exemplification of the work the commandry and visitors adjourned to the banquet hall, where a collation was partaken of, followed by speeches, sentiments, etc. Among the distinguished visitors present were the following officers of the Grand Commandry of New Hampshire:

Sir Joseph W. Hildreth, R. E. G. C.;
Sir B. F. Rackley, V. E. D. G. C.;
Sir N. P. Hunt, E. G. Gen.;
Sir J. W. Fellows, E. G. C. G.;
Sir Joseph Kidder, E. G. P.;
Sir M. A. Taylor, E. G. S. W.;
Sir Andrew Bunton, E. G. J. W.;
Sir Charles Holman, E. G. T.;
Sir A. H. Weston, E. G. R.;
Sir E. P. Sherburn, E. G. S. B.;
Sir J. F. Webster, E. G. W.

Besides these were there Sir Chas. M. Towle, E. C., and Sir Chas. A. Danforth, C. G., of Mt. Horeb Commandry, of Concord; Sir John K. Piper, C. G., of Trinity Commandry, of Manchester; and Sir J. H. Stevenson, Gen., of Boston Commandry of Boston, Mass.

BOW MISSION SERVICES.

At the Band of Hope service, Saturday afternoon, several ladies made interesting addresses to the children, as did also a naval officer from the navy yard.

The gospel temperance meeting, Saturday evening, was unusually interesting, the hall being crowded. Mrs. B. F. Thorndike presided. During the evening Mr. James Janvrin was presented with a beautiful copy of the new testament, the occasion being the 4th anniversary of his signing the pledge; Mrs. Thorndike made the presentation speech in a very pleasing manner, and in response Mr. Janvrin commended the ladies for their devotion to temperance work and the cause of humanity, which "is the cause of God." But the speech of the evening was made by Mr. Charles W. Gardner, who spoke of the character of Mr. Janvrin as a representative man in the reform work, and of the manner in which he has conducted himself in connection with the cause of temperance. Remarks were made by several friends, and Miss Saida Paul read "Old Huldah; or, the fisherman of Marblehead," finely and to general acceptance. Mrs. Watts, in behalf of the Woman's League, presented City Missionary Loyne with a beautiful dressing gown, silk handkerchief and neck-tie, it being his 33d birthday. At the close of the meeting two young men signed the pledge.

The bethel service, Sunday afternoon, was held in Music hall, Mr. Waite lecturing; on account of the storm the attendance was smaller than was looked for.

The reform club meeting at the mission hall was disturbed by the alarm of fire, yet a goodly number remained and a spirited meeting was had. L.

ELIOT TOWN ELECTION.

At the annual town meeting in Eliot, Monday, the following officers were elected:

Town clerk, George C. Ireland; selectmen, etc., Samuel E. Cole, George C. Ireland, C. Melville Raitt; agent, Alexander Junkins; collector, Samuel Clark; treasurer, Charles A. Shapleigh; supervisor of schools, John L. M. Willis; constable, James M. Raitt; auditors, Daniel L. Brooks, George H. Briggs.

It was voted to build a new town house, and to appropriate $1000 for that purpose.

KITTERY TOWN MEETING.

At the town meeting held in Kittery on Monday, Calvin H. Hayes was chosen moderator. The following officers were elected:

Town clerk, Dennis M. Shapleigh; selectmen, assessors and overseers of the poor, James R. Philbrick, Franklin H. Bond, William A. Fernald; treasurer, Jesse E. Frisbee; agent, Moses A. Safford; superintending school committee, Harriet H. Shapleigh; health officer, Mark F. Wentworth; auditors, John Wentworth, Edward F. Safford; collector of taxes, Josiah W. Lewis; constables, Daniel H. Nason, Nicholas E. Spinney, Azariah L. Spinney, Thomas J. Billings, Cedric Laighton.

The town voted to exempt from taxation for ten years any new manufacturing enterprise employing twenty men and upwards that may be established in the town, and also fishing vessels and seines for the same period.

Voted to raise $500 for the high school.

THE "BOARDING SCHOOL."

Minnie Palmer's "Boarding School," which is to be given at Music hall on Thursday evening, April 1st, is a piece something after the "Tourists" and "Hobbies" style, brimful of innocent fun. Of Miss Palmer the Chicago Inter-Ocean says: "Miss Palmer is certainly a delightful little actress. An expressive, pretty face, bright eyes, a good figure, a voice of considerable power and good quality, grace as a dancer, and a jolly manner, are attributes which, coupled with intelligence, constitute the recognized claims of Miss Palmer upon the patronage of the public." The Cincinnati Times asserts that "A prettier little woman never sent the infection of her beauty through the boxes and gallery." Of the play the Philadelphia Record says: "Minnie's 'School' is one of those rollicking, noisy, laughable musical farces wherein the interest is not allowed to flag;" and the Rochester Democrat says "The fun is all clean and wholesome, and appeals with irresistible force to young and old." FISHERY NOTES.

The schooner Una, when hauling her trawls on Saturday, brought up a boat containing a foot, probably once belonging to a seaman engaged in the coasting trade.

The schooner Mary S. Hontvet arrived on Sunday, with 28,000 lbs. of fish, and reports heavy weather all the time she was out. This is her last trip to Georges, and she will now fit for the banks.

Several vessels of the shore fishing fleet arrived Sunday, all with light fares; about 20,000 lbs. would be the total. Most of the fleet that brought fish to this port during the winter have left, and are making preparation to go to the banks.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

A new church, fifty feet by thirty on the ground, is about to be built at Saco ferry. The foundation has been put in readiness.

On Monday we received a brief but pleasant call from L. W. Brewster, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Portsmouth (N. H.) Journal, one of the live republican organs in the Old Granite state. The Journal was established in 1763, and the father of the present proprietor, the author of "Rambles Around Portsmouth," an exceedingly interesting local history, was connected with the paper for fifty years. While here Mr. Brewster purchased an engine for his printing establishment of Mr. Currier of the Biddeford Machine Works.—Biddeford Times.

The sloop yacht No Name, owned by Capt. Sam. Pillsbury of Kittery, was floated and her mast stepped, sails bent and ballast stowed, last week. She is the first of the summer fleet of yachts to be gotten in readiness, so far as we have heard. The Mith, belonging to the same gentleman, and well known for her numerous victories on the river and her skipper's entire readiness to race with anything that comes along at any time and under any circumstances, has not yet been put into the water.

KITTERY, ME., March 29th.

During the winter term of the grammar school there entered it a young lady by the name of Augusta Rodman, who one week since was moving among her friends apparently in good health; but to-day all that remains on earth of this beautiful young lady was consigned to the silent tomb. She has been taken while a bud, ere she was permitted to bloom. Although our acquaintance with her was brief, yet we found her to be a willing and obedient pupil, a kind and loving schoolmate, and a favorite with all who knew her. We sympathize with her parents and relatives in their deep affliction, and would say to them "though you can never meet your dear daughter and sister here again, you have a promise

That beside the golden gate way,
Just be-ond time's swelling flood,
You shall find your darling waiting,
In the palace of our God."

The Promoter and Perfecter of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Why She Horsewhipped Him.

The confidence of a young woman in force is something that ought to be treated with great tenderness. A Wicked young man of Bethlehem, Pa., evidently didn't understand this, or he had no concern about it, for he did a most shameful thing the other day. He borrowed a dollar of his girl, bought a couple of tickets for the show with it, and took another girl. This outrageous conduct was discovered while the entertainment was in progress, and naturally created a good deal of excitement in the mind of the young woman whose dollar had gone to furnish an evening's diversion for another. She undertook to get even by meeting the couple after the show was over, and exerted herself as well as possible to give the young man a whipping on the sidewalk. She succeeded so well she is very confident he won't want to borrow any more of her money to take other girls to shows. The moral of this is that impecunious young men who must take their girls out had better try and raise the essential funds at an impartial pawn-shop.

Chain Yeats.

The chainmail vest which is said to have saved General Melikoff from Vladetski's bullet has for many gener tions past been a common article of wear with the leading personages of Europe, the most notable example being Oliver Cromwell, Gustavus of Sweden, the present Czar and Louis XVI. In the Middle Ages these chainmails were known as "Milliaresis," and greatly esteemed for the finness of their workmanship. A famous Italian guerrilla, who went into the battle of Ravenna furs equipped, was found dead with the links of his mail still unbroken, though the bones beneath it were completely shattered by the force of the death blow. A "bullet proof" vest of this kind was offered by a speculator to the Duke of Wellington, who got rid of him in very emphatic fashion. Holding the man point on, he called to the sentry, outside to load with ball cartridge and came up at once; but the victim's faith once in his invention did not apparently extend to the testing of it in his own person, for he took to his heels at once.—*N. The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing. From every quarter the testimony of the marvellous benefit and acknowledgments of what might be called miraculous cures. Messrs. SALT RHEUM ON BODY

And Limbs. Obliged to go to cut on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER, Gentlemen—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgment of the cure I have received from the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, I voluntarily make the following statement.—

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years. No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief. In fact, when I began the use of CUTICURA my limb was a raw and tender thing I could not bear my weight on it with all the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the CUTICURA in April and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large gum lumps would come to the surface, cause burning heat, inflammation, pain and intense itching, which, under the constant use of CUTICURA, would rapidly subside and heal up, and I

FOR

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the best known drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of the superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

SMITH'S MEDICATED PRUNES

LAXATIVE & CATHARTIC.

Pleasant to the taste. Effective without Griping.

CURE CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS AND LIVER TROUBLES.

They take the place of the nauseating and violent cathartics used to relieve Costiveness, Piles, and Inaction of the Liver. Portables, ready for use. REDUCED PRICE acts as a mild laxative in the hands of the effect of cathartic medicines or universal waters but without the nausea or griping. No bad effects follow repeated doses, like a cheap, cathartic pill without merit. For Children, half of a prune taken at bedtime acts like a charm. The medication is entirely vegetable and healthful. Physicians recommend them. Druggists keep them.

SHAKERS'

SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Gargel, Indian Hock and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.

It is as the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, unsurpassed by all and unequaled in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diatheses. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it exclusively in my practice for the past quarter of a century. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMO R, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humour, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weakness and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of here Fary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

From Kitchen to Throne.

We read of peculiar things happening in life, and a wise man should be surprised at nothing. In like manner a comely and modest woman has often a fortune in her face if she knows how beauty should become her. To wit: During the troubles in the reign of King Charles I., a country girl came up to London in search of a place as servant maid; but not succeeding she applied herself to carrying out beer from a brew-house, and was one of those then called tub-women. The brewer, observing a well-looking girl in this low occupation, took her into his family as a servant, and after a while; she behaving with so much prudence and decorum, he married her; he died while she was yet a young woman and left her a large fortune. The business of the brewery was dropped, and the young woman was recommended to Mr. Hyde as a gentleman of skill in the law to settle her affairs. Hyde (who was afterwards the great earl of Clarendon,) finding the widow's fortune considerable, married her. Of this marriage there was no other issue than a daughter, who was afterwards the wife of James II., and mother of Mary and Anne, queens of England.—Land and Water.

Brains Versus other things?

Homer was a beggar, but Rowell cleared $25,000 by one week's walk; Spencer died in want, but O'Leary made $5,000 off the late pedestrian contest; Cervantes died of hunger, but Courtney had only to beat Hanlan to make $6,000 and expenses. Tasso, the Italian poet, was often distressed for the want of a few shillings, but Kalloon, the mayor of San Francisco, netted $2,000 off his late reception. Milton sold his copyright of "Paradise Lost" for $75, but "Mi Grance father's Clock" has netted the author $20,000.—Ex.

—In a township up the Darling river there is a lively young Irish doctor. Bertie Campbell, the squatter, drove him out to the station to prescribe for his sick overseer. Going through a mob of cattle, said the doctor, "By George! that's an old fellow," pointing to a bullock. "What the mischief do you know about the age of bullocks?" retorted the owner. "Sure, there's the brand on him," said the doctor; "B. C. 77."—Australasian.

"Fill high the bowl with Samian wine,"
And pleasure fancy in its glow;
Wealth hath no portion in the shine
Which glitters in its golden flow,
While Sanford's Ginger, draught divine,
Is spanned by Health's assuring bow.

—A Bridgewater women unconsciously went to meeting with two hats on her head, one inside of the other, and a score or more of other women thought it was a new style of hat.

Women that have been given up by their dearest friends as beyond help, have been permanently cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a positive cure for all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—A man, unworthy of the name, threatened to publish a lady's letters. "You can if you choose," she answered; "it is only the address that makes me blush."

Listen to This.

The unbiased opinion of some of the most intelligent medical men in this country and Europe, support the statement that Kidney-Wort is the greatest discovery yet, for curing Kidney and liver troubles, piles and constipation. It acts on both kidneys and bowels at the same time and thus cleanses the whole system.

—Hosiery grows more extravagant each successive season, silk stockings with point lace insertion and exquisite hand embroidery up the fronts, now selling for thirty dollars a pair.

Suffering Woman.

There is but very small proportion of the women of this nation that do not suffer from some of the diseases for which Kidney-Wort is a specific. When the bowels have become costive, headaches torments, kidneys out of fix, or piles distress, take a package, and its wonderful tonic and renovating power will cure you and give new life.

—Pneumatic clocks have been introduced in Paris by a company which furnishes the clocks and works them by air through pneumatic pipes from a central station. The patent has been purchased for America, and will soon be tested in New York.

PALATABLE MEDICINES.—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a honeyed drop of relief; his Cathartic Pills glide sugar-shod over the palate; and his Sarsaparilla is a nectar that imparts vigor to life, restores the health and expels disease.—Waterford (Pa.) Advertiser.

—When a New Hampshire chap wanted to break off the engagement of the girl he loved to another fellow, he didn't try to persuade either that the other was false. He just contrived to get them both to join the same church choir, and in less than a week they didn't speak.—Boston Post.

—An honest French farmer's idea of communism: "After all," says the friend who is explaining the subject to him, "is all the money owned in France were to be put together and equally divided your share would be only 505 francs." "Well," says the honest farmer, "that with what I have already wouldn't be so bad."

Fickle in appetite, irresolute in mind, and subject to melancholy, try Malt Bitters.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, 1880.

Mining Excitement in Maine.

Never since the days of the famous eastern land speculation have so many men in Maine been determined to get rich by a short process.

Penobscot vies with York county in the number of mining companies, all advertised in some leading, respectable newspaper, with prices quoted all the way from ten cents to ten dollars per share. Gold, silver and copper seem to be growing very abundant, but one does not need to dig for them as he has only to purchase enough shares at present prices, and then await the rise. These eras have their periodical hold upon men who like to operate and lose, in one chance, what they make in others. This gambling is exciting, and for a while pleases until the fun ceases, and the last holder crams his numberless worthless certificates in some out of the way corner, and the companies are forgotten. The world moves, but it forgets often its most dearly-learned lessons.

The Granite Monthly.

The March number of the Granite Monthly is a very interesting one. The prominent articles are a sketch of Edmund Burke, of Newport, by H. H. Metcalf; "Kearsarge Gore," by Ex-Gov. Harriman; Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, by Mrs. Lucy E Sanford; Thomas Wadleigh and his descendants, by Erastus Wadleigh; the John Wentworth Mansion on Pleasant street in Portsmouth, by Fred. M. Colby; New Hampshire and her revolutionary officers, by Judge Newton; Are we astrologers? by C. C. Lord; historical sketch of Newport, by Jos. W. Parmelee; the Courts of the United States in New Hampshire, by Col. William H. Hackett, clerk of the circuit court, being a statistical account of the officers of the courts since their organization in 1790; Mayor French, a translation, by Samuel C. Eastman. The muse of Sullivan is heard in a dirge on the death of Samuel H. Ayer, a prominent citizen of this state who died over a quarter of a century since.

The Granite Monthly is a New Hampshire periodical; the number before us shows there is much of interest to be written about in our state, and plenty of writers to perform this service. The roll of attorneys of the United States, contained in the article upon the federal courts, shows that such men as Jeremiah Smith, Daniel M. Christie, John P. Hale, Franklin Pelree, Josiah Minot and lawyers of acknowledge ability, have served in this office.

The first federal court was held in Portsmouth in May, 1790, by John Jay, chief justice of the United States. When Judge Jay came to Portsmouth to hold this, the first court, the citizens gave him a public entry into the town, and upon his departure accompanied him some distance on his way. In those days it was deemed no improper civility or extraordinary occurrence to lavish upon the head of the federal judiciary the somewhat tumultuous demonstration of popular applause.

Naval Gazette.

The Nipsic, now in Hampton roads, will sail this week for Europe, on a three years' cruise.

A letter from Montevideo gives the following as the names of the officers of the U. S. S. Marion attacked by yellow fever: Lieut. John P. Wallis and Cadet Midshipman Harvey Wike, (both died,) Lieut. John P. Merrill, Passed Asst. Engineer Brosnahan, Surgeon Hosea J. Babin, Midshipman J. H. Sears; also eleven seamen, of whom one, named Rogers, died.

Political.

Denis Kearney is reported as completely humbled and subdued. He made a mild and stupid speech on the sand lots, Sunday night, and the citizens appear to have gained control of the dangerous elements that threatened the peace of San Francisco.

There was an election in San Francisco on Tuesday, to choose freeholders and state senator. The citizens' ticket was openly endorsed by the republican county committee, and tacitly endorsed by the Democratic State club of San Francisco, comprising the better class of that party; the democratic county committee, and all the mass of the party, endorsed and worked for the sand-lots ticket.

Judge G. L. Christian of the hustings court at Richmond, Va., has ordered the summoning of two colored men on a venire for the next term of his court. This will be the first time the colored people ever had a representation on the juries of any of the courts there, outside of the federal courts.

New Hampshire Items.

Brig. Gen. J. W. Sturtevant inspected the Gov. Cheney Guards, company B, Capt. J. S. Noone, and the Peterboro Cavalry, company A, Capt. Charles Scott, on Monday. Col. White of the Second Regiment, and members of his staff, were also present. At a subsequent business meeting of the cavalry company, C. A. Jaquith was elected captain, E. C. Richardson first lieutenant, and J. F. Dodge second lieutenant.

A woman in Great Falls a few days ago stepped up to a police officer on the street, took deliberate aim at him with a seven-shooter, fired, and missed him. The woman then ran off in one direction, and the shooter in another. The officer, who is a married man, it is said has been more intimate with his assailant than good morals and the law allow, and that her jealousy was excited by his desertion of her for a third female.

On Thursday last two sons of Ivory Varney, of Blackwater, were engaged in sawing and splitting wood, when the oldest boy cut a deep gash in his knee with an axe, which was dressed by the younger brother, who took him home and made him comfortable. Shortly the younger returned and resumed work, and in a few moments, while chopping wood, cut two of his fingers clean off.—Dover Democrat.

News and Notes.

In the United States circuit court at Trenton, N. J., the case of Alvira Waters vs. the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company was taken up, Monday. Mrs. Waters sues for $25,000, the amount of a policy on her husband's life. The defense is that the deceased husband came to his death by suicide, and a clause in the policy renders it, under such circumstances, null and void.

At Northport, Mich., the insane wife of Adam Bagenkalb, a middle aged farmer, disappeared some time ago. Recently the neighbors became suspicious and instituted a search, and on Monday they began opening a well, which had been freshly filled in, on Bagenkalb's farm. While they were at work he disappeared, and search being made, he was found dead in the house, with his throat cut from ear to ear. When the well was finally opened, they found the body of the missing woman, also with her throat cut.

William Myrik of South Truro, Mass., eighteen years of age, was at Provincetown on Saturday, and signified his intention of returning home in the afternoon in his dory. He has not reached home, and it is feared that his boat was capsized while on the passage.

The famous French engineer, Count de Lesseps, was in Boston on Monday, and was handsomely entertained in public and private circles.

At Port Davis, Texas, Deputy Sheriff Latham shot and killed a soldier of the Twenty-fifth infantry, Sunday evening, while trying to arrest him. Latham has been arrested.

The trial of Stephen Crabb, at Berrien Springs, Mich., for the murder of a young man named Seel, at a dance in Bainbridge, about eight months ago, resulted Monday in a verdict of manslaughter.

Steamer City of Haverhill was launched at Newburyport, Monday afternoon, from the yard of John T. Fillmore.

James R. Keene, the bonanza king, who was in Newport, R. I., Sunday, visiting his family, desired to be in New York on Monday morning. Accordingly he chartered the steamer City of Newport to take him to Providence, at which place he took the midnight train for New York.

The Fitchburg railroad has added 500 freight cars to its equipment during the last two months, and has ordered fifty more box cars. The road is turning out five cars a week at the Fitchburg shop.

The New York Times calls attention to the fact that there are many distinguished examples that Gen. Grant has not followed, such, for example, as that of his associates in the army, who offered their services to the confederacy.

John McAffee died in Quincy, Ill., Saturday morning. In 1860—61 he was speaker of the Missouri house, when the secession ordinance passed, but he cast the deciding vote which prevented Missouri from going out of the Union.

One Chiselm, whose wife had ordered M. Dixon, the keeper of a saloon at Greensburg, Pa., to refuse him liquor, quarreled with Dixon on Saturday night and was twice knocked down, the last time having his neck broken. Dixon has been jailed. Dixon has already served a term in state prison.

Values of Mining Stocks.

The mining business in New York is as yet in its infancy, but all the signs of the time indicate that it is certain of a healthy and rapid growth and a perfect and permanent development. The coming of eminent and influential mining men from the west, the large investment of eastern capital in western mines, and the universal interest exhibited in mining matters augur well for the future of this great interest.

A noticeable feature of its present condition, and one worthy of careful consideration, is the cheapness of mining securities of all kinds. While the best railroad and bank stocks, paying six per cent per annum, are far above par, the best mining stocks are at figures absurdly disproportionate to the values they represent. Even railroad securities like Erie common, which cannot be described as first class, are held at fully developed prices. Railroad securities of this class are quoted, and largely bought, at misleading prices, while mining stocks, paying from twenty-five cents to one dollar a share every month, are selling at ridiculously low prices.

The talk about inflated values is utterly absurd as far as our sound mining stocks are concerned, however true it may be of some classes of railroad securities. No one can pretend for an instant that there is any ground for talk about inflated values in connection with such stocks as Bassick, Breece, Bull Domingo, Cherokee, Chrysolite, Carbonate Hill, Horn Silver, Little Chief, or Mayflower. These properties have not yet developed one half of their value. The real worth of these stocks, though not yet determined, must more than double the figures at which they are held. The same is true of the listed stocks. For the most part, they are already proving better investments than either railroad or bank stocks.

True, the element of certainty in mining investments is not yet as firmly established as it soon will be. But, as the people become educated in mining matters, they find themselves able to discriminate between the various properties and to invest with understanding and confidence. Even without the knowledge that investors are daily acquiring in regard to mining affairs,—thanks to the labor of the mining journals—they at present run little or no risk in the purchase of selected mining stocks, for it seems clear that all sound mining securities are bound to go up far beyond present values. They are now the cheapest property that can be bought; they may prove immensely profitable, they cannot fail to prove reasonably remunerative. This fact must soon be recognized, and, meanwhile, it may be said with perfect safety that there never has been and there is not likely ever to be a better time than the present to buy mining securities. This much, of course, is true of these securities, as it is of all others, that they must be selected intelligently and with care.—N. Y. Mining News.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

REV. SYLVANUS COMB thus writes in the Boston Christian Press:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething sleeve, on any considerations whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. 5

See a Woman!

In another column, picking grapes for SPEER'S WINE. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals and by the first-class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to European or California Wines; excellent for Ladies and invalids.

Joy in Louisiana.

The people of New Orleans, La., are elated with the decision of the Postmaster General, D. M. Key, in rescinding his Post Office order about the mails, as he says he is persuaded after an examination of the evidence submitted that the Louisiana State Lotter Company is not fraudulent, and has so recognized it, which is a high tribute extorted after severe trial from the department. New letters, registered letters, postal orders alike go to M. A. Dauphin, at New Orleans, La., or same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York City, N. Y., and time to try is the next drawing, April 13th, when $2 may win $30,000. Who is the lucky man?

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City. D&WlJan31

AROUND HOME.

Boston Commandry of Knights Templar propose to celebrate St. John's day, June 24th, by a visit to the Shoals, passing through this city both ways.

"All the Rage," which is spoken of so highly, it will be seen by advertisement is to be produced at Music hall in this city on Wednesday evening, April 7th.

Mr. Josiah H. Morrison is to leave this city in a few days for Aiken, South Carolina, to visit Mrs. Morrison, who has been passing the winter there, and also for the benefit of his health, he having been unwell for some time past.

As John H. Gardner, an employe of Mr. Samuel S. Frye, was clearing a roof of snow at the residence of the latter on Islington street, Monday, he fell a short distance from a ladder to the ground, and broke his shoulder blade.

In another column will be found a sensible article from the New York daily Mining News. The mining industry has taken such a prominent position among capitalists, that a daily devoted to mines and mining has been recently started, and is well supported, in the metropolis.

Mr. Frank Mathes committed suicide early Tuesday forenoon, in the attic of the house of Mr. George P. Edny on Market square, where he had for some time resided, by hanging himself from a rafter with a clothes-line. He appeared as well as usual in the morning. Insanity caused the act.

At Dover work is immediately to be commenced on an enormous mill for the Cocheco company. The length of the new mill, when completed, will be seven hundred feet, and it will contain 58,000 spindles, a number equal to the capcity of all the present mills of the city put together. Half the machinery in the new mill will be entirely new.

The sociable of the St. Mary's Benevolent Society at Mechanics' hall on Easter Monday evening was a very happy affair. The programme consisted of an address by the president, supper, vocal and instrumental music, recitations, and a farce entitled "The Male Cook." The supper tables were handsomely laid, and loaded with a variety of tempting viands. The evening was one of real enjoyment, and every one went home in the happiest of moods.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE.

This comic opera, by the author of "Pinafore," has made the strongest impression in Boston of any of the comic operas recently produced there. For the two weeks during which it has been given, every seat in the Globe theatre was sold for each performance. The last few nights the crowd was tremendous. To get a place to stand one was obliged to go an hour before the curtain was raised. The company appearing here is the same that made this great success. They bring with them a fine set of scenery, calcium lights, full orchestra and a company numbering sixty people. This performance will fully equal the presentations in Boston. Arrangements will be made for a special train from Dover.

A COOL CONTRACTOR.

"There's Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines,
Who gives his horse good corn and beans,"

But how can he do it unless the contractor supplies a good article? It seems that the success-ful (?) bidder for supplying the marines at Boston and Portsmouth was so very low in his schedule of prices that he is unable to supply rations since the rise in certain articles; and that, as it is denominated in certain slang business phrases, he has "sequealed." The ill-calculating contractor has repaired to that panacea for all evils, congress, and asked to be relieved from his contract. Had he made a good thing by a fall in the cost of supplies, he would not have troubled congress. Not he. But he is coming out far behind, and seeks to be let off. It would certainly be a very bad precedent to establish, if congress should grant his request.

THE REVENUE EXAMINATIONS.

New Hampshire has but one collector of internal revenue within her borders, and we have all of us pointed with pride at the perfectly satisfactory manner in which the internal revenues of the state (a large portion of which is paid from Portsmouth products) has been assessed and collected. Gen'l Clarke, a special agent of the internal revenue department, has visited New England, and from his report (a garbled account of which appears in the Boston Advertiser's special Washington dispatch of Tuesday,) we are at a loss to know, whether Col. Young's office is still numbered one in its degree of management, as it has previously stood, or whether in some minor and inconsequential detail, there is anything deserving criticism.

We call to mind the fact that in a report of a special examination (and we think it was by the same gentleman) this office was described as a "model of neatness and order, that the duties were performed in a careful and business-like manner," etc. Now we see, in one paragraph, that the blotter—which is the book meant by No. 43—is not au fait, and Putney at Manchester is not careful enough to keep his books out of the dust. What will our portly friend, the proprietor of the Mirror, say to this? Dust in the Mirror office? that model of neatness! Fie, general; you are all wrong. Again the general says that ex-Deputy Topliff. It is possible that this great and glorious country keeps an ex-general and ex-member of congress to travel 'round and discover these slight specks upon the horizon of our revenue system.

We in New Hampshire pay to the general government nearly three hundred thousand dollars per year in revenue taxes. This sum has been collected and honestly accounted for down to the third of a cent. Why are we not informed of the manner in which these functions are performed? If Deputy Putney with sufficient compensation could afford to "keep his division in perfect order," let us raise his pay. Collector Young's office may have been repapered since this last examination,—but what do the people of the great republic care for this? It is an affair between the collector and his landlord. The public want to know if the taxes have been properly assessed and promptly collected, not whether blotter "No. 43" has an uncrossed "t," or any unavoidable blemish.

No; the general should aim higher, and when he shows his reports to the correspondents upon newspaper row in Washington, compel them to listen to the whole story, and not allow garbled reports to be sent to a newspaper of such eminent respectability as our Boston cotemporary.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, March 29th.

The Congregational society held their annual meeting on Monday afternoon, March 29th, and elected Hon. T. J. Parsons, Charles J. Brown, and Joseph L. Seavey, as wardens. The society seem to be in a prosperous condition, judging from the late wardens' report, and seem well satisfied with the present pastor, Rev. J. W. Kingsbury.

About three hundred and fifty dollars have been raised by the efforts of the ladies of the society since the 20th of December, two hundred and sixty dollars of which was taken at the festival held in December, and the balance at social meetings of the Martha Washington society—including their celebrated reception which was held Tuesday evening, the 23d inst.

Over three hundred attended said reception, which was the largest gathering seen in the town hall this winter; and all were well repaid for time and money expended. The entertainment was a most decided success, and reflects great credit on the managers. The "Peak Family," which was performed by seven girls, the youngest ten years old and not over four feet tall, and the oldest seventeen years old, and some over six feet—hat and all—was something so decidedly new and unique to all present, that it created a furore and a recall, and reflected much credit on those who took part in it, as well as Mrs. W. C. Walker, under whose direction it was placed on the stage. Some very fine tableaux under the direction of Mrs. G. G. Lougee and Mrs. T. W. Rand were produced, and elicited generous applause. The little hatchet story, by Annie Sawyer and Annie Locke, was very funny, and caused roars of laughter. Mrs. J. J. Pond, in addition to appearing as "Martha Washington" in costume, managed several little features, in which the little folks appeared with credit to her and themselves. Mr. David Jenness, with his choir, sang "Columbia," Mr. P. S. Gilmore's new national hymn, Mrs. C. O. Philbrick accompanying on the organ. Other selections were given, all good, and after the supper, provided by the ladies of the society, and to which two hundred persons sat down, the reception closed with the play of a "Precious Pickle," which was just funny enough to convulse the house. The total receipts were upwards of sixty dollars.

It is understood that a party of thirty-five from this town, including those who took part in the "Peak Family" and a "Precious Pickle," are to go to Hampton, Wednesday night, to give an entertainment in the town hall.

School committee chosen—in south district, A. R. Philbrick, George G. White, and Charles W. Brown; in west district, Joseph W. Garland, Simon L. Chesley, and Howard F. Rand; center, J. Jenness Rand; east, Mrs. Emery Woodman. Have not heard that any ladies attended the school meetings.

There is said to be a fast horse in town.

NAT.

FISHERY NOTES.

Three of Mr. Valentine Doane's fishing schooners have sailed for a southern mackereling trip; the Daniel Marcy and Gov. Goodwin sailed on Monday, and the Mayor Jones on Tuesday.

Schooner Epes Tarr arrived at Gloucester, March 29th, from the banks, with 28,000 pounds of fresh halibut, which were sold at twenty cents for white and twelve for gray, the highest price for the season, and within one cent of the highest price ever paid for halibut in that market.

The old fishing schooner Harp, of about eleven tons register, for many years owned here and employed in fishing out of this port, but sold to Gloucester parties a year or two ago, has seen the last of her fishing days. She hit Green island reef, near Portland, last Saturday night at ten o'clock, tumbled over it, and went down in deep water twenty minutes later. All hands saved. No insurance.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

A new lodge of Good Templars, named Seaside lodge, has been organized at Kennebunk.

Mystic Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Kennebunk, are making preparations for a grand fair to be holden at their hall in the early part of May.

A house and barn belonging to Robert Smith of Kennebunk were consumed by fire on Saturday afternoon last. How the fire originated is not known; loss about $2000.

The operatives of the Pepperell and Laconia cotton mills at Biddeford have been notified of an advance in wages. The mule spinners get ten per cent advance, and the other operatives from seven to ten per cent.

The Cape Neddick young people are beginning to wake up. "Party" spirit has been at a discount all winter, but is at par now. A few nights ago they met together and formed a society which they call the "Young People's Sociable;" although only a few were present the first night, on account of the rain and bad travelling, they had a first rate time. The "Young People's" will not be put down. The old society, the "Ladies' Circle," wanted the youth to unite with them to build a vestry for the church, while the young folks wish to build a hall. The old society have been advised, instead of building a vestry, to purchase a cemetery! Without doubt the young people will have their hall in a very short time, for a good working spirit is manifested, and their weekly meetings will kept up all summer. We hope that success may crown their efforts. We are glad to learn that the young people are interested in their place, and hope they may be encouraged by the older ones to press on. We wish this same spirit might prevail around the neighboring towns and villages. We know not what the young folks may do until they try. We wish them luck, and may their motto ever be "Live and let live." SILENCE.

The ladies of the Universalist society will have an oyster supper in their vestry, Wednesday evening, March 31st., from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. An interesting stage entertainment, consisting of the drama "Once on a Time," and vocal and instrumental music, will be given immediately after the supper. Tickets of admission, 15 cents. Supper tickets, 25 cents.

The "dumb supper" literary and musical entertainment to be given at Grange hall this (Wednesday) evening, by Strawberry Encampment, I. O. G. T., is to be the attraction to all who would enjoy themselves on that evening. Hon. M. Bufford, judge, and S. W. Clarke and C. T. Wiggin, referees, are to sit in judgment at the supper table. Tickets, including supper, fifteen cents.

"Persons suffering from impure blood, or whose health is giving away, either as ministers or those who study closely, will find in Fellows' Hypophosphites Syrup the material to build them up and the tonic to keep them there.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or enterrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. A. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light

A Coon Story.

Commodore Thomas Jefferson Falls of New York ran up to the lighthouse at Jupiter Inlet, Florida, in his tiny yacht, the Louise, a month ago, and anchored. The Louise is twenty-one feet long and nine feet wide. At night the boom is hoisted and a tent is thrown over it and buttoned down at the scuppers. A sandfly bar is dropped from the top of the tent, the commodore locks the ends under his cork mattress, and seeks his rest. One morning, while anchored near the light, he awoke and was surprised to see a coon straddle the centre-board and regarding him with steadfast eyes. The coon had a nose like a snipe, and luminous eyes set very close together. He had been fishing at night. Being surprised by the dogs, he had take to the water and boarded the the commodore's craft for protection. Edward Snow, the commodore's pilot, caught the animal by the scruff of the neck and threw him overboard. The dogs lined the shore awaiting his landing. The coon took in the situation at a glance, swam to the side of the yacht, and silently appealed to the commodore for succor. Moved by his pitying glances Mr. Falls put out an oar. The coon seized it and was drawn on board. The commodore fed him, and the two beings became quite friendly.

A barrel was procured, small square holes were made in its side, and it was set apart for the use of the coon. Blue-fish and other delicacies were set before him, and he thankfully devoured them. In the afternoon the little yacht was drawn up to the wharf and tied. The commodore climbed the winding stairs of the light house and gazed over the stretch of country bordering the beach. Hearing a great racket below, he glanced at his yacht and saw a singular sight. One of the dogs had leaped on the Louise and was smelling at the holes in the barrel. The coon resented the intrusion, and fastened his teeth in the dog's nose. In an instant the barrel, coon and all were yanked on deck. The dog tried to back clear of on the wharf, missed his footing, and barrel, coon and dog went overboard. The coon released his hold and the dog swam ashore. His indignant antagonist remained in the barrel and floated toward the inlet. The commodore ran down from the lighthouse and rescued him in a small boat. He brought the coon to the beach in the barrel, and five dogs attacked him. It was a hot fight. The coon would not break cover, and was whipping the dogs one after the other, when Mr. Armour, the keeper of the light, jumped into the fray on the sand. The hair on the coon's back stood up like the quills of a porcupine, and his bite showed like the gunsight of a water battery.

Seeing the commodore on the wharf, and apparently indeaf of his former kindness, he ran toward him for protection. The commodore, however, misunderstood his intentions. The little yacht was swinging from the wharf. He got on the bowsprit, pranced along the bowsprit, caught the jib halliards, and rendezvoed the deck. The coon followed suit, and the five dogs scrambled to follow the coon. Terror stricken, the commodore ran around the centre-board half a dozen times with the coon and dogs at his heels. Finally he jumped overboard, scattering an immense school of mullet that were coming in with the tide. The coons and dogs plunged after him. The commodore reached the shore utterly exhausted. The coon, apparently disgusted at the man's cowardliness, struck out for himself, and sought shelter in a cluster of mangroves a hundred yards south of the light. The dogs followed the commodore, and shook their wet hide in his face.

The commodore put on dry clothes, and anathematized the coon in the strongest terms. While he was venting his rage the coon came out of the cover of the mangroves, sat down on the sand and began to make faces at him.

"Seek him," shouted the commodore, and the dogs went for him like volunteers on a bayonet charge. The quadruped stood his ground like an Irish soldier. The leading dog threw him six feet in the air, and while the others were looking for him he fell on their backs and took them in the flank. He made some ugly wounds, but the park closed in on him and he was finally killed. "Talk about Davy Crocket at the Alamo," said the commodore, while standing over the mangled body; "he wasn't a marker to this coon. He ought to have a monument."—New York paper.

The Duel.

The idea upon which the duel rests may be traced to feudal times. It was the idea that offensive words applied to a man affixed a stain upon him which could be washed out only by blood. The Romans were a brave people, but they never had any such idea. So also with the Greeks. They thought that insulting language stained only the lips that uttered it and not the man that received it. It was thought that a man's dignity was no more hurt by foul words than by the bark of a little dog. But during the dark ages there arose an idea that to give a man a "lie in the throat" disgraced him forever. It was a time too when lawsuits were decided by "wager of battle" under the belief that "God would defend the right." It took several centuries to convince Europe that this was a mistake. The stronger man and the best fighter usually won, whether he had justice on his side or not. God does not take sides in our quarrels. But still there survives a certain remnant of this old folly. There still exist men who believe in the duel as a means of settling disputes, and often even now men in their altercations use language which means the duel if it means anything. But would it not be wiser to relegate single combat back to the dark ages, and so recognize the fact that infamous accusations, unproved, hurt no one but the accuser.—Every Saturday.

—In San Angel, near the city of Mexico, a family expected a package containing rosaries and other religious articles. A box arrived which was supposed to contain the expected things. The mother directed it to be opened, and indulged in prayers before that work was begun. A servant began with hammer and chisel, and a few blows disclosed that the box contained a smaller one. The second box was opened and two small zinc boxes were disclosed. The first broke on one was followed by a tremendous explosion, which destroyed the furniture of the room, broke windows, doors, and walls, and killed all in the room except one woman.

Cuticura

THE GREAT SKIN CURE,

Infallibly Cures.

CUTICURA, assisted by CUTICURA SOAP, is certainly believed to be the only positive Specific Remedy for the cure of Salt Rheum or Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter, Pushes, Chin Whelk, Psoriasis, Lepidiasis, Impetigo, Leprosy, Lichen, Prurigo, Itch, Ground Itch, Barber's Itch, Jackson's Itch, Rough and Cracked Skins, and all Vesicular and Scaly Eruptions and Irritations of the Skin; Scald Head, Dandruff, Dry, Thin, and Falling Hair, Premature Baldness, and all Scaly Eruptions, Itchings, and Irritations of the Scalp; Scrofulous Ulcers, Sores, and Discharging Wounds. Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Scalds, Burns, Boils, Felons, Pain and Inflammation; Rheumatism and Affections of the Muscles and Joints; Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Croup, and Hoarseness, in all cases of Blood and Skin Humors, the CUTICURA RESOLVENT should be taken internally until some time after a cure is effected.

SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but before I commenced using them, my face, breast, and hands were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entirely well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.
CADIZ, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For seventeen years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to improved for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies, but one had the least effect. The doctors said my case was incurable. Some parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, and now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for their selves.

Yours truly, WILL MCDONALD.

The valuable Gold bearing property of

THE MAMMOTH BLUE GRAVEL CO.,

NEVADA COUNTY, CAL.,

Capital, - - - - - $2,000,000

SHARES, 40,000—PAR VALUE $50.

This large and valuable property consisting of about 12,000 acres, is surrounded by the following well known hydraulic mines: "LITTLE YORK," "ROSE AND DURYEA," "SARGENT & JACOBS," "REMINGTON HILL," "BLUE TENT," "NORTH BLOOMFIELD," and others, which have been worked for years, producing millions of dollars. It has been thoroughly examined by Dr. Henry De Groot, whose report will be sent to those applying for it. With abundant water supply, and in close proximity to the Central Pacific R. R., it affords every advantage for highly profitable and economical hydraulic mining.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are so prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has produced. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

This marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

The Positive Cure

For all Female Complaints.

THIS PREPARATION RESTORES THE BLOOD TO ITS NATURAL CONDITION, DIRECTS THE VITAL POWER ARIGHT, STRENGTHENS THE MUSCLES OF THE UTERUS AND LIFTS IT INTO PLACE, AND GIVES IT TONE AND STRENGTH, SO THAT THE CURE IS radical and entire. It strengthens THE BACK AND PELVIC REGION; IT GIVES TONE TO THE WHOLE NERVOUS SYSTEM; IT RESTORES DISPLACED ORGANS TO THEIR NATURAL POSITION. THAT FEELING OF BEARING DOWN, CAUSING PAIN, WEIGHT AND BACKACHE, IS ALWAYS PERMANENTLY CURED BY ITS USE.

It will, at all times and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the laws that govern the female system.

For the cure of Kidney Complaints of either sex, this Compound is unsurpassed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is prepared at the proprietors laboratory, No. 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass.

Price, $1. Six Bottles to one address, $5.

SMITH'S MEDICATED PRUNES

LAXATIVE & CATHARTIC.

Pleasant to the taste, Harmless, Without Griping.

CURE CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS AND LIVER TROUBLES.

They take the place of the nauseous and violent cathartics, and are the mildest laxative. Prepared expressly for the Liver. Forwarded on receipt of price, 50 cents a box. Half a dozen (active) two or three pills are the effect of cathartic medicines. Not so of these pills. They cleanse without griping. No bad effects from them. Without injurious effects, children take half a pill. Two pills follow repeated use. A grain or half a grain taken at bedtime acts like a cathartic. The medication is entirely vegetable and a delicate laxative. Physicians prescribe them. Druggists keep them.

MALT BITTERS

Malt Bitters Company

A FOOD AND A MEDICINE,

The Purest, Safest and most Powerful Restorative in Medicine for Feeble and Exhausted Constitutions, Invalids and General Debility, Consumption, Nursing and Wasting Diseases.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley MALT and Fresh Hops, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Invigorating by reason of the peculiar process of preparing the Malt, than all other forms of malt or cordials, and free from the objections urged against malt liquors, such as "colic," "cholera" and "constipation."

MALT BITTERS build up new life, new vigor, new blood, new nerves and new muscles. Are a highly digestible, rich, nutritious, nutritive cordial, stimulating the liver, bowels and deep-seated organs, overcoming weakness of the kidneys and urinary organs, emaciation, dyspepsia, and all physical debility, preventive against all kinds of malarial and contagious diseases and the result of every form of dissipation, and are truly marvelous.

MALT BITTERS combine a Food and a Medicine in the most perfect form yet discovered, and commend themselves to the weak, nervous, consumptive, aged, debilitated, nervous, sleepless, dyspeptic, bilious, feeble in appetite, irregular in habit and subject to malarial ailments, and to those who require a powerful restorative in medicine.

Put up in Quart German quarts and warranted genuine when signed by the Malt Bitters Company as above. Sold by druggists. Malt Bitters Company, Boston.

SHAKERS'

SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury Shakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodide of Potass (ium) made by the Society.

It is as the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike all others in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully add my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diathesis. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eight or nine years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMO, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 7, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the first symptoms of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

A Monkey Pulls a Tooth.

We invite the attention of Mr. Darwin to the following very singular anecdote regarding the monkey "Dot," belonging to Mr. James Wardlaw, of this town, as so peculiar an illustration of the ingenuity of the monkey has rarely, if ever, been recorded. The monkey was brought to Galt from Deccan, India, in the fall of 1878, by Mr. Wardlaw, who had resided in Hyderabad for several years. It is one of the smallest of the monkey tribe, and, we understand, goes by the name of Himalaya monkey. Its remarkable tricks and almost human expression have made it a source of much entertainment to the family and visitors, and a relation of its doings since it came to Galt would make an interesting chapter of natural history. But it fairly eclipsed itself on Sunday before last. The little creature had been suffering from toothache several days and evidently suffered severely. On Sunday the pain was more than ordinarily severe, and the monkey, like its human type, resolved at last to undergo a dental operation. But the dentist, strange to say, was itself. "Dot" found a string, fastened it around the aching tooth, seized the end of the string with its fore feet, drew up one of its hind legs between its fore feet, and gave a sudden shove, which jerked the tooth out and sent it flying half way across the room. This having been accomplished, the monkey was at ease, and resumed its natural cheerfulness and amiability. The story may seem almost incredible, but we have it from the Messrs. Wardlaw, whose character is such that there is no room for doubting its accuracy.—Galt (Ont.) Reformer.

—A friend can not be known in prosperity and an enemy can not be hidden in adversity.

—When Robson and Crane were playing the "Two Dromios" in Cleveland, two twin sisters, who played two pages in the play, were so nearly alike that neither of the actors could possibly distinguish one from the other. It was a living proof that Shakspeare was right in his "Comedy of Errors."

—Pilgrimages to Buffalo, N. Y., are made by thousands of invalids annually to consult with the medical and surgical staff of the World's Dispensary and Invalid's Hotel, the largest private sanitarium in the world. All chronic diseases are treated by scientific methods. The practice is divided among nine eminent specialists. Among the most popular domestic medicines in the land are those manufactured by this association, among which are Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the greatest of alteratives or blood-cleansers, and Dr. Pierce's Pellets (little pills) that have largely superseded the old-fashioned coarse pills. Compound Extract of Smart-Weed is deservedly popular as a remedy for diarrhœa, dysentery, flux, and kindred diseases; also as a pain-killer and remedy for colds. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the great remedy for female weakness and associated derangements. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is the "Old Reliable." Invalids' Guide-Book — 10 cents, post-paid. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., or London, England.

—Mrs. Scott-Siddons pays her hair like a man—on one side. The next day after her appearance at Lewiston, the girls in one of the higher schools appeared at school with hair à la Siddons. At the next session of the school the boys appeared with their hair parted in the middle. So fine a sarcasm naturally caused a decline in the Siddons style.—Portland Advertiser.

Pure water, fresh air, sunlight, and a bottle of Adamson's Botanic Balsam (in case of coughs or colds) will save many doctors' bills and give health and vigor that no money can procure.

—We cannot look, however imperfectly, upon a great man, without gaining something by him. He is the living light fountain, which it is good and pleasant to be near; the light which enlightens, which has enlightened, the darkness of the world; and this, not as a kindled lamp only, but rather as a natural luminary, shining by the gift of heaven; a flowing light fountain, as we say of native, original insight, of manhood and heroic nobleness, in whose radiance all souls feel that it is well with them.

Dropsy and Rheumatism.

Dropsical and Rheumatic persons find the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine, of New Jersey, and the Wine Bitters, of incalculable benefit. Their purity and valuable properties have given them a wide reputation among physicians throughout this country and Europe. This wine took the highest premium at the late Centennial. It is excellent for weary and debilitated females.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

—Why is it a man who will no labor of his own has inherited a fortune should rank higher in the world's esteem than his father who made it? We take rank by descent. Such of us as have the longest pedigree, and are therefore the farthest removed from the first who made the fortune and founded the family, are the noblest. The nearer to the fountain, the fouler the stream; and that first ancestor, who has soiled his fingers by labor, is no better than a parvenu. Is this sensible—or just?

—Chairs and tables—dear things!—are now tied up like little girls, with embroidered scarfs. You must not say "tidy" any more.

Equally adapted to the feeble or robust, male or female, are Malt Bitters.

The Channing Centennial.

The coming week will be an interesting occasion for the liberal church of the United States, and throughout Christendom. Services are to be held in several cities to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Channing, of whom the greatest evangelical theologian of Europe says: "Channing is the prophet of man's religious consciousness to the United States, and without doubt is destined to exert a still increasing influence on the spiritual conception of christianity, and the practical application of its principles." In Brooklyn, the sermon at the commemorative services will be preached by Dr. Peabody and at the public meeting in the Academy of Music Robert Collyer, Dr. Ellis and others will take part. At Newport, Dr. Bellows will deliver the discourse, and Dr. Hosmer, Rev. Mr. Brooks, (who has just published a Life of Channing,) Dr. Channing of England and others will be present. In Boston, services will be held at the Arlington street church, formerly Dr. Channing's parish, where Dr. Clarke, Mr. Ware and others will take part.

At the South Parish in this city a commemorative service will be held next Sunday, at which the Pastor will preach two discourses upon the "Life and teachings of Channing."

News and Notes.

The lower house of the general assembly of Kentucky passed a bill Monday, making the seduction of any unmarried woman of good repute under twenty-one years of age, under promise of marriage, felony, and fixing the penalty at from one to five years in the penitentiary.

The two daughters of Mrs. J. B. Whitcomb, a former teacher at Bellows Falls, Vt., and whose sister, Mrs. O. D. Gray, still lives there, were recently sitting in the woods near Oakland, Cal., when two hunters mistook the plume on one of their hats for a wild cat, and fired a double charge of buck-shot into the thicket. Harriet, the oldest, aged twenty-three, was killed, but Alice, a little girl, will recover.

At Springfield, Vt., a toy firm has shipped 1,400 gross of the "fifteen puzzle" It made nearly four tons of freight, all shipped by express.

Charles Holbrook of Orange, Vt., recently heard a noise at his door, and on opening it he found there a man and woman, who gave him a girl baby two weeks old and $50, promising to return for the child in a year and pay Holbrook $300 more.

Peter Nason, a merchant of Georgetown, Mass., having it is alleged slandered a young lady, was a few days ago driven out of town by the enraged inhabitants, who pelted him with eggs, and threatened him with tar and feathers.

The body of Amasa Doolittle of West Cheshire, Conn., was found in his barn a few days ago, partially eaten by rats. In his pocket was a letter dated March 1st, in which he said he should end his life by taking laudanum.

All through Ohio, Illinois and Indiana the growing wheat is reported remarkably fine, with a larger acreage sown than at any previous time. In Kentucky, Kansas and Tennessee some injury by the fly is mentioned, but the prospects are good for an average crop. Kentucky, Tennessee and southern Ohio are preparing to plant much more tobacco than usual, and Kentucky also increases the acreage devoted to hemp.

Isaac Salyer, in jail at Louisa, Ky., for burglary, has confessed to the murder of an unknown peddler, three years ago. The body was found in a cave indicated by Salyer.

There has now been organized, under a charter granted by the state of New Jersey, a "Life-guard patrol" of forty-two men, who are all expert surfmen, ocean swimmers and athletes. They will be fully equipped with life-saving apparatus, surf-boats and steam launches, with which they will watch the beach and bathers from the eastern end of Long Branch to Cape May.

Fifteen cars laden with passengers from the New England states left Montreal on Thursday, March 25th, for the western states. The exodus has commenced earlier this year than in former years, and the numbers are increasing daily.

The Masonic Female college at Lumpkin, Ga., worth $20,000; the United Presbyterian church at West Charlton, N. Y., worth $8,000; and the depot of the Indiana railroad at Grand Rapids, Mich., were all burned March 26th.

A man named Berie, who says he was captain of the American brigantine Lizzie M. Merrill, has arrived at Queenstown, Ireland, in a barque from Valparaiso. He reports that the Lizzie M. Merrill foundered at sea February 24; that the crew, with the exception of himself, were lost, and that he clung to a plank for three days, when he was picked up by a barque, on board of which he remained until February 27th, and was then transferred to the vessel which took him into Queenstown. The Lizzie M. Merrill was a vessel of 458 tons register, and hailed from Richmond, Me.

The Danish barque Michelle Selchan, at Boston March 30th from Messina, reports that on the date specified, when four miles off Thacher's island, she passed a wreck bottom up, apparently a schooner of about 100 tons, bottom painted green, and apparently not long in that condition.

During Gen. Grant's reception at Houston, Texas, on the night of the 29th ult., the gas was turned off from the street, and lamps and candles had to be used. On the previous Sunday night the guns of the artillery company, to be used to fire the salute on Grant's arrival, were spiked, but the spikes were removed in time for use. Five hundred dollars reward is offered for the miscreant who spiked the guns. Gen. Grant and party arrived at Galveston from Houston on the 30th ult., and departed by steamer for New Orleans.

A Norwegian paper states that some fishermen, on the 12th of February, found off the coast of an island on the western coast of Norway a damaged railroad wagon, with the words "Edinburgh and Glasgow railway" painted on it. It is supposed to be one of the wagons separated from the train which met with the disaster on the Tay bridge.

Ella M. Gould, an inmate of the industrial school at Lancaster, Mass., was arraigned in the district court at Clinton, March 30th, for an attempt to burn one of the school buildings, and in default of $1,000 bail was committed to await the action of the grand jury in May.

Mrs. Sally D. Baker of Hubbardston, Mass., the victim of a brutal assault by John Doyle last November, from the effects of which she never fully recovered, died last week.

It will take 2,250 vessels to ship the ice from the Kennebec, and 500 will be necessary to take the Penobscot crop from the houses at Bangor.

Political.

The San Francisco election was carried by the citizens, the workingmen (Kearneyites) being badly defeated.

It should be noticed by those who really lost money and property by having their ships destroyed by the anglo-confederate cruisers that every democratic senator who has spoken thus far takes the side of the insurance companies in the debate on the bill to distribute the balance of the Geneva award.

New Hampshire Items.

There is now cut and stacked in the vicinity of North Conway, ice enough to keep freight trains of twenty cars each running daily from now until September.

Attorney General Tappan has written an open letter to the editors of the Manchester Times, which is a refutation of the charges made by that paper against the action of the governor and council in regard to the recent investigation of the state prison management.

Deacon John P. Lane of Lake Village demonstrated on the evening of the 23d ult. that the entry of a vestry is not a safe place in which to leave a live ham, while attending a prayer meeting. The ham vanished by material hands.

The centennial anniversary of the organization of the Congregational church at Meriden village, in Plainfield, will be appropriately celebrated May 2d.

Amherst has voted an appropriation of $500 to aid in the publication of a history of that town, now being written by Deacon D. F. Secomb of Concord.

The dwelling house of Darius Martin, at Grafton, was burned on the morning of March 24th with all its contents; cause, explosion of a kerosene lamp. Loss, $1,200; no insurance.

A blooming bridal couple from Worcester, Mass., the bride only fifteen years old, had some novel experiences. They took part of their tour to Concord, N. H., where the obedient husband consigned to the care of his better-half his pocket-book and contents, consisting of all his earthly possessions, including their return tickets. After getting refreshments at the Concord depot they found that through a hole in her pocket all had disappeared. They accordingly started for Worcester on foot, and finally reached home lame and weary, having been fed by charitable persons on the way.

A Great Sinner.

An old negro named Pete was very much troubled about his sins. Perceiving him one day with a very downcast look, his master asked him the cause. "Oh, massa, I'm such a great sinner!" "What, Pete," said his master, "You are foolish to take it so much to heart. You never seem to be troubled about my sins." "I know dat, massa," said Pete. "When you go out duck shooting, and kill one duck and wounds another, don't you go after the wounded duck?" "Yes, Pete." After the master wondered what was coming next. "Well, massa, dat is de way with you and me. Ole Satan has got you sure; but as he has not got ole me, he comes after ole me all de time."

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait.—Burlington Hawkeye.

George Mitchell, a painter at San Francisco, was arrested March 29th at his place of business on the charge of insanity preferred by his employer. He had become insane over the fifteen puzzle, and covered the floor and walls with figures in the attempt to solve it.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

The Granite State base ball club have a social assembly in Mechanics' hall this evening.

The Dover cornet band are engaged by C. W. Sawyer Post, G. A. R., of Dover, to supply music for them on decoration day.

The "Pirates of Penzance," with the stage setting, chorus, orchestra and all details the same as in Boston, will be presented at Music hall on Saturday evening. See advertisement.

There were 395,563 pairs of shoes manufactured at the shoe shop of Butt & Strong in Dover during the past sixteen weeks, which is, on an average of working time, nearly seventeen pairs per minute.

The remains of the late Commodore Isaiah Hanscom, ex-chief constructor of the navy, who died in Washington, D. C., a short time since, were entombed at Mount Auburn on the 31st ult. No services were held.

Ice from Milton three ponds is now being stored in ice-houses in this city, for local consumption next summer. Rather a tropical climate we have around here, where not enough ice is produced to fill the local demand.

James Meserve of Back river, Dover, had his shoulder put out of place seven different times during last summer and fall. For the eighth time a similar accident occurred a few evenings ago, he having slipped on his door step.

Mr. John M. Hussey, formerly local agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Co. in this city, and who for the past year has been engaged here in the same business on his own account, is about to remove to Portland, Me., where he will continue the business on a more extensive scale.

Mr. William Rollins of Newington had a narrow escape from death on the 30th ult., through the falling of a tree upon him, by which he was pinned down on an ox-sled in such a way that had the oxen started his legs would have been torn from his body. His cries brought the neighbors to his aid, and they released him after cutting away a portion of the tree. Mr. Rollins was much hurt, but will probably recover.

The new schooner "B. Frank Nealley," built for the Dover Navigation Co. by Goss, Sawyer & Packard of Bath, Me., was successfully launched on Saturday, March 27th. Her dimensions are—length of keel one hundred and twenty feet, breadth of beam thirty feet, depth of hold nine feet; and she will be fitted with all the suitable modern improvements for convenience and safety. She was built under the personal supervision of Capt. John M. Handy, of Cotuit, Mass., who will command her; the model was made for the Dover Navigation Co. by parties in Taunton, Mass.; and her cost when ready for sea will be about $16,000. The company are trying to get a vessel that will go up the river to Dover, carrying three hundred and fifty tons of coal, without having to lighten in order to reach the dock, the Cocheco admitting vessels of nine feet draught of water; this object they have not yet attained, the company's schooner "John Bracewell" having to put out one hundred tons, and the "Charles H. Tricker," about fifty tons, to enable them to get in.

For the champion mean man of all times and places, commend me to "Cour. Thomas Jefferson Falls," whose exploits were recounted in the CHRONICLE of March 31st. A fellow who could go back on a poor beast that he had once befriended; who could run, as if Satan were after him, from a frightened coon; who could hound five dogs on to the creature after he had once fought them all off; and after all have the cheek to make a speech over the remains of the victim of such foul play, ought to have a monument himself,—but it should be one of everlasting disgrace; his assistant, Mr. Armour, should have one by his side. I would not trust the interests of a human being to men who would treat a beast with such contemptible meanness.

RIGHTEOUS INDIGNATION.

THE "BOARDING SCHOOL."

This evening, at Music hall, Minnie Palmer's "Boarding School" will open. The piece is of the same class as "Hobbies," and is said to be even more amusing than that ridiculously comical production; if it is only half as good, it is a good show. The Boston Herald says of it:

Miss Minnie Palmer and her company last evening appeared at the Gaiety theatre in the new play written for her by Mr. C. P. Brown, and entitled Minnie Palmer's "Boarding School." The piece is a farcial concoit in two acts, the first of which is laid in the home of Jessie Fairlove, and the second at the Alpha academy; and it illustrates the adventures of a merry madcap of a girl, Jessie (Miss Palmer,) whose mother, to prevent her receiving the attentions of Henry Hamilton, sends her to a boarding school. Here she engages in the wildest of pranks, but is not detected, and all the blame is laid to David Doodle, (Mr. W. J. Scanlan,) who is unlucky enough to fall into all the traps that are laid for him.

The Philadelphia Times says "the entertainment is a funny one, and its acceptability cannot be disputed." The Chicago Times says "Miss Palmer is a surprisingly pretty little lady in whose style naivete and vivacity are delightfully combined. She sings well, and dances like a fairy. Mr. Scanlan's acting is pervaded by a genial good humor, and his singing and dancing are highly enjoyable." And the Cincinnati Enquirer says "Minnie Palmer is probably the most beautiful little soubrette in the profession."

POLICE COURT.

Phillip H. Fitz was before the court on Wednesday forenoon of this week, charged with selling liquor; adjudged probably guilty, and bound over in $200 for his appearance at the April term of the supreme court. He belongs in Salem, N. H.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The steamer My-tic went on the ways at Kittery, Wednesday afternoon of this week.

The letter of license granted to Rev. Henry A. Wales of Biddeford by the Universalist, conference of Massachusetts, dated June 18th, 1878, has expired by limitation and has not been renewed; consequently his connection with the Universalist denomination, through that conference, is dissolved.

The city marshal and police of Biddeford on Monday night of this week raided the house of Triffle Mounette, captured twenty gallons of whiskey, and found a lot of empty whiskey barrels in his cellar. Mounette, who had a nice time selling liquor during the year past, under the "fusion reform" city government, has cleared out.

New Publications.

Realties of Irish life, by W. Stewart French; Boston; Roberts Brothers; for sale in Portsmouth by W. G. Myers, price $1.00. This is the republication in this country of a series of sketches, written, some of them, many years ago, by a gentleman who as agent for an English Lord and in other relations had passed many years in Ireland. One of the objects in presenting these sketches was to give to Englishmen some ideas of the difficulties which beset the path of the Irish landlord or agent who may desire to improve the district in which his landed possession are situated, and to inform the world at large as to the facts concerning Ireland and her inhabitants. The sketches are a truthful narration of events covering a period of fifty years, told in a pleasing style, and to all interested in the Irish nation, or who enjoy the description of Irish characteristics, there can be but an unabated interest in their perusal. The frequent use of the first person singular in the book is explained in the fact that the events narrated occurred for the most part under the eye of the writer of the sketches.

A Senate Scene.

A glance at the senate galleries to-day, says a Washington correspondent, revealed the presence there of certain persons whose hostility towards other persons in the chamber below has recently excited much comment. In a prominent place in the ladies' gallery sat Jessie Raymond, who has sued Senator Hill, of Georgia, for seduction, and in her arms she held her boy, whom she has named Thomas Hill. Below, in his chair, sat Senator Hill with his little grandson on his knee. In another section of the ladies' gallery could be seen Miss Lucy Horton, of Alabama, who alleges that the son of Senator Morgan, and the clerk of his committee, betrayed her, and who shot young Morgan in the shoulder while he was walking on a street in this city, several weeks ago. On a sofa in the senate chamber below, in full view of Miss Horton, was the young man in whose shoulder she put the bullet.

It is quite notable that since the departure of Jessie Raymond and her little son, Tommy Hill, Senator Hill does not go around with such a depressed look on his face. He is now more sociably inclined toward his senatorial associates, and seems relieved from a terrible trouble. The capitol police are no longer in fear of war, and those who were detailed specially to see that Miss Raymond did not place "Tommy" Hill in the arms of his claimed father, the senator, have returned to their regular duties. The opinion prevails among senators who are willing to discuss the case that Senator Hill furnished the money which conveyed Jessie Raymond back to Atlanta, Georgia. Up to the time when the police court here refused the request of Mr. Hill to interfere with the actions of the woman, she appeared in a desperate state of mind. The very next day she had plenty of money, and took her boy and started south.—Washington cor. Boston Traveller.

A Land Without Elopements.

Elopements are not believed in in Lapland, for if a man marries a maid without her parents' consent the penalty is death. When a young man has formed an attachment to a female the fashion is to call their friends to meet, to behold the young parties run a race together. The maid is allowed in starting the advantage of a third part of the race, so that it is impossible, except willing of herself, that she should be overtaken. If a maid outruns her suiter the matter is ended; he must never have her, it being penal for the man to renew the motion for marriage. But if the virgin has an affection for him, though at first she runs hard to try the truth of his love, she will (without Atlanta's golden balls to retard her speed) pretend to meet some casualty, and voluntarily halt before she comes to the mark or the end of the race. Thus none are compelled to marry against their wishes, and this is the cause why in that poor country the married people are richer in their contentment than in other lands, where so many forced matches make feigned love and cause real unhappiness.

Sad Fate of a Spring Poet.

It is our grateful duty to record a case of veritable poetical justice meted out to one of those eccentricities of fate known as Oakland poets. It seems that the rhymester in question recently undertook to forestall the spring poetry market by working off the usual ode to that season. This was taking a mean advantage of his fellow poets, but the one in question evidently considered that the "first come, first served" rule applied to the arts as well as business. In order to further insure his wares publicity, he resorted to the not-unusual device among amateur poets and other gratuitous writers of making manifold copies of his poem and sending one to each of the fourteen local papers, whose editors he had severally so often besieged before. Now, as the death of this particular Oakland genius, or his effectual extinguishment, had long become a matter of positive necessity to said editors, they took this occasion to put up a job on the bard. They one and all returned notes gravely informing him that his lines had been accepted, and would appear just a week from that date. Here was a scrape. The poet saw at once that by hook or by crook he must withdraw just thirteen of his manuscripts before the appointed day. He at once set to work, and though flattered and amazed by the reluctance with which the editors returned his effusion, he succeeded late on the sixth day, after incredible labor, in preventing the publication in all but one, the most prominent journal of the lot—that is to say, the Evening Post. The amount of ingenious lying, as well as beer money, expended by the poet in doing this was something enormous, and rendered him a more complete financial and moral wreck than is usual even in an Oakland poet. Thoroughly exhausted by his reclamatory efforts, he went home, after ordering a hundred copies of this admirably conducted journal for the following day. The next afternoon he searched their perfidious columns, "Thoughts on the Approach of Spring" were nowhere to be found. Suddenly the whole hoax—the whole base conspiracy—flashed upon him, and, with a wild shriek, the embryo Longfellow fell to the earth in convulsions.

That was only two weeks ago, and today the visitor to the Napa insane asylum has his attention directed by horrible yells to one cell in particular. In it the emaciated figure of a long-haired young man can be seen bending devoutly over a pile of old newspapers, eagerly searching for something that is never found. The walls are covered with poems headed "Ode to a Bumble Bee," "Lines to Gussie on Leaving School," etc. It is the Oakland poet.—Derrick Dodd, in San Francisco Post.

Easter in Russia.

In Russia, fasting during the season of Lent is most rigidly observed, and the people make up for lost time in Easter week, which is given over to the most unreasonable gluttony. Among the peasantry, black, heavy cakes, filled with plums, take the same place in the least as the hot cross buns of London, and enough they are almost bodiless lots, it is a point of honor to eat as much as possible. The result, according to Russian physicians, is that a greater mortality follows Easter week than any other of the year, and the benefit of medication during Lent are altogether lost. The Easter festival is the greatest of the whole year in Russia. When two friends meet, they not only exchange colored Easter eggs, but they kiss each other heartily on both cheeks, a ceremony preceding far half grown, tempted most, perhaps, only enough to recall to mind forgotten sins. At the same time, one exclaims "Christ is risen," and the friend replies "He is risen, indeed." These ceremonies completed, the two go their ways. It is interesting, but it takes time, where one has a large acquaintance.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which ionstitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name: no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

The Gem of the Sierra Mountains.

Lake Tahoe is not appreciated by the present generation as it should be, or as it will be by the next and the next. The time is not far distant when a railroad will encircle its shores, and it will be studded with lovely summer residences, cottages, villas, and grand hotels; the resort in the summer of the wealth, fashion, wit, and genius of the Pacific coast, and rival in its attraction Geneva, Como, or Maggiora. It is said there are thirty-two streams coming down from the snow into the lake (the fishermen call them creeks), ranging in dimensions from the tiny brook to the roaring torrent, tumbling in cascades into Emerald bay. To the tired, weary denizens of the plains of California—over-worked, and sick of the summer heat, and dust, and smoke—nothing better in the way of recreation, enjoyment, comfort and health can be imagined than a ramble among the streams and woods in this region on the perfect summer days one finds here in June, July, and August. The spectacle of the full moon rising across the lake, as seen from Tahoe City; the beautiful snow-flower, bursting out of the ground as the snow melts, like a grand piece of crimson wax-work; the tree-fast, as Horace Greeley called it; the myriads of trout in lake and streams, and many other objects, each and all of which are worth a visit. The purity of the air and water cannot be excelled.—Calaveras Chronicle.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. —*Concord (N. SKIN DISEASES.

A severe case of five years' duration entirely cured.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—For the benefit of the world I wish to make this statement: I have been afflicted with a skin disease for about five years, and have tried almost everything that I could hear of, without any relief until I saw your CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised, and concluded to try them.

I certify that I only used them about six weeks until I was entirely well, but for one I continued using them, my face, breast, and back were almost a solid scab, and I often scratched the blood from my body. I am now entire y well and think your CUTICURA REMEDIES are the best for skin diseases that ever was brought before the public.

Very gratefully yours, F. M. FOX.

CADDO, IND. TER., Feb. 21, 1879.

SALT RHEUM.

Helpless for eight years—Unable to walk. Got about on hands and knees. A wonderful cure.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had a most wonderful cure of Salt Rheum. For eight years I suffered with Salt Rheum; I had it on my head, face, neck, arms, and legs. I was not able to walk, only on my hands and knees, for one year. I have not been able to help myself for eight years. I tried hundreds of remedies; not one had the least effect. The doctors said no cure was incurable. So my parents tried everything that came along. I saw your advertisement and concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. The first box of CUTICURA brought the Humor to the surface of my skin. It would drop off as it came out, until now I am entirely well. All I can say is, I thank you most heartily for my cure. Any person who thinks this letter a fraud, let them write or come and see me and find out for themselves.

Yours truly, WILL McDONALD.

THE

New Hampshire Gazette

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of news, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire Items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs,

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

Diseases of the pulmonary organs are prevalent and fatal, that a safe and reliable remedy for them is invaluable to every community. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and its wonderful efficacy merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medical principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, and uniformity of results, which enables physicians as well as invalids to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs that science has yet discovered. It is fashioned on the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt and certain relief, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and judicious use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in sudden attacks, in Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

The marvellous cures which AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. An important test of its virtues is the most acceptable of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its superiority over all other preparations for pulmonary complaints.

Eminent physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL to invalids, and prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proved its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.

SHAKERS'

SARSAPARILLA

Prepared by the Canterbury bakers from the roots of Sarsaparilla, Stillingia, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Gargets, Indian Hemp, and the Berries of Juniper and Cubeb, united with Iodides of Potassium and the Iodide of Iron.

It is as the first as well as it is the best and purest of strengthening and purifying medicines called Sarsaparilla, being totally unlike anything in the variety, quality and quantity of its precious properties. It has been prescribed as the best by physicians and druggists for more than fifty years.

Gentlemen,—You ask my opinion of your Compound syrup of Sarsaparilla, and I cheerfully and my testimony in favor of its use, especially in the scrofulous diatheses. I speak with confidence in regard to its curative qualities, for I have used it extensively in my practice for the past eight or years. I have long considered it more valuable than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla with which I am acquainted, and I recommend it to my professional brethren who are not already familiar with its effects. Yours very truly,

S. M. DINSMORE, M. D.

FRANCESTOWN, N. H., Dec. 2, 1878.

The Shakers' Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood of scrofula and scrofulous humors, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures disorders of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs, purifies the female system of weaknesses and debilitating humors, and eradicates the deep seated taints of hereditary diseases in children and youth. It is truly a wonderful medicine for general and nervous debility, emaciation and dropsy.

Druggists may warrant as genuine every bottle bearing the signature of Thos. Corbett, its inventor.

Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

Nellie's Leap-Year Proposal.

"Really, Catherine, I don't wonder at Mary's surprise at your behavior. You forget you are Frank's widow. You are too forward."

I hesitated a moment, really anxious to keep my temper; for I was Frank's widow and the speaker was his mother.

"Forward?" cried Mary. "Indeed you would have been shocked last night, mother. There was Mr. Vance urging her to sing, and she acting as if Herbert Halstead was her only friend, when it was only as a married woman—"

"Yes," interrupted Julia. "I think, mother, if you can't make Kate realize that she is married, with a daughter nearly six years of age, you had better ——"

"Send me away," I broke in, unable longer to control myself; "It's not the first time that hint has been thrown out, and if it were not for little Nellie, poor child, I would go away to earn my living at once. You drive me desperate; I declare I will marry again, and get rid of all this——" and then I burst into tears.

"Marry again! How will you do it? Oh, yes! a good joke!" cried Julia, with a shrug at my tears. "Don't you see Mary, it's leap year?" and she laughed derisively.

"Who'll you ask?" sneered Mary. "Herbert Halstead? Julia, you'd better look out!"

"You may sneer," I cried, checking my tears: I was now thoroughly angry. "But I tell you, if no one would ask me to marry him, I believe I should ask Mr. Halstead, and—he'd have me!"

I had fairly taken up their own weapons of personalities which I scorned. The moment after, ashamed of myself, I ran to my room to put on my bonnet and get out of the house. I looked in the glass, as I put on my crape bonnet, at the widow's cap and heavy veil on my head, and I saw a face to which black was very becoming, though it was not a remarkably pretty face. It looked not more than twenty-five, some say not more than twenty; but I was really twenty-four. Married at eighteen to Frank Steven, I had been married only four years, and now a widow of two. The thought of the happiness of the time and the loneliness of the two, as I looked at the face surrounded by crape, made the tears come again; but I brushed them away resolutely, and went out, knowing that a 'brisk walk' would do me more good than anything else. I went out without my darling, my inseparable companion, my little baby girl. Truth to tell, I was too angry to trust myself with the little one, who might have asked to have our conversation explained, for she had been in the room at the time. I could only hope that at five years old a child did not understand me.

Soon after I left, my mother-in-law and her daughters went out for a drive. They invited Nellie to go, but she, feeling perhaps, that they had not treated mamma well, refused. Soon the front door bell rang, and the old children, Nellie first, ran to see who was there. She managed to open the door herself, and there stood her prime favorite among the gentlemen that visited the house, Mr. Halstead, or as she had called him since her babyhood, Uncle Herbert. He had been her father's chum and dearest friend, and loved the child for Frank's sake.

"Ladies home, Nell?"

"I'm home," she said, "and I dess mamma'll be in soon."

"Very well. Let's go in the parlor and have a chat."

Nellie sat in his lap, discussing the merits of cocoanut cakes and sugar almonds a little while; but suddenly dropping her candies in her lap, she asked, "What's leap——leap——leap, I forget? Do you know what's it?"

"Leap? leap frog? leap year? Is that it?"

"Yes. What is it?"

"Why, it's a year when you ladies can ask the gentlemen to marry you. But you see, Nellie, you're too young—you wouldn't you ask me?"

"O no! I wouldn't ask you. Mamma's going to ask you."

The young man nearly dropped the child, and then folded her close to him, lest perhaps he should forget her again.

"What do you mean, darling" he asked.

"Now think, Nellie, but don't tell Uncle Herbert anything of your own make-up."

"Oh no! really, truly, bless me, she's alive—isn't that what you say when you are true? Well"—the little tot gave a long sigh and paused, Herbert not daring to interrupt her lest she should see his anxiety, and, miniature woman that she was, should refuse to satisfy him.

"Well," she repeated, "you see they does scold mamma so, they does. To-day morning they naked mamma cry, to-morrow (she would call yesterday to-morrow) they scolded her because she wouldn't sing, and then they said she was forward. What's forward?"

"Forward indeed!" ejaculated Herbert under his breath. "If it had been some others now. But Nellie, how about leap year?"

"Oh, yes! I most fordot, didn't I? Well you see mamma said—but, oh, Uncle Herbert, I never showed you my two weenie new little kittens? They's only little sings, wivout eyes. Come out to the piazza and I'll show you."

It was no use to be impatient. The young man knew the child too well for that, and so they went out and inspected the kittens. Then he tried to coax Nellie back to the subject.

"Oh, I fordot!" she said. Only they made mamma say—"

"What did they say, darling? I'll give you a big doll—"

"With real hair?"

"Yes, yes! Real hair and eyes, and—oh, nothing. But did they say I wanted to marry—"

"They said mamma wasn't a girl, and she was old; and mamma said—oh; there's mamma. Mamma, didn't you ask Uncle Herbert to marry you? He wants to know."

I had come in, looking for the child, and that was the speech I heard. I felt ready to sink with mortification.

"Kate, darling, can't I hope you'll let me ask? You must know that I hoped when these (touching my veil and black dress) were put aside, that I could ask you to let me care for you, and at once. Come darling," as I hid my face in my hands. "You asked me to marry you, and I must name the date; and I say now, at once. Let's give them a good, thorough surprise. I can guess how they have treated you. Come now; get ready this hairy, this blessed little darling, that has brought me my happiness, and we'll go to your own minister."

I tried to refuse, but I was so weary of living with mother-in-law, that at last we three slipped out of the house; and dear Dr. S——, who had baptized me, and married me to Frank, and knew Herbert well, married us.

We drove back and reached the front door as the family were returning. Julia, who would appropriate Herbert, stepped forward.

"Good evening, Mr. Halstead. So you met Kate on the steps? Strange!"—with a glance at me, as if I had planned to meet him.

"Not at all, Miss Julia," said Herbert. "My wife and I just call in to receive your congratulations and to leave little Midget here for a few days."

No tableaux I have ever seen was half so comical as the one those three made. I really felt for Julia, for I knew she cared for Herbert. She got out self-possession quickly, and congratulated me, whispering as she kissed me: "So you asked him?"

My husband heard and answered.

"No, Miss Julia, she didn't ask me. Through other means, I learned the one I loved was unhappy; and as I hoped for more than a year past, to soon ask her to be my wife, I persuaded her to marry me at once. Leap year privileges are still open for those who choose to use them."

We are quite an old married couple now, for three years have passed, but Herbert and I still often laugh over Nellie's leap year proposal.

FRIDAY, APRIL 2, 1880.

A "Cheeky" Set.

Chase, Fogg and Brown, ex-members of Gov. Garcelon's extraordinary council, at a recent session held in Portland despatched a messenger to Augusta to inspect the election returns. The people long since were satisfied that these worthies belonged to the cheeky class of individuals, but this was the most impudent piece of business we have heard of for a long time. Mark Harden was commissioned to carry the message, which he did about nine o'clock one evening. He didn't find the secretary of state, but called on his deputy and presented the following letter, and demanded a reply in writing:

Dear Sir—Having observed the issue of the report made by the so-called Hale investigating committee, and that said report charges that the returns of the last state election have been altered, said changed, and the undersigned are charged with others, as being responsible for said alterations and changes, we therefore ask and demand that we may immediately be allowed to inspect said returns in order that we may refute the charges made by said committee, said charges being false in every particular.

It is needless to say that this insolent note was treated with the contempt it deserved.

Garcelon has turned in to the state treasurer the unexpended portion of the public money which he illegally took away with him when he retired from the office he disgraced.

News and Notes.

Ex-policeman Clay, of New York, hanged himself the other day in a fit of delirium tremens. His daughter, aged nine years, discovered him, and with rare presence of mind cut him down before life was extinct. He was resuscitated.

Information has been received at West Cummington, Mass., that Joseph Carpenter, who went from there to the Black Hills a year ago, accidentally shot an Indian squaw while hunting deer in a thicket, and being captured by the Indians, was skinned alive, and then forced to walk till nature gave way, and he fell dead.

Gabriel Newman, twenty-five years old, arrived at New York from Germany two weeks ago, and found employment in a tailor's shop. He was seated on a bench in the shop stitching a coat a few evenings ago, when Harris Levy, another workman, returned from his supper. Levy, who is seventeen years old, and fond of frolic, saw an old navy revolver lying on a shelf in the shop. Levy took up the revolver and said to Newman, "Look out; this old thing may explode." As he spoke he turned the muzzle of the weapon towards Newmen, and pulled the trigger. The pistol promptly exploded, and shot Newman in the right eye, from which he is expected to die.

News comes from Fort Ewell, La Salle county, Texas, that a detachment of Hall's state troops had a fight on the 29th ult. at Crasy & Case's ranche with Mexican desperadoes. The rangers attempted to arrest an offender, and were attacked. Thirty shots were exchanged, and two Mexicans killed and one wounded; and a young man named Peter Johnson, recently from Philadelphia, was killed by a stray bullet.

At Leadville, Col., on the night of March 30th, F. A. Prentice insulted a lady who was in company with F. C. Dixon, and in the quarrel which ensued shot Dixon dead. The murderer was arrested.

A man calling himself Frank Howard, an I who had operated in Charlestown, W. Va., as a confidence man, was shot on the 29th ult., at Peytona, on Coal river, West Virginia, by a man named Atkens, who claims that he did it in self-defense.

Both houses of the Kentucky legislature have passed the bill providing that the death penalty shall hereafter be inflicted in some inclosure close to the prison where the criminal is confined, in the presence of not exceeding fifty persons.

The Egyptian obelisk destined for New York was successfully embarked at Alexandria on the 31st ult., by Lieut. Comdr. Gorringe.

The agent of the Boston herring company estimates that nearly $100,000 have been paid out to the fishermen in the vicinity of Eastport for frozen herring during the past winter. A gentleman at St. Andrews, N. B., says the fishermen of the bay have received nearly $200,000 in cash, most of the fishermen getting about $300 each for their winter's work. The average price for herring was thirty cents per hundred.

New Hampshire Items.

The senate on the 31st ult. confirmed Joseph C. A. Wingate as consul at Foo Chow, China.

The city government of Concord has appropriated $5,000 to establish an electric fire alarm.

William Taylor shot John Durgin, at Woodstock, Wednesday morning, 31st ult., with a shot-gun, badly shattering his arm. He claims it was an accident.

In special town meeting at Boscawen, on the 31st ult., it was voted to exempt from taxation for the term of ten years the large cotton factory which the Contoocook company propose to soon build at Fisherville.

The 60th anniversary of the organization of Odd Fellowship in the United States will be celebrated in Manchester, on the 25th of April. There will be a parade, a banquet, and a grand ball in the evening. Encampments of patriarchs are expected from Haverhill, Lawrence, Lowell and Fitchburg, Mass.

The Catholics of Manchester are making arrangements to build a large new grammar school building on the corner of Birch and Lowell streets. They have a large and constantly increasing number of pupils in the city, and their schools are said to be in fine condition.

It is reported that Mr. Edwin Fernald, proprietor of the Great Falls Journal, has sold out his interest in that paper. The new proprietors are known as the Journal Publishing Co., with J. Nelson as manager, and W. H. Holden as editor.

In the United States senate, March 30th, Mr. Rollins presented the petition of M. S. Sargent and others, praying that a suitable appropriation be made by congress for the improvement of the navigation of Lake Winnepesaukee, which was referred to the committee on commerce. Mr. Rollins also presented the petition of A. A. Woolson and others, praying for the removal of the United States circuit and district courts from Exeter to Concord, which was referred to the committee on the judiciary.

A man named Tetherly, of Rochester, has been committed to Dover jail to await trial at the September term of the supreme court, for immoral conduct with a thirteen-years-old girl named Bragdon. Tetherly is a shoe-maker, is married and has several children.

Naval Gazette.

The house committee on naval affairs has agreed to report favorably a bill according to Capt. Egbert Thompson, now on the retired list, the rank of commodore.

The U. S. S. Constellation passed to sea from New York harbor March 30th.

The Tuscarora was at Mazatlan on the 15th ult.

Political.

Tilden is evidently not anxious to be "vindicated" by the courts. Upon the application of his counsel, the trial of the Tilden income-tax suit has been postponed until November next.

The Charleston (S. C.) News expresses the opinion that Georgia must be prepared, as South Carolina is, to fight independentism all along the line this summer, or the bottom of the democratic party will drop out in November.

The election in San Francisco resulted in an overwhelming defeat of the party led by Kearney and Kalloch. The result may be accepted as evidence that a great number of workingmen have tired of agitation and Kearneyism, and are prepared to unite in an effort to restore confidence and forward business activities. The vote shows that the republicans cast nearly a full vote, as compared with the election of last September, the falling off having manifested itself among the workingmen and their democratic allies. A small democratic element undoubtedly helped the citizens' vote. The result causes the greatest satisfaction, and is expected to have a marked good effect upon public interests on the Pacific coast.

New Publications.

The American Journal of the Medical Sciences (quarterly—$5 per year) for April is received from Henry C. Lea's Son & Co., Philadelphia. It contains the usual large quantity of reading matter, of interest and value to the medical profession.

Andrews' Bazar for April will be welcomed by all ladies interested in the mysteries of the toilette. The styles of Andrews' Bazar are justly popular, and those in the April number are new and in advance of those of any other publication. When we consider the superior attractions presented by this excellent family paper, its subscription price only one dollar per annum, and see that every subscriber is presented free with fifty cents' worth of Andrews' Pinned Paper Fashions, we are obliged to acknowledge it as at least one case where the reading public get full value received for the money they expend. We would advise those of our readers who are unacquainted with the merits of the Bazar to send ten cents, for a sample copy, to W. R. Andrews, publisher, Tribune building, New York city.

Workingmen.

Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an attack of ague, bilious or spring fever, or some other spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait.—Burlington Hawkeye.

—"The pain caused by the sting of an insect, is the result of a certain amount of acid poison injected into the blood," says a physician. If a man will always recall this fact to memory when he hurts himself with a hornet, it will prove a great consolation to him.—Boston Post.

"Persons suffering from impure blood, or whose health is giving away, either as ministers or those who study closely, will find in Fellows' Hypophosphites Syrup the material to build them up and the tonic to keep them there.

DR. C. CLAY.

—Dr. Monroe of the Seymour Times gives explicit information on the interesting subject, "How to tell a lie." It is evident that the doctor is an old master at the business. He says: "In telling a lie it is always best to look a man straight in the face. Some people think you can't do this, but with a little practice you will find you can, though your left eye may bat a little."

There's not a charm that light's the face
With so ineffable a grace,
As sweet, pink lips and ivory teeth;
And nothing now, beneath the sky,
Can beauties such as these supply,
Save SOZODONT, that wears the wreath.

Brown's Household Panacea

Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quicken the blood whether taken internally or applied externally, and thereby more certainly relieve pain, whether chronic or acute, than any other pain alleviator, and it is warranted double the strength of any similar preparation.

It cures pain in the side, back or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache and all aches.

The great reliever of pain "Brown's Household Panacea," should be in every family. A teaspoonful of the Panacea in a tumbler of hot water (sweetened, if preferred), taken at bedtime, will break up a cold. 25 cents a bottle.

Much Sickness,

Undoubtedly with children attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. Brown's Vermifuge Comfits, or Worm Lozenges, although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be absolutely sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children. Twenty five cents a box. t,th&f

THE WEATHER.

Probabilities for New England, To-day.

WASHINGTON, April 2, 1:30 A. M.

Clear or partly cloudy weather, light variable winds, shifting to east or south, stationary temperature, generally higher barometer.

AROUND HOME.

The schooner Mary Willey is fitting out, and will commence making trips to Bangor as soon as she can be got ready.

Commander C. C. Carpenter, U. S. N., of this city, was before the board at Washington, March 31st, for examination for promotion to the rank of captain.

The entertainment club of the Rockingham Lodge, I. O. O. G., will give an entertainment in the Methodist vestry this (Friday) evening at half-seven o'clock.

Special meeting of Storer Encampment Post 1, G. A. R., will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is requested, as business of importance is to be acted upon.

Tickets for "All the Rage" go on sale this forenoon at nine o'clock, at Preston's. One section of Music hall has been reserved for Dover, and the prospect is that between 250 and 300 people will come down from that city next Wednesday evening to attend this show.

We are informed that sons have been born to each of the following-named residents of this city within a week past: Andrew Buckley, Lawrence Cotter, David Slaney, Patrick Dow, Patrick Scanlon, Martin Garrity, David Flynn and Herbert A. Marden. And daughters to Fred B. Coleman and Wm. Horn.

A tramp supplimented his appeal to a benevolent lady of this city for some clothing, on the Saturday before Easter, with the remark in a plaintive tone, "I shall feel awful bad if I don't have a clean shirt to put on, Easter morning." The desired raiment was furnished, out of regard for the pious sentimentality of the wayfaring man.

The four-story building on the northeast corner of Market street and Commercial alley is to be remodelled, and made into a three-story building, with a store on the ground floor eighty feet deep from front to rear, thirty-five feet wide, and fourteen feet high in the clear, with two plate-glass show windows on the street front, each nine feet square. This will be the largest store in the state.

There was a grand smash in sewing machines at the office in this city of the Singer M'f'g Co., No. 22 Market street, on Tuesday of this week, when sixty old machines, the aggregate weight of which was 1050 lbs., were broken up and sold for old iron. These machines were all received in exchange for "New Genuine Singers," in less than a year. This office is the only place in the city where old machines are taken in exchange for the new Singers.

Mark Harris, recently a freight engineer on the Eastern railroad, has left for parts unknown, consequent on getting into trouble at Beverly, Mass. Charles Porter, a butcher of Beverly, has for some time suspected his wife of improper intimacy with Harris, and on Wednesday, the 31st ult., laid a trap for the pair which resulted in the full confirmation of his worst suspicions. Porter endeavored to shoot Harris on the spot, but the revolver snapped harmlessly, and Harris escaped. Harris immediately went to Boston, drew what pay was due him, and cleared out. Mrs. Porter took her infant child and followed her paramour to Boston.

The Boston Post of Thursday says: "The friends of Edwin A. Peterson, a retired New York merchant residing for some years past in Greenland, present him as a suitable candidate for the democratic nomination in the first congressional district. Hon. Thomas J. Smith of Dover is frequently mentioned as a worthy man to succeed Congressman Joshua G. Hall; Mr. Smith is a true blue democrat, but as much might be said of several others who would take the nomination if tendered them." Taking the nomination is one thing, and getting elected another and a very different one; this district is republican, and Congressman Hall's successor will be a republican—very possibly named Hall.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, April 1; Batchelder, J.

Elmer Tuttle, for breaking and entering the store of Mr. Young in Newmarket on the night of March 1st, and stealing $4 in money and a plug of tobacco, was held in $400 for trial at a higher court; he pleaded guilty; jail in default of bail. Tuttle is the person who was "sent up" several years ago for stealing lead pipe, etc., from unoccupied houses in this city, the case against him being worked up by Ozro J. Hobbs, at that time the efficient assistant marshal of the city. On this last case, for burglary, Tuttle "gave himself dead away." He was charged with some trifling offence some time ago, and Officer Moore meeting him said, "You're just the man I want;" to which Tuttle answered, "I know well enough what you want me for." "Well, what is it for?" said the officer, to which Tuttle responded, "For breaking into that store in Newmarket." "You've hit it just right this time," said Moore, and in a few minutes he was in possession of all the particulars of the burglary.

Jerry Murphy, for being drunk (as usual) was sent to Brentwood for thirty days, costs being taxed at $6.90. An old complaint for the same offence, which was on file, was brought forward, and on this the same sentence was imposed.

William Hurley, for drunkenness, was sent to Brentwood for sixty days, and ordered to pay costs amounting to $6.90. On the 15th of March last Hurley was before the court on complaints of assaulting and battering his wife and her mother, but the batt red complainants did not appear against him when the cases came to trial, so the court was compelled to let him off.

This was the liveliest day's work in the court for some weeks.

THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE.

The following letter to the Boston Herald carries with it its own explanation:

May I be allowed to correct a statement made in the Herald of last Sunday that "fifteen members of the chorus of 'The Pirates of Penzance' had been engaged by Mr. Rice to swell the chorus of Rice's Surprise Party at the Globe theatre?" This is a mistake, although overtures were made to secure certain lady and gentlemen singers to remain in Boston. None, however, were secured, and, with the exception of two people, I have exactly the same cast for New England cities, with every member of the chorus that has appeared in New York and Boston. Very truly yours,

J. B. POND.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY TEMPERANCE ASSOCIATION.

The third meeting of the Rockingham County Temperance Association was held in the Congregational church at Raymond on Thursday, April 1st. The house was filled with an appreciative audience, and the resolutions were discussed in a happy and spirited manner. The subject of signing the petition in favor of the release of Thomas E. Drake was discussed freely. The resolutions presented were debated in such a lively manner as to prove that the people present were specially interested in the subject of temperance. The following were the resolutions adopted by the association:

Resolved: That the history of the past proves conclusively that we cannot expect to have the prohibitory laws enforced, until we elect officers in full sympathy with the object sought to be accomplished.

Resolved: That as temperance workers we will use our influence in our several homes to have the children taught the efforts of alcohol on the human system, that they may grow up intelligent temperance men and women; and that we recommend the use of scientific temperance lesson books in our public schools.

Resolved, That as the use of intoxicating drinks disqualifies the mind for the due consideration of revealed truth, it becomes all who believe in the necessity of regeneration and a living faith in Christ in this life to prepare the soul for an immortality of holy blessedness, to be most active in work for the suppression of dram shops and the use of all intoxicating drinks.

Resolved, That intemperance is fraught with so many dire evils that no philanthropist should rest while any groggeries exist, or intoxicating drinks are used.

Resolved, That as groggeries are the occasion of a large proportion of our taxes, political economy requires immediate and efficient action for their entire suppression.

Good music was furnished by a choir led by Mr. C. A. Shepherd of Raymond.

An excellent repast was given the delegates at noon. The next meeting will be held at Candia, Thursday, May 6th.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, regular meeting, Thursday evening:

Pay roll of fire department, amounting to $1457.92 was ordered to be paid.

Mr. Daniel W. Trefethen was permitted to encumber side walk on Market square front of the Peirce block for building purposes.

The Howard Benevolent society were allowed to encumber High street to open drain for sewerage purposes.

The request of the Portsmouth & Concord railroad to lay a temporary track across Market street, was referred to the committee on streets, and the mayor.

A petition signed by several citizens, that the present regulations of the fire alarm remain unchanged, was accepted.

A petition for the repairing and completion of the paving of sidewalk on Summer and Middle streets, was referred to committee on streets to report.

Mr. Frederick W. Rogers, ward one, Mr. Joseph G. Harvey, ward two, Mr. Frank W. Rand, ward three, and George S. Leach, ward four, were elected to take the vital statistics.

Adjourned for two weeks.

YORK COUNTY ITEMS.

The Local Record of North Berwick reports the village as "very quiet at present, there being nothing to mar our happiness excepting mud and greenbackers."

On the night of the 29th ult. obstructions were placed on the Boston & Maine railroad track near Biddeford with the probable intention of throwing off a train, but were discovered by the down freight in time to stop the train, and the obstructions were removed. Two boys in gray clothes, supposed to be "escapes" from the reform school, were seen running from the place, but the train men could not catch them.

The New York Pier company have petitioned the city of Saco for permission to erect their pier at Old Orchard. It will be built of iron piling, to commence with a structure seventy-five feet square, and to continue thence into the sea at a right angle with the shore, 1,500 feet, with a width of twenty-five feet, there to terminate with a structure about 175 feet square. The parties who have the building of the Old Orchard & Ferry Beach railroad in hand say that that road shall be completed near the 15th of June, in time for a grand celebration of the completion and the opening of the railroad and pier.

Listen to This.

The unbiased opinion of some of the most intelligent medical men in this country and Europe, support the statement that Kidney-Wort is the greatest discovery yet, for curing Kidney and liver troubles, piles and constipation. It acts on both kidneys and bowels at the same time and thus cleanses the whole system.

—A youngster, while warming his hands at the fire, was remonstrated with by his father, who said: "Go away from the fire; the weather is not cold." "I ain't heating the weather; I'm warming my hands," the little fellow demurely replied.

A Good Housewife.

The good housewife, when she is giving her house its spring renovating, should bear in mind that the dear inmates of her house are more precious than many houses, and that their systems need cleansing by purifying the blood, regulating the stomach and bowels to prevent and cure the diseases arising from spring malaria and miasma, and she must know that there is nothing that will do it so perfectly and surely as Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines. —Concord (N. H.) Patriot.

—He was charged with being drunk. "No, your honor, I was not." He was tried and found guilty; in fact, he was hardly sober then. "I'll give you ten days or ten dollars," said the Judge, as he tossed the papers aside. "Then your honor," said Pat, "give me ten dollars."

Women that have been given up by their dearest friends as beyond help, have been permanently cured by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a positive cure for all female complaints. Send to Mrs. Lydia Pinkham, 233 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—It is a secret known to but few, yet of no small use in the conduct of life, that when you fall into a man's conversation, the first thing you should consider is whether he has a greater inclination to hear you, or that you should hear him.—Steele.

Equally adapted to the feeble or robust, male or female, are Malt Bitters.

—A Montville, Conn., parson recently read a hymn of eight verses, and the chorister directed the choir to omit three of them. This was done, and everybody seemed satisfied but the dominie, and he, as soon as the audience had turned to receive the benediction, arose, and with quivering nostril and flashing eye extended the fore-finger of his right hand toward the leader of the singers, and uttered the following explosive: "When I want that choir to omit verses from a hymn hereafter, I will mention the fact."

Pure water, fresh air, sunlight, and a bottle of Adamson's Botanic Balsam (in case of coughs or colds) will save many doctors' bills and give health and vigor that no money can procure.

—American tradesmen who claim genius for advertising, should listen to a Berlin grocer, who thus informs the public, through the Borsen Zeitung: "Twins are come to me for the third time. This time a boy and a girl. I entreat my friends and patrons to support me stoutly. Excellent butter, well worth its price. Similarly, sausage and cheese."

Dropsy and Rheumatism.

Dropsical and Rheumatic persons find the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine, of New Jersey, and the Wine Bitters, of incalculable benefit. Their purity and valuable properties have given them a wide reputation among physicians throughout this country and Europe. This wine took the highest premium at the late Centennial. It is excellent for weary and debilitated females.

This wine is for sale by A. P. Preston, D. Kimball & Co., and F. B. Coleman, druggists, and H. F. Gerrish, grocer.

—Salt codfish should be classed under the head of dry goods.

FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPO-PHOS-PHITES

The Promoter and Perfector of Assimilation.

The Reformer and Vitalizer of the Blood.

The Producer and Invigorator of Nerve and Muscle.

The Builder and Supporter of Brain Power.

Fellows' Compound Syrup is composed of Ingredients identical with those which constitute Healthy Blood, Muscle and Nerve and Brain Substance, while Life Itself is directly dependent upon some of them.

By its union with the blood and its effect upon the muscles, reestablishing the one and toning the other, it is capable of effecting the following results:

It will displace or wash out tuberculous matter, and thus cure Consumption.

By Increasing Nervous and Muscular Vigor, it will cure Dyspepsia, feeble or interrupted action of the Heart and Palpitation, Weakness of Intellect caused by grief, worry, overtax, or irregular habits, Bronchitis—Acute or Chronic, Congestion of the Lungs, even in the most alarming stages.

It cures Asthma, Loss of Voice, Neuralgia, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Whooping Cough, Nervousness, and is a most wonderful adjunct to other remedies in sustaining life during the process of Diphtheria.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address J. A. FELLOWS', St. John, N. B., on the yellow wrapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light.

—The incidents occurring in Colorado every-day life fully demonstrate the uncertainty of property, and that haggard want can take wings and fly away when least expected to do so. A few days ago a young fellow in his teens, and a nobby air, visited one of the first-class jewelry stores there, and selecting an elegant gold watch and costly chain, stepped to the desk and carelessly drew his check for the amount. The jeweller somewhat dubiously examined the check, remarking that he supposed it was all right, although he did not know the customer. "Why, yes, you know me," exclaimed the young man; "my father used to do your washing, last six months ago went to Leadville, where he discovered a mine, and has sold it for $50,000." The jeweller then remembered the boy, whose statement was perfectly true.

—Not one hundred miles below Nashville is a curious spectacle known as the "Sun and Moon." It consists of a painting upon an immense rock which rises to an altitude of several hundred feet. As to who painted it is a mystery which was never unravelled. Many think it was the work of the red brother centuries ago perhaps. But lately the sun and moon have lost all the freshness of new paint. They are located midway the cliff, and stand out in bold relief. As to how any human being ever reached the spot is a question which has never been solved. It is supposed that in those days they had to erect ladders, and could not easily have reached the point from below. The only natural route at that time was a wild grapevine, upon which Tecumseh is supposed to have swung himself down the dizzy cliff, and when he had finished his work again hoisted down or pulled up. At any rate these pictures are there on the everlasting rock, and are likely to remain for future ages.
